LAST TIME OUT

• Missouri topped the Oral Roberts Golden Eagles 86-64 in Mizzou Arena thanks to 17 three-pointers, good for the most in a game since the team hit a school-record 18 treys against Auburn.

• Both Morgan and Maddie Stock hit five three-pointers in the contest, and Morgan Eye matched that total as well.

• Missouri made seven of its eight attempts from the charity stripe in the contest, both Bri Kulas and Jordan Frericks were perfect from the line on the night.

QUICK HITS

• As the team, the Tigers aim for 80-percent free-throw shooting during practices and in games. So far this season the Tigers have done a great job of sticking to that goal as the team leads the SEC with a 79.7 free throw shooting percentage. Amongst individual leaders, senior Bri Kulas is shooting 89.1 percent from the line, good for fourth in the league.

• Mizzou is on its way to one of the best non-conference seasons to date. Missouri is 8-1 in the non-con and will look to top the 2011-12 season when the team finished 10-1. The 10-1 record is the best for a Mizzou team since 2006-07 when the Tigers finished non-conference play with a 12-1 record.

• This season the Tigers are averaging 5.4 blocks per game, a number that ranks tied for second in the SEC and 18th in the nation. The number is much improved from last season when the Tigers averaged 2.3 blocks per game. Freshman Jordan Frericks is dominating in this category, she leads the team with 19 blocks on the season, good for an average of 2.1 per game (third-best in the SEC).

• Two categories that Mizzou was very good in a year ago, it is dominating in again this season. The Tigers are among leaders in the SEC (second) in defensive rebounding at 30.2 per game and are also third in assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.1.

• It's no secret that Mizzou can burn its opponents from distance and so far this season, the Tigers have not disappointed. Mizzou leads the league averaging 9.8 three-point makes per game. The number is the fifth-best in the nation.

• Staying on the topic of 3-point field goals, Mizzou connected on 17-of-38 attempts (44.7-percent) of their shots from distance its last time out against Oral Roberts. Three different players finished with five makes from beyond the arc in the win. The 17 3-pointers are the most by any team in the SEC. Mizzou scored a season-high 86 points in that win.

• Looking deeper into the 3-point shooting numbers, Mizzou has connected on 13 shots from deep in four different games this season and own the SEC's top four 3-point shooting games (by makes) in the SEC this season.

• Mizzou continues to show quality depth off the bench this season as the team is averaging 26.1 points per game off the pine. Three different players average at least 6.0 points per game off the bench this season, led by 7.6 from sophomore Morgan Stock.

• The Tigers have shown a great ability to close games this season, averaging 39.0 points per game in the second half. Conversely, Mizzou is limiting its opponents to just 29.6 points per game in the second half. To prove the killer instinct, Mizzou is connecting on 84-percent of its shots from the charity stripe in the second half as well.

PROTECT THIS HOUSE

• Mizzou has opened the 2013-14 season with an unblemished 5-0 record at home this season. The 5-0 start comes a year removed from last season when Mizzou opened 11-0 at home. Looking at the stats, it is easy to see why. Below is a look at why Mizzou has been successful at home

-Mizzou has eight players averaging at least 4.0 points per game in home contests this season and four averaging at least 7.0 ppg.

-The Tigers are averaging 5.8 blocks per game at home this season, ahead of their 5.4 clip for the season, which is tied for second in the SEC.

-Mizzou is holding opponents to just 56.2 points per game and 33.2-percent shooting in home games this season.

-Opponents have just a 0.4 assist-to-turnover ratio inside Mizzou Arena as the Tigers have turned the opponent over 93 times while assisting on just 34 of 93 field goals (36-percent).

-Conversely, Mizzou has assisted on 88 of 129 field goals (68.2-percent) of field goals at home.

RECORD WATCH

• The Tigers are undefeated on their home court this season, looking to extend their home win streak to six against Bradley. The Tigers average scoring margin is +13.0 in Columbia so far this season.

• Junior Morgan Eye recorded her 200th trey in Mizzou's contest against Oral Roberts. With 203 in her career, Eye sits second all-time at Mizzou. She is well on her way to breaking that record, however. Eye needs only 24 treys to put herself at the top of the list.

• Head Coach Robin Pingeton earned her 50th victory at Mizzou in the Tigers win over Hartford at the University of Miami Thanksgiving Tournament. The Tigers' victory over SIUE marks women's basketball's 90th victory in Mizzou Arena.

2013-14 Mizzou Women's Basketball

KUDOS FOR KULAS

• Senior leader Bri Kulas leads the Tigers in several categories this season. She is averaging a team-leading 16.2. points per game, good for third-best in the Southeastern Conference.

• Kulas is shooting 89.1-percent from the free throw line, good for third-best in the league as well. She plays a huge part in Missouri's league-leading 79.7 free throw percentage as well.

• She has recorded double figure scoring in all but one game this season (SLU) including two 20+ point performances.

FRERICKS ON FIRE

• A large component of Missouri's 5.4 blocks per game is freshman Jordan Frericks. She dominating in this category, leading the team with 19 blocks on the season, good for an average of 2.1 per game (third-best in the SEC). The number puts her at No. 43 in the nation as well.

• Frericks' seven blocked shots at UT Martin are an SEC Game high this season, as well.

• Jordan Frericks is doing her part to contribute to the defensive-minded team this season as she leads the team and the league with an average of 5.7 defensive rebounds per game. Her 8.0 rebounds per game also put among the league's top ten. Missouri is second the SEC in defensive rebounding at 30.2 per game.

ON POINT

• In her second year running the team as the point guard, sophomore Lianna Doty is doing a great job. Evidence of that is her improved assist-to-turnover ratio. Last year she checked in at 1.0 with 151 assists and 151 turnovers, but this season she checks in at 2.1 with 61 assists and just 29 turnovers. She has also ripped 21 steals this season.

•She is third in the SEC in assists with 6.9 per game and is seventh in assist-to-turnover. Doty is averaging a team-leading 7.75 assists per game over her last four contests, including a season-high 10 against UMKC.

• At this rate, Doty is on track to finish second on Missouri's all-time individual season assists list.

• She put up a career-high 21 points against UMKC and matched her best of six steals in the game as well.

• Doty Was driven to succeed this summer as she inspired her team to participate in a 25,000-shot challenge in their free time this summer. The work is paying off for Doty as she has improved her shooting percentage this season.

SHARING IS CARING

• The Tigers are playing unselfish basketball this season, as the team has assisted on 159-of-226 field goals (70%). The Tigers average 17.7 assists per game thanks to sophomore point guard Lianna Doty who leads the team with 61 assists on the season.

• Mizzou's 17.7 assists per game rank the Tigers fourth in the league.

• A stat that speaks even more about the Tigers' depth and balance in scoring is the fact that eight players have scored 15 or more points this season in different games as the scoring has been spread around quite equally.

KULAS NAMED SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior forward Bri Kulas was named SEC Co-Player of the Week on Monday (Nov. 25) by the league office. The award comes after Kulas recorded a career performance to top Southeast Missouri and also secured the win over UT Martin with two last-second free throws. 2012-13 SEASON SUPERLATIVES

- The Tigers' 88-64 win at Alabama last season marked Mizzou's 17th win this season. That is the most for Mizzou since the 2006-07 season when the team went 17-14 overall, earning a berth in the WNIT Tournament. The Tigers earned six conference wins last season as well, marking the first time they have done that since the 2005-06 season when Mizzou finished 10-6 in Big 12 play.

- The Tigers' 65-58 win over No. 14 South Carolina marked their second win over a top-15 program last season. The last time Mizzou won a pair of games over top-15 competition was the 2000-01 season when Mizzou advanced to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16. Mizzou defeated No. 12 Texas and No. 4 Georgia that season.

- The Tigers continue to show improvement as a team under the direction of fourth-year head coach Robin Pingeton. Last season, the Tigers improved on their 2011-12 stats in several categories. Mizzou finished with an improved field goal percentage (.416), more rebounds per game (38.8), more points per game (65.6), more assists per game (15.4), fewer turnovers, more 3-point field goals (8.2 per game) and more steals (6.7 per game). Mizzou also outscored its opponents in a full season for the first time since the 2009-10 season.

- The Tigers' win over No. 9 Tennessee marked the first time since Jan. 23, 2010 that a Mizzou team has defeated a top 10 opponent. In 2010 the Tigers knocked down No. 10 Baylor, 70-62.

MIZZOU 74, SAINT LOUIS 59

St. Louis, Mo. - Women's Basketball earned its first win of the season at Saint Louis on Friday evening (Nov. 8). The Tigers sailed to a 74-59 victory over the Billikens, led by freshman Kayla McDowell. Earning her first-career double-double, McDowell finished with 19 points and 10 rebounds for Mizzou. Overall, Mizzou's crop of four newcomers accounted for 34 points in tonight's victory.

McDowell earned the start in the season opening contest and did not disappoint as she put up a team-leading seven points in the first half and grabbed four defensive rebounds. Freshman Jordan Frericks was also a defensive asset, tallying six rebounds in the first half. Missouri dominated in the lane as the Tigers hit 18 points in the paint to the Billikens' four in the first half.

Missouri defense started off strong, as the Tigers held off the Billikens for the first four minutes of the game. Mizzou led Saint Louis 4-0 to start off the game, and held the lead until close to halftime. Saint Louis' Sadie Stipanovich, daughter of Mizzou great, Steve Stipanovich, hit a jumper with just over two minutes in the half to bring the Billikens within two. A breakaway layup for the Billikens tied things up at 32 less than 30 seconds later. Junior Morgan Eye took control of the situation and put Mizzou back in the lead with a clutch three-pointer.

Mizzou held on to the lead through the second half with McDowell and Frericks continuing to show their strength on the floor. Frericks finished the game just one point away from her first-career double double. The Billikens kept the pressure on the Tigers in the second half, but the Tigers capitalized on Saint Louis fouls, making 21 of 23 shots from the charity stripe in the game. Junior Bree Fowler turned it on in the second half, stepping into more of a leadership role as she scored all seven of her game points after the halftime break.

MIZZOU 59, SIUE 48

Columbia, Mo. - Mizzou Women's Basketball opened the 2013-14 home slate Sunday, earning a 59-48 victory over SIUE at Mizzou Arena to improve to 2-0 on the season. Forwards Bri Kulas and Jordan Frericks scored the first 10 points for Mizzou to start the second half, helping the Tigers pull away and establish a double-digit lead and coast to a home-opening win.

Sophomore Morgan Stock came off the bench in the second game of the season, knocking down two three-pointers and a jump shot to give the Tigers a quick 13-11 advantage in the first half. She finished the game with a career-high 15 points behind a 5-for-10 effort from the field.

The Tigers and the Cougars traded baskets for most of the first half until Mizzou put together a 7-0 run with seven minutes left. Sophomore point guard Lianna Doty assisted on two transition buckets and Kulas followed with a long ball to give the Tigers a 22-15 lead. Doty tallied eight assists, seven rebounds and four steals in 35 productive minutes of play.

After shooting 16 three-pointers in the first twenty minutes, Missouri chose to attack the paint in the second half. The Tiger bigs combined for 21 of the team's 32 second-half points. SIUE switched to a zone defense and challenged Missouri's guards to step up; Morgan Stock capitalized. Her third three-pointer of the afternoon handed her team a 50-37 lead with just under eight minutes to play and the Tigers never looked back.

Kulas posted a game-high 16 points, providing the Tigers with a lethal inside-outside attack down the stretch. She sealed the deal with a bucket 2:30 mark for a final score of 59-48. The Tigers improved to 2-0 on the young season.

MIZZOU 78, EVANSVILLE 43

Columbia, Mo. - Hot shooting from beyond the arc propelled the Missouri Women's basketball team to a 78-43 win over the Evansville Purple Aces on Thursday at Mizzou Arena. The victory is the Tigers third straight to start the season.

A heavy dose of Bri Kulas in the opening minutes helped Missouri grab an early 11-7 lead. The senior captain scored nine of the team's first 11 points. After drilling a contested three-pointer, she blocked a shot on the ensuing defensive possession. From then on, Evansville began double-teaming Kulas, allowing her to dish to fellow forward Jordan Frericksfor an easy lay-up.

With so much attention being focused on the post, Missouri's sharpshooters found open looks from long range. Morgan Stock buried two quick three-pointers off the bench and Tania Jacksonnailed her first trey ball of the season to give the Tigers a 21-9 advantage with 12 minutes left in the first half.

Mizzou poured in 15 total three-pointers and rode 45-percent shooting from the field to sustain its lead throughout the game. Seven different Tigers made a shot from beyond the arc. Freshman Sierra Michaelisgot in on the action in the second half. Her back-to-back long balls with 11 minutes to go handed Missouri a 27-point lead. She finished with a career-high 10 points.

Stock tallied 15 points behind five three-pointers, matching her performance from Sunday's win over SIUE. Missouri's bench contributed 43 points, good for more than half of the team's total.

Despite the efficient shooting from the Tiger guards, the post players led the way in scoring. Frericks earned her first career double-double with 11 points and 13 rebounds. Kulas added a team-high 16 points.

MIZZOU 62, SEMO 57

Columbia, Mo. - The Missouri Women's Basketball team opened up the second half with a 17-4 run, and held off a late SEMO rally to earn a 62-57 victory Thursday at Mizzou Arena. Senior Bri Kulas posted a career-high 27 points on 10-19 shooting en route to the Tigers fourth straight win to start the 2013-2014 campaign.

Missouri cruised past Evansville last week with efficient shooting from long range and this week the Tigers showed their versatility by overwhelming SEMO down low. The Redhawks had no answer down the stretch as Mizzou scored 20 points in the paint in the second half to earn the gritty win. Two Redhawks forwards spent most of the night in foul trouble, a byproduct of Kulas and company attacking the basket en route easy buckets.

Kulas, a senior, set the tone early, recording each of Missouri's first eight points. However, SEMO battled back behind hot shooting from Kara Wright. The sophomore guard scored a team-high 26 points. She hit four three-pointers in the first half, allowing the Redhawks to build a 32-23 lead at halftime.

Mizzou flipped the script in the second half. The Tigers pulled within one after a Kulas layup with just under 15 minutes to go. On the ensuing possession, Missouri's pressure defense forced a turnover. Kulas capitalized, netting a jumper on the offensive end to hand the Tigers the lead. Freshmen forwards Kayla McDowell and Jordan Frericks followed with back-to-back buckets and SEMO never led again. McDowell and Frericks combined for 15 points and 11 rebounds to complement Kulas' big night and after hitting four treys in the first half, Wright would not get off another attempt from deep in the second half.

With two minutes left, the Redhawks closed the gap, clipping Missouri's lead to 60-57. But Maddie Stock and Bree Fowler iced the game with clutch free throws to help the Tigers improve to 4-0 on the season.

MIZZOU 77, UT MARTIN 74

Martin, Tenn. - Morgan Eye hit eight three-pointers in the second half to spark a 77-74 comeback win for the Tigers at Tennessee-Martin on Saturday night (Nov. 23). Freshman Jordan Frericks clinched the win for the Tigers with just 1.5 seconds on the clock as the Tigers and the Skyhawks traded baskets within the last few seconds of play. Bri Kulas hit two last-second free throws to secure the victory and Missouri improves to 5-0 on the season.

Eye hit nine threes in the game and tallied 27 points overall to give the Tigers their fifth win of the season. Frericks recorded her second double-double of the season with 10 points and 17 rebounds as well. Kulas also finished in double-figures for her fourth straight game with a total of 16 points on the night.

Eye sparked a second half run for the Tigers as she hit three three-pointers in a row to help build momentum. Lianna Doty added another three for the Tigers to bring Mizzou within seven points. Tennessee-Martin was tough to stop, however. The Tigers took their first lead of the game with five minutes on the clock.

Missouri went into the locker room trailing UT Martin 37-26, after a fast-paced first half of play. The Skyhawk's Heather Butler recorded 21 points in the first half to give UT Martin the boost it needed to maintain the lead. Freshman Jordan Frericks grabbed 10 rebounds for the Tigers in the first half, and senior Bri Kulas lead the scoring with seven points. The Tigers played strong team basketball, assisting on seven of their 10 first-half field goals.

MIZZOU 78, UMKC 69

Columbia, Mo. - It was a career night for Tiger sophomore Lianna Doty as she led the Tigers to a 78-69 win over UMKC on Tuesday (Nov. 26). For the second time as a collegian, Doty tallied a double-double with career-highs of 21 points and 10 assists to go with a career-high six steals.

Bri Kulas added 15 points, while Maddie Stock chipped in 14 points off the bench for the Tigers, who improved to 6-0 on the season with the win. Mizzou forced 20 turnovers for the second time in three games, and the Tigers also continued its season-long streak of posting a positive assist-to-turnover ratio in every game.

The game was a back-and-forth affair for much of the first half, and the Kangaroos took a 38-37 lead into the locker room. But Doty's three-pointer with 18:22 left in the game put the Tigers on top, and Kulas followed suit just 21 seconds later after a Morgan Eye steal to push the lead to five. Mizzou never looked back following that sequence; in fact, the Tigers held UMKC without a field goal for a span of over eight minutes late in the game to put the game comfortably away.

MIZZOU 68, HARTFORD 45

Coral Gables, Fla. - The Mizzou Tigers earned their seventh win of the season (7-0 overall) on Friday, topping the Hartford Hawks, 68-45 in the first game of the University of Miami Thanksgiving Tournament. Senior Bri Kulas led the Tigers with 24 points on the night, followed by freshman Jordan Frericks who recorded a career-high 13 points on the night.

The Tigers shot 40-percent from the field on the night and held the Hawks to just 19-percent from beyond the arc.

The Tigers started off the first half trading buckets with the Hawks, but with 8:44 left in the half Mizzou went on a 13-0 run and never looked back. The Tigers held the Hawks to just 22 first-half points, none from the charity stripe. The Tigers also outscored the Hawks 18-2 in the paint through the first half. Kulas' leadership skills were evident in the half as she led the team with 17 points before the break.

Hartford picked up steam coming out of the locker room reducing the Tigers lead to just six points, but Frericks was sent to the free throw line to help turn the Tigers around. Frericks finished the game with a career high 13 points overall. Her eight rebounds on the night contributed to Missouri's domination on the glass as well. The Tigers outrebounded the Hawks, 49-30.

Missouri went on a 15-0 run from 10:28 to 1:29 in the second half, holding off the Hawks for about 10 minutes. The Hawks scored with 10:56 on the clock and did not record any points until just before the final minute of the game.

MIAMI 74, MIZZOU 68

Columbia, Mo. - Senior Bri Kulas and Junior Morgan Eye earned All-Tournament honors at this weekend's University of Miami Thanksgiving Tournament after a combined 40-point performance. The Tigers finished second in the tournament with a win over Hartford and a loss to Miami. Eye's 27-point effort was not enough to hold off the Miami Hurricanes on Saturday (Nov. 30) as the Tigers dropped to the `Canes 74-68. The loss is Mizzou's first of the season, dropping the team to 7-1 overall.

Kulas earned her sixth-career double-double with 13 points and 14 rebounds on the night. She was 6-for-6 from the charity stripe. Overall, Missouri shot 92-percent from the free throw line, capitalizing on Miami fouls.

Mizzou started off the first half 7 taking an 8-0 lead over Miami, and Mizzou held on to the lead for most of the half thanks to a 5-for-7 three-point shooting effort from junior Morgan Eye. The Hurricanes picked up momentum and were able to tie things up at 22 with just over six minutes left in the half. The two teams went back-and-forth until the final seconds of play when sophomore Michelle Hudyn made a jumper to give Mizzou a three point lead heading into the locker room at halftime. Using a defensive mindset, the Tigers held the `Canes to just 28.6-percent shooting in the first half.

The two teams came out of the locker room ready to fight, and traded the lead for much of the second half. Junior Bree Fowler put up all of her career-high 10 points in the second half, going 2-for-2 from distance in the half.

MIZZOU 86, ORAL ROBERTS 64

Columbia, Mo. - The Missouri Women's Basketball team cruised to an 86-64 win over Oral Roberts on Wednesday at Mizzou Arena behind a sizzling performance from three-point range.

The Tigers hit 17 three-pointers in the win over the Golden Eagles and improved to 8-1 on the year.

In a first half full of momentum swings, the Tigers were able to deliver the decisive plays with the game in doubt. With Mizzou holding a slim 21-18 lead, sophomore Lianna Doty buried her first trey of the game. On the next two possessions, Maddie Stock sunk another three-pointer and Morgan Eye used a shot fake to blow by the defense for an easy pull up jumper. Maddie Stock followed with another long ball to cap a 14-0 run, helping the Tigers build a comfortable lead they would never give up. Missouri led at half 43-28.

The efficient outside attack opened things up in the paint for Bri Kulas in the second half. The senior forward converted three easy layups early, pushing Missouri's lead to 19 with just over 15 minutes to go. Kulas finished with 13 points.

The Tigers kept pouring it on from deep throughout the second half. Morgan Stock drilled back-to-back threes with 12 minutes to play. Her fifth three-pointer of the game (she finished 5-of-7 overall from three) handed Mizzou a 23-point advantage. The Stock twins combined for 30 points, scoring all their points from beyond the arc.

Missouri hit 17 three-pointers total behind 44.7 percent shooting from long range. Eye led all scorers with 17 points, converting 5-of-10 from outside. The junior needs just 24 more treys to become the Tigers' all-time leader in three-point makes.
