GAME PREVIEW

CINCINNATI – The University of Cincinnati baseball program heads to Miami (Ohio) on Tuesday for a midweek battle vs. the RedHawks.

The game is set for a 3:00 p.m. start and will be streamed live on Chatterbox Sports.

This will be the 192nd meeting all-time between Cincinnati and Miami and the second meeting this season.

The previous meeting was a 12-3 win for the Bearcats on March 11. Miami started the scoring in that game with a two-run homer in the top of the first, but it was the Bearcats who took advantage of the long ball the best. Landyn Vidourek and Christian Mitchelle and Charlie Niehaus all slugged home runs, with Niehaus' grand slam in the sixth inning providing the biggest reaction of them all. It was the first home run of his career for the West Chester native.

Cincinnati is coming off a 4-0 week that saw it earn wins against No. 18 Louisville and UCF. The home sweep of the Knights over the weekend was the first Big 12 sweep of the year for the Bearcats.

Following Tuesday's game, Cincinnati will head to Lubbock, Texas for a three-game series at Texas Tech.

ABOUT MIAMI

Miami is 8-3 since losing at UC Baseball Stadium on March 11. That stretch includes series sweeps against Northern Illinois and Western Michigan. Senior Ty Batusich was named MAC Co-Player of the Week on Monday after tallying 12 RBI over the RedHawks' four games last week. Batusich is hitting .357 this season, second to Anthony Zarlingo (.407) on the team. Evan Applewick, who homered in the game at Cincinnati, is one of the top sluggers in the MAC and leads the league in RBI (41).

KERRINGTON CROSS NAMED BIG 12 CO-PLAYER OF THE WEEK

University of Cincinnati baseball redshirt senior Kerrington Cross was named Co-Player of the Week by the Big 12 Conference on Tuesday following his performance last week in games vs. No. 18 Louisville and UCF.

Cross was incredible last week, helping Cincinnati go 4-0 at home against the Cardinals and Knights. He reached base at least four times in all four games, posting a .773 on-base percentage. As UC's leadoff hitter, his ability to get on base was integral to the team's success this past weekend.

Cross went 3-for-5 at the plate with a double and a home run vs. #18 Louisville to start the week off. He then had a 3-for-3 day with a home run and reached base five times in the series opener vs. UCF, the start of an incredible weekend against the Knights. Cross had two hits and walked twice in game two, adding a sac fly as well, and he reached four times on Sunday (3 HBP, 1 BB) to help the Bearcats complete the sweep. Cross now sits second in the Big 12 with a .448 batting average, a figure that also ranks 12th nationally.

NOTING THE UCF SWEEP

Cincinnati notched its first Big 12 sweep of the season over the weekend, winning all three games against UCF:

- The sweep was the first for the Bearcats over the Knights in series history, which began in 2014 when both were members of the American Athletic Conference.
- UC is now 2-0 in weekend series against UCF as members of the Big 12. Cincinnati took two out of three last year in Orlando.
- The Bearcats' ability to withstand adversity and find ways to get on base were the keys to the sweep. UC grabbed the lead in the eighth inning on Sunday and walked off the Knights on Saturday, and shut down a UCF bases-loaded rally in the win on Friday.
- At the plate, Cincinnati walked (22) more than it struck out (21) and posted a .457 on-base percentage across all three games.
- Kerrington Cross was unbelievable all weekend long, going 5-for-7 at the plate with four walks and four HBP, posting an otherworldly .813 on-base percentage for the series. While he did not record a hit on Sunday, he reached base four times (three HBP, one walk) to help set the tone for the Cincinnati offense.
- Cincinnati has now played 39 home games under head coach Jordan Bischel and holds a 29-10 record at home.

LOCAL PRODUCTS CONTRIBUTING TO BEARCATS' SUCCESS

There is plenty of great baseball being played in the Cincinnati area, and many players with local roots have been major contributors this season. Below is a list of all nine players from Southwest Ohio on UC's roster:

- #8 Lauden Brooks (Cincinnati/McNicholas)
- #11 Nathan Taylor (Amelia/West Clermont)
- #14 Landyn Vidourek (Hamlton/Badin)
- #15 Kory Klingenbeck (Cincinnati, Elder)
- #16 Michael Conte (Cincinnati/Walnut Hills)
- #19 Charlie Niehaus (West Chester/Moeller)
- #24 Carter Earls (Middletown/Bishop Fenwick)
- #29 Carson Marsh (West Chester/Moeller)
- #45 Brenden Garula (Mason/Mason)

Brooks, Vidourek, Klingenbeck, and Niehaus have combined to make 74 starts this year, and Vidourek (.337) and Niehaus (.310) rank among the Top 5 hitters on the team according to batting average.

Taylor has been one of the best starting pitchers in the Big 12, sitting among the conference leaders in ERA (.270, 2nd), strikeouts (46, 5th), and innings pitched (36.2, T-7th). Conte and Marsh have been valuable bullpen pieces, combining to make 19 appearances out of the pen.

LOTS OF NEW FACES ON THE MOUND

Entering play this week, eight pitchers have made at least eight pitching appearances for the Bearcats this season. Of those eight pitchers, only two pitched an inning for UC last season (Carson Marsh and Michael Conte).

New additions Brandon Scheurer (12), Joel Pineiro (9), Adam Buczkowski (8), Rodney Shultz (8), Hudson Johnson (10), Ty Barnett (7), and Adam Mrakitsch (7) are among the most-used pitchers on the staff, and redshirt senior Max Bergmann (9) appears on that list as well. Bergmann missed all of the 2024 season due to injury.

In total, 72.4% of the of the 243.2 innings thrown by Cincinnati pitchers this season have been from players who did not appear in a game for UC last season.

NOTING THE LOUISVILLE WIN

Cincinnati beat No. 18 Louisville at home on March 26, 12-2, an impressive victory for a number of reasons:

- After allowing two runs in the top of the first inning, Cincinnati's pitching staff clamped down on the Cardinals. The combination of Max Bergmann, Hudson Johnson, and Carson Marsh helped keep the Cardinals hitless until the top of the seventh inning.
- The win was UC's third over a ranked team this season, the most wins against a ranked opponent since 2019.
- The victory was also the third win at home over a ranked Louisville team since 2017. UC defeated the No. 1-ranked Cardinals in 2017 and walked off the No. 5-ranked Cardinals in 2021.
- The 10-run margin of victory was the second-highest against a ranked team since 2000. The largest occurred earlier this season in the 19-5 win at No. 11 Duke.

RED-HOT KERRINGTON CROSS EXCELS IN THE LEADOFF SPOT

You'd be hard-pressed to find many better leadoff hitters than redshirt senior Kerrington Cross.

An elite player all over the diamond, Cross leads UC and ranks among the Big 12 leaders in batting average (1st, .448), on-base percentage (2nd, .566), OPS (3rd, 1.267), and hits (T-5th, 39).

His ability to get on base has proven to be an asset, as his 29 runs scored lead the team. He enters the week ranking fifth all-time in program history in runs scored (185).

Last season he hit .321 with 11 home runs, 53 RBI, 63 runs scored, 46 walks, and 16 stolen bases and led UC in hits (71) and walks. Cross ended the season ranking in the top ten in the Big 12 in walks, runs, and stolen bases.

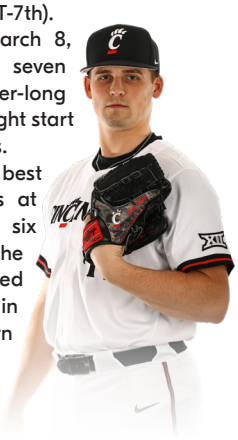
Cross is the most experienced player (187 career games played) on Cincinnati's roster and also one of its best. His 187 career games played place him among the Top 25 among active leaders in career games played at one school.

Head Coach Jordan Bischel called Cross "one of the most valuable players in college baseball" and he lived up to that name at Duke. Cross hit .438 with two home runs and six RBI that weekend while also stealing two bags and starting all three games.

For his efforts in the season-opening series at Duke, Cross was named to the NCAA's Week 1 Lineup of the Week.

NATHAN TAYLOR OFF TO BLAZING START

One of the best pitchers in the Big 12 so far this season is Cincinnati sophomore Nathan Taylor. The big right-hander is sporting a 2.70 ERA and has 45 strikeouts in 36.2 innings. He ranks among the Big 12 leaders in in ERA (.270, 2nd), strikeouts (46, 5th), and innings pitched (36.2, T-7th).



Against Canisius on March 8, Taylor struck out nine in seven innings to tie his career-long outing. It was his third straight start with at least nine strikeouts.

He turned in one of the best outings of his career this at UNLV, striking out 11 in six shutout innings against the Rebels. Taylor then followed that up by striking out nine in seven solid innings to earn the win at UC San Diego.

Taylor was terrific in his first collegiate season last year and was named honorable mention All-Big 12 and earned a spot on the all-freshman team. He made 16 starts and two relief appearances, posting an 8-2 record with 70 strikeouts in 72.2 innings pitched. His eight victories were tied for second in the Big 12 and tied for ninth-most in a season in school history.

LANDYN VIDOUREK: 5-TOOL PLAYER

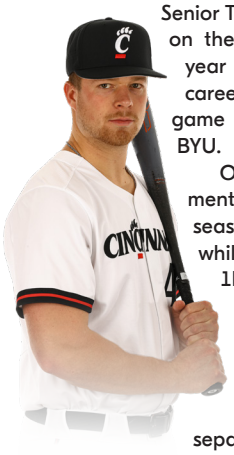
Junior Landyn Vidourek has been able to do it all this season and is hitting .337 with six home runs, 26 RBI, 28 runs scored, seven doubles, 21 walks, and 19 stolen bases.

His biggest hit of the year came last Saturday vs. UCF. With UC trailing 6-5 in the bottom of the 10th inning and down to his last strike, Vidourek ripped a two-run single up the middle for a walk-off base hit to win the game.

Vidourek put together an incredible six-game stretch from March 4-11, hitting .500 (12-for-24) with four home runs, 11 RBI, 11 runs scored, five walks, and seven stolen bases. His two home runs came during the Canisius series and were prodigous, as one hit Fifth Third Arena and the other landed near the entrance to the arena, and he outdid himself on vs. Miami with a two-run home run that registered 116 MPH off the bat.

A local product from Hamilton, Ohio, Vidourek starred at Badin High School in both baseball and football. He was a two-way player on the diamond and the team's starting quarterback on the gridiron.

TOMMY BOMBS



Senior Tommy O'Connor ranks second on the team with four homers this year and has 24 homers in his career. His last home run came in game two of the doubleheader vs. BYU.

O'Connor earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors last season, playing in 55 games while making 52 starts (29 at 1B, 23 at DH). The slugger hit 12 home runs and drove in 43 while tallying 42 walks, eight doubles, and 46 runs scored. He tended to homer in bunches and had three separate occasions where he homered in back-to-back games.

SEFCIK BROTHERS REUNITE IN CLIFTON

Neither Luke nor Cal Sefcik began their career at Cincinnati, but the brothers are on the same team once again in 2025.

Luke started his collegiate career at Central Michigan and followed head coach Jordan Bischel to Cincinnati prior to last season. Cal was a freshman at Indiana last year before transferring to UC prior to this season.

Luke and Cal shared a cool moment on Opening Day when they hit back-to-back in the Bearcats' order. Luke hit sixth and started at second base, while Cal hit seventh and started at DH.

Kevin Sefcik, father of Cal and Luke, spent seven years in the big leagues, six with the Philadelphia Phillies. Kevin coached Cal and Luke at Marist High School in suburban Chicago as well.

JACK NATILI GRABS REINS BEHIND THE PLATE

Sophomore Jack Natili is in his first season at Cincinnati, but he's done everything he can to grab onto the starting catcher role. He has made 20 starts behind the plate, by far the most on the team.

Natili is hitting .333, which ranks third on the team, and has two home runs, six doubles, 21 RBI, and 15 walks.

Natili joined the program from Rutgers, where he spent the 2024 season nd started 44 games. Coming out of high school, he was the No. 16-ranked prospect in Pennsylvania and the top prep catcher in his class from the state according to Perfect Game.

DONOVAN FORD MAKES IMMEDIATE IMPACT

A transfer from Division II Newberry, Donovan Ford has started 21 games in center field for the Bearcats this season. He went 2-for-4 in both games he started against Canisius and scored four times.

Ford started all three games in center field during the opening weekend at Duke and was 5-for-11 at the plate, helping UC win two out of three.

One of Cincinnati's most accomplished transfer portal additions, Ford had an extraordinary career at Newberry. He left as its all-time leader in career batting average (.396) and was second in stolen bases (91). Ford was an ABCA Second Team All-American in 2024 after hitting .421 and getting on-base at a .506 clip. When he got on base he was dangerous, stealing 35 bases. Ford was an All-American in 2023 as well, starting all 58 games while hitting .406 and driving in 70 runs. He had 42 steals and a school-record 86 runs scored in 2023 as well.

KELLEN O'CONNOR JOINS CINCINNATI'S ROTATION

Senior left-handed pitcher Kellen O'Connor slotted into the weekend rotation immediately upon joining the Bearcats and has been outstanding. He has 20 strikeouts in 22.2 innings.

O'Connor did not pitch in in UC's first Big 12 series at Arizona, but returned to the mound against BYU a and started game two vs. UCF.

O'Connor was one of Cincinnati's biggest gets in the transfer portal this past offseason. The Portland, Ore. Native spent the last five seasons at CSU-Bakersfield, missing the 2023 campaign due to injury. He was Bakersfield's Sunday starter last season, logging a 2.89 ERA and 64 punchouts in 81.0 innings. His best performance of the season was a complete-game victory at UC Davis on May 25 when he allowed just one earned run while scattering eight hits and one walk.

FOR JOEL PINEIRO, IT'S IN HIS GENES

Redshirt junior right-handed pitcher Joel Pineiro has been valuable on the mound through the first month of the season. He owns a 4.30 ERA and has 18 strikeouts across 23.0 innings of work. He has started three games and has made six relief appearances. His most recent outing was a relief appearance in game three of the weekend series vs. UCF.

In his Cincinnati debut at Duke, he turned in a stellar performance by striking out three in 4.0 shutout frames to earn the win in the 8-3 victory on Opening Day.

Pineiro transferred to UC from FIU, where he started 19 games on the mound.

Pineiro's father, Joel, spent 12 seasons in the major leagues (2000-2011) as a pitcher with the Seattle Mariners, St. Louis Cardinals, Los Angeles Angels, and Boston Red Sox. He won 104 games and collected 1,058 strikeouts in his MLB career.

LAUDEN BROOKS BACK IN THE LINEUP

Though he has battled injuries early this season, senior Lauden Brooks is an integral part of the Cincinnati lineup when he's in it.

He returned to the lineup vs. Canisius and started two games at second base. Brooks has started five of six Big 12 games at second base.

His biggest hit of the year was a pinch-hit, game-tying double at UNLV on Feb. 23. After missing the previous three games, Brooks entered the game as a pinch hitter and drove in the tying run to help spark a ninth-inning comeback in Vegas.

An honorable mention all-conference selection last season, Brooks made 49 starts (22 at 2B, 21 at SS, six at DH). He hit .301 with two home runs, 34 RBI, 10 doubles, 44 runs scored, and 13 stolen bases. Brooks collected 20 multi-hit efforts, tied for second on the team. His father, Marc Brooks, pitched for the Bearcats in 1984-85.

CARSON MARSH LOOKING TO ANCHOR BACK OF BULLPEN

Sophomore Carson Marsh led UC in appearances last season, and he's second in appearances this year with 10.

Marsh was thrust into a high-leverage bullpen role last season and responded about as well as one could hope for a true freshman. He appeared in 24 games and posted a 4.30 ERA in 44.0 innings of work, striking out 52 while walking 15. The local product made his collegiate debut on Opening Day last season and came up big in one of the most important wins of the season, striking out four in 2.2 scoreless frames against Texas in the Big 12 Tournament.

ADAM MRAKITSCH REUNITES WITH BISCHEL

Senior left-hander Adam Mrakitsch has made five starts so far, and turned in his best start of the year vs. Canisius. In 4.2 shutout innings of work, he struck out seven and allowed just three hits.

His longest outing of the season came last weekend vs. BYU when he struck out six in 5.2 innings in the finale against the Cougars.

Mrakitsch joined the Bearcats this past offseason from Central Michigan, where he played under Jordan Bischel for two seasons. His best season came in 2023, when he was a First-Team All-MAC honoree after finishing 8-4 with a 3.59 ERA and 80 strikeouts while holding opposing hitters to a miniscule .196 batting average. Mrakitsch was D1Baseball's preseason MAC Pitcher of the Year in 2024 and made nine starts before being shut down with an injury. He fields his position well too, receiving an All-Defensive Team nod in 2023.

SWISS ARMY KNIFE CHRISTIAN MITCHELLE CAN DO IT ALL

Junior Christian Mitchelle is one of the most versatile players on the diamond whenever he takes the field. He has started 22 games this year at five different positions, and has also pitched in four games.

Mitchelle received second-team All-Big 12 distinctions last year as a two-way threat. He started 42 games (25 at SS, 11 at DH, six at 2B) and pitched in 22 games out of the bullpen, and earned a spot on the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award midseason watch list. Mitchelle hit .319 at the dish with four home runs, 22 RBI, 34 runs scored, and nine stolen bases. Out of the bullpen, he led UC with six saves and totaled 39.1 innings of work.

At Duke opening weekend, Mitchelle recorded the final out on the mound in the game one victory and also started all three games in the outfield. He has started games this year in left field and right field and also at third base and second base.

RANKED!

Following its statement-making series win at No. 11 Duke during opening weekend, Cincinnati was ranked No. 25 in the D1Baseball Top 25 poll for the first time ever.

The following week, UC moved up two spots to No. 23 in the poll. The Bearcats were the highest-ranked Big 12 team in the poll, just ahead of No. 25 TCU.

NOTING THE MARCH 4-11 HOMESTAND

Cincinnati's first homestand was a six-game stretch that began with a midweek contest vs. Toledo on March 5 and was followed by a four-game weekend series vs. Canisius and a game against Miami (Ohio) on March 11. The Bearcats went 6-0 and put up some impressive numbers during their first homestand of the 2025 season:

- The Miami attendance was 2,188, the seventh-largest crowd for a home game at UC Baseball Stadium in program history and the largest since 2023.
- Cincinnati won its first six home games to start the season. The last time UC won that many home games in a row to start the year was 2016 when it won its first 10 home games.
- Landyn Vidourek was incredible at the plate, hitting .500 (12-for-24) with four home runs, 11 RBI, and 11 runs scored in six games.
- Cal Sefcik (.579) and Jack Natili (.565) hit better than .500 over the six games.
- Sefcik showed an exceptional eye at the plate, drawing six walks while not striking out once over the last six games.
- UC hit .393 as a team and slugged .621 while posting a 2.60 team ERA.

NOTING THE CANISIUS SERIES

- The four wins combined with the victory vs. Toledo on Tuesday give the Bearcats a 5-0 record at home. The last time UC won that many home games in a row to start the year was 2016 when it won its first 10 home games.
- Cincinnati outscored Canisius 42-7 over the four games, its most runs scored in a four-game series since March 18-20, 2022 against Saint Joseph's (43).
- Its four-game series sweep was its first since taking all four games against North Alabama at home on March 3-5, 2023.
- UC hit .406 for the weekend while holding Canisius to a team batting average of just .181 over the course of the series.
- Cal Sefcik and Landyn Vidourek tied for the team lead over the weekend with eight RBI.
- Vidourek slugged an incredible 1.143, as half of his eight hits went for extra bases. He slugged two home runs and added two doubles as well. Vidourek also led the Bearcats with five stolen bases.
- The pitching staff combined to allow just two runs over the final three games. Canisius managed just three hits on Sunday, tied for the fewest allowed in a game by UC pitchers this season. The last time UC allowed two or fewer combined runs over a three-game stretch was March 11-13, 2011 vs. Cleveland State.

NOTING OPENING WEEKEND AT DUKE

The Bearcats opened the 2025 season in exciting fashion, winning two out of three games at No. 11 Duke. After winning 8-3 on Opening Day and dropping game two in extra innings, Cincinnati exploded for a 19-5 win in game three.

Plenty of impressive notes came out of opening weekend:

- Cincinnati became ranked in the D1Baseball Top 25 for the first time in program history. D1Baseball's Top 25 poll began in 2015. The Bearcats have been nationally ranked before, ending the 1961 (No. 18) and 1971 (No. 13) seasons ranked in the Collegiate Baseball year-end Top 25.
- UC's win on Opening Day was its first victory against a ranked non-conference opponent since March 30, 2021 against No. 5 Louisville.
- In defeating the No. 11 Blue Devils, the Bearcats won a series against a ranked opponent for the first time since No. 22 UConn on April 5-7, 2019.
- Game three's 14-run margin of victory was UC's highest against a ranked opponent since at least 2000.

BISCHEL BALL ERA ENTERS YEAR TWO

UC posted a 32-25 overall record and a 17-13 mark in conference play, the program's first 30-win season since 2019. Cincinnati finished the regular season in fifth place in the Big 12 after being picked to finish in last in the preseason coaches poll.

The Bearcats claimed six series wins in conference play including series vs. TCU, West Virginia, and UCF, and also posted an 18-8 record at home.

Bischel helped coach seven All-Big 12 players in 2024, including first-team selection Josh Kross. Christian Mitchelle was named to the second team while Nathan Taylor, Lauden Brooks, Kerrington Cross, Josh Hegemann, and Tommy O'Connor were all honorable mention.

Kross was selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the sixth round of the MLB Draft last summer.

In his first year at UC, Bischel successfully implemented his style of play and saw his players buy in as well. The Bearcats were among the national leaders in walks (320, most in school history) and stolen bases (109) and ranked atop the league in HBP (91). Cincinnati's ability to get on base and take extra bases led to an average of 7.4 runs per game, which ranked fourth in the league.

Cincinnati utilized the bunt as well as anybody in the country last season, leading all Power Five programs in bunt base hits:

2024 HIGHLIGHTS

Cincinnati's first year in the Big 12 saw several big moments that made year one unforgettable:

- UC's first-ever Big 12 Conference win came on March 9 at Kansas State.
- The next weekend, Cincinnati took two out of three from Kansas at home to claim its first Big 12 Conference series. The weekend was highlighted by Tommy Boba's performance in game two when he took a no-hitter into the ninth inning.
- One of the biggest statements made by the Bearcats last year came on April 5-7 at home when they swept TCU, capping the series with a 13-2 run-rule victory.
- Cincinnati took two out of three at home vs. West Virginia, a team that would go on to advance to a Super Regional.
- One of the most electric moments in the history of the program came in the final game of the regular season. With the score tied at 6-6 in the bottom of the eighth inning vs. No. 12 Oklahoma, senior Josh Hegemann blasted a two-out grand slam to give UC a 10-6 lead in the eventual victory. It was Hegemann's first career collegiate home run and came on Senior Day.
- Facing elimination in the Big 12 Tournament, Cincinnati beat Texas, 8-7, to send the Longhorns home in their final Big 12 baseball game.

COACHING STAFF UPDATES

Cincinnati had a couple updates to its coaching staff during the offseason. Tayler Sheriff was promoted from director of pitching development to pitching coach, and Chris Krepline joined the program as the new director of pitching development.

During Sheriff's first season with the Bearcats in 2024, the team posted a 32-25 overall record and a 17-13 mark in conference play, the program's first 30-win season since 2019. UC finished the regular season in fifth place in the Big 12 after being picked to finish in last in the preseason coaches poll.

Cincinnati also saw its team ERA drop by nearly a full run in 2024 from the previous season, and it posted its lowest single-season ERA since 2019.

Krepline comes to Cincinnati following a successful stint as the head coach at Lawrence University. From 2019-24, he earned two Midwest Conference Coach of the Year awards and held Lawrence to two conference titles (2022 and 2024).

In 2024, Krepline's squad posted a 31-11 record, the most wins in a season in school history, and four of his student-athletes earned All-America recognitions. His 2022 team won the Midwest Conference and took the conference tournament crown as well, earning the school's first trip to the NCAA Division III Tournament since 1979. He earned D3Baseball and ABCA Region 9 Coach of the Year accolades that season.

Schroeder also coached under Bischel for four years at Northwood University (2015-18) and for two seasons at Midland University (2013-14).

Winske was a successful coach at St. Norbert College in De Pere, Wis. From 1999-2018 and coached Bischel as a player from 2000-03. Bischel also served as an assistant coach under Winske from 2007-09.

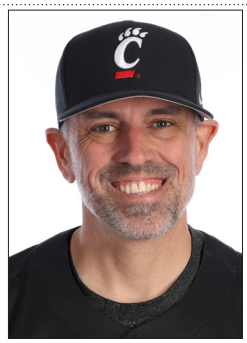
HEAD COACH JORDAN BISCHEL



JORDAN BISCHEL • HEAD COACH • SECOND SEASON • ST. NORBERT '03

The 2024 season was Bischel's first at Cincinnati, and he led the Bearcats to a terrific year in their inaugural Big 12 campaign.

UC posted a 32-25 overall record and a 17-13 mark in conference play, the program's first 30-win season since 2019. Cincinnati finished the regular season in fifth place in the Big 12 after being picked to finish in last in the preseason coaches poll.

The Bearcats claimed six series wins in conference play including series vs. TCU, West Virginia, and UCF, and also posted an 18-8 record at home.

Bischel helped coach seven All-Big 12 players in 2024, including first-team selection Josh Kross. Christian Mitchelle was named to the second team while Nathan Taylor, Lauden Brooks, Kerrington Cross, Josh Hegemann, and Tommy O'Connor were all honorable mention.

In his first year at UC, Bischel successfully implemented his style of play and saw his players buy in as well. The Bearcats were among the national leaders in walks (320, most in school history) and stolen bases (109) and ranked atop the league in HBP (91). Cincinnati's ability to get on base and take extra bases led to an average of 7.4 runs per game, which ranked fourth in the league.

Bischel was announced as the 33rd head coach in program history on June 18, 2023.

The Green Bay, Wis., native came to UC from Central Michigan, where he served as head coach for five seasons. He also spent four seasons as head coach of Northwood, an NCAA Division II program in Midland, Mich., and two seasons at the helm of NAIA program Midland University in Fremont, Neb.

He has previously won eight conference championships: four at Central Michigan, four at Northwood.

Bischel led the Chippewas to four Mid-American Conference (MAC) championships -- two regular season and two tournament -- and three NCAA Regionals. The Chippewas went 177-80 (.689) during Bischel's tenure.

In five seasons as head coach at CMU, Bischel had a 102-32 MAC record and posted three consecutive 40-win full seasons for the first time since 1986-88. His teams won a combined 132 games in 2019, '21 and '22, the winningest three-year stretch in program history.

Bischel's CMU teams went a combined 31-8 against the five other Michigan Division I programs, Michigan, Michigan State, Eastern Michigan, Western Michigan and Oakland, and Bischel led his Chippewas to 12 victories over opponents from Power 5 conferences.

In 2022, the Chippewas finished 43-19, including 30-7 and in second place in the MAC. They made a remarkable run to the league tournament crown, starting 1-1 and then winning three consecutive elimination games, the final two against host and regular season champion Ball State. That put the Chippewas in the NCAA Tournament for the third straight season, where they went 1-2 and bowed to No. 13-ranked Florida in the Gators' home stadium in Gainesville.

The Chippewas posted a 42-18 ledger in 2021, capped by a 2-2 finish in the NCAA Regional in South Bend, Ind. The Chippewas were the No. 4 seed in the four-team tournament and posted victories over No. 2 Michigan and No. 3 UConn.

Bischel electrified CMU baseball from the word go in 2019, leading it to its first MAC Tournament championship and its first NCAA Tournament berth since 1995. The 2019 squad posted a 47-14 mark — an 18-win improvement over the 2018 squad — and a dramatic 6-5 victory over Miami (Fla.) in an NCAA Regional game in Starkville, Miss. It was CMU's first NCAA Tournament victory since 1988.

The Chippewas earned their first MAC regular season title since 2015, tied the program record for victories in a season (47), and its .770-win percentage was fifth best in the nation.

Prior to his time at CMU, Bischel was the head coach of Northwood from 2014 to 2018. The Timberwolves posted a combined 137-76 record and won two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) Championships as well as two GLIAC Tournament titles. Over his last two seasons, Northwood won 84 games — the best two-year stretch prior to Bischel's arrival featured 55 wins (1989-90).

Before Northwood, Bischel coached at Midland University in Fremont, Neb., for two seasons, leading the Warriors to a combined 74-45 record. In his first year at Midland, the Warriors won 31 games, an 18-victory improvement over the previous year.

Bischel also coached in the Northwoods League for five seasons, four with the Green Bay Bullfrogs and one with the Wisconsin Woodchucks. He also served as the pitching coach for three seasons at Northwest Missouri State and was an assistant coach at John Carroll University in Ohio and at St. Norbert College in Wisconsin.

Bischel was an academic all-conference first baseman and pitcher at St. Norbert from 2000 to 2003. He earned all-conference honors and served as the team captain as a senior.
