Summary

Exceptional opportunity to acquire a 7-unit apartment portfolio located in Albuquerque's strong workforce housing sector. The property features a well-balanced unit mix of 1-bedroom/1-bath and 2-bedroom/1-bath units, catering to consistent rental demand in a high-occupancy submarket.
This asset offers immediate and stable cash flow, operating at an 7.37% cap rate, making it an attractive option for both seasoned and entry-level multifamily investors seeking yield in today's market.
A significant portion of the tenant base is supported by housing voucher programs, providing reliable, government-backed rental income and reducing collection risk.
The property has been well maintained by a hands-on local owner who has taken pride in management and upkeep, resulting in solid operations and tenant stability.

Investment Highlights:

- 7 total units (1BR/1BA mix)
- Strong cap rate with in-place income
- Voucher-backed tenants providing consistent revenue
- Well-maintained asset with pride of ownership
- Located in a high-demand workforce housing area
- Ability to acquire as a portfolio or individually (flexible exit strategy)

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a cash-flowing multifamily asset with scale, stability, and flexibility in Albuquerque.

BROKER BIO

At just 25 years old, Trey Whaley has already established himself as one of Albuquerque's rising specialists in the multifamily industry. Trey began his real estate career at the age of 18 and has since aggressively grown his business through a relentless work ethic, deep market knowledge, and a true passion for apartment investing and operations.

As the owner of Trinity Apartment Company, Trey specializes exclusively in multifamily sales, investments, and property management — giving clients a level of focus and expertise that sets him apart from general real estate brokers. His experience includes multifamily acquisitions, value-add repositioning, apartment operations, 1031 exchanges, investment sales, and strategic asset growth. Trey has successfully sold over $100M in multifamily real estate and has personally managed more than 1,700 units throughout his career.

In addition to representing investors, Trey is also a multifamily owner himself, giving him firsthand understanding of the challenges and goals apartment owners face on a daily basis. This ownership perspective allows him to approach every deal and management assignment like an owner, not just a broker.

Beyond sales, Trey is deeply passionate about property management and takes pride in building one of the most hands-on and results-driven management companies in Albuquerque. Trinity Apartment Company focuses on maximizing property performance through lower operating costs, fair and transparent fees, aggressive leasing strategies, and achieving above-market rental income whenever possible. Trey is committed to delivering exceptional service to owners while constantly striving to become the best multifamily property manager in the city.

Trey's business is built on hustle, responsiveness, market expertise, and long-term relationships. Whether helping clients acquire, sell, reposition, or manage apartment investments, his goal is always the same: maximize value and outperform expectations.
