Opportunity Description:

In the event the Province requires fixed wing services for emergency operations and activities related to the operations, the Ministry of Forestry and Parks will enter into casual hire contracts with fixed wing companies to deliver those services. The term “casual” means the aircraft will be hired on an as-needed basis with no guarantee of work. Contracts are signed with all qualified aircraft companies who would like to conduct business with the Province. The current casual fixed wing contract is set to expire on March 31st, 2024. Contracts for the 2024-2029 term are now available.
