NEW MEXICO NOTES

New Mexico Volleyball continues its road stretch with a trip to California this weekend, heading to Moraga to take on Saint Mary's (4-5) on the road Thursday and Fresno State (3-5) in a neutral-site matchup on Friday.

Thursday's matchup with the Gaels will be streamed via ESPN+, with live stats for both matches available via GoLobos.com/VBStats. Follow @UNMLoboVB on IG, X and Facebook for match updates and coverage, promotional information, behind-the-scenes content and more.

LAST WEEKEND RECAP

Facing Nebraska, Georgia Tech and Baylor, the Lobos averaged 8.44 kills, 8.11 assists, 11.00 digs, 0.89 aces and 0.89 blocks per set while hitting .100 over nine sets. Reagan Miller led UNM with 20 kills (2.22/set) on .259 hitting and six blocks, while Mina Stanojevic added 19 kills and 23 digs. Camila Canedo paced the back row with 38 digs (4.22/set), and Madeleine Miller totaled 64 assists (7.11/set) and a team-high three aces. UNM closed the weekend with its highest totals in kills (33), digs (47) and blocks (4.0) against Baylor.

MADS KNOCKING ON THE DOOR OF HISTORY

With 64 assists last weekend, Madeleine Miller ranks No. 10 among UNM players all-time in career assists with 2,257 in total -- she's 377 away from moving into the No. 9 spot (Sarah Kwasigroch, 2,634, 2005-08). Miller produced a career-high 984 assists last season after dishing out 854 her sophomore year, ranking among the Mountain West's Top 10 individuals in assists per set both seasons.

Miller currently leads active Mountain West players in total career assists and ranks No. 3 in the conference in career assists per set (7.17). This season, she ranks third in assists per set (8.40).

Should she take another step forward and finish the 2026 season with at least 995 assists, she'll become one of just seven players in program history with 3,000 career assists.

2026 ROSTER PREVIEW

With nine returners from last season, the Lobos look to get back to the MW Tournament for the first time since 2023 in a new-look conference that welcomes UTEP, Hawai'i and UC Davis. They'll also face a challenging nonconference slate that features four power-conference teams – their first time playing multiple power-conference foes since 2019.

Among those returners, eight started multiple matches last season.

The Lobos are locked in at the libero spot with 2025 All-MW Honorable Mention selection Camila Canedo, who picked up the seventh-most digs in a single season in program history last year (485) while serving up 23 aces and dishing 109 assists.

Setter Madeleine Miller also returns for her fourth season in ABQ – the Iowa native has dished out over 2,005 assists in her first three seasons (7.04/set), the last two as the primary six-rotation starting setter.

Addison France, UNM's team leader in kills (282) and points (319.5) and a two-time MW Freshman of the Week in 2025 returns and will move to playing as an opposite after spending some time at setter in her first collegiate season.

Third-year middle blockers Reagan Miller (122 kills, 87 total blocks, .315 hitting) and Zoe Leonard (147 kills, 91 total blocks) both look to hold things down at the net after taking significant steps forward in their first seasons as everyday starters in 2025.

Seenane Brewer (117 kills, 116 digs, 11 aces) and Uliana Yastrub (62 kills, 67 digs, 15 aces) are poised for bigger roles on the outside after getting more

A LOOK AT THE 2026 SCHEDULE

With a new-look league and a new format for conference matchups, this year's schedule promises to be a significant departure from previous slates.

All in all, UNM is set to play four power-conference opponents in the nonconference leading into Mountain West play, where the Lobos will face the same league opponent twice each week for the first time since 2020.

UNM returns home to face in-state rival New Mexico State on Monday, Sept. 7, then travels to Lincoln, Neb., for one of the toughest stretches of its nonconference schedule. The Lobos will face Nebraska on Thursday, Sept. 10 before taking on Georgia Tech on Friday, Sept. 11 and Baylor on Saturday, Sept. 12 as part of the Nebraska Tournament.

New Mexico closes nonconference play in California, facing Saint Mary's on Thursday, Sept. 17 before taking on Fresno State on Friday, Sept. 18 in Moraga.

The Lobos' Mountain West slate begins the following week with back-to-back road matches at Hawaii on Sept. 25 and 26 — the first meetings between the programs as Mountain West opponents. Under the league's new format, teams will play the same conference opponent twice in the same week throughout the season.

UNM opens its conference home schedule against Nevada on Oct. 2 and 4, followed by road matches at UC Davis on Oct. 8 and 10. The Lobos then split a week with travel partner UTEP, playing in El Paso on Oct. 15 before hosting the Miners on Oct. 17.

New Mexico will host four straight matches from Oct. 23-31, welcoming San Jose State for Alumni Weekend on Oct. 23 and 25 before hosting Grand Canyon on Oct. 29 and 31. The Lobos then head on the road for back-to-back series at Air Force on Nov. 5 and 7 and UNLV on Nov. 12 and 14.

The regular season closes at home against Wyoming on Nov. 18 and 19, with the finale serving as Senior Day.

the collegiate, international and club levels to the Land of Enchantment. Most recently, he helped Wichita State compile an 81-46 record over four seasons as the Shockers' associate head coach, highlighted by an AAC Tournament championship and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2024. Hosfeld previously became Baylor's winningest head coach with 129 victories, leading the Bears to their first two NCAA Tournament appearances in program history. His championship pedigree also includes a 1993 national title as an assistant at Long Beach State and three consecutive Big 12 championships as an assistant at Texas (2004-10). The Longhorns reached three straight NCAA Final Fours with Hosfeld on staff, including the 2009 national championship match, while posting a 186-33 record in that span. He also touts extensive USA Volleyball experience, including a silver medal at the World University Games.

MEET THE STAFF

Hosfeld has no shortage of experience on his first staff at UNM, with over 80 years of coaching and playing experience between Associate Head Coaches Jeremiah "Jeri" Estes and Patrick Sullivan and Assistant Coach Katie Keiper.

ESTES: Jeremiah Estes brings an extensive international background to Albuquerque after coaching championship programs across Europe, Asia and the United States. His career includes national titles in Switzerland, European Champions League success in Russia and an NCAA championship at Long Beach State, along with experience working with both the U.S. and Russian national teams. Estes has coached more than 40 Olympians and most recently helped Southern reach its first conference championship match in more than 25 years.

SULLIVAN: Patrick Sullivan brings experience from coaching stops at Bradley, Northern Iowa, Long Beach State and Golden West College, contributing in recruiting, scouting, player development and program operations. At Bradley, he helped the Braves' middle blockers make notable gains in offensive efficiency and blocking production within the Missouri Valley Conference, while his time at Golden West included a state championship as co-head coach. Sullivan also founded and directed Stealth Volleyball, where he developed and placed athletes across multiple NCAA levels, and has worked as a recruiting coordinator and private trainer.

KEIPER: Katie Keiper joins the Lobos after building more than 15 years of experience as a player and coach across the high school, club, collegiate and international levels. Most recently, she coached U17 and U18 teams with Great Plains Volleyball Club and led Eisenhower High School, earning Oklahoma Coaches Association Region 4 Coach of the Year honors in 2024. Her previous coaching stops include T3 VBC, 208 VBC, Gonzaga Preparatory School and College Prep Academy Volleyball Club. Keiper also brings an international edge after competing with the Lakenheath U.S. Air Force Women's Team in England, coaching the All-Air Force European Women's Team to gold and playing professionally on the UK Pro Beach Tour and with VLA Team Sakura.

INTERNATIONAL CONNECTION

UNM's 16-player roster features seven different nationalities, with players hailing from the United States, Brazil, China, Finland, Norway, Serbia and Ukraine. Four of the Lobos' seven newcomers hail from outside the U.S.

Additionally, first-year outside Aylin Ravell (Bedford, Texas) was born in Mexico and competes for Mexico internationally.

NEW FACES IN THE MW

After Grand Canyon joined the Mountain West for volleyball last season, three new teams join the league in 2026 – UTEP, Hawai'i and UC Davis.

UNM is 35-8 against UTEP all-time but haven't faced the Miners since 2022, when they won in five sets. The Lobos have won eight in a row over UTEP.

The Lobos are 1-0 against UC Davis, with a three-set neutral-site sweep of the Aggies in 2005 as the lone meeting between the two teams.

They're 0-9 against Hawai'i in a series that dates back to 1982, last meeting over a decade ago in 2014 when they fell 3-1 in Honolulu.

BRIAN HOSFELD
HEAD COACH

Brian Hosfeld became the 11th head volleyball coach at the University of New Mexico on Dec. 21, 2025.

Hosfeld arrives in Albuquerque after a four-year stint as Associate Head Coach at Wichita State with over three decades of coaching experience under his belt. During Hosfeld' s tenure in Wichita, the Shockers accumulated an 81-46 (.638) record, winning an AAC Tournament title and advancing to the NCAA Tournament in 2024. He also departed Baylor as the winningest head coach in school history in addition to winning a national title as an assistant at Long Beach State and reaching the Final Four three times as an assistant at Texas.

"I'm honored and excited to represent the University of New Mexico as the next head coach of women's volleyball," Hosfeld said. "The opportunity to build alongside our student-athletes—developing them on and off the court—is what excites me most.

"UNM is a special place with good history, and I can't wait to begin this journey with the Lobo family."

Hosfeld began his coaching career at Long Beach State in 1993, winning the national championship in his first season with the 49ers – that season, the 49ers went 32-2, only dropping two sets in their entire NCAA Tournament run.

After three seasons at Long Beach, he was chosen to lead the Baylor program in 1996, departing eight years later as the winningest coach in program history with 129 victories to his name. Under Hosfeld's leadership, Baylor reached the NCAA tournament for the first time in program history in 1999, going on to qualify again in 2001.

Following his tenure in Waco, Hosfeld joined the staff at Texas in 2004, working primarily with the Longhorns defense and middle blockers. He helped formulate one of the most productive defensive units in the nation, with the Longhorns winning three consecutive Big 12 titles and reaching the Final Four in 2008, 2009 and 2010 -- UT advanced to the national championship match in 2009. With Hosfeld on staff, Texas posted an overall record of 186-33, winning at an .849 clip.

Hosfeld has also coached at the international level, leading the 2005 USA Volleyball A2 junior national team and USA Volleyball to a silver medal at the 1997 World University Games in Sicily, Italy. Prior to his work with that team, Hosfeld served as USA Volleyball's director of the World University and National Team tryouts at the Olympic Training Center.

Hosfeld's most recent collegiate coaching experience before heading to Wichita came as an interim assistant coach at Utah, where he spent the 2011 season before transitioning full-time to club volleyball. He helped found nationally-recognized Magnum Volleyball in 1986 and worked with Austin Juniors, Club Red, Arizona East Valley, Spiral and Catalyst before taking over as director of T3 in Coeur d'Alene, where he spent the previous decade before making his return to collegiate volleyball in 2022.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Jeremiah (Jeri) Estes joined the Lobo Volleyball Coaching Staff in February of 2026.

Internationally, Estes is widely regarded as one of the most accomplished coaches in the sport, having helped lead championship programs in three different countries. His global résumé includes two Swiss League national championships as head coach at Volero Zurich (2005, 2006), an NCAA National Championship at Long Beach State as part of the first undefeated title team in NCAA history, and multiple European Champions League titles during his tenure with Uralochka in Russia—one of the most successful professional volleyball clubs in the world.

Estes' footprint extends to the international club volleyball scene as well – he has served as head coach for Volero Zurich (Switzerland), Azeryol Baku (Azerbaijan), Dinamo Moscow (Russia) and Tianjin (China) among others. While at Volero Zurich, he led the club to back-to-back Swiss League championships, Swiss Cup titles, and a remarkable 74-match winning streak. Over the course of his career, Estes has coached and trained more than 40 Olympians worldwide.

Estes arrives in Albuquerque following a highly successful stint as Associate Head Coach at Southern University, where he helped guide the program to its most successful season in more than a decade. Under his leadership, Southern advanced to its first conference championship final in over 25 years and produced two All-SWAC selections for the first time since 2016.

At the NCAA Division I level, Estes has served in prominent roles at Long Beach State, UC Santa Barbara, and East Carolina, including being part of Long Beach State's historic undefeated NCAA National Championship season, the first in NCAA history. During his tenure at Long Beach State, the program recorded two Final Four appearances, five NCAA Tournament berths, three conference championships, and four top-10 national finishes.

In addition to his collegiate and international accomplishments, Estes has made a significant impact at the grassroots level as founder and owner of The Volleyball Factory and co-founder of Mizuno Long Beach Volleyball Club.

A native of Honolulu, Hawaii, Estes attended Mid-Pacific Institute, where he was a letterman in volleyball and basketball. He received his bachelor's degree from Long Beach State University, where he was a member of the Men's Volleyball team and competed for the Track & Field squad in the decathlon and the 400 meters. He and his wife Evgeniya (Artamonova) Estes – the only six-time indoor women's volleyball Olympian in the world for the Russian women's Olympic team – have three children, Jette, Jeyvin and Jerren.

PATRICK SULLIVAN
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Patrick Sullivan joined the program as Associate Head Coach in March of 2026.

Sullivan's coaching background includes but is not limited to experience at the NCAA Division I level with Bradley University and the University of Northern Iowa, as well as Long Beach State and Golden West College. Across these roles, he has contributed to conference success, postseason appearances, and a state championship as a Co-Head Coach, while supporting all aspects of program operations, including recruiting, scouting, player development, and academic achievement. At Bradley, Coach Sullivan played a key role in developing the team's middle blockers, contributing to significant improvements in offensive efficiency and blocking performance within the Missouri Valley Conference.

In addition to collegiate coaching, Coach Sullivan has extensive experience in club and developmental volleyball. As the founder and director of Stealth Volleyball, he established and led a competitive club program that successfully placed athletes at the collegiate level across NCAA divisions. Coach Sullivan has also served as a recruiting coordinator and private trainer, working with athletes ranging from youth to Division I prospects, while providing guidance throughout the recruiting process.
