THE GAME

The Stonehill women's basketball team will head to the Midwest to take on No. 13/13 Notre Dame Friday, Nov. 6 at 7 p.m. and DePaul Sunday, Nov. 8 at 2 p.m. (3 p.m. CST).

The Skyhawks are 0-1 on the season, while the Fighting Irish stand at 1-0.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Friday evening's game will be broadcast on ESPN+. Will Ek and Bria Goss will have the call.

SURPASSING 1K

Brook Paquette has now scored 1,083 points in her illustrious career, having passed the 1,000-point mark at Saint Francis Feb. 26, 2026. In the process, Paquette became the first Stonehill player to score all 1,000 points as a Division I student-athlete. Paquette ranks 32nd in school history. Up next, is current Skyhawk assistant coach Emily Bramanti '23 (1,084 points).

700 AND COUNTING

Head coach Trisha Brown coached her 700th game for Stonehill at FDU Jan. 29, 2026. Brown, who is in her 26th season, owns a 445-266 (.626) record, has coached the most games in school history and is 32 wins behind Paula Sullivan (477) at Stonehill.

WELCOME BACK

After missing all of last season due to injury, Megan Sias made her first-career start at Providence Nov. 3, and she scored 11 points and added four rebounds. Also making the first start of career that game was Reese Roggenburk, who amassed a double-double (11 points, 12 rebounds). Roggenburk missed all but eight games last year due to injury.

TAKING THEIR CHARITY

In 2025-26, the Skyhawks featured five players shooting 75-percent from the stripe or better, including Brooke Paquette, who ranked ninth in the country and 1st in the NEC at 90.2% (101-of-112). Stonehill shot an NEC-best 80.2-percent from the free-throw line to rank fifth nationally in 2024-25 and shot 75.0-percent from the foul line last season, good for first in the NEC.

START FAST

Stonehill is 79-17 when leading at the break over the last six seasons, including a 11-3 mark last season. 35 of the Skyhawks' 42 wins at the Division I level have come when holding the lead at the intermission.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Against Providence Nov. 3, Reese Roggenburk collected the second double-double of her career on 11 points and 12 rebounds.

DIMES A DOZEN

Last year, Stonehill was third in the NEC with 13.7 helpers per contest. The Skyhawks posted eight games with 20-plus assists, holding an 8-0 record in such games. In 2025-26, Stonehill had a season-high 27 assists in the victory over Le Moyne Jan. 31.

60 AND UNDER

Stonehill is 69-10 when limiting the opposition to less than 60 points over the last five seasons. The Skyhawks were 11-0 when holding their opponents under 60 last season and are 9-2 in 2025-26. Stonehill has held two opponents under 40 points this season (Bridgewater State: 38 on Nov. 3 and Wagner: 37 on Feb. 14.). The 37 points allowed to Wagner marked the fewest for a Division I opponent for Stonehill since surrendering 35 to Hartford on Nov. 21, 2022.

DOUBLE FIGURES

In Stonehill's season opener at Providence Nov. 3, three Skyhawk players reached double digits in scoring (Brooke Paquette - 21; Reese Roggenburk - 11; Megan Sias - 11).

2026-27 NOTES

GETTING DEFENSIVE
Stonehill is 102-22 when holding its opponents under 40-percent shooting from the field over the last six seasons. The Skyhawks were 10-3 when holding teams to under 40-percent last year.

THE AARP RATE
Stonehill is 118-34 when scoring 60-plus points over the last seven seasons, including 0-1 in 2026-27. The Skyhawks are 45-10 when netting 70-plus over the last six years including 6-0 mark last season.

GOING THE DISTANCE
Junior guard Brooke Paquette has played all 40 minutes in a game eight times last season (vs. Bethune-Cookman Dec. 19, at Chicago State Jan. 10, at Central Connecticut State, Jan. 24, vs. New Haven Feb. 19, at Le Moyne Feb. 21, at Saint Francis Feb. 26, vs. Chicago State March 5 and at Mercyhurst March 9).

Junior guard Breana Delaney played all 40 minutes at Le Moyne Feb. 21 and at Mercyhurst March 9.

NICE TO MEET YOU
The Skyhawks will face a host of opponents for the first time this season. Stonehill will suit up in inaugural meetings with Notre Dame (Nov. 6), DePaul (Nov. 8), West Georgia (Nov. 13), Boston University (Nov. 18), Illinois State (Nov. 22), Framingham State (Dec. 11), LSU (Dec. 15) and Tulane (Dec. 19. Stonehill was 1-3 in matchups against first-time opponents last season, having defeated Bethune-Cookman.

PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS
Senior guard Brooke Paquette earned All-NEC preseason accolades for the second-consecutive season. With Paquette earned All-NEC first-team status last year, the Skyhawks have totaled 58 all-league honorees over their 55-year history. Head coach Trisha Brown has coached 36 of the 58 all-conference performers including five All-NEC honorees since joining the NEC.

PRESEASON PROGNOSTICATION
Stonehill was selected third in the NEC by the league's head coaches in its preseason poll announced during the Conference's Virtual Media Day in October. The Skyhawks earned two first-place votes for the first time at the Division I level.

FDU (six first-place votes) was chosen to capture the Conference title, followed by Mercyhurst (one first-place vote) and Stonehill. Le Moyne was chosen fourth, while LIU was picked fifth. Rounding out the poll were Wagner (sixth), Chicago State (seventh), New Haven (eighth) and Central Connecticut State (ninth).

OH CAPTAINS, MY CAPTAINS
Stonehill will be led by a trio of captains in 2026-27. Seniors Breana Delaney, Brooke Paquette and Catelyn Wheeler were chosen as captains prior to the season.

ECLIPSING 1000
Stonehill made program history on Jan. 25, 2025 at Chicago State when the Skyhawks defeated the Cougars, 66-64, to become just the 49th women's basketball program in the NCAA to reach 1,000 wins, with a 1,020-474 (.683) record over its rich history. Heading into the 2026-27 season, Stonehill currently ranks fourth among women's programs in New England behind UConn (1342), Bentley (1228) and Husson (1204).

TOURNEY TIME

The Stonehill women's basketball team and head coach Trisha Brown made their first non-conference, postseason appearance at the Division I level, earning an automatic bid into the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) in 2024-25. The WNIT announced the Skyhawks as the automatic qualifier coming out of the NEC. Stonehill faced intrastate rival Massachusetts, falling by a score of 86-40.

POSTSEASON PICTURE

For the third-straight season, Stonehill reached the NEC quarterfinals in 2025-26. The Skyhawks own a 2-3 record in the NEC tournament over the last three years and are 0-3 on the road.

NEXT LEVEL

Stonehill College announced in early April, 2022, that it had accepted an invitation to join the NCAA Division I NEC, beginning a four-year Division I transition which concluded in 2026. The Skyhawks entire set of 24 varsity programs now compete in the NEC, with the exception of equestrian, women's ice hockey (NEWHA) and men's ice hockey (independent).

UP NEXT

Following the trip to the Midwest, Stonehill will host West Georgia in the Skyhawks' home opener Friday, Nov. 13 at 6 p.m.

2026-27 HEAD COACH

TRISHA BROWN

HEAD COACH // HARVARD, '87
26TH YEAR // 445-266 (.626)

Trisha Brown is in her 26th year as head coach of the women's basketball program at Stonehill College, also serving the athletic department as Assistant Athletic Director for Staff Development since September, 2021.

Brown has continued the excellence that the program has enjoyed at the regional and national level since its inception five decades ago. Brown established herself as one of the premier coaches in the region and ranked 30th among active coaches in Division II with a .683 winning percentage (403-187), having led Stonehill to 13 NCAA tournament appearances and now guides the Skyhawks through its exciting transition to NCAA Division I.

Brown has posted a 445-266 (.626) record over her career at Stonehill, becoming just the second coach in Stonehill women's basketball history to reach the 400-win mark, joining mentor Paula Sullivan, with Stonehill's 65-46 win over Southern Connecticut State to cap the 2021-22 regular season, and passing Sullivan in total games coached for the program against Saint Francis University in January, 2024.

Brown guided the Skyhawks to 13 NCAA Tournament appearances as well as six NE10 championships and a spot in the NE10 Tournament all 20 seasons prior to joining the NEC. Most recently, the Skyhawks made their debut in the NEC Championship game in just their second season of postseason eligibility as members of the Northeast Conference. After finishing as runners-up in the NEC, Stonehill earned its first-ever invitational to the WNIT. Stonehill captured its third NCAA Regional Championship in program history in 2018, advancing to the Division II Elite Eight for the first time since 1995. Stonehill also reached the East Regional championship in 2003, 2009 and 2015 under Brown's leadership, while advancing to the NE10 championship game four times, including two of the last three seasons, winning the title in 2008 and 2020.

Stonehill has never failed to reach a postseason it has been eligible for over the entirety of the program's rich history, holding the status as the only program to qualify for each of the first 40 NE10 Tournaments in that Conference's history prior to elevating the program, and Brown has kept that tradition with 22 postseason appearances under her watch - including the Skyhawks first trip to the WNIT in 2025. .

Brown coached her first WBCA All-American at Stonehill in 2015-16 with senior Tori Faieta being named to the 2015 Coaches' All-America Team, with 2017-18 NE10 Player of the Year Kelly Martin becoming Brown's second All-American, also producing ten WBCA honorable mention All-Americans over her 22 seasons. She has coached one NE10 Player of the Year, three NE10 Rookies of the Year and an NE10 Defensive Player of the Year with 31 All-Conference selections, including Emily Bramanti, '23 the Skyhawks first All-NEC selection at the Division I level in 2022-23, and 30 All-Northeast-10 selections, along with eight NE10 All-Rookie honorees.

Brown earned Northeast-10 Conference Coach of the Year honors for the fifth time in her career in 2020, also collecting US Marine Corps/WBCA Division II East Region Coach of the Year honors for the fourth time. She guided the Stonehill to a 23-5 record, including 16-3 in the NE10 to win the Northeast Division for the third time over a six year span, on its way to the sixth NE10 Tournament title in program history (and second under her watch) winning its final 12 games of the year heading into the NCAA Tournament as the No. 2 seed, before the season was cut short to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Brown led Stonehill to a 29-4 overall record in 2017-18, including a program-best 20-1 mark in the Northeast-10 to win the Conference's Northeast Division Championship, and reaching the NE10 title game before earning the program's 24th NCAA Tournament bid in program history. The Skyhawks earned the No. 1 seed in the East Region and captured its third regional championship in program history with a 71-61 win over the University of the Sciences in front of a packed Merkert Gymnasium to reach the NCAA Division II Elite Eight for the third time in program history.

Prior to her arrival at Stonehill, Brown helped lead Harvard to five Ivy League championship titles as part of legendary Kathy Delaney-Smith's staff. She was responsible for assisting with all aspects of the Crimson program, and additionally served four seasons as Harvard's recruiting coordinator. Brown helped guide Harvard to a school-record 23 victories during the 1997-98 season, as the Crimson became the first No. 16 seed in NCAA Tournament history (men's or women's) to upset a No. 1 seed when they ended Stanford's 59-game home win streak.

A 1987 Harvard graduate and two-sport student-athlete, Brown was one of Delaney-Smith's first recruits and captained the Crimson's first Ivy League championship team in 1985-86, a squad that posted a 20-7 mark. A two-time team co-captain, she received Harvard's Most Improved Award in 1985, and was named to Harvard's Silver Anniversary Team for softball in 1988-89 as part of thecelebration of 25 years of women's athletics in the Ivy League.
