• Black's 85 attack attempts against Baylor last Saturday is the second most by an A&M player in school history. Laura Jones (2003-05) holds the school record with 88 swings in a 3-2 victory over LSU on Sept. 10, 2005.

• Black has scored 475.5 points this season, ranking ninth in the A&M rally-scoring season records.

• A&M has played nine five-set matches this season, tying the school record for most five-set matches in a single season set in 1988 and tied in 2005. The Aggies are 2-7 in five-set matches this season.

A LOOK AT MISSOURI:

• The Tigers have won seven of their last eight matches, including each of the last five matches, to improve to 18-8 overall. Mizzou is 10-6 in Big 12 matches, good for fifth place in the conference standings, and only a half game out of third place.

• The Tigers, 8-3 in home matches, are coming off a 3-1 (23-256, 25-17, 25-19, 25-19) victory over Texas Tech on Wednesday in Columbia. Julianna Klein led the Tigers with 17 kills, and Lisa Henning and Paola Ampudia added 15 and 12 kills, respectively. Caitlyn Vann led all players with 20 digs. Tech, which was outhit, .288 to .222, had six solo blocks and outblocked the Tigers, 10-3.

• Senior outside hitter Paola Ampudia is third in the Big 12 with 4.12 kills per set for the full season and third with 4.27 kills per set in conference matches only.

• Freshman setter Molly Kreklow, the niece of Missouri head coach Wayne Kreklow, leads the Big 12 and is ranked 11th in the nation with 11.71 assists per set.

• Missouri leads the Big 12 with 1.20 aces per set in conference matches only. Senior outside hitter Julianna Klein leads the league with 0.37 aces per set in Big 12 matches only, and senior libero Caitlyn Vann is second in the league with 0.27 aces per set in Big 12 matches only.

• The Tigers, who placed seventh in the Big 12 last year, were picked to finish fifth this year, according to a preseason poll of the league's head coaches. Senior outside hitter Paola Ampudia, the 2009 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year, was named to the 2010 Preseason All-Big 12 Team, and setter Molly Kreklow was tabbed the 2010 Preseason Big 12 Freshman of the Year.

• Wayne Kreklow (Drake '80) is 109-70 in his sixth season as head coach of the Tigers.

A&M RECENT RESULTS:

A slow start proved costly to Texas A&M as Kansas topped the Aggies, 25-14, 17-25, 25-20, 22-25, 15-12, Wednesday at Reed Arena. The Jayhawks picked up their first victory in 16 trips to Aggieland and earned their first-ever season series sweep against A&M.

A&M never got in sync in the opening set, spotting the Jayhawks the first five points of the match and later trailing by as many as 11 points. Kansas used another five-point run later in the set to build a 15-4 lead. A&M got within 18-13, but consecutive kills by the Jayhawks and an A&M attack error put the Jayhawks up, 21-13. Kansas' next attack sailed long, but the Jayhawks, who outhit A&M .125 to -.106, then scored four unanswered points to close out the set.

The Aggies rebounded in the second set, hitting .412 en route to a 25-17 win to even the match. A&M used an 8-1 run to break away from a 5-5 tie and led the remainder of the set.

KU took the lead in the third set at 3-2 on an A&M attack error. The Aggies managed to tie the score five times after that, the last tie coming at 11-11 before KU posted four consecutive kills. A&M cut the gap to three points several times, the last at 21-18 following two kills by Chelsea Ringel, who had seven kills in the set. KU, however, countered with consecutive points to regain the five-point lead, and the teams exchanged sideouts for the remainder of the set.

In the fourth set, KU had taken an 18-16 lead, but the Aggies came back from a timeout and got four straight points as Kelsey Black tooled the block for a kill, Minnerly followed with a kill out of the middle and then the two teamed for a block to give A&M a 19-18 lead. Minnerly then ran the slide attack to perfection to give A&M a three-point cushion. KU managed to tie the score at 20 and 21 before Alisia Kastmo got a straight-down kill and teamed with Minnerly for a block. Black then aced a serve to put the Aggies at set point, 24-21. Allison Mayfield kept the Jayhawks alive with a kill, but Kastmo, who has played sparingly since losing her starting spot on the right side eight matches ago, countered with her fifth kill of the set to win it for the Aggies and force a fifth set.

A&M, playing in its record-tying ninth five-set match of the season, had fallen behind 10-7 in the final set but rallied late, getting a dump kill by Sawatzky, an ace by Black and a kill by Kastmo to take a 12-11 lead. A&M then lost the momentum following a KU timeout. The Aggies hit into the net, which tied the score at 12-12, Mayfield got a kill, and A&M hit long to put the Jayhawks at match point. KU, which outhit A&M, .138 to .000 in the frame, then scored its fourth straight point on Mayfield's fourth kill of the set to win the match.

Black led the Aggies with 18 kills and three aces and also pitched in 17 digs. Kastmo had 11 kills coming off the bench, and Ringel finished with 10 kills and a career-high and team-high 22 digs. Tori Mellinger also reached double figures in digs with 18, and Minnerly led all players with six blocks as A&M outblocked the Jayhawks, 12-9. Sawatzky finished with nine kills and 38 assists.

Kansas outhit A&M, .197 to .159 in the match.

UPCOMING:

A&M remains on the road, taking on Kansas State on Wednesday in Manhattan, Kan. First serve is at 7 p.m. at Ahearn Field House. The Aggies return home Sunday, Nov. 21 to host No. 14 Iowa State in a 2 p.m. match at Reed Arena.

AGGIE NOTABLES:

- Aggies defeat No. 8 Texas; win first edition of 2010 Lone Star Showdown: Texas A&M started off Big 12 Conference play with a bang, stunning No. 8 Texas, 25-22, 25-18, 25-23, on Sept. 16 at Reed Arena in the year's first edition of the State Farm Lone Star Showdown. A&M, which had not defeated the Longhorns since Oct. 16, 2004, snapped a 12-match losing skid against the rival Longhorns, who had not even dropped a set to the Aggies since 2008. The win also snapped Texas' streak of 47 consecutive wins against in-state opponents, a streak that began following A&M's 2004 victory. A crowd of 3,305, the seventh largest home crowd in A&M history, watched as the Aggies defeated a Top-10 team in their conference home opener for the second straight year, having knocked off No. 6 Nebraska last year, 3-1.
- Roster updates: The Aggies no longer have any seniors on the roster as defensive specialist Sarah Grace was granted another year of eligibility and ruled a junior athletically by the NCAA on Friday, Sept. 17, the same day she received her Aggie Ring. Grace, who played her freshman year at Baylor, is in her first season with the Aggies.

  Setter Markie Malone, a 5-11 redshirt sophomore transfer from BYU, became eligible to play on Sept. 24 and suited up for the first time when A&M hosted Texas Tech on Sept. 25.
- Black rakes in the honors: Preseason all-Big 12 team member Kelsey Black was named to the all-tournament team in each of the first two tournaments A&M participated in this season. Black hit .274 and averaged 4.36 kills, 0.91 aces, 2.82 digs and 5.27 points per set to earn all-tournament honors at the season-opening Texas A&M Invitational and then averaged 4.25 kills, 2.58 digs and 5.12 points per set to earn all-tournament honors at the Missouri State JQH Invitational in the second weekend of the season.
- Sawatzky, Two-time Big 12 Rookie of the Week: Texas A&M freshman setter Allie Sawatzky was named the Big 12 Rookie of the Week for matches played Sept. 6-12 after guiding the Aggies to three consecutive sweeps against Jacksonville State, Denver and Gonzaga. She repeated the honor on Oct. 25 after pacing the Aggies with 10.38 assists and 1.75 kills per set while hitting .500 for the week as A&M went 1-1. The 6-2 lefty has started every match for the Aggies this season and ranks sixth in the Big 12 with 9.66 assists per set in all matches. She is eighth in the league with 9.57 assists per set in conference matches only.
- Ringel, Kastmo named all-tournament: Texas A&M junior outside hitter Chelsea Ringel and sophomore right-side hitter Alisia Kastmo were named to the University of Denver's Pioneer Classic all-tournament team after leading the Aggies to a 3-0 record. It is the first all-tournament honor in the careers of both players. Ringel hit .242 and averaged 2.67 kills, 2.22 digs, 0.44 aces and 3.28 points per set to help lead A&M to consecutive sweeps against Jacksonville State, Denver and Gonzaga. She tallied a career-high 10 kills while hitting at a .429 clip and also had a personal best three aces in the victory against the host Pioneers. Kastmo hit .308 and averaged 2.62 kills, 0.75 blocks and 3.25 points per set as the Aggies improved to 6-4 on the season.
- Corbelli, 1980 U.S. Olympic Volleyball Team Inducted into Sports Hall of Fame: The 1980 U.S. Olympic Women's Volleyball Team, including Texas A&M head volleyball coach Laurie Corbelli, was inducted into the Colorado Springs Sports hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2010, on Oct. 27 at the Colorado Springs World Arena. Corbelli, however, was unable to attend the ceremony as she was directing A&M to a 3-0 victory at Texas Tech that evening. The former Laurie Flachmeier was on the 12-member 1980 U.S. Olympic Women's Volleyball Team that was considered the favorite to win the gold medal at the 1980 Olympic Games in Moscow. After a fifth-place finish at the 1978 FIVB World Championship, the team stepped up its preparation for the Games, moving to Colorado Springs to live and train full-time at the U.S. Olympic Training Center and thus becoming the first "national team in resident" experiment in Olympic sport history in the United States.
- Aggies in the Pros: Four players from A&M's 2009 team that reached the NCAA regional semifinals and was ranked No. 21 in the final poll have joined the professional ranks. All-American outside hitter Sarah Ammerman played for the Ponce Lionesses in Puerto Rico last spring and is currently playing for Nova KBM Brankik in Maribor, Slovenia. All-American right-side hitter Jennifer Banse is playing for ATSC Sparkasse Wildcats in Klagenfurt, Austria. Mary Batis is playing for USSPA Albi in Albi, France, and Jola Kelner is with VT Aurubis in Hamburg, Germany.
- Virtual Guide, Fact Book available online: The 2010 Texas A&M Volleyball Virtual Guide and the 2010 Texas A&M Volleyball Fact Book are available on the A&M volleyball website at AggieAthletics.com. Entertaining videos, colorful photos, informative player and coach bios, history of both the Aggie volleyball program and Texas A&M and much more are presented.
- Aggies on the Internet: Free video streaming of all A&M home matches, with the exception of televised matches, will be available at AggieAthletics.com. In addition, audio broadcasts of home and select away matches are slated with Ryne Hillenberg providing the play-by-play. Also home broadcasts can be heard on 95.1-3 on the FM dial of an HD Radio.
- Follow the Aggies on Twitter: Not following Aggie Volleyball on Twitter? Sign up or sign in now to find out what's happening. You will stay up-to-date on the latest news and receive live in-game updates of each and every match.
