TIGER TIDBITS

- Missouri improved to 2-1-1 on the season with a pair of road wins against TCU (2-1 OT) and SMU (3-1) last weekend.
- Friday marks Mizzou's first live event on SEC Network +.
- Redshirt senior keeper McKenzie added another Mizzou record to her resume last weekend, breaking the program's career wins record with 36. She also owns career records in saves, minutes played in goal, games played in goal and games started in goal.
- Senior Taylor Grant scored two more goals last weekend, both against TCU, to up her season total to four. Her single-season career best is five, set in last season.
- Freshman Savannah Trujillo tallied two goals, the first two of her collegiate career, against SMU on Sunday.
- Head Coach Bryan Blitz sits at 198 career wins at Missouri, just two shy of 200. He is also just seven wins shy of 250 in his head coaching career.
- The 2014 Tigers are a family affair, with two pairs of sisters suiting up for Mizzou. Senior Kaysie Clark is joined on the pitch by her sister, freshman Kaitlyn, while freshman Jessica Johnson joins her sister Jessica on the squad.
- Mizzou owns a 4-3-1 all-time record against Northwestern. The Tigers are 2-2 in games played in Columbia and 4-0-1 in the last five meetings. The two teams last met on Sept. 5, 2010, in Evanston, Ill., in a match that ended in a 1-1 tie.

MORE ABOUT THE TIGERS

Last Time Out

Mizzou picked up two road wins in Texas last weekend. The Tigers earned a 2-1 overtime win over TCU on Friday and downed SMU 3-1 on Sunday.

Against TCU, senior forward Taylor Grant scored two goals, including the game-winner two minutes into overtime to give the Tigers their first win of the season. The tallies were the third and fourth of the season for Grant, just one off her single-season career best of five.

On Sunday, the Tigers earned a 3-1 win over SMU. Freshman Savannah Trujillo scored two goals, the first two of her career, and junior Reagan Russell added another in the victory. With the win in goal, redshirt senior goalkeeper McKenzie Sauerwein broke Missouri's career wins record with 36. She entered the match tied with former Tiger Tasha Dittamore at 35.

Scouting Northwestern

Northwestern enters Friday's matchup with a 3-1 record in its opening two weekends. The team earned wins over No. 15 Marquette (1-0), Illinois-Chicago (6-0) and Miami (Ohio) (3-1) and suffered a 1-0 loss to Farleigh Dickinson in the season opener.

Addie Steiner leads the Wildcats with six goals for 12 points. Four other players have also found the net this season: Niki Sebo, Kim Jerantowski, Grace Orndorff and Rachel Zampa.

In goal, Lauren Clem has played all but 21 minutes and owns a 0.53 goals against average and made four saves.

Scouting UT Martin

UT Martin is off to its best start in program history with a 3-0 record following wins over SLU (3-2 OT), Bethel (6-0) and Indiana State (3-0).

The Skyhawks swept the Ohio Valley Conference weekly awards this week with Ashlie Watson (offensive player), Lucy Pater (defensive player) and Mariah Klenke (goalkeeper) taking home honors.

Watson ranks second on the squad in both points (eight) and goals (three), behind Rianna Jarrett's four goals and 10 points.

Keeper Klenke owns a 0.66 goals against average and a .857 save percentage. She posted shutouts in UT Martin's last two contests.

Sauerwein Takes Down Another Program Record

With two wins against TCU and SMU last weekend, redshirt senior goalkeeper McKenzie Sauerwein added another program record to her resume: career wins. The North Richland Hills, Texas, native enters the weekend with 36 wins in her Mizzou career, one more than former Tiger Tasha Dittamore's previous record of 35.

Last season, Sauerwein set Mizzou career marks in games played in goal (67), games started in goal (61), saves (320) and minutes in goal (6009:35).

Additionally, after a shutout over Syracuse in the season opener, Sauerwein sits one shutout shy of tying Tasha Dittamore's career school record of 17.

Grant Off to Dream Start

Forward Taylor Grant is off to a dream start to her senior season, as she has scored four goals in Mizzou's opening four games. In fact, Grant scored the Tigers' first four goals of the year with two apiece in games against West Virginia and TCU. Against TCU on Aug. 29, Grant scored the game-winner in the 92nd minute to give Missouri its first win of the season. She came very close to scoring at SMU on Aug. 31 but a second half header hit off the left post.

Additionally, she scored Missouri's game-winner in a 2-1 preseason win over No. 4 North Carolina on Aug. 15.

Grant ranks tied for second in the SEC in goals and is tied for fifth in points (eight).

Last season, Grant posted career highs in points (14), goals (five) and assists (four). She now has 32 points in her Mizzou career on 13 goals and six assists.

Blitz Approaching Wins Milestones

Head Coach Bryan Blitz is approaching two milestones this season. The 19-year Mizzou head coach owns a 198-159-22 mark at the school, sitting just two wins away from 200 as Missouri. His program record also stands as Mizzou's all-time record as Blitz started the soccer program in 1996.

Additionally, Blitz owns a career head coaching record of 243-203-30, just seven away from 250.

The Distributor

Although senior midfielder Kaysie Clark has not found the back of the net so far this year, she remains a key piece in the Tiger attack. Clark, who has started all four games, has earned assists on four of Mizzou's seven goals in 2014. Additionally, although she was not credited with an assist on Taylor Grant's game-winner against TCU, Clark was the one who found Grant in the box.

With her four assists, Clark is in a four-way tie for first in both assists and assists per game.

Clark, a All-SEC first team honoree in 2013, has compiled 39 points in her career on 12 goals and 15 assists.

Trujillo Helps Tigers Run Past Mustangs

Freshman Savannah Trujillo made a habit of being in the right place at the right time in Mizzou's 3-1 win over SMU on Aug. 31. The Kansas City, Mo., native scored the first two goals of her Missouri career against the Mustangs, including the eventual game-winner in the 51st minute.

Trujillo got herself free in the box on both occassions, one-timing a pass from Kaysie Clark in the 51st minute and scoring again off a backheel pass from junior Reagan Russell in the 87th minute.

Sister, Sister

The 2014 Tigers are a family affair, with two pairs of sisters suiting up for Mizzou. Senior Kaysie Clark is joined on the pitch by her sister, feshman Kaitlyn, while freshman Jessica Johnson joins her sister Jessica on the squad. Both Clarks will be found in the midfield during the year, while Jasmine will play in the back and Jessica will play up front.

BRYAN BLITZ

Entering his 19th season as head soccer coach at Mizzou, Bryan Blitz holds a record of 198-159-22 since 1996 when he was hired as the program's first head coach.

Under his tutelege, the Tigers have won two Big 12 Championships and earned five NCAA Tournament appearances.

In 2013, the Tigers went 8-9-3 and earned three wins over top-25 opponents, including two top-10 victories.

In the program's first season in the Southeastern Conference, Blitz led the Tigers to a 14-7-1 season and their fifth NCAA Tournament berth. The squad's 14 wins tie for the second-most in a single-season.

In 2009, his Mizzou squad earned its first ever Big 12 regular season title as as the Tigers clinched the title with a 5-0 shutout over Nebraska on Oct. 25 With his players excelling on the field it seemed only natural that Blitz was named Big 12 Coach of the Year for the second time.

In 2008 the Tigers had one of their most successful seasons in program history. Blitz directed his team to a 16-5-2 mark, the Big 12 Conference Tournament Championship and into the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season. Over the course of the year, Mizzou set school records with wins (16), fewest losses (five), shutouts (12), fewest goals allowed (19) and goals against average (0.80), among others.

- 2009 Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year
- 2007 Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year
- 1995 Horizon League Coach of the Year

Herrman Finally Back on the Pitch

Since setting foot on Mizzou's campus in 2012, redshirt sophomore Jessica Herrman has been a part of the Tiger soccer program but has not been able to suit up due to season-ending injuries sustained before the 2012 and 2013 campaigns. The Raytown, Mo., native fought back and is poised to be a valuable contributor to the Tigers in 2014.

A full participant in preseason practices, Herrman saw her first game in the season opener against Syracuse, where she played 40 minutes in the contest and recorded two shots.

Tigers Take Down North Carolina in Preseason Match

Mizzou made a statement in its only preseason game of the year with a 2-1 road win over No. 4 North Carolina on Aug. 15.

In the 36th minute, the Tigers struck first as sophomore Rachel Hignett made the Tarheels pay for a defensive miscue. The Llandough, Wales, native, intercepted a North Carolina clear and neatly one-timed a shot over the keeper and into the left-side netting for a 1-0 Tiger advantage.

The Tarheels knotted the match at 1-1 in the 64th minute but the Tigers responded four minutes later. Freshman Jessica Johnson gathered a bad Tarheel pass and played the ball off to Grant, who had made a run into the 18. Grant turned toward the front of the goal and poked a right-footed shot under North Carolina's keeper for the eventual game-winner.

Tigers All Over the TV in 2014

The Mizzou soccer team will appear on national television four times on the SEC Network and ESPNU during the 2014 season, as announced on May 14. The Tigers' TV slate features a league best two ESPNU matches, while Missouri's four total TV games are tied for second among all schools. Mizzou's four regular season nationally televised matches also mark a program high. The squad also had four TV games in 2012 but two of those matches were on regional channels.

Missouri first hits the airwaves on Sunday, Sept. 28 on ESPNU for a 1 p.m. ET contest at Florida. The two squads also squared off on ESPNU last season, with the Tigers earning a 1-0 upset of the then-No. 7 Gators. The Tigers also appear on ESPNU on Sunday, Oct. 26 in a 1 p.m. ET road match at Tennessee.

On Thursday, Oct. 2, Mizzou makes its debut on the SEC Network in a 6 p.m. CT home match against the Kentucky Wildcats. Missouri then closes the regular season at home on the SEC Network on Thursday, Oct. 30 against Arkansas at 8 p.m. CT.

Additionally, eight more contests will be available on SEC Network +, the SEC Network's digital platform.

2014 Slate

Missouri's 2014 schedule features games against teams that qualified for last season's NCAA Tournament, nine home contests and three matches versus programs that finished in the NSCAA/adidas National Top 25 in 2013.
