BOARD OF PSYCHOLOGY

In the Matter of Proposed Amendments to Board of Psychology Rules Relating to License Application Fees; Renewal Fees; and Renewal Procedures

STATEMENT OF NEED

The need to adopt the above-captioned rules arises in order to bring the Board of Psychology in conformance with new legislation. Whereas, Minn. Stat. § 148.91 subd. 3 (1974) specified fees in dollar amounts, Minn. Laws 1976, ch. 222 § 69 deletes reference to specified amounts. Specifically, Minn. Laws 1976, ch. 222 § 69, requires that each licensure applicant pay a "nonrefundable application fee set by the Board." Minn. Laws 1976, ch. 222 § 69 further states that the "fee for renewal shall be set by the board."

Furthermore, Minn. Laws 1976, ch. 222 § 3 authorizes the board to adjust fees by rule ". . . so that the total fees collected by each board will as closely as possible equal anticipated expenditures . . . ." and requires that rules specify the procedures for renewal as well as the period of time for which a license is valid. The adoption of the proposed rules is necessary to fulfill the directives as stated by the legislature.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In compliance with Minn. Rule HE 103(i) the Minnesota Board of Psychology hereby submits the attached justification. The justification will be submitted with the record at the public hearing in support of the proposed rules. Statutory authority to adopt the above-referenced rules is found in Minn. Laws 1976, ch. 222 secs. 69 and 3.

MINNESOTA BOARD OF PSYCHOLOGY

Justification for Proposed Amendments to Board of Psychology Rules: License Application Fees, Renewal Fees, and Renewal Procedures

(Finance Detail attached hereto and made a part hereof)

Minn. Stat. § 148.91 subd. 3 (1974) establishes an application fee of $75.00 and a biennial renewal fee of $35.00. Minn. Stat. § 214.06 (1974) provides that ". . . health related licensing boards . . . may increase the fee for renewal of license . . . so that the total fees collected by each board will as closely as possible equal anticipated expenditures." An amendment to the Minnesota licensing law for psychologists, Minn. Laws (1976) chapter 222, provides that "members of the board shall: . . . pursuant to chapter 15, prescribe rules as may be necessary to enable it to carry into effect the provisions of Laws 1973, Chapter 685;" and further, " . . . each applicant shall pay a nonrefundable application fee set by the board."

The Minnesota Board of Psychology has found that fees currently assessed do not provide sufficient revenue to finance the activity and services required of this Board.

Initial licenses were granted by this Board on November 1, 1974. As of July 1, 1975, 418 persons were licensed. It is now anticipated that 800 persons will have been licensed by July 1, 1976. Assuming a 2% drop rate (deaths, retirement, etc.) for the 418 licensees, 410 renewals at the current $35.00 rate would provide income of $14,350 in this biennium. With an estimated 222 applications at the $75.00 fee, income from this source would be $16,650. Income from both sources would be $31,000 for the 1976-77 biennium.

If renewal fees are set at $75.00, income from this source would be $30,750. With the income from applications (estimated at $16,650) the total income for the 1976-77 biennium would be $47,400.

The legislative appropriation to the Board for the 1976-77 biennium was $43,000. Additional funds for personnel costs ($4,500) were sought and secured in fiscal 1976. Thus, monies available for the operation of the Board for 1976-77 are in the amount of $47,500. No provision was made in the approved budget for this biennium for costs of investigative or legal services, hearings or computer services.

In estimating costs of operation for the 1978-79 biennium, five disciplinary and one rules hearing are allowed annually. Allowance is made for implementation of a continuing education requirement for renewal. During this biennium a 2% attrition is allowed in renewals for the first year. 10% attrition is allowed in the second year, based on a continuing education requirement being implemented by that time. It is further assumed that 16% of those persons applying will not be licensed. The renewal number thus drops to 427 for the second year. An estimate of investigatory and legal costs is included, as well as a 5% surcharge to cover costs of services provided by the Department of Health. Costs for license renewal through central licensing are included. Total projected expenditures for the biennium are in the amount of $75,875.

Using a $75.00 renewal fee, total income from renewals for the 1978-79 biennium would be $60,075. 160 applications at $75.00 each would bring income of $12,000, for a total of $72,075. The application fee not only covers the examination but also two years of licensure. It is proposed, therefore, that the application fee be raised to $100.00 to cover the deficit between projected receipts and expenditures. An increase of $25.00 would generate an estimated $4,000.00 additional revenue for the biennium. The increase in application fee would become effective on July 1, 1977.

Changes in the rules covering non-payment of renewal fees are proposed to simplify and clarify procedures, and to enable the Board to take legal action as may be required to ensure compliance with the law.

Proposed Psych 7(c), a new provision, penalizes those licensees who neglect to pay the fee for renewal of license after reasonable notice. The late penalty of $50.00 is estimated to be of a sufficient amount to cover additional costs entailed in handling late renewals. It is the intent of the Board to assess a high enough penalty to provide incentive for licensees to endeavor to comply with the rules and the Law. Psychologists engaged in private practice in the State of Minnesota must be licensed. There is no provision which sanctions continuation of private practice after the terminal date of the license.

Proposed Psych 7(c)(1) enables the Board to take appropriate action against licensees who do not comply with the renewal requirements of the rules and law.

Proposed Psych 7(d) establishes guidelines for renewal dates. The original biennial renewal date is maintained by the Board for all licensees in that it is in the best interest of the licensee to have a fixed date. Further, by Law the licensee must maintain his license in order to practice legally in this State. The change in renewal date of licenses re-issued after suspension will reflect the fact that these licenses were not continuous from initial issuance date.

Proposed Psych 7(e) is based on the Board position that persons who do not wish to practice in this State should be given the option of voluntarily terminating their licensure without financial penalty. However, if at a later date such persons wish to resume practice in this State, it is in the interest of the public to verify the ability of those individuals to again meet Minnesota standards. Since professional information about an applicant during the time he/she is not practicing in this State is not easily accessible, it is proposed that this be gained through the initial licensing procedures. It is through this process that educational, experiential and personal data is secured in a consistent and equitable way for each applicant. The examination process verifies an applicant's general knowledge, as well as certain specific applications of this knowledge, particularly in the area of professional ethics.

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

STATE OF MINNESOTA
OFFICE OF HEARINGS EXAMINERS

FOR THE STATE BOARD OF PSYCHOLOGY

In the Matter of Proposed Amendments to Board of Psychology Rules Relating to License Application Fees; Renewal Fees; and Renewal Procedures.

REPORT OF HEARING EXAMINER

The above-entitled matter came on for hearing before Hearing Examiner Peter C. Erickson at 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, August 10, 1976 in the Board Room of the Department of Health Building, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Terry O'Brien, Special Assistant Attorney General, Department of Health Building, appeared as counsel for the Board of Psychology. Dr. Frederick Kiel, Vice-Chairman of the Board, testified on behalf of the Board. Several other members of the Board of Psychology were also present. The hearing continued until all interested groups or persons had an opportunity to be heard concerning the adoption of the proposed rules.

Pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 15.052, subd. 3 (1975), this Report will include Findings of Fact, Conclusions and Recommendations. The Board shall make a copy of this Report available for review to any interested person upon request.

The Board shall, if it proposes to adopt the rules as originally proposed or amended, submit the complete hearing record to the Chief Hearing Examiner no earlier than ten days subsequent to the receipt of this Report. It shall include the rules as originally proposed, and the rules as proposed for adoption in final form.

The submission to the Chief Hearing Examiner shall precede review by the Attorney General. The Chief Hearing Examiner shall complete his review and submit his report to the Board on the issue of substantial changes in the rule within ten calendar days. The Board will be responsible for filing the rules with the Attorney General.

Based upon the proceedings herein, the Examiner makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On June 15, 1976, the Board filed the following documents with the Chief Hearing Examiner:

(a) A proposed Order for Hearing;

(b) A proposed Notice of Hearing with the proposed amendments attached; and

(c) A statement of the number of persons expected to attend and estimated length of hearing.

2. On June 28, 1976, the Board mailed the Notice of Hearing to all persons and associations who had registered their names with the Secretary of State for the purpose of receiving such notice, to all persons and associations on a list maintained by the State Board of Psychology, and to all members of the Legislature.

3. On July 16, 1976, the Board filed with the Office of Hearings Examiners the following documents:

(a) The Order for Hearing;

(b) The Notice of Hearing as mailed;

(c) The affidavit of receipt of the Secretary of State's list;

(d) The Affidavit of Mailing

(e) The Statement of Need;

(f) The affidavit of mailing of a notice pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 15.0412, subd. 6, and a copy of the notice and material received pursuant to the Notice;

(g) The names of Department personnel who will represent the agency;

(h) A summary of evidence.

The documents were available for inspection at the office of Hearings Examiners from the date of filing to the date of the hearing. A Department of Finance Approval was also filed on August 9, 1976.

4. The record was closed at the end of the day on August 30, 1976.

5. Statutory authority to promulgate the proposed rules is contained in Minn. Laws 1976, Ch. 222, §§ 3 and 69.

6. Minnesota Laws 1976, Ch. 222, § 69, repeals statutory amounts for license fees and requires that each licensure applicant pay a "nonrefundable application fee set by the Board." It further states that the "fee for renewal shall be set by the Board." Furthermore, Minn. Laws 1976, Ch. 222, § 3, authorizes the Board to adjust fees by rule "so that the total fees collected by each board will as closely as possible equal anticipated expenditures . . ." and requires that rules specify the procedures for renewal as well as the period of time for which a license is valid.

7. The Minnesota Board of Psychology has found that fees currently assessed do not provide sufficient revenue to finance the activity and services required of the Board.

8. The proposed amendment to Psych 2, Application, is needed to raise the application fee from $75 to $100 effective July 1, 1977.

9. The proposed amendments to Psych 7, License Renewal, are necessary to set a renewal fee at $75 and establish procedures for the license renewal and termination process.

10. It is argued by several practicing psychologists that the proposed application and renewal fees are too high.

11. It is suggested by several persons that an inactive status be created for a minimal fee to allow a psychologist to travel or take a sabbatical and be able to maintain a license in good standing without paying the regular fees. Also, that a lesser fee rate be established for licensed psychologists who are retired, but still desire to practice on an infrequent basis.

12. The Board contends that "Minn. Laws 1976, ch. 222, §§ 68, 69 permit the Board of Psychology to grant licenses for only two levels of psychological practice. These levels are as (a) licensed consulting psychologists and (b) licensed psychologists. Section 69 of the above-cited statute requires renewal fees for these licenses. The Board does not believe it has the legal authority to create categories of licensure not contemplated in the statute. To write a rule which would confer a status of licensure not contemplated in statute is beyond the Board's statutory authority."

"To create a separate category of licensees at this point in the process of the above-referenced rules, would constitute, in our opinion, a substantive change in the rules as proposed. It would require a new hearing. Even if the Board had the authority to create new classifications of licensure, such classifications should not be included in these rules at this time." (The preceding quoted material was taken from a letter written by Terry O'Brien on August 30, 1976 and sent to this office within the 20-day submission period.)

CONCLUSIONS

1. Due, timely and adequate legal notice was served and filed by the Board of Psychology. All other substantive and procedural requirements of statute or rule have been complied with.

2. The Examiner concludes that the projected budget and the Department of Finance Approval show that the fees proposed by the Board are needed to generate the necessary revenues for the upcoming biennium.

3. The Examiner concludes that because Minn. Laws 1976, ch. 222, §§ 68, 69 only give the Board authority to grant licenses for two levels of practice, to initiate another category of licensees at this time, besides lacking statutory authority, would constitute a substantial change in the rules as proposed. This matter should be dealt with in future legislation and rule-making proceedings.

4. The Examiner concludes that the need for and reasonableness of the proposed amendments to Psych 2 and Psych 7 have been demonstrated by the Board; and that the Board has documented its statutory authority to promulgate the proposed rules.

RECOMMENDATION

That the Board of Psychology adopt the amendments to Psych 2 and Psych 7 as proposed.

Dated this 10th day of September, 1976.

In the Matter of Proposed Amendments to Board of Psychology Rules Relating to License Application Fees; Renewal Fees; and Renewal Procedures.

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE APPROVAL

Whereas, Minn. Stat. § 148.91 subd. 3 (1974) established an application fee of $75.00 and a biennial renewal fee for Licensed Psychologists and Licensed Consulting Psychologists of $35.00, Minn. Laws 1976, ch. 222 § 69 deletes reference to specified dollar amounts and requires fees to be set by the Board. Minn. Laws 1976, ch. 222 § 3 provides that ". . . health related licensing boards . . . may by rule, with the approval of the commissioner of finance, adjust any fee which the Board is empowered to assess a sufficient amount . . . so that the total fees collected by each board will as closely as possible equal anticipated expenditures."

The above-captioned proposed amendments to Minnesota Rules and Regulations of the Board of Psychology, Psych 2 Application, and Psych 7 License Renewal, a copy of which is attached, increases the application fee to one-hundred dollars ($100.00) and the biennial renewal fee to seventy-five dollars ($75.00).

Upon review of the attached supporting information justifying the need, reasonableness and amount of the renewal fee, and pursuant to the authority vested in the Minnesota Department of Finance by Minn. Laws 1976, ch. 222 § 3, Minn. Stat. §§ 16A.04 subd. 3 and 16A.07 Subd. 4 (1974), the fees proposed in the above amendment to the Board of Psychology rules are hereby approved.
