Camp Staff

The Winter Baseball Camps are directed and staffed by the University of Missouri Head Coach Tim Jamieson. Coach Jamieson will be assisted by Assistant Coaches Evan Pratte (hitting/infield), Tony Vitello (pitching) and Travis Wendte (pitching). The camp staff will also include college coaches along with current and former Mizzou baseball players.

Participants/Instruction

High school age players from grades 9-12 are eligible to participate. Instruction will center around hitting, pitching, fielding, baserunning, team offense and team defense. All hitters and pitchers will be individually videotaped and reviewed with an instructor.

Exposure

In the 17-year history of the camp, over 305 campers have gone on to play professional or college baseball. Twenty-one of Missouri's current players attended Mizzou's Winter Baseball Camp.

Team Concept

A team concept with 6-7 players per team will be utilized. Groups may sign up as teams or if a camper signs up as an individual he will be placed on a team. These teams will compete in games and game situations both offensively and defensively. Championships for team competitions will be awarded.

Equipment Needed

Cleats are allowed in Devine Pavilion. Turf shoes, tennis shoes, cross-trainers are also acceptable. Bring your own fielder's gloves, and personal items. Catchers should have their own catcher's gear with them. Batting gloves are highly recommended.
