WHEREUPON, the following proceedings were duly had: --

CHAIRMAN IVERSON: All right, ladies and gentlemen, I think we will begin our hearing.

My name is Phillip A. Iverson, Deputy Commissioner of the Minnesota Department of Public Safety and I will be presiding over this hearing.

The other members of the panel here with me this morning are Captain Wes Paulus, over here, who is in charge of our Capitol Security. Mr. Alan Held, who is sitting to my left, Assistant Attorney General, and Diane Hamilton, panelists of the Minnesota Department of Public Safety.

I think all of you probably have signed the sheet by now, if not, it will be coming to you in a few moments.

This hearing is being held this 5th day of March, 1974, in Conference Room D of the Veterans Building, St. Paul, commencing at 8:30 and continuing until all representatives of the associations or other interested groups or persons have had an opportunity to be heard concerning the proposed adoption of rules of the State Department of Public Safety governing Capitol Security and protection of State property, setting out rules of conduct and prohibited acts in and on State property and prescribing penalties.

The following documents of the State Department of Public Safety are now introduced as exhibits: The order for hearing which was executed on January 17, 1974; the notice of hearing, executed on January 22, 1974; the Secretary of State's certified mailing list, executed on January 29, 1974; and the affidavit of mailing, executed on January 30, 1974.

All interested persons will be given the opportunity to give testimony limited to the subject of this hearing. It is permissible to present written material which should be marked as an exhibit and introduced for the record. Statements or briefs typed on eight and one-half by eleven inch paper may be submitted after the hearing to the Commissioner of Public Safety, State Highway Building, St. Paul, Minnesota 55155. Such statements must be postmarked no later than midnight March 27, 1974.

Now, we'll try to go down the list as you have written your names on it for those of you who might want to testify, so we'll be getting that sheet of names in very shortly now. Do we have it yet, Diane?

MS. HAMILTON: Almost.

CHAIRMAN IVERSON: Before making your statement, I'd like you to introduce yourself, spell your name and give the name and address of the association or organization that you represent. At this time, I'd like to call on Captain Wesley Paulus to read a statement into our record. Captain Paulus.

CAPTAIN PAULUS: Mr. Chairman. I'm Captain Wesley Paulus of the Minnesota State Patrol assigned as the Assistant Director of the Capitol Security Division.

I feel that there is a definite need for adoption of reasonable rules and regulations such as are proposed here this morning to inform the public as to their rights and limitations to their use of the State buildings and property in the Capitol Complex.

At the present time, prohibited acts relating to State property are scattered throughout the State Statutes and in most cases, the public is unaware that they even exist.

In the past three years there have been a number of incidents that have taken place in various State buildings in the Capitol Complex that have disrupted the normal daily office prosedures of those areas affected. The most recent incident was a demonstration at the Governor's Reception Room in the State Capitol last September.

These rules and regulations, if adopted, would serve a twofold purpose: (1) It would serve to assist the Capitol Security Division in enforcing the lawful use of State buildings and property. (2) It would serve to readily inform those persons intending on using State buildings or property whether or not their actions are within the lawful scope of State Statute 624.72.

The rules and regulations before us today are reasonable, and in my opinion, informative as to the public's rights to use the State buildings and property in the Capitol Complex.

CHAIRMAN IVERSON: Thank you, Captain Paulus.

Mr. Held, do you have anything you'd like to state at this time before we ask for witnesses?

MR. HELD: Yes, one more thing about testifying. All witnesses who do wish to testify may be subject to questions either by the panel or members of the audience, and just feel free to ask any questions you'd like.

CHAIRMAN IVERSON: All right. At this time, I will ask for the first witness, Mr. Elmer Erkkila of the Plant Management Division of the Department of Administration. Elmer.

MR. ERKKILA: Mr. Chairman. I'm Elmer Erkkila, Assistant Director of Plant Management, Department of Administration.

Reading over your proposed scope of your rules and regulations, I have a few things I would just like to raise questions for clarification so we understand what we're talking about. Under DEFINITIONS, under (b), just for the record, does the designated property, all state buildings and property of the capitol area refer to the exterior? I would presume it does, correct?

MR. HELD: It refers to the exterior.

MR. ERKKILA: Exterior. In other words, it confines it not only to buildings and the inside of buildings, but refers also to the outside?

MR. HELD: That's correct.

MR. ERKKILA: Also, (c) Emergency Authorities. I feel that part of that emergency authority should be the maintenance personnel, there may be times that the maintenance personnel should be included.

MR. HELD: For what purpose would that be?

MR. ERKKILA: Well, it all depends on how it is used in here. I presume that you're talking about entry to a building at times?

MR. HELD: That's correct.

MR. ERKKILA: So plant maintenance people have to be in the buildings, there may have to be other maintenance people allowed into a building after closing hours than we now have. We operate on probably one or two individuals in the whole Capitol area off holidays and holidays, and so, in other emergencies we may have to ask other pertinent personnel to come in that may be specialists in the line of plumbers, electricians or whatever it may be.

MR. HELD: I think that's taken care of by Rule 3 (b) which states "All buildings shall be closed after normal working hours. Admission and presence in closed buildings will be limited to employees," and maintenance personnel would be employees, I would assume.

MR. ERKKILA: You're saying maintenance personnel would not be employees?

MR. HELD: The would be employees and therefor admitted to closed buildings and they could do work.

Hemlock

MR. ERKKILA: Fine and dandy.

Under (d) of Normal Working Hours, would it not be Saturdays and Sundays and holidays?

CHAIRMAN IVERSON: I'll ask Mr. Erkkila to ask the question again.

MR. ERKKILA: On the last item of (d) where it refers to Saturday and Sunday, the last line there, 25; should it not include holidays?

MR. HELD: Mr. Paulus, perhaps you could respond to that. Are the buildings generally closed on holidays?

MR. PAULUS: Yes, they are. It would include holidays.

MR. HELD: Perhaps that should be amended to the rule then.

MR. ERKKILA: Now, we'll go down to PROHIBITED ACTS, Line 19, under (a). I'm just wondering, as long as you've been so specific in naming that various things are being done, and it is a bad habit we have, whether we shouldn't include cigarettes?

MR. HELD: I think rubbish would really cover that. I guess we could get into a long, long list of naming everything, it might be very difficult.

MR. ERKKILA: I know it, I know it. And I suppose pretty much on the same line as long as you've been very specific, again, in indicating areas such as entrances, foyers, corridors and offices and so forth, here is another important area which is not included which I feel maybe should be included is the rotunda of the Capitol. It seems to be a focal point in much of what we and you are involved in. Then, under (d), there again, I think probably rotunda should probably be included and I just asked myself the question "what impedes", for instance, I was saying that, thinking in my mind that, would it include groups that might want to carry signs but not on sticks but in their hand; would that impede? My instructions now to people that come into the Capitol area and want to make an appointment to have some gathering in there, that, I ask them, do they plan on carrying signs, they might say yes. I said all right, then you can not carry these signs on a stick, but if you can carry them in your hands, we can approve.

MR. HELD: I guess that would have to be a judgment under reasonable discretion by enforcement authorities whether it was a small sign on a small stick, it probably would impede less than a large sign in the hands. That would be a judgment factor.

MR. ERKKILA: I believe your instructions to us when I talked to you, Mr. Paulus, is you do not want anything carried on a stick.

MR. PAULUS: That's true, primarily because anything on a stick or lattice as is usually the case, in a large group can be damaging to the effect that somebody could get jabbed in the eye by it or such, injured.

MR. ERKKILA: My last one that I have here to call to your attention would be (g) where you're speaking of solicitation on your last page. I'm asking whether you should be more specific, are we going to, in solicitation, include two groups that are allowed solicitation right now? I realize that in your statement here you are leaving certain things to the approval of the Commissioner of Administration. I can't speak for the Commissioner, himself, but I do know that he probably would feel much better if it would be more specific in a couple areas; for instance, at the present time, I've been in the State now 37 years and I know all of the time, the Little Sisters of the Poor and Salvation Army have been allowed to solicit through our buildings. Now, I would guess that the only reason that they have been approved as because they have been doing it for so long. We indicated as long as they are doing it, they will be permitted, if they stop, it would be stopped. Now, we do band other solicitations in our buildings, so I'm wondering whether we should say something about this, or leave it to the discretion of our Commissioner of Administration.

Also, we have problems with such things as free papers, for instance, your St. Paul Downtowner is in our building, the University Daily is in our buildings, The Union Advocate, and so on, are in our buildings. Now, if we approve that these free publications can be in our State Buildings and because they are State buildings, then we should not be discriminatory and we would have to allow all free periodicals and things to come into the Capitol area. That's all I have.

MR. HELD: Does anyone have any questions for Mr. Erkkila?

(No response.)

MR. KIENITZ: Mr. Chairman, I'm Dave Kienitz, Assistant Sargeant of Arms in the House of Representatives. I have some of the same questions

Mr. Ekkila has.

One in Sec 4, Subdivision (d) where sticks are not specifically mentioned and we have specifically outlawed them already, the Commissioner of Administration has, and I guess I would like to see sticks specifically included in the language so there's no question and it's not left to anyone's discretion. It's more of a health hazard than anything else which is why Mr. Paulus will tell you that's why we do it now.

If I may, Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask one more question on Sec 2, Subdivision (a), you're authorizing individuals and persons empowered by State or local law or executive appointment and I would submit the Sargeant at Arms in both the house and Senate are neither State or local law officials nor appointed by the executive branch, yet they have very specific duties concerning the whole hearing.

MR. HELD: What is the subject of their appointment?

MR. KIENITZ: We are appointed by the House of Representatives and the Senate Sargeants are appointed by the Senate.

MR. HELD: Perhaps you could propose an amendment by legistative or executive appointment.

MR. KIENITZ: We're also kind of questioning what executive appointment means, are we specifically referring to the Governor or does that include Lt. Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State?

MR. HELD: Executive is broad enough to include all of those officers, I guess; they would have to have the power to make the particular appointment made, if the Attorney General does have the power to appoint certain people, those people would be eligible to authorize power as authorized individuals under these rules.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anyone else who would like to give testimony at this time? Anyone; any comments to bring out at this time. Please state your name.

MR. NELSON: I have a question as to procedure --

MR. CHAIRMAN: State your name.

MR. NELSON: Lee Nelson representing the Highway Department. What is your tentative schedule for procedure for adopting these regulations and having them into effect? Do you have any general idea about that?

MR. HELD: March 26th is the deadline for submitting written statements, after that point, it will be closed off.

MR. NELSON: Due process. My question is simply if we can inaugurate security measures, I would like to coincide the timing with the time this goes into effect.

MR. HELD: These rules are always open to subjection. New rules can be enacted or promulgated.

MR. KIENITZ: I have one further question. Sec 3, Subdivision D. Submit to Inspection; as I read that, if a suspicious package came into the capitol building, as an example, does Mr. Paulus have to call the Commissioner of Administration or the Commissioner of Public Safety to get permission to look inside the package or is this the kind of authorization that is covered by blanket authorization for these personnel?

MR. HELD: I imagine the Commissioner of Safety would set up plans ahead of time designating after certain hours or certain types of packages, they would be subject to inspection. I doubt that it would be administered on an ad hoc basis each time.

Perhaps Mr. Paulus could tell us more about what your precedures would be.

MR. PAULUS: I think Mr. Kienitz explained it there. It would have to be on a blanket type of coverage with, I assume, the discussion of the division and in most cases this would probably take place at critical hearings, something controversial, or in the event that a demonstration was in process at the time. It would not be normally a day-to-day inspection type of thing. I think it has to be with an agreement and planned set up with the Commissioner of Public Safety to give us the authority and use the judgment to the best of our ability.

MR. KIENITZ: As you read this, is that what it says? I guess as I read it, it says you have to go to the Commissioner every time you want to inspect a package.

MR. PAULUS: No, it says "so directed", and if he gives this authority at the beginning, you shall have authority to do it. I think it would be a long-term thing until it was rescinded. That's my interpretation and that was the intent of it.

CHAIRMAN IVERSON: Thank you. Anyone else?

We'll be closing off the meeting here shortly unless you have something more to say here. If you have something, I would like to hear it.

MR. ERKKILA: Mr. Chairman, may I ask a question that may not directly relate to this? It's always been a question in my mind, other than Mr. Paulus in Capitol Security, who really has any right or jurisdiction so far as peace officers in this area in the Capitol, and we were told if a horrendous riot developed and Mr. Paulus' staff was not able to handle it, we were able to call the St. Paul Police Department and Ramsey County Sheriff, but it's never been clear in my mind whether they have powers of arrest because it's State property as opposed to City property.

CHAIRMAN IVERSON: Very good. I'll call on Mr. Paulus.

MR. PAULUS: The St. Paul Police have authority; the Ramsey County Sheriff's Deparment; all State Troopers have authority, and that goes within the providence in the State of Minnesota we do have a working plan in the event of problems or demonstrations, we call on additional State Troopers etc. As far as necessary, we co-ordinate with the St. Paul Police, and we've had them up here several times in the last year and Ramsey County, again, does have the authority being its in the confines of Ramsey County. We normally try to handle everything ourselves on a division basis and it's only those incidences where the lack of manpower is a problem that we call on the other agencies.

CHAIRMAN PAULUS: Thank you, Captain Paulus.

MR. ERKKILA: I might ask a question. Are you positively sure, Mr. Paulus, that is a correct statement you made when you say the St. Paul Police has authority, because I know for a fact that the St. Paul Police have no authority on our parking lots to issue any rules and regulations, we issue them. I have talked to the St. Paul City Police several times and they always have felt, Mr. Chairman, the Capitol is a no-man's land, they really don't know how far they should go. I know if the Department of Public Safety were to ask for their assistance, they would come in then, as to whether they would come in on their own and do something, I think they would be hesitant.

CHAIRMAN IVERSON: Mr. Erkkila, I think to answer that, I can state, we in the past have asked for assistance and I think we would now. We wouldn't expect them to come in here and make arrests on their own without consulting our people. They've been very cooperative in the past when we've had a possibility of riots and demonstrations that might get out of hand, they've been very cooperative in giving us the manpower, equipment, or whatever it might be.

Anyone else? Is there anyone that hasn't signed the register? I think we had someone come in a little later. Have you signed the register back there, Sir?

UNIDENTIFIED VOICE: No, I haven't.

CHAIRMAN IVERSON: Hearing no further testimony, I will state that twenty days will be allowed for post hearing submission of evidence, statements or briefs. These statements must be typed on eight and one-half by eleven inch papers and they must be mailed to the Commissioner of Public Safety, State Highway Department Building, St. Paul, Minnesota 55155; postmarked no later than March 26, 1974.

The hearing is now closed. Thank you very much.

In the matter of the Proposed Adoption of Rules of the State Department of Public Safety Relating to Capitol Security and protection of state property.

STATEMENT OF NEED

The above captioned rules are not amendments to existing rules of the Department of Public Safety.

The need to adopt these rules arises because of the incidents that have occurred in various state buildings recently that have disrupted normal daily office procedures of the areas affected. If adopted these rules will readily and concisely inform the public and employees of the lawful use of state buildings and will thereby aid Capitol Security in their surveillance and guarding state buildings.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The above-entitled matter came on for hearing before the Commissioner of Public Safety of the State of Minnesota on the 5th day of March, 1974, at 8:30 A.M. in Conference Room D of the Veterans Service Building, St. Paul, Minnesota after proper notice required by M.S. 1971, Section 15.0412 was served upon all persons, associations and other interested groups registered with the Secretary of State for that purpose.

After affording interested persons an opportunity to present written and oral data, statements and arguments, having heard all of the testimony, having considered all of the evidence adduced and upon the records, files and proceedings herein, I find the following:

In CapSec 4 Prohibited Acts, paragraph (d) of the proposed rules was amended as a result of Elmer Erkkila's and Dave Kienitz's testimony to clarify the kinds of signs, placards, and banners as those affixed or not affixed to a pole or stick. The definition of Authorized Individuals in Capsec 2 (a) was amended to include legislative appointments.
