Brandon Brooks begins his seventh season as UCLA's head women's water polo coach in 2015-16. He was named the third head coach in program history on June 3, 2009, and has compiled a 152-34 record in his first six seasons.

Brooks, the 2015 MPSF Coach of the Year, has coached UCLA to three MPSF Tournament titles in six seasons (2010, 2012, 2015). In addition, the Bruins have advanced to the MPSF Tournament championship match five times during his tenure.

Last season, the Bruins edged out Cal, 9-8, in the MPSF Championship. The victory gave the Bruins their third conference title since 2010 and 10th overall, a conference high. The Bruins earned an automatic bid to the 2015 NCAA Championship, where they downed UC San Diego, 9-2, in the quarterfinals and beat Cal, 9-5, in the semis. UCLA's season ended with a 7-6 loss to Stanford in the NCAA title match. Rachel Fattal and Sami Hill earned first-team All-Tournament accolades, while Emily Donohoe secured second-team acclaim. Brooks guided the Bruins to a 26-3 record on the year (.897).

In 2014, the Bruins advanced to the finals of the NCAA Championship before falling in the championship match. UCLA beat UC San Diego in the quarterfinals and USC in the semifinals to play for their first national championship in Brooks' tenure. UCLA's runner-up finish marked their fourth consecutive podium finish at the NCAA Championship, and also continued their consecutive appearances at the NCAA Tournament to 11. The Bruins completed the season with an overall record of 27-5, and were ranked No.2 in the final AWCPC rankings. UCLA also finished second in the 2014 MPSF league standings with a 5-1 record.

Fourth-year junior Sami Hill emerged as one of the premier goalkeepers in the country, capturing First-Team ACWPC All-America honors, and winning MPSF Player of the Year honors. She led a contingent of UCLA players, five of whom earned All-America acclaim and another five who were named to various All-MPSF Teams.

Academically, the Bruins continued to excel in 2014. Five players received All-Academic honors from the AWCPC, eight were named to the MPSF All-Academic Team and 31 earned spots on the UCLA Director's Honor Roll.

Three years ago, the Bruins finished in third place in the NCAA Tournamnt for the third straight season. UCLA defeated Hawai'i in the third-place match after beating Princeton in the opening round. In the MPSF Tournament that season, the Bruins won two of three matches to record their fourth consecutive podium finish.

Individually for the Bruins in 2013, five players earned All-America honors, including first-team selection Rachel Fattal, a freshman. Fattal was also named the 2013 MPSF Freshman of the Year, and three additional UCLA players received All-MPSF acclaim.

In 2012, UCLA finished in third place in the NCAA Tournament, defeating UC Irvine in the third-place match after having downed USC in that contest in 2011. Brooks guided the Bruins to a 23-4 record, including a 5-2 mark in MPSF action. UCLA logged consecutive wins over San Diego State, USC and previously-undefeated Stanford to win its second MPSF Tournament title in three years.

In 2011, Brooks guided UCLA to a 26-7 overall record, including a 4-3 mark in conference play. He helped propel the Bruins to the championship match of the MPSF Tournament after UCLA won its final four regular-season matches (including three MPSF contests). UCLA defeated USC, 12-10, in the first round of the MPSF Tournament. The next day, the Bruins handed top-ranked Stanford its first loss of the season, advancing to the tournament's championship match. Despite losing a 7-6 decision in the title game to California, UCLA had firmly secured an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament.

UCLA used a balanced attack in 2011, with Priscilla Orozco (58 goals), KK Clark (50 goals) and Grace Reynolds (35 goals) leading the way. Goalkeepers Caitlin Dement and Sami Hill split time in the cage, with Dement securing second-team All-MPSF honors at the conclusion of the season.

In 2010, Brooks helped UCLA post a 22-8 overall record, including a 4-3 MPSF mark. Three players earned All-MPSF Team honors, highlighted by first-team selection Priscilla Orozco. Five players captured ACWPC All-Academic acclaim and five secured MPSF All-Academic honors.

Along the way, Brooks helped with the development of Dement, who set a single-season UCLA saves record of 264, which was broken in 2013 by Hill. Dement registered a program-record 22 saves in an 8-3 win over UC Davis on Feb. 21, 2010. At seasons' end, she earned second-team All-MPSF honors.

Brooks served as an assistant coach with the UCLA men's and women's water polo teams for three seasons prior to his appointment as the head coach of the women's program (men's assistant in 2006, 2007 and 2008; women's assistant in 2007, 2008 and 2009). He also served as an undergraduate assistant coach with the men's program in 2004. Brooks helped lead the women's program to NCAA championships each spring and guided the men's program to the 2004 NCAA title.

In his three seasons as an assistant coach with the women's program, Brooks' work with goalkeepers Emily Feher (2007) and Brittany Fullen (2008, 2009) proved instrumental to UCLA's national championship finishes. Fullen made 237 saves in 2008, a single season school record at the time. The previous season, Feher recorded a 4.96 goals against average in 25 games before securing First-Team ACWPC All-America honors for the third consecutive season.

An undergraduate assistant on the men's water polo coaching staff in 2004, Brooks helped Joe Axelrad develop into the one of the nation's premier goalkeepers, leading UCLA to the NCAA Championship that fall.

Brooks starred on the men's water polo team from 1999-2002, leading the Bruins to back-to-back NCAA championships in 1999 and 2000, before excelling in the international water polo ranks and participating in the 2004 and 2008 Olympic Games for the USA Men's National Team.

In the summer of 2008, Brooks and former teammate Adam Wright (UCLA's current men's water polo head coach) helped lead the USA Men's National Team to a silver medal at the Olympic Games in Beijing. Brooks, Wright and former teammate Brett Ormsby also competed in the 2004 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia.

Brooks was head coach of the Los Angeles Water Polo Club's boys 16-and-under team from 2006-08. In 2006, he coached the club team to an undefeated season, culminating in the Junior Olympic Championship. He helped develop 15 Division I men's water polo student-athletes in his tenure as head coach. Additionally, Brooks served on the coaching staff of the 2012 U.S. Women's National Team, alongside Krikorian.

One of the nation's premier goalkeepers in four seasons at UCLA, Brooks helped lead the Bruins to back-to-back NCAA titles (1999, 2000) in his first two years. He continued his stellar play in his final two seasons, earning All-America and All-MPSF honors each year. Brooks ranks second on UCLA's all-time saves list with 700 stops in four seasons.

A key goalkeeper on the USA National Team, Brooks led Team USA to the gold medal at the 2001 and 2003 Pan American Games. He served as the starting goalkeeper at the 2003 FINA World Championships (Barcelona), the 2004 Olympics (Athens) and the 2005 FINA World Championships (Montreal).

Brooks, 32, graduated from UCLA in 2005 with a degree in Sociology. A native of Honolulu, Hawaii, Brooks is the oldest of three children and has 25-year-old twin sisters (Nicole and Jessica).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Two-time USA Olympic participant (2004, Athens; 2008, Beijing)
- Member of silver-medal winning USA team at 2008 Beijing Olympics
- Starting goalie for USA National Team at 2004 Athens Olympics
- Led Team USA to second place finish at 2008 FINA World League Finals
- Helped lead UCLA to NCAA Championships in 1999 and 2000
- Named 2012 MPSF Coach of the Year
- Ranks second on UCLA's all-time saves list with 700 stops (1999-2002)

Molly Cahill enters her ninth season on the UCLA women's water polo coaching staff and her seventh as a full-time assistant coach under Brandon Brooks. A four-year UCLA women's water polo letterwinner (2004-07), Cahill helped guide the Bruins to the MPSF Tournament title in 2010, 2012, and again in 2015, after having served as an undergraduate assistant coach in 2008.Cahill has helped guide the Bruins to the NCAA Tournament for the last 11 consecutive years. Likewise, she has lifted UCLA to the NCAA championship in five of her 10 previous seasons: three as a student-athlete (2005-07) and one as undergraduate assistant coach in 2008.

Last season, the Bruins edged out Cal, 9-8, in the MPSF Championship. The victory gave the Bruins their third conference title since 2010 and 10th overall, a conference high. The Bruins earned an automatic bid to the 2015 NCAA Championship, where they downed UC San Diego, 9-2, in the quarterfinals and beat Cal, 9-5, in the semis. UCLA's season ended with a 7-6 loss to Stanford in the NCAA title match. Rachel Fattal and Sami Hill earned first-team All-Tournament accolades, while Emily Donohoe secured second-team acclaim. Cahill helped guide the Bruins to a 24-2 record on the year (.923).

Two years ago, Cahill assisted in the Bruins' run to the NCAA championship match. UCLA was the runner-up at season's end, but its 27-5 overall record represented its most successful season with Brooks and Cahill on the staff. The Bruins handed Stanford a 9-6 loss on Feb. 23, and beat USC twice at season's end, including a 5-3 triumph in the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament.

In 2013, the Bruins recorded a third place national finish and also captured third at the NCAAs that season. The Bruins posted a 28-7 overall record, the highest number of victories in her five seasons as an assistant coach.

In 2012, Chaill helped guide the Bruins to a third place finish at the NCAA Championship and their second MPSF Tournament title under Brooks' tutelage. UCLA posted a 23-4 overall record, 5-2 in the MPSF regular season race.

In 2011, Cahill worked alongside head coach Brandon Brooks for the second consecutive year. The Bruins went 26-7, finishing third at the NCAA Tournament after posting a second-place finish at the MPSF Tournament.

In 2010, Cahill helped a young team, devoid of any seniors on the roster, improve over the course of the season and win the MPSF Tournament title as the conference's fifth-seeded team. The Bruins defeated No. 4-seed Hawai'i and No. 1-seed Stanford before taking down No. 2-seed USC in the tournament's title match at UCLA's Spieker Aquatics Center.

Serving as an undergraduate assistant coach in 2008, Cahill helped guide the Bruins to their fourth consecutive NCAA title - a streak that she helped start during her sophomore season in 2005. UCLA posted a perfect 33-0 record that season, duplicating a feat the program had accomplished in 2005.

In four seasons as a UCLA student-athlete, Cahill scored 95 goals on 260 attempts and played in all 123 matches. She earned MPSF All-Academic Team honors her final three seasons (2005-07). Cahill was recognized as an ACWPC All-Academic "excellent" selection in 2005.

A senior in 2007, Cahill logged 26 goals on 52 attempts, collecting 12 steals and 11 assists. She scored 14 goals on 35 attempts her junior season (2006) and added 17 goals on 38 attempts as a sophomore (2005). The native of Santa Barbara, Calif., registered a career-best 38 goals on 135 attempts as a freshman (2004) before earning MPSF All-Freshman Team honors that spring.

Cahill, 28, graduated from UCLA in 2008 with a degree in History.

UCLA at the Summer Olympics

Guided by former UCLA head coach Adam Krikorian and Bruin standouts Kelly Rulon and Courtney Mathewson, Team USA defeated Spain 8-5 to win its first-ever Olympic gold medal in 2012 in London's Water Polo Arena.

Krikorian assumed head coaching responsibilities of the U.S. Women's Water Polo National Team in the summer of 2009 after winning his fifth consecutive NCAA Championship at the helm of the UCLA women's program. In his 17 years with the Bruins' water polo programs as both a player and a coach, Krikorian won an unprecedented 15 national titles - 11 as a head coach, three as an assistant coach and one as a student-athlete.

Team USA has long been a power in women's water polo, but the Americans had never translated their success at other major competitions to the Olympics, claiming bronze in 2004 and silver in 2000 and 2008. Like in Beijing, the U.S. women were ranked No. 1 and were gold medal favorites. But this time, they would not be denied what had long eluded them.

Maggie Steffens scored five goals on the day capping a binge of seven-straight goals for the U.S. that turned a 2-1 deficit with 6:44 left in the second period into an 8-2 lead with 7:20 remaining in the fourth quarter. Spain scored the final three goals of the match, but the Americans had built an insurmountable lead.

The U.S. was 8-for-17 on shots (compared to Spain's 5-for-28 performance) and dominated the game despite losing out on time of possession, 16:58 to 15:02. U.S. goalkeeper, Betsey Armstrong, finished with eight saves, including a huge stop on a penalty shot in the fourth period.

Mathewson recorded one shot in seven minutes of action against Spain. Rulon played 15 minutes, winning one sprint for Team USA.

Mathewson, a former Cutino Award winner (2008), won four national titles at UCLA (2005-08) and made her first Olympic appearance in the 2012 London Olympics.

Rulon, the 2007 Cutino Award winner, also won four national championships at UCLA (2003, 2005-07) and was part of the bronze-medal winning team in the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece.

Under the tutelage of former UCLA men's and women's head water polo coach Guy Baker, the U.S. women's water polo team earned a silver medal at the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing. Aided by former UCLA standouts Natalie Golda and Jaime Hipp, the U.S. team earned its third medal since the sport's Olympic inception in 2000.

Team USA at the 2004 Olympic medal ceremony

In the gold medal match against Hungary, Team USA rallied from an early 4-0 deficit to tie the match, 5-5, before halftime. Golda scored one goal in the match, helping reduce the Americans' deficit to 5-3. The U.S. team advanced to the gold medal match after sinking Australia, 9-8, to assure itself of finishing the Olympics with a medal.

The 2008 Games in Beijing marked the second Olympic appearance for Golda and the first for Hipp. Baker served as the U.S. women's team's head coach in the first three Olympiads of the 21st Century.

In 2004, seven players and Baker represented the UCLA women's water polo program at the Olympics in Athens, Greece. Six former and current Bruins helped lead Team USA to the bronze medal, and one former Bruin (Kelly Heuchan) competed for Australia, which finished fourth.

Then-current Bruins Natalie Golda, Thalia Munro, Amber Stachowski, Kelly Rulon and Gabrielle Domanic (alternate) competed alongside Payne and Beauregard. Baker helped lead the U.S. team to its second medal in as many Olympics.

In the 2004 bronze medal contest, the U.S. team defeated host Australia by a 6-5 margin. UCLA's athletes scored three of Team USA's six goals in that contest – Beauregard, Golda and Stachowski each netted one goal.

The new millennium brought women's water polo to the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia. In a wild gold medal contest between Australia and Team USA, Australia scored a controversial last-second goal to win, 4-3, and send the U.S. team home with the silver medal. Bruins Coralie Simmons, Nicolle Payne, Beauregard, and Coach Baker helped lead Team USA on its quest for a gold medal. While competing at UCLA, both Simmons and Beauregard spent the year away from campus. Simmons led Team USA with nine goals in the Olympics, and Beauregard added six.

U.S. National Team Experience

The USA National Team program has a rich history of selecting UCLA players and coaches, who most recently won a gold medal at the 2012 London Olympics.

Rachel Fattal

This past summer, the USA Senior National Team won gold at the FINA Intercontinental Tournament, the FINA World League Super Final, the Pan American Games, and the FINA World Championships. Rachel Fattal earned MVP honors at the latter event, scoring 18 goals en route to gold.

In the summer of 2014, the USA Senior National Team won three international events: the FINA World League Super Final, the Kinishi Cup and the FINA World Cup.

Current Bruins Sami Hill, Rachel Fattal and Alys Williams as well as UCLA alumnae KK Clark and Jillian Kraus scored a total of 17 goals in the tournament as the United States marched to the gold medal. Fattal led all Bruins with nine goals, including three against Italy in the championship match. Hill added seven saves in the final.

At the Kinishi Cup, five current and former Bruins scored 12 goals for the USA. Hill was a mainstay in the cage, making 14 saves against Italy and 11 vs. Hungary in group play, while Fattal scored five total goals to help lead the Americans to the championship. In addition to Hill and Fattal, UCLA was represented by Clark, Willaims, Kraus and Courtney Mathewson.

At the FINA World Cup, the USA won another gold medal on the backs of Hill, Fattal and Mathewson. Hill recorded 16 saves in the championship victory over Australia. Fattal (10 goals) and Mathewson (six goals) were major forces on offense for the Stars and Stripes. Clark, Willaims and Kraus were also key players in the USA's drive to an undefeated tournament.

In the summer of 2013, the U.S. Women's Junior National Team won the gold medal at the FINA Junior World Championships in Greece by defeating Spain, 9-7. UCLA players participating were Fattal, Emily Donohoe, Kodi Hill and Williams. Fattal was named the MVP of the tournament after scoring 15 goals.

Later that summer, the Senior National Team placed fifth at the FINA World Championships in Spain. Players representing UCLA were Fattal, Mathewson, Kraus, Kelly Rulon and Clark.

In December 2013, Fattal, Sami Hill, Williams, Kraus, Clark, Mathewson and Priscilla Orozco beat Canada in a best-of-three series to qualify for the 2014 World Cup.

In 2009 UCLA players Brooke Martin and Natasha Schulman played for the 2009 USA Junior National Team and Sami Hill redshirted the 2012 season to train with the U.S. Senior National Team.

In the summer of 2007, former UCLA attacker Tanya Gandy and Team USA finished fourth at the FINA Women's Junior World Championships in Porto, Portugal. Gandy scored 19 goals in seven games.

The Senior National Team won the Holiday Cup in December 2006. Former Bruins Natalie Golda and Jamie Hipp and then-current Bruin Emily Feher competed in the Senior National Team event. Golda scored in every one of six games for Team USA, while Hipp contributed 21 saves in the cage. Team USA had also won the 2006 FINA World Championships in Italy.

At the 2006 Pythia Cup in Greece, Gandy and Brittany Fullen, then a sophomore on the Bruins' roster, competed for the U.S. Junior National Team. Gandy registered eight goals and Fullen totaled 14 saves in the cage over three games, leading Team USA to the silver medal.

Kelly Rulon

In December 2001, the U.S. Junior National Team captured the nation's first FINA Junior World Championship in a 10-9 overtime win. Amber Stachowski led the United States with four goals and Thalia Munro added one. UCLA players accounted for 48 percent of U.S. scoring with 38 of Team USA's 80 goals.

In the 2003 FINA Junior World Championships, Feher, Lauren Heineck, Kristina Kunkel and Kelly Rulon all saw significant playing time for the United States. In 2004, the Junior National Team won the gold medal at the Pan-American Games.

UCLA players have been key members of the Senior National Team in previous years. Each player has contributed to Team USA's international success. At the 2003 FINA World Championships, Robin Beauregard scored the game-winning goal in the United States' 8-6 victory over Italy in the title game. The victory over Italy gave the U.S. women's water polo team its first-ever gold medal.

Following the FINA World Championships, Team USA headed to the Pan American Games in hopes of earning an Olympic berth. The Senior National team went on to compete in the 2004 Athens Olympics, placing third.

1996 National Champions (29-1, 7-0 MPSF), Head Coach: Guy Baker

In only the second year of existence, UCLA women's water polo captured the National Collegiate Championship, making Bruin water polo the first water polo program to win national titles in both men's and women's competition. Under the guidance of head coach Guy Baker, the Bruins lost only one game during the 1996 campaign, an 8-7 heartbreaker to California in the championship game of the Western Regional Qualification Tournament. But the Bruins turned the tables on the Golden Bears in the season's final match and handed Cal an 8-4 defeat for the national title. Goals were scored by Jennifer McFerrin (3), Catharine von Schwarz (2), Megan Oesting, Coralie Simmons, and Katie Tenenbaum. Goalkeeper Nicolle Payne stopped 15 of Cal's shots on goal.

1997 National Champions (31-1, 6-0 MPSF), Head Coach: Guy Baker

The Bruins brought home their second consecutive national championship and gave head coach Guy Baker four titles in a row (men's 1995, women's 1996, men's 1996, women's 1997). UCLA lost just one game during the year, a 4-3 heartbreaker at the hands of California in the third game of the season. The Bruins stormed through the rest of the spring, logging a 29-game win streak. UCLA captured its second title in a row with a 6-3 victory over California. The title did not come easily, as the Bruins held on to a shaky 3-2 lead heading into the final quarter of play. But UCLA outscored Cal, 3-1, in the final seven minutes, ensuring the national championship. Payne saved 11 attempts and earned her second consecutive Most Valuable Tournament Goalkeeper award. Goals were netted by Amanda Gall (2), Coralie Simmons (2), Serela Mansur, and Katie Tenenbaum.

1998 National Champions (35-1, 9-0 MPSF), Head Coach: Guy Baker

In their fourth year of varsity status, the Bruins took home a third consecutive national title under head coach Guy Baker. UCLA lost only one game the entire season to top-ranked Cal in the first place match of the Santa Barbara Tournament. But the defeat would not go unanswered, as the Bruins would defeat the Golden Bears 7-3 in the national championship match. While Cal was held scoreless for two quarters, the Bruins came on strong, notching at least one goal in every quarter. In Payne's last match as a Bruin, the goalkeeper recorded 13 saves and was named Tournament MVP. Goals were scored by Coralie Simmons (3), Robin Beauregard, Amanda Gall, Erin Golaboski, and Catharine von Schwarz.

2000 National Champions (30-5, 8-1 MPSF), Head Coaches: Guy Baker, Adam Krikorian

The 2000 season brought the Bruins back to championship status after a one-year hiatus in 1999. Sparked by the return of Catharine von Schwarz from the U.S. National Team, the Bruins finished 30-5 (8-1 MPSF) and won their fourth national championship in five years. The championship was the first under new head coach Adam Krikorian, who took over full-time after the 1998 season. In the title game of the 2000 Collegiate Nationals, UCLA downed defending champion USC, 11-4. The Bruins jumped out to a 3-1 first quarter lead and never looked back. Catharine von Schwarz netted a hat trick and became the first UCLA female student-athlete to win four team championships. Elaine Zivich added a goal and was named Tournament MVP. Goals were also scored by Kelly Heuchan (2), Serela Kay, Jenny Lamb, Jessica Lopez, Eleanor Murphy and Ashley Stachowski. Goalkeeper Jaime Hipp grabbed 10 saves to secure the victory for the Bruins.

2001 NCAA Champions (18-4, 9-1 MPSF), Head Coach: Adam Krikorian

The Bruins captured the inaugural NCAA women's water polo title in 2001. Seniors Coralie Simmons and Kristin Guerin led the Bruins to their fourth title in five years. Throughout the season, UCLA dominated opponents, posting an 18-4 overall record and going 9-1 in MPSF action. The Stanford Cardinal proved to be the toughest challenge for the Bruins, handing them each of the four losses, including an 8-5 loss in the MPSF Championship game. UCLA rebounded from the loss at the MPSF Championships to defeat Loyola Marymount 11-1 in the NCAA semifinal match. In the title game, UCLA defeated Stanford 5-4. The win came off of a Coralie Simmons goal with 1:28 remaining in the game. Goals were scored by Simmons (2), Robin Beauregard, Kelly Heuchan, and Ashley Stachowski. Jaime Hipp recorded six saves. For her efforts, Simmons received MVP honors and was joined on the All-Tournament team by Beauregard, Heuchan, Hipp, Kristin Guerin, Jenny Lamb, and Elaine Zivich.

2003 NCAA Champions (23-4, 8-2 MPSF), Head Coach: Adam Krikorian

The Bruins continued their championship tradition by taking the 2003 NCAA Championship. All-Americans Robin Beauregard and Jamie Hipp provided veteran leadership as head coach Adam Krikorian won his third national championship. UCLA posted an overall record of 23-4, including an 8-2 MPSF mark. Ranked No. 1 nationally entering the MPSF Tournament, the Bruins picked up a No. 3 seed due to losses to Stanford and USC. The Bruins easily dispatched Hawaii before narrowly defeating USC, 7-6, in sudden-victory overtime. In the MPSF title match, UCLA fell to Stanford. The Bruins earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament, where they defeated Loyola Marymount in the semifinals. UCLA advanced to the championship game against Stanford for the third consecutive time. The Bruins fell behind 2-0 at halftime, but stormed back with four straight goals to win the match, 4-3, and capture the title. Goals were scored by Jessica Lopez, Kelly Rulon, Lauren Heineck, and Robin Beauregard, and Jaime Hipp finished with six saves. Senior Robin Beauregard was named Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA Touranment.

2005 NCAA Champions (33-0, 12-0 MPSF), Head Coach: Adam Krikorian

UCLA's 2005 squad enjoyed what was considered by many at the time to be the greatest season in collegiate women's water polo history. Led by Cutino Award winner Natalie Golda, the Bruins posted a perfect 33-0 mark to win the NCAA Championship. UCLA's 33-0 record marked the best NCAA finish and longest single-season winning streak. The team outscored its opponents 394-134, and 121 -31 in the first quarter. Few teams held their ground against UCLA in the first quarter, much less the entire game. This championship team started three Olympians – Natalie Golda, Kelly Rulon, and Thalia Munro. The Bruins entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 seed at the University of Michigan's Canham Natatorium. After defeating Wagner in their first match, the Bruins downed Hawai'i, 7-6, in the semifinals. Kristina Kunkel scored the winning goal with 1:43 left in the fourth quarter. UCLA concluded its remarkable season by winning the 2005 NCAA Championship, defeating third-seeded Stanford, 3-2. UCLA led the entire way against the Cardinal, as Brittany Rowe led the Bruins with two goals in that game.

2006 NCAA Champions (29-4, 11-1 MPSF), Head Coach: Adam Krikorian

The 2006 Bruins returned nearly every player aside from Natalie Golda, the 2005 Cutino Award winner who helped lead UCLA to a 33-0 record in 2005. The Bruins had the talent, experience, and determination necessary to win their second consecutive NCAA title, their fourth in the last six seasons. While not nearly as dominant as the 2005 version, the 2006 women's water polo team outscored its opponents by a 369-134 margin. UCLA allowed just 4.1 goals per game, the best average in the nation. The Bruins finished their 2006 campaign with a 29-4 overall record and an 11-1 MPSF mark. UCLA earned the No. 3 seed entering the NCAA Tournament at UC Davis. In game one, UCLA dispatched No. 6 seed Hartwick College, 15-2. Then next day, goalkeeper Emily Feher made nine saves in the cage and Kelly Rulon added three goals to lead UCLA past Stanford, 8-5, in both teams' fourth meeting of the spring. UCLA concluded its stellar season in the most exciting fashion. Sophomore Courtney Mathewson's last-second five-meter shot found the back of the cage, handing UCLA a 9-8 victory over USC and their second NCAA title in as many seasons.

2007 NCAA Champions (28-2, 11-1 MPSF), Head Coach: Adam Krikorian

UCLA's 2007 squad will be most remembered as the team that won UCLA's 100th NCAA team championship. The women's water polo team initiated the "race" to 100 when the Bruins captured the 2006 NCAA title. Equally impressive, the Bruins' 2007 title marked the program's third consecutive NCAA championship. Led by seniors Molly Cahill, Emily Feher, Kacy Kunkel and Kelly Rulon, the 2007 team had little trouble taking care of business. UCLA suffered two regular-season losses to Stanford, but defeated the Cardinal when it mattered most. The Bruins downed Long Beach State on the first day of the MPSF Tournament before edging USC, 10-9, in the semifinals. UCLA punched its ticket to the NCAA Tournament with a 9-3 rout of Stanford. After a 22-0 victory over Pomona-Pitzer in round one, the Bruins defeated USC, 7-6, to set up a pivotal rematch with Stanford in the NCAA Championship. UCLA built a 4-1 lead after three quarters and held off a furious Stanford rally to win, 5-4. Along the way 2007, senior Kelly Rulon broke the UCLA career scoring record, totaling 237 goals.

2008 NCAA Champions (33-0, 12-0 MPSF), Head Coach: Adam Krikorian

For the second time in four years, the UCLA women's water polo team posted a perfect 33-0 record en route to capturing the NCAA championship. Duplicating the Bruins' perfect record from 2005, UCLA secured the 2008 NCAA title with a 6-3 victory over crosstown rival USC. Seniors Kamaile Crowell, Gabrielle Domanic, Jillian Krauss, Courtney Mathewson and Brittany Rowe became the first female student-athletes in school history to capture four NCAA titles in four seasons. Kraus and Mathewson earned Co-MPSF Player of the Year honors by season's end, and Mathewson was the recipient of the Peter J. Cutino Award, the sport's most prestigious honor bestowed upon the top male and female player. In his 10th season at the helm, head coach Adam Krikorian earned ACWPC Coach of the Year accolades for the fourth consecutive season, and Mathewson captured ACWPC Player of the Year honors. Aside from the leadership of UCLA's five seniors, the Bruins received substantial contributions from juniors Brittany Fullen, Anne Belden, Katie Rulon and Tanya Gandy. Fullen finished her junior campaign having started as the goalkeeper in all 33 matches and totaled a school single-season record 237 saves.

2009 NCAA Champions (25-6, 5-2 MPSF), Head Coach: Adam Krikorian

UCLA won its fifth consecutive NCAA title in 2009, downing rival USC 5-4 in the title match, but did not score any goals in the second half. Playing lockdown defense against a USC squad that had beaten them twice, the Bruins prevailed behind the stellar play of senior goalkeeper Brittany Fullen (12 saves). One day earlier, the Bruins won an equally thrilling contest, using a last-second goal from sophomore Megan Burmeister to edge Stanford,12-11. UCLA entered the 2009 campaign riding a 41-game win streak before losing six games during the year. In his final season as head coach, Adam Krikorian made sure the Bruins peaked at the right time. Senior Tanya Gandy was named the NCAA Division I Player of the Year after shattering UCLA's single-season scoring record with 79 goals. Fellow seniors Anne Belden, Katie Rulon and Fullen were named All-NCAA Tournament Team selections in addition to earning Second-Team All-America honors.

now in its seventh season as UCLA's home . . .

SPIEKER AQUATICS CENTER

The UCLA women's water polo team begins its seventh season playing at Spieker Aquatics Center, which is part of the Jackie Robinson Athletics and Recreation Complex. Over the past six seasons, UCLA has logged a 36-6 record at its modern, state-of-the-art home facility.

Spieker Aquatics Center opened in September 2009, in time for the start of the men's water polo season that fall. PCL Construction broke ground on the facility in July 2008. The athletics department officially opened Spieker Aquatics Center on Sept. 26, 2009, as the men's water polo team defeated UC Irvine, 10-4, after a dedication ceremony that evening.

In 2016, UCLA has scheduled six games at SAC and it will host the 2016 NCAA Women's Water Polo Championship. The facility hosted the 2010 MPSF Women's Water Polo Tournament, the 2011 MPSF Men's Water Polo Tournament, the 2013, 2014, and 2015 UCLA Invitationals, and the 2015 NCAA Men's Water Polo Championship. UCLA's programs won each tournament.

Entering its seventh full season as UCLA's home pool, Spieker Aquatics Center features a 52-meter by 25-yard all-deep water pool with a dividing bulkhead, allowing races to take place at varying distances (meters or yards). The pool also has four platforms on a diving tower, at heights of three, five, seven-and-one-half, and 10-meter platforms, as well as one and three-meter springboards. In addition, the aquatics center features a warming pool for divers directly behind the tower.

Adjacent to Sunset Canyon Recreation Center on the northwest portion of campus, the Spieker Aquatics Center was made possible thanks to a generous lead gift from former student-athlete Tod Spieker and his wife, Catherine. Tod, a 1971 UCLA graduate and All-American, swam for the Bruins from 1968-71 and still competes successfully in Master's Swimming.

The main pool, Dirks Pool, is named after Carolyn Dirks, who provided the lead gift for the swimming pool. Dirks Pool has also been used for special events and Masters Swim meets. The signature feature of the Spieker Aquatics Center is the diving tower, which stands at the west end of the pool. The east end of the pool houses the scoreboard, an LED, state-of-the-art piece of electronics, making scores, statistics and messages easily visible to all in attendance.

Next to the scoreboard is the "Wall of Champions," showcasing all of UCLA's water polo, swimming and diving national championship teams, as well as all individual student-athletes' achievements, record-holders and Olympians.

Separate men's and women's locker rooms house enough lockers for all team members, with shower space and bathroom stalls and sinks for each team. Equipment needed for meets and matches have storage capacity on the facility's south side.

When walking through the public entryway to the center, visitors first notice the Donor Wall. All donors who generously made gifts to the Spieker Aquatics Center are recognized on this wall. Additionally, over 50 former UCLA water polo players, swimmers and divers made gifts to "name" a locker. Those names will forever be part of the locker rooms in the new facility.

The facility brings together all three of UCLA's intercollegiate aquatic sports – water polo, swimming and diving – to one venue. The aquatics center features event lighting and permanent seating with the possibility of additional temporary seating for larger events.

Media and photography credentials for UCLA home matches may be obtained by working press only by e-mailing or calling Lindsay Gaesser (phone: 310-206-8141, e-mail: LGaesser@athletics.ucla.edu). All requests should be submitted at least 24 hours in advance.

Photography

Television and photo credentials entitle video and still photographers to shoot from designated areas only. Please consult with Athletic Communications or Event Management staff for those locations.

Interview Policies

All interviews must be arranged by UCLA's Athletic Communications Office. Please do not expect players to be available if you have not made prior arrangements with the Athletic Communications Office (women's water polo contact Lindsay Gaesser).

Interview Availability

Players and coaches are available before or after practice. Arrangements for pool access must be made in advance with the Athletic Communications Office. The best time to reach head coach Brandon Brooks is weekday mornings.

Travel Information

For security purposes, the UCLA does not release to the general public any travel information for UCLA athletic teams. If you would like to reach a member of the UCLA water polo team on the road, please contact the Athletic Communications Office.

UCLA celebrates its 2009 NCAA Championship victory against USC.

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in August 2007. As chief executive officer, he oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service.

A champion of public universities, Chancellor Block has called for UCLA to deepen its engagement with Los Angeles, a city that offers a microcosm of the global community, and to increase access for students from underrepresented populations. An advocate of interdisciplinary scholarship, he emphasizes broad-based, campus-wide planning.

Chancellor Block holds UCLA faculty appointments in psychiatry and biobehavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters and Science. A fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, he specializes in circadian biology, which deals with the functioning of 24-hour rhythms in higher organisms.

Previously, Chancellor Block served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia, where he held the Alumni Council Thomas Jefferson Professorship in Biology and directed the National Science Foundation's Science and Technology Center for Biological Timing. He also headed an NIH graduate training program aimed at increasing the number of scientists from underrepresented groups.

A native of Monticello, N.Y., Chancellor Block holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon.

The inventor of a number of devices, Chancellor Block holds a patent for a non-contact respiratory monitor for the prevention of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome, and he is an avid collector of vacuum-tube radios.

Chancellor Block and his wife, Carol, have two children.

Thirteen years and 26 NCAA Championships later, Dan Guerrero's mantra of 'image and substance' has clearly been established at a level that few others in his profession can approach. At the department's helm when UCLA Athletics became the first to win 100 NCAA team championships, the Bruins' current total of 112 NCAA titles is a figure unmatched by any institution in the nation. While UCLA teams have indeed won 26 NCAA championships since his appointment, another national leader, they have also finished second 26 times and have enjoyed an additional 49 Top Five finishes.

In fact, more than 80% of UCLA teams have qualified for NCAA postseason competition since 2002. The football team has appeared in 10 bowl games and the men's basketball team advanced to consecutive Final Fours from 2006-08. The program has also won 56 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced nearly 600 All-Americans and featured six Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

UCLA's success has not just been confined to North America. On the world stage, during the 2012 Summer Olympic Games in London, 32 Bruins participated as athletes or coaches. Representing the United States and eight other nations, they combined to win nine medals, including six golds, a total exceeding what most countries take home in any single Olympiad.

Guerrero, recently named the 2014 NACDA Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year, is the only athletic director at the NCAA Division I level (FBS, FCS and NCAA Division I-AAA) to earn three such awards (2006-07 at UCLA, 2001-02 at UC Irvine). In his 12 years at UCLA, the Bruins have finished second three times (2005-06, 2006- 07 and 2007-08), third four times (2003-04, 2004-05, 2011-12 and 2012-13), fourth (2009-10), sixth (2002-03), seventh (2013-14), 11th (2010-11) and 16th (2008-09) in the race for the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup.

In December, UCLA won its 110th NCAA title when the women's soccer team captured its first College Cup title.

In claiming UCLA's first women's soccer championship in 2013-14, the Bruins now have at least one NCAA crown in 18 different sports. During the 2013-14 season, four other UCLA teams finished among the Top 5 nationally: women's water polo (2nd), women's golf (3rd), men's tennis (T-3rd) and men's golf (T-5th). Additionally, the football team defeated USC for the second straight year, posted a 10-3 record and won the Hyundai Sun Bowl while men's basketball won 28 games, captured the Pac-12 Tournament championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament "Sweet 16." Individually, 62 student-athletes earned All-America honors and 93 were selected to various all-conference teams.have recorded 33 national podium finishes in that span.

Guerrero, 63, is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two grown daughters: Jenna and Katie.

Ashley Armstrong joined the staff at UCLA in 2004 and currently serves as the Associate Athletic Director, Sports and Administration. As a member of the senior management team, she has direct oversight of men's and women's volleyball, women's sand volleyball, men's and women's water polo, and women's rowing. In addition, she is responsible for coordinating coaches development programs, athletic department policies and procedures, year-end sport evaluations, and currently serves on the NCAA Division I Women's Rowing committee.

Armstrong previously served as the Assistant Athletic Director for Student-Athlete Development where she had oversight of the Bruin Student-Athlete Development program. Her broad range of responsibilities included creating the Wooden Academy (leadership development program), serving as an advisor to the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, coordinating community outreach and professional development programs, chairing the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics Health and Wellness Committee and sport supervision of women's rowing and women's volleyball. Armstrong began her tenure at UCLA as the Director of Life Skills and Championships.

Prior to arriving at UCLA, Armstrong served as an Assistant Athletic Director at the University of Louisville where her responsibilities included administration, student-athlete development programming, marketing, championships and compliance. During her stint with the Cardinals, she assisted in developing curriculum for a life skills course and served as a lecturer for the College of Education. She started her career as an academic counselor and tutorial coordinator for the women's athletic department at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Armstrong was recently appointed to serve on the Advisory Board of the Los Angeles Sports and Entertainment Commission, and is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators (NACWAA). Armstrong served as a lead consultant for the NCAA from 2007-2013 where she was responsible for writing and developing curriculum, and training athletics professionals to facilitate the annual NCAA Student-Athlete Leadership Forum. She has presented on various leadership and student well-being issues at national and regional conferences that include the NCAA/NACWAA Institute for Administrative Advancement, NCAA Leadership Conferences, CHAMPS/Life Skills Continuing Education Conferences and NCAA Diversity Education. Armstrong is a 2009 graduate of the Sports Management Institute's executive program.

A native of Southern California, Armstrong earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology from the University of California, Davis, where she was a member of the women's volleyball team. She earned a Master of Science in Sport Management from the University of Tennessee.
