Greeley Auto Accident FAQ

Answers to common questions after a car crash in Greeley.

Based on Greeley Auto Accident Lawyer by McCormick and Murphy

Q: What should I do immediately after a car accident in Greeley?

A: Get medical attention right away, even if you don't think you're injured. Call the police to ensure an accident report is filed. Take photos of the vehicles, the accident scene, and any visible injuries.

Q: Should I talk about fault at the accident scene?

A: Exchange insurance information with the other driver, but do not discuss fault or apologize. Admitting fault, even seemingly minor, can be used against you later.

Q: What information should I collect at the scene?

A: Gather names and contact information of any witnesses. Also, take photos of the vehicles, the accident scene, and any visible injuries.

Q: Do I need to notify my insurance company?

A: Yes, you should notify your insurance company that an accident occurred. However, do not give a recorded statement until you have spoken with an attorney.

Q: When should I contact an attorney after an accident?

A: It is advisable to contact an attorney before you say anything that could be used against you. McCormick & Murphy, P.C. can be reached at 888-668-1182.

Q: Is it important to get a police report?

A: Yes, call the police and make sure an accident report is filed. This report can be crucial evidence in your case.

Q: What if I don't feel injured immediately after the crash?

A: Seek medical attention right away, even if you think you are fine. Some injuries may not be apparent immediately and can worsen over time.

Q: Can photos help my case?

A: Yes, taking photos of the vehicles involved, the accident scene, and any visible injuries is very important. These visuals serve as critical evidence.

Q: Why shouldn't I apologize at the scene?

A: Apologizing, even if it seems polite, can be interpreted as an admission of fault. It's best to avoid discussing fault or apologizing to protect your interests.

Q: Who should I call if I need legal help after an accident in Greeley?

A: You should contact McCormick & Murphy, P.C. at 888-668-1182. They can provide guidance before you make any statements that could harm your claim.
