Pagoda Vitrine

Dorothy Draper

The design and concept of the Pagoda Vitrine comes from Carleton Varney's favorite things. It is an exceptional example of Grand Rapids craftsmanship, made of Mahogany and laboriously hand carved totaling over 111 hours. Because of the complex design various details cannot be carved by machine initially. The entire top of the pagoda is completely hand carved from raw mahogany. The intricacy of the fretwork, the hand-carved tiles, the sculpted columns, and finial and the hand carved, paw feet come together as a magnificent example of artistry.
