DEREK FREEMAN
HEAD COACH • 14TH YEAR

Guiding the UCLA men's golf team to a National Championship in 2008, Derek Freeman begins his 14th season as the Bruins' head coach in 2020-2021. In 13 seasons under Freeman, UCLA has claimed 27 tournament victories, earned 19 All-America honors and won two Jack Nicklaus Awards, bestowed to the top player in college golf.

During the 2019-2020 abbreviated season due to the COVID-19 pandemic, a pair of Bruins picked up individual wins, as Eddy Lai won for the first time at the Golf Club of Georgia Collegiate Invitational, while Devon Bling claimed his second career win at the Bandon Dunes Championship, the final tournament before the season came to an end. As a team, UCLA had a pair of third-place finishes in its seven events. Bling, who led the Bruins with a 71.0 scoring average, was named a Third Team GCAA All-American, GCAA All-West Region and Pac-12 Golfer of the Month for March. (No season-ending Pac-12 Conference awards were given).

In 2018-2019, UCLA recorded back-to-back victories to open the month of April, winning the SeattleU Redhawk Invitational and the Wyoming Cowboy Classic, shooting a combined 60-under and going under par in all six rounds. The 37-under 815 total at the SeattleU Invite tied for the second-lowest, 54-hole tournament score in relation to par in school history. The Bruins also had medalists in both of those victories, as Hidetoshi Yoshihara won the SeattleU Redhawk Invitational, while Cole Madey won the Wyoming Cowboy Classic. Madey was named All-Pac-12 Second Team, Bling and Lai picked up Honorable Mention accolades and Sean Maruyama was recognized on the All-Freshman Team.

In April 2018, Freeman was named to the NCAA Division I Men's Golf Committee. His term will run from Sept. 1, 2018 through Aug. 31, 2022. In addition to evaluation, selection and seeding of the teams for the NCAA Tournament Regional fields, Freeman will serve as a site representative during the Regional rounds of play and at the Division I Men's Golf Championships final site.

In 2017-2018, UCLA posted its first team victory since 2015 at the Southwestern Invitational, capping a successful season that saw the squad record 10 Top 4 finishes, as well as a trip to the NCAA Championships. A pair of Bruins had the first individual wins of their careers, as Bling won the Jackrabbit Invitational, while Phil Delisi claimed the TMU Spring Invitational. Madey, who was named to the PING All-West Region Team and the All-Pac-12 Second Team, was the lone Bruin to advance to the final round of stroke play at the NCAAs. Madey led the Bruins in scoring average and had five Top 10s. In addition, Yoshihara was named All-Pac-12 Second Team, while Bling was recognized on the All-Freshman First Team.

In 2016-2017, the Bruins finished third in three tournaments and were under par as a team in seven different rounds, including all three at the Amer Ari Invitational. Three players were honored by the Pac-12, as Yoshihara, who won The Maxwell tournament, was named to the Second Team, while Madey and Tyler Collier earned Honorable Mention selections. Off the course, UCLA earned a GCAA Team Academic award, while Corey Shaun was named a GCAA All-American Scholar.

The Bruins recorded four Top 4 finishes in 2015-2016, including a second at the Amer Ari Invitational when they were under par as a team in every round. Two Bruins received All-Pac-12 honors, as Jonathan Garrick, who won the Erin Hills Intercollegiate, was named to the All-Pac-12 Second Team, while Madey earned All-Pac-12 Freshman Team honors. After the season, Garrick earned status on the PGA's Mackenzie Tour, joining Jake Knapp and Manav Shah on the Canadian circuit. In addition, the Bruins received a GCAA Team Academic award, while Lorens Chan was named a GCAA All-American Scholar.

In 2014-2015, the Bruins won four times at the Husky Invitational, the Erin Hills Intercollegiate, the TMC Spring Invitational and the Gifford Collegiate, the latter being the fifth time UCLA has won its own tournament. Knapp was the medalist at the Husky Invite team competition, while Shah won the individual side. Matt Pinizzotto was also victorious at the TMC Spring Invitational. The Bruins rebounded from an eighth-place finish at the Pac-12 Championships to place fourth at NCAA Regionals and advance to the NCAA Championships for the 13th year in a row. UCLA made the quarterfinals of the NCAA Match Play Championships. Garrick was named GCAA Second Team All-America and First Team All-Pac-12. Chan earned Second Team All-Pac-12 honors and was also a GCAA All-American Scholar, while Shah was Honorable Mention All-Pac-12.

UCLA's trip to the NCAA Match Play quarterfinals in 2015 was its second straight appearance after also reaching that mark a year prior. The Bruins claimed a tournament victory at the Redhawk Invitational late in the season and used that momentum to earn the final spot at the San Antonio NCAA Regional and the sixth position at stroke play at the NCAA Championships. Chan and Garrick were each named Honorable Mention All-America and Second Team All-Pac-12. Individually, Preston Valder claimed medalist honors at the Cal State San Marcos Fall Classic.

The Bruins enjoyed an outstanding season in 2012-2013 with four tournament victories, including a win at the Tempe NCAA Regional, UCLA's third regional title under Freeman. The Bruins also won at the Stanford Classic, the Gifford Collegiate and the Amer Ari Invitational. Four players won a total of five individual titles, as Pedro Figueiredo won twice (The Prestige and the Western Intercollegiate), Garrick took the Cal Poly Invitational, Knapp won the Cal State San Marcos Spring Invitational and Pontus Widegren claimed the Cal State San Marcos Fall Classic. Widegren's 70.4 scoring average set a single-season school record, as he played 31 rounds in 14-under par, which helped him earn Third Team All-America and First Team All-Pac-12 honors. Figueiredo was a Second Team All-America, First Team All-Pac-12 and earned his second straight GCAA All-America Scholar award. Garrick was Honorable Mention All-America and All-Pac-12, Shah earned Second Team All-Pac-12 and Anton Arboleda was named Honorable Mention All-Pac-12. As a team, the Bruins earned a GCAA All-Academic award.

In 2011-2012, Patrick Cantlay had an historic season, becoming the first Bruin to earn the Ben Hogan Award, given to the top golfer in all collegiate and amateur competitions. Cantlay, who also played in four professional tournaments as an amateur to retain his world No. 1 ranking, was a Second Team All-America, First Team All-Pac-12 and CoSIDA Academic All-America. All-America Scholar Figueiredo was also Second Team All-America and All-Pac-12, Widegren and Alex Kim were both Second Team All-Pac-12, Arboleda was Honorable Mention All-America and All-Pac-12 and Mario Clemens was All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention. The Bruins won twice at the U.S. Collegiate and Del Walker Match Play Championship, finished fourth at Pac-12's, third at Regionals and tied for fifth at NCAA's (Match Play Quarters). Individually, Figueiredo won the Cal Poly Invite, while Clemens claimed the Snowman Getaway.

UCLA won five times during the 2010-2011 campaign, including an NCAA Regional title, as Freeman was named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year. Cantlay, the conference Golfer of the Year, was medalist at the West Regional with a score of 13-under. The Bruins also won the Gifford Collegiate, the Battle at the Beach and the Western Intercollegiate, and were also the leaders after stroke play at the NCAA Championship. Cantlay won four times (Gifford, Amer Ari, USC Intercollegiate), Widegren claimed the Fall Preview, Clemens was first at the Cal Poly Invite and Gregor Main won the Del Walker Intercollegiate. Cantlay was the Jack Nicklaus Award winner, as the nation's top golfer, and also claimed the Phil Mickelson Award as the country's best freshman and the Haskins Award. He was the Pac-10 Freshman of the Year, First Team All-America and GCAA All-Freshman. Main was Third Team All-America and First Team All-Pac-10, Widegren earned Honorable Mention All-America and First Team All-Pac-10 accolades and Kim was All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention.

The Bruins won twice in 2009-2010 at the Battle at the Beach and the Southern Highlands Collegiate Masters. Kim and Main were named Honorable Mention All-America, while Widegren earned GCAA All-Freshman Team plaudits. Kim was First Team All-Pac-10, while Figueiredo, Main and Widegren were Second Team.

UCLA's lone victory during the 2008-2009 campaign came at the right time when it won the NCAA Central Regional. In addition, Erik Flores was the top individual at the U.S. Collegiate Championship. Flores was Second Team All-America and First Team All-Pac-10, while Main was All-America Honorable Mention, Pac-10 Freshman of the Year, Second Team All-Pac-10 and GCAA All-Freshman.

Freeman's coaching career began on the highest of notes, as UCLA won the 2008 NCAA Championship by one stroke over Stanford at Purdue's Kampen Course. A key par by Kevin Chappell on the 72nd hole clinched the victory. Along with the team title, Chappell was the only player under par and the individual medalist (Arnold Palmer Award), the first for UCLA at the NCAA Championships.

Chappell was the Jack Nicklaus and Haskins Award winners and the Pac-10 Golfer of the Year, also earning First Team All-America and All-Pac-10 honors. Flores was Third Team All-America and First Team All-Pac-10, Lucas Lee was Second Team All-Pac-10 and Philip Francis earned Honorable Mention All-Pac-10 accolades. The Bruins won five times during Freeman's maiden season at the Big Ten/Pac-10 Challenge, the Collegiate Match Play Championship, the CordeValle Collegiate and the Augusta State Invitational. Chappell was the top scorer at the PING/Arizona Intercollegiate, Flores claimed the CS Bakersfield Invite, James Lee tied for first at the CordeValle and Lucas Lee won the Augusta State Invite.

Freeman was named UCLA head men's golf coach on July 16, 2007 after spending one season (2006-2007) as the Bruins' assistant coach. Prior to his time in Westwood, Freeman was an assistant at his alma mater, Oklahoma, in 2005-2006, helping the Sooners to their first Big 12 Conference team title since Freeman's sophomore season.

Freeman coached at Oklahoma City University for three seasons (2002-2005). He was an assistant for the men's and women's programs for the 2002-2003 campaign, helping lead OCU to 14 titles, including the men's 2003 NAIA Championship. After that season, he was promoted to head coach of the OCU women's program and guided the Stars to a 2005 NAIA National Championship, winning by 49 strokes, as Freeman was named the NAIA National Coach of the Year. OCU earned a 2004 runner-up finish, with Freeman receiving Regional COY accolades both seasons.

As a player in Norman, Freeman enjoyed a fine career, serving as the Sooners' captain for three seasons (1992-1994). He earned All-Big Eight honors in 1994 and league academic plaudits in 1993. Freeman was a two-time Bruce Drake Award winner for the most improved player and won OU's Jim Begwin Award for leadership and sportsmanship. He played in four Big Eight Conference Championships, including the 1992 event in which the Sooners won their first-ever league title. Freeman also played in four NCAA Regionals and Championships. Of his 51 collegiate appearances, he finished in the Top 30 25 times.

He received his degree in economics from Oklahoma in 1994 and later played two years on the Canadian, Mexican and Nike Tours. A rib injury forced him to change careers and he worked in the financial services industry for five years prior to entering the coaching ranks.

Freeman, his wife, Stephenie, and their two sons live in the Santa Clarita Valley.

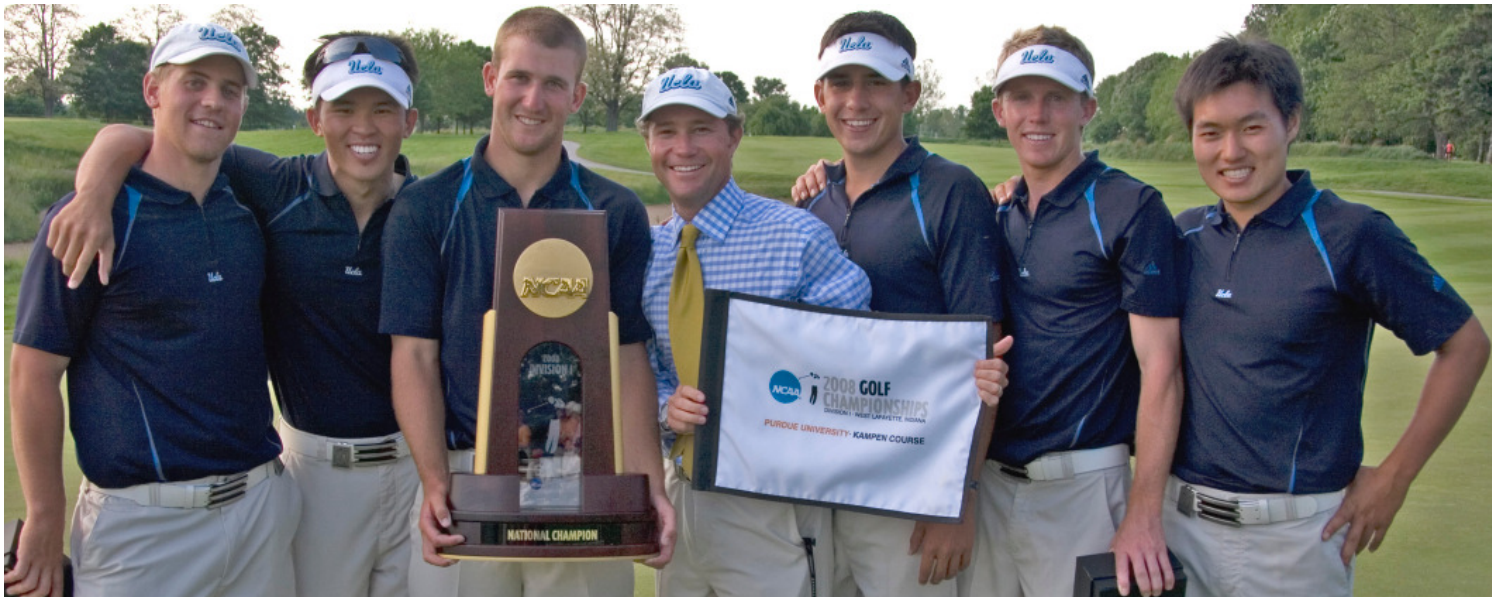
HISTORY

In 1988, the UCLA men's golf team won the program's first team championship at the North Ranch Country Club in Westlake Village, Calif.

Trailing by 13 shots entering the final day of the tournament, the Bruins rallied for one of the greatest comebacks in NCAA golf history. UCLA shot a 3-over 287 over the final 18 holes to win the national championship by three shots over Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and UTEP.

The Bruins' Brandt Jobe fired a final-round, 2-under 69 to finish tied for second (+3, 287), which at that point was the best individual finish ever for a UCLA golfer at the NCAA Championships. Although no other Bruin finished among the Top 20, clutch performances, especially on the final day, produced one of the most memorable championship moments in UCLA history.

Kevin Leach, who won twice on the season and had eight Top 10 finishes, was Second Team All-American and First Team All-Pac-10 Conference. Bobby Lasken, who also won a tournament, was Honorable Mention All-American and Second Team All-Pac-10 and Jobe was an Honorable Mention All-American.



Senior Kevin Chappell made a par on the 18th hole to give UCLA a one-shot victory over Stanford on May 31, 2008 at the 111th NCAA Men's Golf Championship, hosted by Purdue at its Kampen Course in West Lafayette, Ind.

Chappell won the individual title and led the fourth-ranked Bruins to their first men's golf championship since 1988. He finished at 2-under 286 and was the only player in the field under par for the event. He became the first UCLA player to win NCAA medalist honors.

"The feeling I have right now is better than anything," said Chappell. "To win individually is great, but it becomes even more special because the team also won. I can't say enough about this team. All season long we've always been there to pick each other up and that's what championship teams do."

In the third round, Chappell made a round-saving bogey from knee-high rough at the 18th hole. That score helped him post a cool 68 (-4) and assume first place entering the final round. At the time, he called it "the best bogey of my life." He amended that statement after the final round with a bogey that preserved the Bruins' national championship. At the 71st hole, a 230-yard par 3 over water, Chappell dumped his tee shot in the hazard. His third shot from the drop area skirted 22 paces past the hole -- almost a certain double-bogey.

"I knew he could get it up and down from there," said head coach Derek Freeman. "I figured we'd take [a] five and move on to 18."

The two-time All-American chipped it in. "That was the best bogey of my entire life," he said.

Chappell had struggled most of the week at the 18th. In the second round, he came to the brutish 484-yard par 4 at 1-under par. A double-bogey gave him a 73 (+1). His bogey there in the third round prevented him from carding a 67 (-5).

And in the final round, he knew a par would preserve the Bruins' precarious one-shot lead and their championship dreams. His tee shot found the fairway, leaving him 189 yards to the green. His second shot landed 20 feet above the hole. He barely missed making a birdie, but tapped in for par before the entire UCLA entourage charged the green to embrace their senior leader.

"This is huge for our school which prides itself on national championships," said Freeman. "Now, I want to figure out how to get better because I sure like this feeling."

Senior Craig Leslie's birdies at the 16th and 18th holes proved crucial to the Bruins' title hopes, as well as key par saves on the final holes by junior Erik Flores and freshman Philip Francis.
