NEW MEXICO NOTES

New Mexico Volleyball returns to Las Vegas for its first Mountain West Tournament appearance since 2023, with the fourth-seeded Lobos (12-16, 10-8 MW) set to face top-seeded Hawai'i (25-4, 17-1 MW) in Tuesday's opening semifinal. First serve is set for 2 p.m. MT on Nov. 24 at Cox Pavilion.

Picked to finish last in the MW preseason poll, the Lobos were 2-10 overall and 0-2 in league play after dropping both matches at Hawai'i to open the conference schedule in September. UNM went 10-6 the rest of the way under first-year head coach Brian Hosfeld, doubling its conference win total from a season ago and earning the final spot in the four-team tournament.

New Mexico secured its berth on Senior Night in front of 1,408 fans at The Pit - Powered by Nusenda. A day after falling to Wyoming in five sets, the Lobos took all three sets from the Cowgirls by the same 25-17 score. Senior setter Madeleine Miller became the seventh Lobo to reach 3,000 career assists with her 13th of the night and set up Mina Stanojevic for the kill that sent UNM back to Las Vegas.

The Lobos will look for their first win over the Rainbow Wahine in 12 meetings. Hawai'i won the regular-season title in its first year in the Mountain West and brings a six-match winning streak to Las Vegas. Led at the net by middle blocker Miliana Sylvester's league-best 139 blocks, the Rainbow Wahine have held opponents to a .139 hitting percentage, third-lowest in Division I.

With a win Tuesday, UNM would face No. 2 seed Grand Canyon or No. 3 seed UC Davis in Wednesday's championship match at 3 p.m. MT, with the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament on the line. All three tournament matches will stream live on MW+. Follow @UNMLoboVB on Instagram, X and Facebook for match updates and behind-the-scenes coverage from Las Vegas.

Mina Stanojevic putting away the final kill as the Lobos finished the regular season 12-16 overall and 10-8 in MW play.

New Mexico held the edge in kills (109-96), assists (102-90) and digs (126-119) across the two matches, outhitting the Cowgirls .264 to .204. After both teams put away 65 kills Wednesday, UNM outblocked Wyoming 11-8 in Thursday's sweep and limited the Cowgirls to 31 kills on .102 hitting, down from .281 in the opener. The Lobos also cut Wyoming's service aces from 11 in the five-set loss to three in the finale.

Addison France led UNM with 30 kills (3.75 per set) on .366 hitting, following a match-high 19 kills Wednesday with 11 kills and 11 digs Thursday. Zoe Leonard reached double figures in both matches, hitting a team-best .452 with just two errors on 42 swings. She put away 11 kills on .526 hitting in the sweep and matched Reagan Miller for the team lead with seven blocks across the series. Seenane Brewer added 24 kills, including 16 in the opener and six in the final set Thursday.

Madeleine Miller totaled 87 assists (10.88 per set), dishing out 52 Wednesday before recording a double-double with 35 assists and 13 digs Thursday. Her 13th assist on Senior Night made her the seventh Lobo in program history to reach 3,000. Camila Canedo led the back row with 41 digs (5.13 per set), collecting 24 in the opener and 17 in the sweep. She added nine assists and two aces, serving her second ace Thursday to bring up match point.

MOUNTAIN WEST TOURNAMENT HISTORY
New Mexico makes its 14th Mountain West Tournament appearance and its first since 2023. The Lobos are 3-13 in their previous 13 appearances, qualifying for each of the league's first nine tournaments (1999-2007), hosting the 2011 tournament in Albuquerque and making three straight appearances from 2021-23. Tuesday marks UNM's third MW semifinal and its first as the No. 4 seed. A win over Hawai'i would send the Lobos to the MW championship match for the first time.

Two of UNM's three tournament wins came against Air Force. In the inaugural tournament in 1999, the fifth-seeded Lobos beat the fourth-seeded Falcons in five sets in Provo, winning the fifth 15-6 before falling to top-seeded BYU in the semifinals. In 2006, UNM swept Air Force at Cox Pavilion in Las Vegas before falling to top-seeded Utah in the quarterfinals.

The Lobos' most recent tournament win also came at Cox Pavilion. In 2023, sixth-seeded UNM rallied from a 2-1 deficit to upset No. 3 seed and host UNLV, taking the fourth set 25-14 and the fifth 15-12. It was UNM's first MW Tournament win since 2006 and its first semifinal appearance since 1999. The Lobos fell to second-seeded Colorado State in three sets, and Uxue Guereca earned All-Tournament Team honors.

Tuesday will be the first MW Tournament meeting between New Mexico and Hawai'i, though the two have met in postseason play in Las Vegas before. In the 1996 WAC Tournament, the Lobos defeated Utah in four sets before the Rainbow Wahine swept UNM in the second round. ALL-TIME SERIES

New Mexico meets Hawai'i for the 12th time in program history and the first time in the Mountain West Tournament on Tuesday. The Rainbow Wahine swept both matches in Honolulu on Sept. 25 and 26 to open their first season of MW play, moving UNM to 0-11 in the all-time series. The Lobos are 0-7 against Hawai'i in Honolulu, 0-2 in Albuquerque and 0-2 at neutral sites. Before this fall, the programs last met in 2014 after competing as WAC opponents from 1996-98.

LAST WEEKEND RECAP

UNM split its final regular-season series with Wyoming at The Pit - Powered by Nusenda, answering Wednesday's five-set loss with a Senior Night sweep to clinch its first Mountain West Tournament berth since 2023. The Lobos won the fourth set 25-22 in the opener before Wyoming took the fifth, 15-7. In Thursday's rematch, UNM won all three sets 25-17 in front of 1,408 fans, with Mina Stanojevic putting away the final kill as the Lobos finished the regular season 12-16 overall and 10-8 in MW play.

New Mexico held the edge in kills (109-96), assists (102-90) and digs (126-119) across the two matches, outhitting the Cowgirls .264 to .204. After both teams put away 65 kills Wednesday, UNM outblocked Wyoming 11-8 in Thursday's sweep and limited the Cowgirls to 31 kills on .102 hitting, down from .281 in the opener. The Lobos also cut Wyoming's service aces from 11 in the five-set loss to three in the finale.

Addison France led UNM with 30 kills (3.75 per set) on .366 hitting, following a match-high 19 kills Wednesday with 11 kills and 11 digs Thursday. Zoe Leonard reached double figures in both matches, hitting a team-best .452 with just two errors on 42 swings. She put away 11 kills on .526 hitting in the sweep and matched Reagan Miller for the team lead with seven blocks across the series. Seenane Brewer added 24 kills, including 16 in the opener and six in the final set Thursday.

Madeleine Miller totaled 87 assists (10.88 per set), dishing out 52 Wednesday before recording a double-double with 35 assists and 13 digs Thursday. Her 13th assist on Senior Night made her the seventh Lobo in program history to reach 3,000. Camila Canedo led the back row with 41 digs (5.13 per set), collecting 24 in the opener and 17 in the sweep. She added nine assists and two aces, serving her second ace Thursday to bring up match point.

MOUNTAIN WEST TOURNAMENT HISTORY

New Mexico makes its 14th Mountain West Tournament appearance and its first since 2023. The Lobos are 3-13 in their previous 13 appearances, qualifying for each of the league's first nine tournaments (1999-2007), hosting the 2011 tournament in Albuquerque and making three straight appearances from 2021-23. Tuesday marks UNM's third MW semifinal and its first as the No. 4 seed. A win over Hawai'i would send the Lobos to the MW championship match for the first time.

Two of UNM's three tournament wins came against Air Force. In the inaugural tournament in 1999, the fifth-seeded Lobos beat the fourth-seeded Falcons in five sets in Provo, winning the fifth 15-6 before falling to top-seeded BYU in the semifinals. In 2006, UNM swept Air Force at Cox Pavilion in Las Vegas before falling to top-seeded Utah in the quarterfinals.

The Lobos' most recent tournament win also came at Cox Pavilion. In 2023, sixth-seeded UNM rallied from a 2-1 deficit to upset No. 3 seed and host UNLV, taking the fourth set 25-14

Tuesday will be the first MW Tournament meeting between New Mexico and Hawai'i, though the two have met in postseason play in Las Vegas before. In the 1996 WAC Tournament, the Lobos defeated Utah in four sets before the Rainbow Wahine swept UNM in the second round.

AN ICONIC RETURN

New Mexico closed its first season back at The Pit - Powered by Nusenda with 988 fans on hand for Wednesday's series opener against Wyoming and 1,408 for Thursday's Senior Night sweep. NUN GETTING INVOLVED

Seenane Brewer has put away 138 of her 147 kills this season since returning to the lineup against UTEP on Oct. 17. After totaling nine kills in her first 11 appearances, Brewer started 10 of UNM's final 11 regular-season matches and averaged 3.07 kills per set over that stretch. She reached double figures seven times, including four straight matches from Nov. 7-18.

Brewer totaled 33 kills in UNM's two five-set wins at UNLV, following a 15-kill opener with a season-high 18 in the rematch. She added 24 kills against Wyoming, putting away 16 in Wednesday's opener before recording six of her eight kills in the final set of Thursday's tournament-clinching sweep.

REAGAN HEATING UP

Reagan Miller enters the tournament with 234 kills in 100 sets, 112 more kills than she recorded a year ago. The middle blocker has raised her average from 1.36 to 2.34 kills per set, started all 27 matches she has played and leads the Lobos with a .305 hitting percentage, 73 blocks and 25 solo stops. Her 25 solo blocks match Anna Lehne's 2009 total for third on UNM's single-season list in the 25-point scoring era.

Miller reached double figures in kills in 12 matches, hitting at least .400 in eight of them. She put away 15 kills without an error on 22 swings (.682) against Northern Colorado and hit .650 with 15 kills against New Mexico State. On UNM's last trip to Las Vegas, Miller delivered the fifth-set winner in both matches at UNLV, finishing the series with 29 kills and just three errors on 60 swings (.433). She set a career high with 16 kills in the rematch and followed with 11 kills in the Wyoming opener and five blocks in the Senior Night sweep.

MADS MOVING ON UP
Madeleine Miller became the seventh Lobo to reach 3,000 career assists in UNM's Senior Night sweep of Wyoming. She enters the tournament with 3,024, seventh in program history and 129 behind Jocelyn Funk (3,153) for sixth. Miller also reached 1,000 assists in a season for the first time. Her 1,019 assists are a career high and the most by a Lobo since Hannah Johnson recorded 1,144 in 2015.

Miller started all 28 regular-season matches and averaged 9.52 assists per set, adding 230 digs, 101 kills, 45 blocks and 21 aces. She reached 40 assists 13 times and 50 assists four times, highlighted by a season-high 55 in a four-set win over San José State on Oct. 25. That performance capped a 102-assist series and earned her MW Offensive Player of the Week honors. Miller closed the regular season with 52 assists in the Wyoming opener and 35 assists and 13 digs in the sweep for her 10th double-double.

MILA DIGGIN' IT
Camila Canedo enters the tournament with 463 digs, ninth on UNM's single-season list and just two behind Miquella Lovato's 2012 total for eighth. The Brazilian libero has averaged 4.33 digs per set in each of her two seasons at New Mexico. She recorded 485 digs in 2025, seventh in program history, and now has 948 as a Lobo, 52 shy of 1,000.

Canedo recorded a season-high 27 digs in UNM's five-set win at UC Davis and earned her second MW Defensive Player of the Week award after averaging 5.63 digs per set in two wins over San José State. She closed the regular season with 41 digs against Wyoming, collecting 24 in the opener and 17 in the sweep. Canedo also finished the regular season with 100 assists and 23 aces. Her final ace brought up match point in the win that sent UNM to Las Vegas.

HOSFELD AT THE HELM
In his first season as New Mexico's head coach, Brian Hosfeld doubled the program's conference win total from five to 10 and guided the Lobos to their first MW Tournament since 2023. Picked last in the preseason poll, UNM recovered from a 2-10 start by winning seven of its next eight matches. The Lobos then won three of their final four to finish fourth at 10-8 in league play, including a 6-3 mark at home against MW opponents.

Hosfeld came to Albuquerque after four seasons as associate head coach at Wichita State, where the Shockers went 81-46 and won the 2024 AAC Tournament. He previously won 129 matches as Baylor's head coach and led the Bears to their first two NCAA Tournament appearances. As an assistant, he helped Long Beach State win the 1993 national title and Texas reach three consecutive NCAA Final Fours, including the 2009 title match.

MEET THE STAFF
Associate head coaches Jeremiah "Jeri" Estes and Patrick Sullivan and assistant coach Katie Keiper joined Hosfeld in Albuquerque for his first season. Estes has coached more than 40 Olympians and worked with both the U.S. and Russian national teams. Before joining UNM, he helped Southern reach its first conference championship match in more than 25 years.

Sullivan's coaching stops include Bradley, Northern Iowa, Long Beach State and Golden West College, where he won a state championship as co-head coach. Keiper came to UNM after coaching with Great Plains Volleyball Club and Eisenhower High School in Oklahoma, where she earned regional coach of the year honors in 2024. She also coached the All-Air Force European Women's Team to gold.

INTERNATIONAL CONNECTION
Seven countries are represented on UNM's 16-player roster — the United States, Brazil, China, Finland, Norway, Serbia and Ukraine. Four of the Lobos' seven newcomers came from outside the U.S. First-year outside hitter Aylin Ravell, who calls Bedford, Texas, home, was born in Mexico and represents Mexico internationally.

NEW FACES IN THE MW
Two of the Mountain West's three first-year volleyball members earned spots in the four-team tournament. Hawai'i won the regular-season title at 17-1 and drew fourth-seeded New Mexico, while third-seeded UC Davis faces No. 2 seed Grand Canyon in the other semifinal. The Lobos played all three tournament opponents twice during the regular season, with both of their wins coming on the road at UC Davis.

UNM rallied from a 2-1 deficit to beat UC Davis 16-14 in the fifth set on Oct. 8, then took the rematch in four to improve to 3-0 all-time against the Aggies. Hawai'i swept both September meetings in Honolulu, and Grand Canyon won in three and four sets in Albuquerque in October. The Lobos split with fellow newcomer UTEP, answering a three-set loss in El Paso with a four-set home win to move to 36-9 all-time against the Miners.

BRIAN HOSFELD
HEAD COACH

Brian Hosfeld became the 11th head volleyball coach at the University of New Mexico on Dec. 21, 2025.

Hosfeld arrives in Albuquerque after a four-year stint as Associate Head Coach at Wichita State with over three decades of coaching experience under his belt. During Hosfeld' s tenure in Wichita, the Shockers accumulated an 81-46 (.638) record, winning an AAC Tournament title and advancing to the NCAA Tournament in 2024. He also departed Baylor as the winningest head coach in school history in addition to winning a national title as an assistant at Long Beach State and reaching the Final Four three times as an assistant at Texas.

"I'm honored and excited to represent the University of New Mexico as the next head coach of women's volleyball," Hosfeld said. "The opportunity to build alongside our student-athletes—developing them on and off the court—is what excites me most.

"UNM is a special place with good history, and I can't wait to begin this journey with the Lobo family."

Hosfeld began his coaching career at Long Beach State in 1993, winning the national championship in his first season with the 49ers – that season, the 49ers went 32-2, only dropping two sets in their entire NCAA Tournament run.

After three seasons at Long Beach, he was chosen to lead the Baylor program in 1996, departing eight years later as the winningest coach in program history with 129 victories to his name. Under Hosfeld's leadership, Baylor reached the NCAA tournament for the first time in program history in 1999, going on to qualify again in 2001.

Following his tenure in Waco, Hosfeld joined the staff at Texas in 2004, working primarily with the Longhorns defense and middle blockers. He helped formulate one of the most productive defensive units in the nation, with the Longhorns winning three consecutive Big 12 titles and reaching the Final Four in 2008, 2009 and 2010 -- UT advanced to the national championship match in 2009. With Hosfeld on staff, Texas posted an overall record of 186-33, winning at an .849 clip.

Hosfeld has also coached at the international level, leading the 2005 USA Volleyball A2 junior national team and USA Volleyball to a silver medal at the 1997 World University Games in Sicily, Italy. Prior to his work with that team, Hosfeld served as USA Volleyball's director of the World University and National Team tryouts at the Olympic Training Center.

Hosfeld's most recent collegiate coaching experience before heading to Wichita came as an interim assistant coach at Utah, where he spent the 2011 season before transitioning full-time to club volleyball. He helped found nationally-recognized Magnum Volleyball in 1986 and worked with Austin Juniors, Club Red, Arizona East Valley, Spiral and Catalyst before taking over as director of T3 in Coeur d'Alene, where he spent the previous decade before making his return to collegiate volleyball in 2022.

JEREMIAH "JERI" ESTES
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Jeremiah (Jeri) Estes joined the Lobo Volleyball Coaching Staff in February of 2026.

Internationally, Estes is widely regarded as one of the most accomplished coaches in the sport, having helped lead championship programs in three different countries. His global résumé includes two Swiss League national championships as head coach at Volero Zurich (2005, 2006), an NCAA National Championship at Long Beach State as part of the first undefeated title team in NCAA history, and multiple European Champions League titles during his tenure with Uralochka in Russia—one of the most successful professional volleyball clubs in the world.

Estes has also coached or advised USA Volleyball's National and Olympic Teams, Russia's National and Olympic Teams, and numerous professional clubs across Europe and Asia, with international accolades that include a Gold Medal with the USA Men's National Team at the 2023 Pan American Games, a silver medal at the Athens Olympic Games with Russia, and multiple FIVB World Grand Prix gold medals.

Estes' footprint extends to the international club volleyball scene as well – he has served as head coach for Volero Zurich (Switzerland), Azeryol Baku (Azerbaijan), Dinamo Moscow (Russia) and Tianjin (China) among others. While at Volero Zurich, he led the club to back-to-back Swiss League championships, Swiss Cup titles, and a remarkable 74-match winning streak. Over the course of his career, Estes has coached and trained more than 40 Olympians worldwide.

Estes arrives in Albuquerque following a highly successful stint as Associate Head Coach at Southern University, where he helped guide the program to its most successful season in more than a decade. Under his leadership, Southern advanced to its first conference championship final in over 25 years and produced two All-SWAC selections for the first time since 2016.

At the NCAA Division I level, Estes has served in prominent roles at Long Beach State, UC Santa Barbara, and East Carolina, including being part of Long Beach State's historic undefeated NCAA National Championship season, the first in NCAA history. During his tenure at Long Beach State, the program recorded two Final Four appearances, five NCAA Tournament berths, three conference championships, and four top-10 national finishes.

In addition to his collegiate and international accomplishments, Estes has made a significant impact at the grassroots level as founder and owner of The Volleyball Factory and co-founder of Mizuno Long Beach Volleyball Club.

A native of Honolulu, Hawaii, Estes attended Mid-Pacific Institute, where he was a letterman in volleyball and basketball. He received his bachelor's degree from Long Beach State University, where he was a member of the Men's Volleyball team and competed for the Track & Field squad in the decathlon and the 400 meters. He and his wife Evgeniya (Artamonova) Estes – the only six-time indoor women's volleyball Olympian in the world for the Russian women's Olympic team – have three children, Jette, Jeyvin and Jerren.

PATRICK SULLIVAN
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Patrick Sullivan joined the program as Associate Head Coach in March of 2026.

Sullivan's coaching background includes but is not limited to experience at the NCAA Division I level with Bradley University and the University of Northern Iowa, as well as Long Beach State and Golden West College. Across these roles, he has contributed to conference success, postseason appearances, and a state championship as a Co-Head Coach, while supporting all aspects of program operations, including recruiting, scouting, player development, and academic achievement. At Bradley, Coach Sullivan played a key role in developing the team's middle blockers, contributing to significant improvements in offensive efficiency and blocking performance within the Missouri Valley Conference.

In addition to collegiate coaching, Coach Sullivan has extensive experience in club and developmental volleyball. As the founder and director of Stealth Volleyball, he established and led a competitive club program that successfully placed athletes at the collegiate level across NCAA divisions. Coach Sullivan has also served as a recruiting coordinator and private trainer, working with athletes ranging from youth to Division I prospects, while providing guidance throughout the recruiting process.

A former NCAA National Champion at Long Beach State, Coach Sullivan competed at the highest level of collegiate volleyball and was part of multiple NCAA Championship finalist teams. His playing experience also includes national-level competition, highlighted by multiple USA Volleyball Open National Championships with Team ASICS/Paul Mitchell. In recognition of these accomplishments, Coach Sullivan was inducted into the Madera Sports Hall of Fame (Second Class) and is a member of Long Beach State's Volleyball Wall of Fame and Hall of Fame as part of an NCAA Championship team.

Coach Sullivan has remained actively engaged in the volleyball community through media and outreach efforts, including serving as the creator and host of the "Set The Pipe!!" podcast and contributing as a color commentator for collegiate broadcasts.
