QUOTING JEFF LEBO

(On Alabama State)

"Alabama State is very athletic and have a lot of new faces from our game with them last year. They have been solid defensively for most of the year. Their leading scorer, Menji Mundadi, is certainly capable of scoring for them."

(How do you expect the team to respond after Sunday's loss?)

"I hope they respond well. We need to respond well. We need to get something good to happen to us early offensively and defensively. Watching the game on film, they made some 30-footers over top of hands and those just kind of took any kind of energy we had right out of our body. We have to be mature enough when they make shots like that when we actually defended them pretty well that we just have to congratulate them and go down and be strong enough on the other end to get a good one ourselves. We didn't do that.

"Alabama State has been having trouble scoring the ball. In their other games, they didn't score a lot of points. Certainly, we need to be more physically defensively on them. We have to keep some of our guys on the court that we need on the floor. We can't have dumb fouls that put some of our players on the bench."

SPEED REED

Senior DeWayne Reed is averaging a team-high 15.7 points and 4.4 assists in a team-high 33.8 minutes per game this year.

He scored a career-high 24 points in the comeback win vs. Niagara and scored eight straight points to begin Auburn's amazing 11-0 game-ending run.

He also tied his career-high with 24 points in the 80-65 win over IUPUI while also making 7-of-8 free throws.

Reed scored a team-high 18 points in the 68-67 win over Virginia and scored all 17 of his points in the final 20:01 in the loss to Florida State after playing only nine first half minutes after being saddled with foul trouble.

T(R)AY WALLER

Tray Waller is averaging 13.6 points

SEASON NOTES

11-0 IN FINAL 89 SECONDS

Trailing 65-58 to Niagara with 1:30 to play in its season opener on Friday, Auburn closed with an incredible 11-0 run in the final 89 seconds for a 69-65 victory.

During the span, Reed made a conventional 3-point play with 1:29 left, stole a pass and dunked it on the other end with 52 seconds to go and then had another conventional 3-point play to close out the run.

Lucas Hargrove set up the go ahead basket with a huge game-saving block of Rob Garrison's layup with two seconds remaining.

"EASY E" 1ST FROSH TO START SEASON OPENER SINCE 2005

Earnest Ross became the first Auburn freshman to start a season opener since Quantez Robertson, Josh Dollard and Joey Cameron started the 2005-06 season opener vs. Lipscomb.

Ross started Auburn's first seven games in place of then injured senior guard Tay Waller.

REED PRESEASON ALL-SEC 2nd TEAM SELECTION

Senior DeWayne Reed was a preseason All-SEC second team selection by both the SEC Coaches and by the media panel at SEC Basketball Media Day.

Reed averaged 13.2 points and 3.7 assists, 2.6 rebounds and 1.9 steals as a junior last year helping lead the Tigers to a 24-12 record (10-6 SEC). The Houston, Texas, native ranked third in the SEC in steals, sixth in assists and 17th in scoring. He averaged 16.0 points in three NIT games, helping Auburn advance to the quarterfinals.

NEW AUBURN ARENA OPENS NEXT SEASON

The official groundbreaking of the new $92.5 million Auburn basketball arena and practice facility was on Aug. 29, 2008, and the arena is ahead of schedule and is on track to be finished this July prior to the start of the 2010-11 season.

The Auburn Arena, with an approximate capacity of 9,600, will include over 29,000 square feet of student-athlete space, a two-court practice facility, coaches offices, the Auburn University Athletic Ticket Office, an AU Team Store, the relocated Lovelace Museum, two food courts along with many other amenities.

360 Architecture of Kansas City, Mo., has been working with Davis Architects of Birmingham on the design of the arena. The firm of Robins & Morton of Birmingham will serve as construction manager. The 243,792 square foot facility will be built on campus north and west of the existing Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum on Roosevelt Drive, across the street from the Student Activities Center parking lot.

The new arena will feature chair back seats along with bleacher seating for students. The building also will provide improved facilities for the student-athletes, including men's and women's locker room suites with sports medicine facilities, lounges and team meeting rooms. Along with a strength and conditioning center, a two-court practice facility will enable the men's and women's teams to practice simultaneously and while the arena is in use for other purposes.

The arena will have 12 luxury suites on the arena level that will not only open inside the facility, but will also open on the outside of the arena for multiple entertaining opportunities throughout the year. Loge box seating will also be available as well as on-site food preparation.

The seating configuration will offer better sight lines and will move fans closer to the court. The furthest seat will be just 43 feet in elevation from courtside, compared to 60 feet in elevation at Beard-Eaves, with two-thirds of the seats in the new facility being less than 27 feet in elevation from courtside.

The scoreboard will feature a high-definition video board with full message/information center technology. For the student fan amenities, there will be a private entrance, a private courtside commons and food court and courtside seating that permits standing with unobstructed views.

The new facility will serve as more than a sports complex. With over 12,000 square feet of banquet/entertainment space, its design affords ready adaptation into a site for concerts, other cultural events, convocations and other community gatherings. On-campus student housing is being constructed adjacent to the new arena creating a unique "student village" experience.

Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum is entering its 41st year of service to the University, while the new arena will be Auburn's fifth home arena in the 104 years of basketball. The Tigers other arenas

Auburn 69, Niagara 65
November 13, 2009
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Glenn Wilkes Classic • Auburn, Ala.

Auburn came back from a seven point deficit and outscored Niagara 11-0 in the final 89 seconds to stun the Purple Eagles 69-65 in the final season opener in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum Friday. DeWayne Reed scored a career-high 24 points to lead the Tigers. Niagara used an 11-2 run to take a 65-58 lead with 2:24 to play but did not score again as Reed scored eight straight points to give Auburn a 66-65 lead with 12.5 seconds left. In that incredible run, Reed made a conventional 3-point play with 1:29 left, stole a pass and dunked it on the other end with 52 seconds to go and then had another conventional 3-point play to close out the run. Lucas Hargrove set up the go ahead basket with a huge game-saving block of Rob Garrison's layup with two seconds remaining. The game was close throughout as neither team had a lead larger than five until Niagara went up by seven with 2:24 to go. Auburn played without senior starting guard Waller, who was out with a quad injury. Waller ranked second in the SEC last year with 100 made 3-pointers. The Tigers finished shooting 35.1 percent from the field and 18.2 percent (4-of-22) from 3-point range. Auburn did, however, make 25-of-30 free throws for 83.3 percent. Sophomore Frankie Sullivan added 10 points and seven rebounds while Brendon Knox chipped in seven points and five boards in 22 minutes. Villanova transfer and fifth-year senior Bilal Benn led Niagara with 16 points and a game-high 13 rebounds while Anthony Nelson added a team-high 17 points and Demetrius Williamson 16 points and seven rebounds.

NC State 60, Auburn 58
November 22, 2009
Ocean Center • Glenn Wilkes Classic
Daytona Beach, Fla.

NC State's Tracy Smith banked in a 5-footer in the lane with 1.3 seconds to go after a Julius Mays missed 3-pointer from the corner to give the Wolfpack a 60-58 victory over Auburn in the Ocean Center. Frankie Sullivan scored a game-high 21 points and went 6-of-11 from 3-point range while recording his career-best string of three straight 20-plus point games. Lucas Hargrove inbounded the ball under the Tigers basket throwing it to Frankie Sullivan, who caught it shy of midcourt and didn't get his shot off in time. Sullivan made his career-best sixth 3-pointer with 1:58 to play to break a 51-51 tie, giving the Tigers a 54-51 lead. Dennis Horner answered with a 3-pointer for the Wolfpack to tie it at 54-54 13 seconds later. An Earnest Ross driving layup put the Tigers back in front 56-54 with 1:01 to play, setting up the final second heroics. Smith, the tournament's MVP who finished with 11 points and 15 rebounds on 4-of-18 shooting, made a conventional 3-point play to allow the Wolfpack to regain the lead at 57-56 with 50 seconds remaining. Sullivan missed a trey on Auburn's next possession, and following a Tiger offensive rebound, Reed missed a 3-pointer short of the rim, but Hargrove collected the ball and laid it in to tie it at 58 with 12.4 seconds left. After scoring the final four points of the first half to take a 26-25 halftime lead, NC State continued with 7 straight points, closing an 11-0 run with a 35-25 lead almost 3 minutes in that grew to 39-28. Auburn answered with 10 straight points, capped on a Sullivan 4-point play, to draw the Tigers to within 39-38 with 11:31 to play. A Sullivan trey enabled Auburn to regain the lead at 43-41 and then Reed nailed another trey on the Tigers' next possession for a 46-43 lead. An Andre Malone free throw and a Johnnie Lett tip-in putback gave the Tigers their largest lead at 49-43, ending a 21-4 run in just over seven minutes midway through the second half. Auburn held the NC State scoreless for 5:35 and only four points in 11 minutes from the 15:41 mark to the 4:39 mark in the second half. After the dry spell, NC State drained back-to-back 3-pointers by Javier Gonzalez and Julius Mays to tie it at 49-49 with four minutes to play. Auburn only shot 5-of-15 free throws, was outrebounded 19-11 on the offensive end and was outscored 18-4 in second chance points.

Lucas Hargrove recorded his second straight double-double with 22 points and a career-high 13 rebounds as Auburn scored a season high in points with an 87-52 rout of Alabama A&M in Huntsville's Von Braun Center, marking coach Jeff Lebo's 200th career win. Tay Waller added 13 points in 17 minutes, making 3-of-4 shots from 3-point range in his first game this season after being out with a quad injury. Frankie Sullivan had his streak of 27 consecutive free throws made to start the season come to an end with his miss on the front end of pair of technical foul shots. It is the longest recorded made streak in Auburn history. After Alabama A&M closed to within 23-21 with 8:12 left, Auburn ended the half on an 18-3 run to take a 41-24 lead. The Bulldogs went the last 6:21 without a field goal. The Tigers continued to build their lead to 63-32 with Lebo emptying his bench with 11:11 remaining. Andre Malone's putback monster dunk gave the Tigers their largest lead at 80-44 with 3:04 remaining. The win was coach Jeff Lebo's 200th of his career, 85 of them while at Auburn.
