Career Record: 29-5

NOTING THE RAMS

- Colorado State took a big jump in year three of the Jay Norvell era, making a bowl game for the first time as a program since 2017. The Rams collected eight wins on the season including six at home - both the most since 2014. Norvell has upped his win total in each season at Colorado State and looks to build off of a 6-1 record in Mountain West games last season.
- Tyson Summers is back in Fort Collins as the Rams' 2015 defensive coordinator returned to the same position under head coach Jay Norvell. Summers and the Rams' defense has endured difficult tests early, facing two of the nation's top running backs in Robert Henry (UTSA) - who leads the country in rushing yards - and Jonah Coleman (Washington), but have held opponents to just 24.0 points per game.
- Colorado State's defense saw a lot of change over the offseason with 11 starters departing the program via graduation or the transfer portal. Despite all the fresh faces, CSU found some leadership from within as they named sophomore linebacker and second-year Ram Owen Long as a captain ahead of the season - the youngest captain selection in Norvell's head coaching career. Long has proven the selection to be a good one through two games as he has racked up double-digit tackles in each outing and leading the nation in total tackles per game (12.7).
- Through three games this season, the Colorado State offense has already seen an improvement in a very key area: red zone efficiency. Colorado State scored a touchdown on just 54.5% of red zone trips in 2024, which ranked 104th nationally. This year the Rams have been much more efficient, reaching pay dirt on 77.8% of trips to the red zone which is among the top 25 in the nation.
- Colorado State defeated Northern Colorado in its home opener despite a stat that would normally equal a death blow in college football: Five turnovers. CSU is the only team this season to log a win despite five-or-more turnovers in a game, something just three FBS teams managed during the entire 2024 season: SMU def. Duke (6 turnovers), Louisiana Tech def. Nicholls St. (5 turnovers), East Carolina def. Norfolk St. (6 turnovers). Prior to this season, only 11 teams in MW history had won while having 5+ turnovers – CSU last did so on September 5, 2015.

NOTING THE GAME

- This is just the fourth meeting all-time between the future Pac-12 foes, with the Cougars leading the series 2-1.
- Washington State's offense relies heavily on the pass game with (80.3% of its total yards coming through the air. The Rams' pass defense has been sturdy this season, allowing just 186.3 passing yards per game and surrendering just two passing touchdowns - tied 11th nationally.

NUMBERS TO WATCH

CSU linebacker Owen Long is the leading tackler in the nation, averaging 12.7 total tackles per game.

Colorado State has allowed just two passing touchdowns this season, tied for the 11th-fewest nationally.

128

Colorado State is replacing 128 starts on the offensive line with the graduation of center Jacob Gardner, guard Drew Moss and tackle Saveyon Henderson.

47

The Rams have 47 newcomers on this year's roster, 31 of which are transfers. Of the 31 transfers, 17 are on the defensive side of the ball with 12 on offense.

CREDENTIALS: To request credentials, submit a request at CSURams.com/FootballCredentials. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made on game day will not be approved. Credentials are issued to the individual

MEDIA/SCOUTS WILL CALL AND PARKING: Due to ease of pick up outside Canvas Stadium, credentials will NOT be mailed this season. Credential pick up is available at the northwest corner of Canvas Stadium at a ticket office window and begins two hours prior to kick off.

Parking passes will also be delivered digitally to media and scouts to the phone number listed on the credential application. Parking passes will be sent during game week.

MEDIA/STAFF ELEVATOR: An elevator is available for use throughout the game to allow media to travel between the field level, first floor, and sixth floor press box. However, this elevator is also used by food and beverage staff. The elevator may also be held for coaches of either team in the final minutes of each half, and media members are encouraged to use the stairwell if they are physically able to do so.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCE: After a cooling off period and conversation with the team, head coach Jay Norvell and select players will be available to the media. Post-game video is available by request.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Credentials for photographers will be issued on the basis of circulation, with priority granted to agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Credentials will not be issued to freelance photographers unless they are employed by a reputable publication or the Communications office of the participating schools. Credentials are issued to photographers for the purpose of media coverage only, and images of the game may not be used for commercial purposes without the expressed, written permission of Colorado State Athletics.

SIDELINE AREAS: Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers/videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive without proper equipment will not be granted sideline access. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the bench area. This includes during pre-game activities.

LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Colorado State's locker room is closed at all times.

RECRUITS: Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their visit (official or unofficial) to campus, including prospects in attendance at practice or games. Contact includes in-person conversations, phone calls, text messages, e-mails, etc. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities on the sidelines and in the stands.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE: Each Monday during the season, with the exception of bye weeks, head coach Jay Norvell holds his weekly press conference beginning at 11:30 a.m. Video will be available of the full availability courtesy of Colorado State Athletics.

PRACTICES: During the regular season, practices are open for stretch and individual periods - roughly the first 30 minutes - on Tuesday and Wednesday practices. Practices begin at approximately 8:30 a.m. each day. Team periods are closed. Media members should submit interview requests for student-athletes a day prior to the interview. Please let Jeff Schmidt or Matt Brumley know in advance if you plan to attend.

Jay Norvell enters his fourth season at the helm of the Colorado State program after he was named the 24th head coach in program history on Monday, Dec. 6, 2021.

Norvell, who led the Nevada Wolf Pack to four bowl games in five seasons (2017-21) as head coach prior to coming to Fort Collins, has an offensive-coaching acumen which is unquestioned after he built a conference title contender at Nevada. Former Wolf Pack quarterback Carson Strong was a two-time MW Offensive Player of the Year as Nevada led the MW in passing offense in 2021 at 365.8 yards per game. The Wolf Pack posted four-consecutive winning seasons under Norvell including a pair of bowl wins in 2018 (Arizona) and 2020 (Famous Idaho Potato).

In 2024, Norvell guided CSU back to the postseason, reaching a bowl game for the first time since 2017, with the Rams facing Miami (Ohio) in the Snoop Dogg Arizona Bowl. The team reached the eight-win mark for the first time since 2014, and the football team set an attendance record with an average of 33,082 as the Rams hosted seven home games for the first time in history.

Norvell's first season in Fort Collins may not have seen growth in the win-loss column from the team he inherited, but the cultural progress under Norvell's direction was undeniable.

The Rams posted a 3-9 record in his first season, a campaign which opened against CFP semifinalist Michigan and was filled with seven teams which advanced to the postseason. Starting three different quarterbacks during the season (all of whom were redshirt or true freshmen), the Rams showed signs of improvement on offense as the season progressed, averaging 247.3 yards of total offense the first half, improving to 324.1 the second half.

The same trend showed on defense, with the Rams going from 400.8 yards allowed to 309.1. Seven players were named All-Mountain West, including first-team selections for wideout Tory Horton and safety Jack Howell. Quarterback Clay Millen and defensive tackle Grady Kelly were named freshmen All-America by Pro Football Network.

Using his time at Nevada as the blueprint, Norvell set out to build the Colorado State program through recruiting ahead of the 2023 season. That plan resulted in the highest-rated recruiting classes in program history based on 247Sports' Composite rankings and the second highest in the Mountain West by the same metric.

The 2023 season saw improvement in nearly every category, including the win column with a 5-7 mark. Scoring also doubled from the season prior, from 13.17 points per game to 26.08 as redshirt freshman Braydon Fowler-Nicolosi started under center in week two and finished the season leading the league in total offense with 3,433 yards.

The season produced a program first, a victory over Boise State after a last-second Hail Mary was caught by tight end Dallin Holker in the end zone. CSU scored 21 points in the final 4:02 of the game to secure the first-ever victory.

The Rams looked to return to bowl eligibility, but came up short, suffering losses after leading or tied with less than a minute left in three games, including the season finale at Hawaii.

The Rams earned 12 All-Mountain West awards, highlighted by Mohamed Kamara's selection as the Defensive Player of the Year. Kamara would go on to be drafted in the fifth round in the 2024 NFL Draft to the Miami Dolphins.

During the offseason, Norvell again built a recruiting class which was a 19-player freshman class ranked first in the Mountain West by 247Sports and ranked fifth overall among the Group of Five, while also using the transfer portal to add players in key positions.

Off the field and the recruiting trail, Norvell's impact in the Fort Collins and Colorado State community has been equally as significant. From the day Norvell stepped foot on campus, he has interacted with anyone interested in Colorado State University and Colorado State Athletics. From speaking engagements to organizing a run for charity, Norvell has re-ignited a spark in the community around his program.

Perhaps his biggest and most notable introduction has been that of the Grit Run - a 5K fun-run around campus with all proceeds going to benefit research around cystic fibrosis, a disease which impacts his wife, Kim, on a daily basis. In its first year, the Norvell's raised more than $20,000 to directly benefit the CF Foundation. The total has nearly tripled through year three with more than $60,000 going to research causes.

Prior to the 2024 season, Norvell established a Minority Fellowship position within his coaching staff in honor of his late father Merritt Norvell. The position titled Merritt James Norvell Diversity Fellowship will be for a young minority coach to gain experience and will be completely funded by Jay and his wife. Norvell is the first Black head coach in program history.

Norvell's resume and experiences reaches to all corners of college and professional football. He has spent time in the Big 10, Big 12, Pac-12, and NFL with the Indianapolis Colts and Oakland Raiders – a period that included an AFC Championship and appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII in 2002 under head coach Bill Callahan. During his time as an assistant, Norvell coached in every BCS bowl game during the BCS Era including the 2009 BCS National Championship with Oklahoma. Overall, he has been to 22 bowl games as both a player and a coach.

HEAD COACH JAY NORVELL

An All-Big 10 defensive back during his playing career at Iowa under legendary Hawkeyes coach Hayden Fry, Norvell got his first opportunity in coaching under Fry on the defensive side of the football. That move proved fruitful for the young graduate assistant in 1986.

Over stops at Oklahoma, Texas, and Arizona State, Norvell mixed his Air Raid-style offensive scheme with principles of under-center schemes employed in the NFL to put together a highly effective offensive machine. While coaching wide receivers at Oklahoma (2008-14), a period which also including serving as co-offensive coordinator (2011-14), Norvell mentored Oklahoma greats in Kenny Stills, Sterling Shephard and Ryan Broyles, who left Oklahoma as the NCAA's all-time leader in receptions.

His run at Oklahoma coincided with the careers of three of the top four players on OU's all-time receptions list: Broyles, Stills, and Juaquin Iglesias. He also oversaw five of the program's top six single-season reception marks and helped his receiving corps earn 10 all-conference and three academic all-conference first team honors.

Prior to his appointment at Oklahoma, Norvell served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at both UCLA (2007) and Nebraska (2004-06). The Cornhuskers were one of only two teams in the nation to rank in the top 25 in total offense, scoring offense, rushing offense and passing offense in 2006. That same year Nebraska totaled nine wins and finished the regular season as Big 12 North Division Champions.

Aside from the college game, Norvell coached for six seasons in the NFL, four of which were with the Colts and two with the Raiders. While with Oakland he coached tight ends for two seasons and worked alongside an offense that included Hall of Fame receivers Jerry Rice and Tim Brown. His trip to the Super Bowl in 2002 was steered by an offense that led the NFL in total yards and passing yards per game. Norvell joined the Colts coaching staff in 1998 as the wide receivers coach and mentored Marvin Harrison to 385 receptions, 5,376 receiving yards and 48 touchdowns during his tenure. His time with the Colts was also the first four seasons of two-time Super Bowl champion Peyton Manning's career.

A 1986 graduate of Iowa, Norvell was an All-Big Ten defensive back and recorded a league-high seven interceptions in 1985 as he helped the Hawkeyes put together a 10-2 record, a conference championship and a spot in the Rose Bowl. He was a member of the Chicago Bears in 1987 before he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater.

Norvell, who hails from Madison, Wis., has a wife, Kim, and son, Jaden. He is the author of a book, "Complete Wide Receiver," which was published in 2012.

NOTEBOOK

SEASON CAPTAINS NAMED

At the conclusion of the 2025 camp calendar, Colorado State's players voted on their season-long captains. While there is no set number, six players received the honor from their teammates and will serve as captains for the team this season.

COLORADO STATE 2025 CAPTAINS

LB Jacob Ellis	Newcomer	DL Mukendi Wa-Kalonji	3x Letterwinner
LB JaQues (Donut) Evans	Newcomer	OL Tanner Morley	2024 Letterwinner
LB Owen Long	Youngest Captain for Norvell	QB Braydon Fowler-Nicolosi	3-Year Starter

THE ROSTER REBUILD CONTINUES

Since Norvell and Co. arrived in Fort Collins in 2022, the roster has been overhauled almost completely. There are only three players that have remained on the roster since before Norvell's arrival. In Norvell's first two true recruiting classes, the two combine for 97 new players and 40 through the portal or junior college. In Norvell's latest class he added 46 newcomers, including 30 through the portal after losing 31 letterwinners and 29 players than had started a game.

THE RAMS MOVING CO. AKA 'THE MOB'

Since taking over the reins of the program, nowhere has the roster transition been more drastic than on the offensive line. In Norvell and offensive line coach Bill Best's first year, the front allowed the most sacks in the country with 59. Since, the line was revamped with 11 new linemen in 2023, which finished the year with just 14 sacks - No. 11 in the nation. Continuing the transformation, coach Best added seven more in the 2024 signing class, including a pair from the portal or junior college and finished the season No. 4 in the country, allowing just 10 total sacks.

THE NEW RAM WALK

Under Norvell, Colorado State hosts two Ram Walks. One is the standard walk for the public to see the team enter Canvas Stadium prior to home games. The other is a more private affair.

On the night before every game, home and away, when the team goes to the stadium for walk-through, former CSU lettermen are invited back to walk the field, arms locked together, with the current players. Only current players and former players are allowed to participate, meaning Norvell and nearly every staff member is prohibited from being involved.

Current players are encouraged to spend the first 50 yards thinking about the next day's game and the final 50 yards thinking about how they will honor the former players. At the end of the 100-yard walk, alumni are selected to speak privately to the team about their experiences in the Green and Gold.

THE COMMITMENT CONTINUUM

On the topic of good reads, another of Norvell's implementations since arriving at Colorado State has been pulled from the author Jeff Janssen: the Commitment Continuum. The simple guide includes six ranges of commitment to the organization's goals: Resistant, Reluctant, Existent, Compliant, Committed, and Compelled.

Each week during summer conditioning, Colorado State's positional leaders - not the coaches - sort each member of their position group into one of those six categories for everyone in the program to see. Entering the 2024 season, every member of the roster was placed at Compliant or higher with the majority in the Committed and Compelled categories.

#NEXTLEVELRAMS

For the 2025 regular season, Colorado State has five Rams on 53-man rosters in the National Football League, with two making a practice squad. One of the newest additions to the NFL ranks this season is Tory Horton, an All-American at Colorado State and one of the best receivers to come through Fort Collins and the Mountain West. The reciever was picked in the fifth round of the 2025 NFL draft.

NAME, POS. (Years Lettered)	TEAM	53	PS	INJ/RES

Trent Sieg, LS (2014-17)	Dallas Cowboys	✓	-	-
Barry Wesley, OL (2018-21)	New Orleans Saints	-	-	✓

After starting all 16 games for the Cardinals and eclipsing 100 receptions and 1,000 yards, Trey McBride signed a four-year contract extension with the Cardinals worth $76 million with $43 million guaranteed, making him the higest-paid tight end in the NFL history at the time of the signing. The Pro Bowler recorded three games with 100+ yards and didn't find the endzone until week 15 against the LA Rams.

FINAL YEAR IN THE MOUNTAIN WEST

This is the 27th season of Colorado State competing in the Mountain West and marks the final season in the league - one that CSU helped form back in 1999. The Rams shared the conference's first football title with BYU and Utah, and hope to leave the league with a fourth and final MW crown in 2025.

The Rams are one of just four current members to capture multiple MW football titles, all of which are teams departing for the Pac-12 in June 2026 (Boise State-5, Colorado State-3, Fresno State-3, San Diego State-2)

INTRODUCING THE RING OF HONOR

A new tradition began this summer at Colorado State as the inaugural Ring of Honor class was announced by Director of Athletics John Weber. The Ring of Honor will work alongside the Hall of Fame, the Walk of Champions and those individuals who have had their numbers retired to continuously celebrate those who have helped create the legacy of Colorado State Athletics.

Four elevators, high-achievers, legacy makers, legends from the football program will be part of the inaugural class.

Sonny Lubick | Football Coach

Arguably the most recognizable name in program history, Lubick set a standard in his 15-year tenure, elevating the football team to a respected brand on the national stage. His teams won six conference championships and qualified for 15 bowl games. Posting a 108-74 record with the Rams, eight of his seasons saw the Rams in the national polls, reaching a peak of No. 10 in 1994. Even more than his success on the field, it was the person he was which endeared Lubick to so many, still to this day. The playing surface at Canvas Stadium is named after him

Joey Porter | Football

An unassuming H-back and wideout his first two years, Porter would become one of the most disruptive forces to ever suit up on defense. He earned all-conference honors in 1997 after posting 14 sacks, a team which won the Western Athletic Conference championship. It led to a 13-year NFL career, most of it spent with Pittsburgh, winning a Super Bowl in 2005.

Bradlee Van Pelt | Football

With a reckless playing style, Van Pelt quickly became a fan favorite and one of the most productive quarterbacks in program history. He could dazzle with his running style, preferring lowering the pads to sliding for safety, and became a strong passer, graduating as one of the few players in NCAA history at the time to have more than 5,000 yards passing and 2,000 rushing in a career. A two-time Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year, he spent four years in the NFL and remains one of the most popular players in CSU history.

Al "Bubba" Baker | Football

A standout, all-conference defensive lineman in he 1970s as part of the Big Green defense, Baker tore through opposing offensive lines. In 1978, he was drafted by the Detroit Lions where he began a 13-year journey in the NFL, a career which saw him make three Pro Bowl teams, being named All-Pro once.

The Ring of Honor will consist of those who are at least 10 years past their graduation year, have forged a decade-plus in American professional leagues, participated in the Olympics in their predominant sport, reached All-American status as a collegian or were named their conference player of the year. Others may be honored through special circumstances deemed worthy of the honor by the athletic director.

PATH TO THE PAC

On September 12, 2024, Colorado State annoucned that it would be leaving the Mountain West and joining the Pac-12 Conference starting on July 1, 2026. The Rams will join current members Oregon State and Washington State, while adding Boise State, Utah State, San Diego State, Fresno State and Texas State.

"This move elevates CSU in a way which benefits all our students, bolsters our core mission, and strengthens our reputation for academic and research excellence. CSU is honored to be among the universities asked to help carry on the history and tradition of the Pac-12 as a highly competitive conference with some of the nation's leading research institutions."
- Amy Parsons | Colorado State President

"This moment has been a long time coming. Our students, faculty, staff, alumni, donors and fans are hungry for this move and are going to love what comes next as CSU charts a transformational new course as a member of the Pac-12."
- John Weber | Colorado State Director of Athletics

» Increased national opportunities and exposure for our university
» Boosts our profile allowing academics, athletics and research to shine
» Elevates our academic prestige
» Creates enhanced access to the College Football Playoff and Championship

NOTES AND TIDBITS

TRADITIONS AT CSU

Colorado State has a number of long-standing traditions around its football program. Some are celebrated each game, some only at home, and some only on Homecoming.

» HOMECOMING FLAG

Since 2014, each Homecoming game, one Colorado State player is selected to run out of the tunnel with an Aggie A flag from 1925. The flag was stolen by CU fans during the 1925 Homecoming game and returned for the playing of the 100th Homecoming game in 2014.

Then-head coach Jim McElwain started the tradition which has been carried on ever since.

2015	W, 38-23 (Air Force)	Sam Carlson
2016	W, 31-24 (Utah State)	CAM the Ram
2017	W, 44-42 (Nevada)	Jake Bennett
2018	W, 20-18 (New Mexico)	Olabisi Johnson

2021	L, 13-17 (Utah State)	Henry Blackburn
2023	W, 31-30 (Boise State)	Jack Howell
2024	W, 17-6 (New Mexico)	Cam Bariteau

» COMATOSE

Since 1920, military members from the institution have fired the deafening 75mm cannon "Comatose," an intimidating exclamation point to opponents which just allowed a Rams touchdown, field goal or PAT. Fired today by CSU's Army ROTC, it is the oldest continuous tradition associated with CSU Athletics.

At Canvas Stadium, the cannon is located at field level in the southeast corner. The cannon was completely refurbished in Denver in the summer of 2018.

» LARRY LASASSO SPIRIT AWARD

A 1934 graduate of Colorado Agricultural College and former cheerleader for the Aggies, Larry LaSasso returned home from WWII to become the greatest cheerleader in CSU history. Director of Athletics, Harry Hughes, asked LaSasso to help bring some spirit back to Colorado A&M.

Beginning in 1946, LaSasso helped lead Aggie cheers and donned his old cheerleading sweater. He added onto his ensemble by wearing a kilt honoring his Scottish heritage, a beret and white gloves.

Fans around CSU came to recognize the "Aggie Cheerleader" and found his warm personality and love of CSU intoxicating. LaSasso continued to wear his sweater and kilt to homecoming games until 2002; he passed away August 1, 2004 at the age of 92.

In 1983, the Larry LaSasso Spirit Award was created to recognize individuals who have demonstrated exceptional and enduring spirit, enthusiasm, and support for Colorado State Athletics. The winner is presented annually during homecoming weekend.

» TRAVELING TROPHIES

Colorado State football enjoys fierce rivalries with three front-range schools. The Rams and their foes battle for a trio of traveling trophies: The Centennial Cup (Colorado), the Bronze Boot (Wyoming) and the Ram-Falcon Trophy (Air Force).

The Bronze Boot is far and away the most important trophy associated with CSU Football and was created in 1968 from an actual leather boot worn by Cpt. Dan Romero during the Vietnam War.

» OLD MAIN BELL

The story of Colorado State's Old Main Bell, which rings before each home football game and housed in the Iris and Michael Smith Alumni Center and Canvas Stadium, is a long and twisting one.

The bell originally rang throughout the campus of Colorado Agricultural College around 1910 before being stolen in 1919 and hidden away in secrecy, it's location known only to a select few. The bell emerged in February 2016 and delivered by an unknown individual on the driveway of Kristi Bohlender, the Executive Director of CSU's Alumni Association.

A complete rundown of the story by CSU's Source can be read HERE.

» THE AGGIE A

The prominent white "A" displayed on the foothills overlooking the old Hughes Stadium site is the second-oldest ongoing tradition associated with Colorado State University.

At a special assembly on Dec. 4, 1923, the students of State Agricultural College agreed it was time to erect an emblem to support the University.

The college declared Dec. 12 a special holiday, and students worked from that morning until mid-afternoon to form the "A."

The following September, students lengthened and widened the "A" to its present size of 450 feet from top to bottom, and 210 feet across at the bottom.

Today, the "A" is an official landmark. Early each fall, freshman football players join forces with several other campus organizations to give the "A" a fresh coat of white paint.

NOTES AND TIDBITS

CONSISTENT FIVE

The difference between the front five in 2022 to 2025 is significant. Not just in stature, but in consistency. In Norvell's first year, Colorado State started a different combination of the front five in half of the schedule. In 2023, however, the Rams started the same five linemen - in the same positions - in every game. They were one of only 12 teams to do so in the FBS last season. In 2024, it was nearly the same, as the MOB had just two different lines start, with the difference at left guard due to an injury to Alex Foster.

2023 STARTING OFFENSIVE LINE

LT	LG	C	RG	RT
Henderson	Jervis	Gardner	Cannon	Moss

2024 STARTING OFFENSIVE LINE

LT	LG	C	RG	RT
Henderson	Foster	Gardner	Moss	Karas
Henderson	Morley	Gardner	Moss	Karas

Colorado State's offensive line has been one of the best in college football over the past two seasons, ranking in the top 12 in sacks allowed in both 2023 (T11th, 14.0) and 2024 (4th, 10.0). However, three mainstays that helped build the culture of The M.O.B. – Jacob Gardner, Drew Moss, Saveyon Henderson – have moved on from the program, taking 128 collective collegiate starts with them. Guard Tanner Morley and tackle Aaron Karas are the pair of returning starters, with a group of youth and promise set to step up around them.

WALKING ON TO A STARTING ROLE

In 2024, Tommy Maher was a walk-on, looking to make one play and get his shot. His name was called in one of the biggest games of the season - The Border War. Except, it didn't go as rehearsed. The receiver motioned too quick, fumbled the ball in the redzone before half and all hope was thought to be lost. That wasn't the case.

Coach Norvell and his staff came back to Maher, rather quickly in the second-half. The second play of the half to be precise. Maher didn't let his chance slip this time, catching a 54-yard touchdown from Fowler-Nicolosi to give the Rams a 24-3 lead.

After the victory, Coach Norvell announced Maher was going to be put on scholarship - not the main goal, but just part of the goal.

Looking forward to 2025, Maher has grown up physically and in the depth chart, posed to be a consistent pass catcher.

STRONG CONNECTION

Head coach Jay Norvell made a lot of changes in the coaching room over the offseason, but one of the most intriguing was bringing back a former quarterback of his, Carson Strong.

Strong played for Norvell at Nevada and was one of the most prolific quarterbacks in the country, winning two Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year awards while racking up 9,368 passing yards and 74 passing touchdowns. Strong was brought in to mentor Ram signal-caller Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi, because what better way to learn the offense than from the one who has run it best?

HOME COOKING

Since Coach Norvell and Co., arrived at Canvas Stadium, they went to work to build the fan base back to pre-Canvas Stadium times.

Colorado State sold out FOUR games at Canvas Stadium in 2024, including setting the program attendance record against Colorado.

CANVAS CHAOS

Colorado State's Canvas Stadium was one of the top home-fields in the Mountain West last season as the Rams won six of seven home games behind an average crowd of 33,082. The Rams recorded four sellouts on the season, including a Canvas Stadium - and program record - crowd of 40,099 for the Rocky Mountain Showdown against Colorado. Colorado State is set to host seven home games for a second-consecutive season.

NEW DEFENSE, WHO DIS?

When looking at the defensive side of the ball, you won't see too many familiar faces, especially in the defensive room. CSU welcomed a whole new defensive coaching staff during the off season. Some fans might recognize Defensive Coordinator Tyson Summers, who is back in the Green and Gold for the second time. Summers was the defensive leader for Head Coach Mike Bobo in 2015.

Also returning is outside linebackers coach John Jancek who was the defensive coordinator for the Rams in 2018-19 under Mike Bobo. Jancek brings nearly 20 years of coordinator experience back to Fort Collins, including a number of years in the SEC and Big 12.

DONUT

Everyone likes a donut. Except maybe Gordon Ramsey. But, the monicker should have everyone excited about the new senior captain. JaQues Evans, as he was named at birth, knows and has excelled in Coach Summers defense while at Western Kentucky. Donut led the Toppers as a sophomore and was well on his way the following year before a season-ending injury. He decided to make the move and head to Baylor where he played in a few games before another injury kept him sidelined. For his final season, Summers made the call and welcomed him to Fort Collins.

Now as for the nickname, it was a childhood name that followed him from Pee Wee through today. It came from his Pee Wee coach after he showed up to practice with donut powder on his black shirt after being rushed out of the house.

	BFN, 2022-25	38

LACK OF STARTERS RETURNING

Looking at the starters on the roster of the 2024 regular season, only two players on defense and four on offense return in 2025. The Rams lost 24 players who started a game in 2024.

Graduation/Eligibility: 17
Transfer Portal: 7

Coach Norvell doesn't shy away from talking about the negative effects of the transfer portal, often mentioning losing five starting wide receivers in the past three seasons.

ADDING MORE EXPERIENCE

Colorado State lost 28 players who started a game that were on the 2024 roster, with majority due to eligibility exhaustion. CSU lost over 13,000 snaps - the most in the Mountain West.

With the very experienced veteran class, some might think the Rams would be one of the least experienced teams in the country, but Norvell and his staff did a great job recruiting new and experienced talent from across the country.

Offense:
Snaps Lost: 5,610
Snaps Added: 2,327
Defense:
Snaps Lost: 7,433
Snaps Added: 3,435
Specialist
Snaps Lost: 273
Snaps Added: 97

Despite losing multiple letterwinners and players that were multi-year starters, the Rams brought in an additional 2,934 snaps to the 2025 roster.

THE CLOSE ONES

The past two seasons have brought 11 nail bitters, including six in 2023 - the most since 2015. Colorado State is 6-5 in those situations.

2023 ONE-SCORE GAMES

GAME	RESULT	FINAL PLAY
Colorado	L, 43-35 (2OT)	(:36) TD
Middle Tennessee	W, 31-23	-
Boise State	W, 31-30	TD
UNLV	L, 25-23	FG
San Diego State	W, 22-19	-
Hawaii	L, 27-24	FG

In four games, the deciding points were scored in the final minute, with Boise State, UNLV and Hawaii decided on the final play of the game.

2024 ONE-SCORE GAMES

7.	Utah State	31-46-1	370
8.	vs. Miami (OH)	23-45-2	321

With his eight games over 300-yards, he ranks third at CSU and closing in on a couple Colorado State Hall of Famers

1.	Garrett Grayson, 2011-14	12
2.	Nick Stevens, 2015-17	11
3.	BFN, 2022-24	8
	Terry Nugent, 1980-83	8

GETTING TROPHIES HOME

Colorado State has three trophy rivalry games and all three were on the 2024 schedule. Coach Norvell has brought two of those trophies home with majority haven't seen Canvas Stadium. The Rams snapped an eight-game trophy game losing streak with a win at Air Force and won the Bronze Boot in front of fans for the first time since 2015.

TEAM (YEAR)	RESULT
Wyoming (2020)	W, 34-24

Colorado (2024)	L, 9-28
Air Force (2024)	W, 21-13
Wyoming (2024)	W, 24-10

OVERCOMING A DEFICIT

When Colorado State rallied from a 10-point halftime deficit to defeat Hawai'i in 2022, Jay Norvell did something very few coaches before him had ever done by overcoming a double-digit halftime deficit.

When he did it again to Boise State in 2023, his Rams overcame the largest halftime deficit since at least 1965. As of the Boise State game, there had been 212 such games where the Rams trailed by double-digits. Below are the 13 games over that span the Rams have mounted the comeback with Norvell owning two such games.

GAME/DATE	HT SCORE	FINAL
Boise State, Oct. 14, 2023	0-17 (-17)	31-30
at Idaho, Oct. 6, 1973	9-23 (-14)	33-30
UTEP, Nov. 10, 1984	10-24 (-14)	59-31
at Air Force, Nov. 2, 1996	14-28 (-14)	42-41
Utah State, Oct. 8, 2016	10-24 (-14)	31-24
at Hawai'i, Sept. 17, 1977	0-13 (-13)	20-16
at New Mexico, Oct. 28, 2005	12-25 (-13)	35-25
vs. Wazzu, Dec. 21, 2013	23-35 (-13)	48-45
Hawai'i, Oct. 22, 2022	3-13 (-10)	17-13
at UTEP, Oct. 8, 1977	7-17 (-10)	40-31
New Mexico, Oct. 29, 1983	7-17 (-10)	25-24
at New Mexico, Nov. 21, 1992	0-10 (-10)	14-10
at Fresno State, Nov. 28, 2005	14-24 (-10)	34-31

What's even more impressive is Colorado State's fourth quarter comeback against Utah State in the regular season finale in 2024. The Rams have five games since 1996 where they trailed by double-figures in the fourth quarter and mounted a comeback.

GAME/DATE	4Q SCORE	FINAL
Boise State, Oct. 14, 2023	10-30 (-20)	31-30
at Air Force, Nov. 2, 1996	21-41 (-20)	42-41
Utah State, Nov. 29, 2024	13-30 (-17)	42-37
vs., Washington St., Dec. 21, 2013	30-45 (-15)	48-45
Utah, Oct. 8, 2005	3-14 (-11)	21-17

THIS WEEK IN HISTORY

The Silver Anniversary of the 2000 Rams

By John Hirn, CSU Historian

January 1, 2000, came and went without incident. Planes still flew, traffic lights still worked and every computer in the world did not crash as a result of the beginning of the 21st Century. Many Rams fans were still in shock after a loss in the 1999 Liberty Bowl on New Year's Eve, but the year 2000 (Known as Y2K) would prove to be an important one for CSU football. We look back 25 years ago at how the 2000 Rams and the events that took place in Y2K made for one of the best seasons of CSU football.

The first big change to CSU football took place in the off season. After nine years of trucking in lights for ESPN night games, CSU athletic director Tim Weiser and his staff made the decision to abandon temporary lighting at 32-year-old Hughes Stadium and install permeant light fixtures. The cost to truck in lights was greater than installing them, so over the summer, Hughes Stadium received its first major update since its opening.

Coach Sonny Lubick returned a plethora of talent, including Matt Newton at quarterback and standout running back Cecil Sapp. They opened the season in Denver against the Buffs for a rematch that was expected to bring national attention. After the blowout and tear gas incident in 1999, the 2000 contest was expected to draw attention from every corner of the nation.

Not only did the Rocky Mountain Showdown draw national attention, but the game was also a close and hard-fought contest in the final college game ever played at Mile High Stadium. The Rams got off to a 14-0 lead in the game with Newton connecting with Frank Rice and Joey Cuppari, but CU countered with 17 unanswered points. At halftime, Lubick addressed his team saying, "There's your Big 12 Boys, can you play with them, or can't you play with them?"

In the second half, CU scored again taking a 10-point lead just three minutes into the third quarter. Sapp -- "The Deisel" -- then took the ball on a ground-grinding drive, which then opened the passing game allowing Newton to connect with Rice for a 42-yard touchdown. Trailing by three and only 10 minutes left in the game, CSU capped a 64-yard drive when Newton connected with tight end Jose Ochoa on a 30-yard pass to put the Rams ahead for good. It was the first time since 1948-49 that the Rams had beaten the Buffs in back-to-back seasons.

That Rocky Mountain Showdown against the "Big 12 Boys" set the tone for the season. The Rams beat Eastern Tennessee in the home opener 41-7 on Sept. 9. Four days later, the entire CSU family lost its greatest Aggie or Ram of all time. The great Thurman "Fum" McGraw, an All-American Aggie, former coach and athletic director who bled more green and gold blood than anybody in the school's history, passed away at the age of 73 following a stroke. His uniform, No. 48, retired in 1986, became a rallying cry for the Rams. They carried a modern version of his jersey to every game afterwards, the season had unofficially been dedicated to the late, great McGraw.

After a close and emotional loss to Arizona State on Sept. 16, CSU went on a six-game win streak to bring its season record to 8-1. Despite this mark, the Rams were not ranked in the AP polls and No. 20 in the Coaches Poll. By early November, Newton and Sapp were among the offensive leaders in the conference, and it seemed the Rams could possibly win out, until a trip to the Air Force Academy on Nov. 11.

Veteran's Day proved to go the way of the Falcons, and the Rams lost their first conference game of the season in a 44-40 grudge match in a major snowstorm. The Rams then came home the next week to take on Wyoming and keep the Bronze Boot in Fort Collins for a second season, winning the Mountain West outright, no ties in 2000. Lubick won his fifth conference championship in eight seasons and his fourth conference coach of the year award. Not since Harry Hughes in the 1920s had CSU football seen such great success.

On Dec. 29, it was back to Memphis for a second Liberty Bowl game, this time against the Louisville Cardinals. With a season record of 9-2, the Rams had finally cracked the AP polls to sit at No. 23 entering the bowl game.

The Cardinals got off to an early 10-0 lead in the game but the Rams, under the guidance of Newton, came back with 16 points of their own, including touchdowns by Sapp and Rice. They entered the locker room ahead 16-10 as Sapp earned his nickname, grinding out yards all over the Liberty Bowl turf. A field goal by CSU's C.W. Hurst in the third quarter gave some breathing room, but the Cardinals came back with a touchdown to come within two points of the Rams.

The Cardinals could not muster another score, while the Rams added three points to win the game 22-17, their first bowl win since the 1997 team. Sapp proved to be the star of the show, with 160 yards on 36 carries and a touchdown. The Rams ended the season 10-2, back-to-back MWC champions and taking home a large trophy of the Liberty Bell for their best season ever played in the MWC. They finished the season ranked No. 14 in the country, still the highest final ranking of any CSU football team in the AP Poll.

After only two years in the conference, the Rams had an 11-3 conference record and in 2000 saw a school record eight players named to the all-conference team. The Y2K season proved to be one of the greatest in school history and Sonny Lubick solidified himself as the greatest head football coat at CSU since Harry Hughes.

For many fans that watched the 2000 team, it is hard to believe it has been a quarter of a century since that Rams team, led by CSU legends played one of the greatest seasons in modern times.

CANVAS STADIUM

CANVAS STADIUM

Canvas Stadium is the name for Colorado State University's 36,500-capacity multipurpose stadium that opened on the school's Fort Collins campus in 2017. Canvas Credit Union received naming rights to the facility through a $37.7 million partnership agreement announced in April 2018. The agreement, which stood as one of the largest collegiate athletic venue naming agreements in history, was part of an ambitious re-branding initiative being undertaken by the previously branded Public Service Credit Union, under the direction of company President and CEO Todd Marksberry.

The $220 million, 727,000-square-foot stadium proved immensely popular and attractive to fans in its inaugural season of 2017, and drew rave reviews from local and national media, as well national television networks that broadcast Colorado State's games to large audiences. The Rams set an all-time attendance record with a total of 192,369 fans and a per-game average of 32,062, representing a 16-percent attendance increase from 2016—eighth-highest in all of college football. Season ticket sales also reached an all-time high of 15,477, a 40-percent increase from the 2016 total of 11,054.

The return of CSU football games to campus from Hughes Stadium in 2017 brought the pageantry and celebration of Rams game days back to the heart of the university for the first time in 50 years, providing countless new engagement opportunities for the entire university. The stadium's design embraces Colorado's natural beauty, topography and visual connections to the Rocky Mountains from campus and ensures functionality for both game-day and non-game day usage.

The agreement with Canvas Credit Union combined with $20 million given in 2016 to name Sonny Lubick Field brings the total naming rights revenues at Colorado State to $57 million for the stadium. This compares favorably with the recently announced $69 million United Airlines Memorial Coliseum at University of Southern California and the $41 million Alaska Airlines Field at Husky Stadium at the University of Washington. The Colorado State agreement with Canvas Credit Union is for 15 years and includes annual escalator clauses for inflation, as well as a signing bonus, in recognition of the visibility and success of the stadium.

Sonny Lubick Field

The playing surface at Canvas Stadium is named in honor of former head coach Sonny Lubick who spent 15 seasons (1993-2007) on the sidelines. Over his career, Lubick amassed 108 victories and a career winning percentage of .593 - both the second-best marks in program history.

Of Colorado State's 15 conference championships, Lubick's team captured six over a span of nine seasons (1994-2002), marking the most successful era in program history. For his efforts, Lubick was named the conference coach of the year four times during his CSU career (1994, 1997, 1999, 2000), and three times during his career, the Rams finished in the final top 25 rankings (1994, 15th; 1997, 16th; 2000, 14th).

SEATTLE — A tight game came undone in the fourth quarter for Colorado State as Washington scored 17 unanswered to bridge the third and fourth stanzas, leading to a 38-21 victory for the Huskies at Husky Stadium.

After breaking a 21-all tie, the tide turned when UW safety Makell Esteen intercepted a Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi pass near midfield, converting it into a 23-yard field goal to give the hosts a 10-point advantage.

On the ensuing drive, Colorado State pulled out of a field-goal formation, but the play resulted in a sack of Tahj Bullock, and the Huskies converted good field position into another touchdown, a second scoring run by Jonah Coleman, whose 38-yard run set up the score. He would rush 177 yards and two scores in the game.

Colorado State went into the break tied at 14, thanks to the defense producing the first turnover of the game, a bad snap on a third-down play recovered by JaQues Evans. With less than 1:40 on the clock, the Rams went with tempo, getting tight end Jaxxon Warren involved for the first time. He had four catches for 27 yards, but the drive was capped by a 15-yard scoring run by Jalen Dupree.

Washington scored first in the game on a Jonah Coleman 26-yard run, but CSU answered right back behind the running of Dupree and Bullock, who closed the nine-play, 75-yard drive with a 2-yard run, earlier picking up 2-yards on a fourth-and-1 play to extend it. Both of his attempts came out of the wildcat, and the transfer also produced the first reception of the season for the Rams.

Washington regained the lead off a deep pass to Denzel Boston to the 1, setting up a short score by Adam Mohammed.

Colorado State's lone touchdown in the second half came on a 27-yard pass play from Fowler-Nicolosi to Warren, tying the game at 21. Warren led the team with six receptions for 79 yards.

FORT COLLINS — Saturday, Colorado State lived the unthinkable – and survived to tell the story.

Trailing most of the night to Northern Colorado in a mistake-marred performance, Colorado State rallied in the second half, taking its first lead of the night with just 45 seconds remaining. The sigh of relief almost became a gut-punch when the Bears looked to have scored on a 28-yard pass with just 8 seconds remaining, but a review ruled the receiver did not secure the catch.

UNC had two more shots at the end zone, but Jahari Rogers secured a 21-17 win with an interception on the final play of the game,

Quarterback Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi scrambled on third-and-10, diving just inside the pylon with 45 seconds remaining to put the Rams in front for the first time all night.

The Rams had five turnovers overall – the ninth time they've done that since 1996 – the first time since doing so at Utah State in 2023. Remarkably, Colorado State is 4-5 in those games. Additionally, the Rams drew 10 penalties for 94 yards, one wiping out an interception.

The first half could not have gone more wrong for Colorado State with four turnovers in the first 30 minutes. Fowler-Nicolosi fumbled once and threw an interception, and Tommy Maher muffed a punt and then had another when the ball was stripped from behind after a long return.

Northern Colorado converted two of those into points, with Kia'l Keone scoring on a 1-yard sneak in the first quarter, kicker Jacob Willig connecting on a 23-yard field goal in the second.

The running game led Colorado State back, with Lloyd Avant scoring on a pair of short runs, 1 and 6 yards. The first of those scores was set up by the lone turnover the CSU defense created, a forced fumble by Jacob Ellis, recovered by Owen Long.

FORT COLLINS — Stalled on offense, a change at quarterback and a spark in the running game from Lloyd Avant brought some life back to Colorado State in the fourth quarter.

Jackson Brousseau entered at quarterback and engineered a pair of touchdown drives Saturday night at Canvas Stadium, giving the Rams momentum in the final minute, but a decision to go for the win after a penalty on a made extra point kept UTSA in the lead, ending in a 17-16 final. Colorado State is now 1-2 on the season.

After CSU tied the game at 10 after a Tahj Bullock 10-yard run, UTSA answered with a long scoring play as Robert Henry Jr. took a swing pass and skirted the sideline for a 74-yard score – his second explosive score of the night.

Unfazed, the Rams drove again, leading to Brousseau's first career touchdown pass, a 4-yarder to tight end Rocky Beers. After UTSA was flagged when CSU made the extra point, the decision was made to go for 2, but immediate pressure from the Roadrunners forced Bullock to throw wide in the end zone to Avant, the momentum carrying him out of bounds.

The onside kick went out of bounds, and UTSA took a knee to secure the win.

Colorado State did not get off to a quick start offensively, punting the first four drives of the game, the only punch in the first half coming off three explosive plays – two consecutively.

Penalties were an issue in the first half, with seven accounting for 85 yards as the Rams finished with 11 for 115 yards; UTSA was flagged nine times for 81 yards.

The Rams defense was stout most of the half, save for one play. The unit additionally produced two turnovers in the game on interceptions – the first of the season for the Roadrunners -- with Ayden Hector and Robert Edmonson intercepting passes.
