COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WELFARE

In the Matter of the Proposed Adoption of Rule 208 of the Minnesota Department of Public Welfare Relating to the Provision of Family Planning Service

STATEMENT OF NEED

Proposed Minn. Rule DPW 208 is a new administrative rule of the Minnesota Department of Public Welfare and is not an amendment to an already existing rule.

This rule is needed in order to implement U.S. Public Law 92.603 and Title XX of the Social Security Act. These regulations require that family planning services be offered and provided to all recipients of AFDC and define the services that must be provided. Since Title XX is administered by the local social service agencies, this rule is necessary in order to require local social service agencies to provide family planning service and to describe the service that must be offered.

This rule is also needed to develop programs to prevent unwanted pregnancies by requiring local social service agencies to inform the community and potential clients about the availability of family planning services from the local social service agency.

VERA J. LIKINS

STATE OF MINNESOTA

COUNT OF

BEFORE THE MINNESOTA

STATE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE

In the Matter of the Proposed Adoption of Rule 208 Relating to the Administration and Provision of Family Planning Service

FINDINGS OF FACT

The above-entitled matter came on for hearing before the Minnesota State Department of Public Welfare on the 16th day of December 1975, at 10:50 a.m. in the Auditorium of the State Office Building, Wabasha Street, St. Paul, Minnesota 55155, after proper notice required by Minn. Stat. Section 15.0412 (1975 Supp.) was served upon all persons, associations and other interested groups registered with the Secretary of State for that purpose.

After affording interested persons an opportunity to present written and oral data, statements and arguments, and having heard and considered all of the testimony and evidence adduced and upon the records, files and proceedings herein, the Department makes and enters the following findings:

1. Authority to adopt the regulation establishing standards for the provision of Family Planning Service is contained in Minnesota Statute 393.07, subd. 2, United States Public Law 92-603 and Federal Register, Vol. 40, No. 125, Part II, Title 45, Sect. 228.26.

2. Written testimony was received recommending that the broader definition of Family Planning Service, as stated in the Minnesota State Social Service Plan be used as the defined purpose for family planning in proposed Rule DPW-208 (I) (b). The recommended change does not alter the substance of proposed Rule DPW-208, and is accepted. Therefore, (I) (b) is revised to read: "The purpose of family planning services is to arrange for and provide social, educational and medical services (including sterilization) and supplies to enable individuals to determine family size or prevent unplanned pregnancies."

3. Written comment was received protesting the initiation of this rule-making process prior to January 1, 1976.

Nothing in the Administrative Procedures Act prohibits the initiation of the rule making process prior to January 1, 1976. Indeed, amendments to the Administrative Procedures Act, effective July 1, 1975, place an affirmative obligation on Minnesota Department of Public Welfare to promulgate rules as quickly as possible in order to comply with the expanded definition of "rule" presently contained in the law.

4. Other provisions of the regulation not specifically referred to are found to be reasonable, necessary and supported by evidence presented at the hearing in this matter. Specifically, evidence presented shows that the rule is needed for the development of policies to ensure that local social service agencies provide family planning services in order to implement U.S. Public Law 92.603 and meet the requirement of federal regulations and Title XX of the Social Security Act.

ORDER ADOPTING RULES

The above-entitled matter came on for hearing before a duly appointed hearing officer of the Commissioner of Public Welfare of the State of Minnesota on the 16th day of December, 1975, at 10:50 a.m. in the Auditorium of the State Office Building, Wabasha Street, St. Paul, Minnesota 55155, after proper notice required by Minnesota Statute § 15.0412, subd. 4 (1974), as amended, was served upon all persons, associations and other interested groups registered with the Secretary of State for that purpose.

After affording interested persons an opportunity to present written and oral data, statements and arguments, having heard all of the testimony, having considered all of the evidence adduced and upon the records, files and proceedings herein, and applicable statutory standards of criteria, and having confirmed the need for the above-captioned rule;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that this rule, identified as Minn. Rule DPW 208 is adopted this 16th day of June, 1976, pursuant to the authority vested in me by Minnesota Statutes § 256.01 subds. 2 and 4 (1974).
