

Touching Shoulders

There's a comforting thought at the close of the day, when I'm weary and lonely and sad,
That sort of grips hold of my crusty old heart,
And bids it be merry and glad
It gets in my soul and it drives out the blues
And finally thrills thru and thru
It is just a sweet memory that chants the refrain I'm glad I touched shoulders with you

Did you know you were brave?
Did you know you were strong?
Did you know that you helped when I erred?
Did you know that I waited and listened and prayed,
and what was cheered by your simplest word?
Did you know that I longed for the smile on your face,
for the sound of your voice ringing true?
Did you know I grew stronger and better because I merely touched shoulders with you

I am glad that I live, that I battle and strive for the place that I know I must fill I am thankful for sorrows; I'll meet with a grin what fortune may send, good or ill.
I may not have wealth; I may not be great;
but I know I shall always be true For I have in my life that courage you gave When I once touched shoulders with you

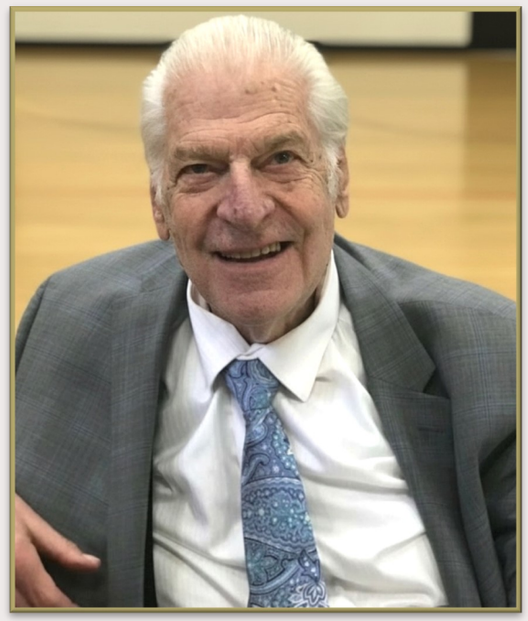
In Loving Memory



Richard J Salisbury

1934 - 2026

"They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength;
they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run,
and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint."
Isaiah 40:31
