ROADRUNNERS NOTES AND NEWS

Val-iant Effort

Over the weekend, senior Valeria Ortiz proved to be an integral part of Carol Price-Torok's 6-2 system. The Arkansas State transfer paced the Roadrunners in assists across all three matches at the Razorback Invitational, totaling 74 for an average of 5.69 per set. The setter also added five aces, all of which came in Saturday's win over SIU Edwardsville.

Servin' Up A Storm

Against the Cougars of SIUE, the Navy & Orange posted 16 aces across the five-set affair. The mark matched a program record during the 25-point rally-scoring era (since 2008).

Ortiz led the way with five perfect serves while Makinsey Jones (four), Ally Tribe (three) and Alyssa Manitzas (two) each poured in multiple of their own. The Roadrunners tallied more aces in the third set (eight) than they did in any match across the entire 2014 season (six).

Quite The Debut

Sydney Bryant made her first collegiate appearances over the weekend, starting all three matches in Arkansas. The redshirt freshman paced her side with 47 kills over the weekend, including a team-high 21 and 15 on Saturday and Sunday, respectively.

American Preseason Poll

Last month, the American Conference released its annual preseason coaches' poll. Conducted by the league's 13 head coaches, UTSA was predicted to finish in the middle of the pack at seventh. No Roadrunners were selected on the 14-member Preseason All-American Conference Team.

First Appearance In American Championship

The 2025 campaign saw the Roadrunners' first appearance in the American Championship since joining the league in 2023. Prior to last season, UTSA had not appeared in a league tournament since 2019. The Roadrunners have won three conference tournaments in history, with their last being in 2013 as a member of Conference USA.

Choosin' Texas (Mostly)

The Roadrunners have just four student-athletes who are from outside the state of Texas. Maddie Angel (Oregon), Brooke Elliott (Indiana), Makinsey Jones (Kansas) and Isabella Arroyave (Medellin, Colombia) make up the quartet of Roadrunners that do not call the Lone Star State home.

Bring it Back Now, Y'all...

The 'Runners return 10 players from last year's squad, including six regular starters. Megan Hawkins, Giada Obregon, Brooke Elliott, Ally Tribe, Caroline Tredwell and Miranda Putnicki all started at least 18 matches a season ago. UTSA brings back 81.48% of its point production from 2025 in addition to 58.52% of assists and 62.31% of all digs.

About the Newcomers

The 2026 roster will feature eight total additions, headlined by six experienced Division I transfers. Makinsey Jones (Kansas State), Alyssa Manitzas (Notre Dame) and Sydney Bryant (Vanderbilt) all made their way to UTSA via Power Four programs. Elsewhere in the portal were Ledisi Kpea (Kansas City), Valeria Ortiz (Arkansas State) and Sydney Black (Colorado State). Rounding out this fall's squad are true freshmen Logan McGinnis and Maddie Angel.

Scouting the Competition

Over the weekend, UIW finished 0-2 at LSU's season-opening tournament, falling to both Houston and the hosting Tigers. The Cardinals hit .171 as a group, suffering defeat in six of seven sets played.

Meanwhile, Tarleton State spent its weekend in the Grand Canyon State at the Wildcat Classic. (RV) Arizona and UC Santa Barbara both toppled the Texans before TSU responded with a Sunday sweep of Prairie View A&M. On Wednesday night, the Texans fell in four sets at (RV) Rice.

Last Time They Met

UIW took a five-set thriller at the Convocation Center on Saturday, Sept. 7, 2024. A dozen service errors proved costly for the hosts as they fell just short of a reverse sweep by a 17-15 margin in frame five.

Tarleton State dealt the 'Runners a similar fate on Sept. 2, 2023 from the Convocation Center. A 17-15 fifth set capped off a 2-1 comeback for the Texans, who withstood 14 UTSA blocks and 10 aces from the home side.

Up Next

After the UTSA Invitational, the 'Runners will stay home for another tournament across Sept. 10-12. The Roadrunner Classic will feature Gonzaga, East Texas A&M and IU Indianapolis while also boasting three neutral matches. All of UTSA's bouts will be streamed live on ESPN+ and available to follow via utsa.statbroadcast.com.

INTRODUCING HEAD COACH CAROL PRICE-TOROK

Carol Price-Torok, the 2018 Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year and a former UTSA assistant coach, will enter her fifth season as UTSA's head coach in 2026 after spending the previous six years as the head coach at Bradley.

The 2025 campaign saw UTSA makes its first postseason appearance of any kind since 2019. By clinching the league's eighth seed, the Roadrunners secured the final spot in the American Conference Championship. Top-seeded Rice prevailed in the bout, but UTSA returned to a conference tournament for the first time since joining the American in the summer of 2023.

After going 8-18 in her first season at the helm, the Roadrunners took major strides forward, concluding the 2023 campaign with a 15-15 record, the most victories in a single season since 2019. In 2024, the Roadrunners went 11-18, with opposite hitter Mia Soerensen making her second American Athletic Conference All-Conference Second Team selection in as many seasons.

In 2023, UTSA led The American in aces per set (1.76) and was second in blocks per set (2.43). Both figures ranked in the top 50 in the nation at the conclusion of the regular season. Soerensen was named second-team all-AAC, marking UTSA's first selection since joining the league and the first second-team performer since 2018. The Roadrunners recorded nine sweeps for the first time since accomplishing the feat in 2015, and Price-Torok picked up her 100th career victory on Sept. 15 after the squad swept Oral Roberts as a part of the Cardinal Classic.

Before returning to the Alamo City, she spent the previous six years as the head coach at Bradley. The 2018 Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year led the Braves to 85 wins, three conference tournaments, and the 2021 National Invitational Volleyball Championship Sweet 16.

Price-Torok took over a Bradley program that won 30 MVC games in 10 years combined and led the Braves to 53 league victories and an 85-90 (.486) overall record in her six seasons.

She mentored nine first-team All-MVC selections, a 2020 AVCA All-Region Outside Hitter, the 2021 Setter of the Year, one MVC Freshman of the Year, 16 MVC scholar-athletes, one MVC Volleyball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, five CoSIDA Academic All-District honorees, and four State Farm MVC Good Neighbor award winners during her time at Bradley.

Prior to Bradley, Price-Torok spent eight seasons as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at Arkansas, where she helped the Razorbacks to back-to-back NCAA Tournament bids in 2012 and 2013.

Individually, Arkansas produced four All-Americans, five all-region picks, and eight all-SEC selections during her tenure.

Before her time in Fayetteville, Price-Torok spent two seasons (2006 and 2007) as an assistant coach at UTSA, where she coached two first-team All-Southland Conference players.

Price-Torok began her coaching career in 2005 at Southwestern, where the Pirates were named SCAC Conference Champions and earned an NCAA Division III Tournament bid.

During her collegiate career at Texas A&M, she was part of four consecutive NCAA Tournament teams and started her final two years at outside hitter after playing middle blocker her freshman and sophomore seasons. The team's 2003 offensive MVP, Price-Torok was selected as Big 12 Player of the Week twice during her senior year and was a second-team Big 12 Scholar-Athlete. She also helped the Aggies to the NCAA Elite Eight in 2001, along with a Sweet 16 appearance in 2003.
