HEAD COACH

Sharon Petro is in her first year as varsity basketball coach at Notre Dame. The native of Detroit, Mich., has extensive coaching experience in many sports. During a nine-year coaching career at Aquinas High School in Southgate Mich., she guided the track team to three league championships and one regional title, and the basketball squad to two league championships. She also assisted the women's fencing team at Wayne State University during this period. Recently she completed her first season as women's varsity tennis coach.

Petro received her B.S. from Wayne State in 1968 and a M.S. from Eastern Michigan in 1976. "I am very fortunate to be involved with the new and developing women's athletic program at Notre Dame. This is a young team. We only have six returing players on the squad. But, for a team in only its first year of varsity status, the talent is very commendable.

"We will be looking to Carol Lally to serve as the team leader while Jane Politiski's 5-11 height will aid in the shooting and rebounding department. The 5-9 pair of Pat Meyer and Marge Meagher will back up Politiski. The speed of guards Molly Cashman, Maggie Lally, Michelle O'Hagen, Carrie Rooney, Regina Robillard, Ann Smith, Eunice Sullivan and Byrne Murphy will also be a help.

"Rounding out the squad will be sophomores Beth Conlisk and Carola Cummings, joined by freshmen Kelly Hicks and Kathy Lew."
