Northwestern had three individuals named to the All-Big Ten Team Wednesday. Senior attack Christina Esposito, senior midfielder Catie Ingrilli and sophomore defender Claire Quinn were a part of the 20-member team as voted on by the league's coaches

Junior attack Shelby Fredericks is the only player in the Big Ten t his season with 100-plus draw controls. Her 130 draw controls are the second most in NU single-season history, second only to Alyssa Leonard's 163 in 2014.

BY THE NUMBERS

Sophomore defender Claire Quinn leads all Big Ten players with 31 caused turnovers this season. Her 31 caused turnovers are the seventh most in a season in program history.

Junior Nicole Beardsley has recorded three-straight multi-goal games, including a career-high four goals versus Maryland on Apr. 27. Beardsley has 12 points in her last five contests.

NOTES

TOURNAMENT TIME
Northwestern will begin postseason play as the No. 3 seed in the Big Ten Tournament Friday night when it takes on No. 2-seed Penn State in the semifinals in College Park, Maryland.

The Wildats and Nittany Lions met on Apr. 13 at Lanny and Sharon Martin where Chicago's Big Ten Team dropped a one-goal affair. The winner of Friday's night's semifinal will take on the winner of the first semifinal matchup between No. 1-seed Maryland and No. 4-seed Johns Hopkins.

All three games of the Big Ten Tournament will air live nationally on the Big Ten Network.

TRIO OF 'CATS EARN ALL-BIG TEN HONORS
Seniors Christina Esposito and Catie Ingrilli and sophomore Claire Quinn were named to the 20-member All-Big Ten Team Wednesday as voted by the league's coaches. Each of the Wildcats earned the first distinction of their career.

ESPOSITO LEADS THE ATTACK
Esposito leads the Wildcats with 41 goals and 51 points through 17 games. She ranks sixth in the league in goals per game (2.35), ninth in points per game (3.00) and is fourth with three game-winning goals. A team co-captain, she scored in 16-of-17 games, recording eight games with three or more goals and 14 multi-point games overall.

IN(GRILLI) THE MIDDLE
Ingrilli burst onto the scene in her senior campaign with career highs in nearly every statistical category, including goals (24), assists (8), points (32), shots (62), free-position goals (15), ground balls (28) and caused turnovers (13). She rode a 16-game point streak to start the season and with Esposito is one of just two players to record a point in at least 16 contests thus far. Her 15 free-position goals this season are tied for the third most in NU single-season history as she ranks fourth in the league with 0.88 per game.

A CAUSE FOR CLARE
Quinn has been arguably one of the best defenders in the league in her sophomore season. She led all Big Ten players in caused turnovers (31) and caused turnovers per game (1.82) and led all defenders in ground balls (40) and ground balls per game (2.35). The Long Island native tied the second-best mark in program history with six caused turnovers in a win over Johns Hopkins on March 30, tying for the league high during the regular season. She has caused at least two turnovers 10 times and picked up at least two ground balls in 13 games heading into tournament play.

FREDERICKS SETS PROGRAM MARK
Junior Shelby Fredericks set a program record with 17 draw controls versus Penn State on April 13. She leads all Big Ten players and ranks third nationally with 8.13 draw controls per contests as the only player in the league with more than 100 draw controls this season.

SHELBY LIKES TO SHARE TOO
Fredericks recorded her fifth multi-assist game of the season versus Maryland on April 27. She leads the Wildcats with 20 assists this season and ranks 10th in program history with 53.

HEY, LEFTY
Junior attack Nicole Beardsley had just 10 points in her first 24 career games, but has stepped up her game over the Wildcats' last five contests. Beardsley has scored two goals in three straight, including a career-high four goals versus No. 1 Maryland on April 27. She has recorded 12 points during her five-game point streak entering tournament play.

PLAYER TO WATCH

Ranks 3rd in the country with 8.13 draw controls per game.

NO. 9 'CATS OPEN SEASON WITH WIN OVER CANISIUS, 9-7

EVANSTON, Ill. — The ninth-ranked Northwestern lacrosse program opened the 2017 campaign with a win over Canisius on a cold and snowy day at Lanny and Sharon Stadium Monday, 9-7.

As the snow began to fall, the Wildcats' (1-0) offense heated up to score four-of-five goals and take control of the game midway through the second half. The Golden Griffins took a 5-4 lead with a goal by Erica Evans with 26:55 to play, but senior co-captain Christina Esposito scored back-to-back goals on assists from junior Corinne Wessels in a span of 33 seconds to put Chicago's Big Ten Team in front, 6-5.

Senior Danita Stroup extended the lead four minutes later when she took a behind-the-back feed from junior Selena Lasota in front of the crease and buried her shot to put NU up two, 7-5.

Evans cut the Wildcats' lead to one with just under 16 minutes to play, but Esposito scored her fourth of the game at the 13:51 mark and Wessels dished out her fourth assist of the game on a goal by sophomore Leighton Yenor just 53 seconds later to push the lead back to three, 9-6.

The Wildcats dominated the stat sheet from start to finish, finishing the game with a 34-16 advantage in shots and a 17-1 edge in draw controls, but a specatacular performance by Canisius' Rebecca VanLaeken helped keep the game close. VanLaeken finished with 16 saves for the Griffs.

Northwestern took an early 1-0 lead just 20 seconds into the contest on a free-position goal by Esposito, but were held off the board for the next 13-plus minutes as Canisius scored a pair of goals to the lead. Wessels scored her first of the season on a free-position of her own, but the Griffs once again responded on a goal by Tessa Chad to take the lead, 3-2.

Senior Catie Ingrilli scored her first of the season with 9:27 to play in the first half to even the game and Lasota got in on the scoring 51 seconds later on Wessels first assist of the game to give NU the lead, 4-3. Canisius tied the game going into the break on a goal by Jourdan Roemer with 3:41 to play.

Wessels finished with five points to lead the 'Cats while also matching her career high with three ground balls. Esposito had a team-high four ground balls and matched a career high with three caused turnovers to go with her four goals and Lasota had a career-high eight draw controls, three ground balls, a goal and an assist. Sophomore Claire Quinn had a career-high five ground balls and a pair of caused turnovers.

Sophomore goalkeeper Mallory Weisse made six saves in the contest to earn her 12th career victory.

NO. 9 WILDCATS WIN THRILLER AT NO. 8 NOTRE DAME, 14-13

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — Junior Selena Lasota scored four goals, senior Christina Esposito and freshman Megan Kinna each tallied three and sophomore Mallory Weisse made 10 saves as No. 9 Northwestern went into the Loftus Sports Center and won a top-10 showdown with No. 8 Notre Dame Sunday afternoon, 14-13.

The Wildcats claimed their 18th win in 22 meetings with the Fighting Irish all time, improving to 7-1 in South Bend. The victory avenged the 'Cats' lone road loss to the Irish that ended last season in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Despite the victory, inconsistency by the 'Cats at times allowed Notre Dame to remain within reach. After allowing the opening goal of the game, Chicago's Big Ten Team responded by scoring eight of the game's next nine goals, including a 6-0 run.

The Irish tied the game at the 21:54 mark of the first half, 2-2, but the 'Cats quickly took over as Kinna and senior Catie Ingrilli scored back-to-back free-position goals within two minutes to start the 6-0 run. Senior Danita Stroup scored her second goal of the year and Lasota sandwiched a pair of goals around a tally by Esposito to extend the lead to 8-2 with 14:47 to go in the first half.

Kinna's second goal of the day extended the lead back to five, 9-4, but Notre Dame scored five unanswered in less than six minutes to tie the game, 9-9. NU was able to take a 10-9 lead into the break on Esposito's second goal of the game.

The offense and defense synced up for a stellar 20-minute stretch to start the second half, allowing the 'Cats to take back control of the game. Esposito netted her second hat trick in as many games just a minute and a half into the second frame before the Canadian connection of Kinna and Lasota pushed the lead to four, 13-9, with back-to-back goals.

All the while, Weisse made save after save to keep the Irish off the board. The sophomore had eight of her 10 saves in the second half.

Junior Nicole Beardsley scored her first goal of the season on a free-position with 11:23 to play to make it a 14-11 game, but the Wildcats weren't able to put things away without a fight by the Irish.

Notre Dame pulled within two with 1:52 to play on a goal by Savannah Buchanan and the 'Çats were assessed a yellow card. A second yellow put NU two women down at the 1:07 mark, allowing the Irish to cut the deficit to one on a goal by Grace Muller.

Lasota won the ensuing draw control following a timeout and the 'Cats ran out the clock to secure the win. The junior finished with four draw controls, three ground balls and a pair of caused turnovers to lead the way. Sophomore Claire Quinn had three draw controls and a caused turnover and junior Sheila Nesselbush netted her first goal of the year.

WILDCATS FALL IN OVERTIME AT COLORADO, 11-10

BOULDER, Colo. — Senior Christina Esposito scored a career-high four goals for the second time this season and classmate Catie Ingrilli notched a pair of goals for the third time in her career, but in the end No. 9 Northwestern came up one stop short in suffering its first loss of the season in overtime Sunday at Colorado, 11-10.

The two teams battled in a back-and-forth affair all game before Esposito scored her fourth of the game with just 1:10 left in regulation to tie the game, 10-10. The 'Cats had a chance to score the go-ahead goal after winning the ensuing draw control, but a turnover gave the ball back to the Buffaloes (1-0) and chaos ensued.

The Wildcats were called for a yellow card in the midfield with just 11 seconds left putting them a woman down. The Buffs moved into the attacking zone and drew a free-position opportunity with four seconds remaining, but the shot hit the pipe to send the game to overtime.

With the 'Cats a woman down to start the extra session, the Buffs were able to take advantage when Katie Macleay scored her second of the game just 55 seconds into overtime for the game winner.

Northwestern finished the game with 39 shots and put 29 of them on cage, but Paige Soenksen matched her career high with 19 stops for the Buffs in stymieing the NU attack.

Ingrilli matched her career high for the third time with a pair of first half goals, while Esposito chipped in with two of her own in the first 30 minutes to give the Wildcats a 6-5 lead at the break.

Unfortunately, the Buffs scored the first two goals of the second half while hold the 'Cats off the board for the first 12-plus minutes. Trailing 7-6, sophomore Corinne Wessels found sophomore Leighton Yenor on a woman-advantage for the second time of the game with 19:14 to go in the second half to even things up. Esposito gave the Wildcats their last lead of the game, 8-7, when she converted a free position with 12:58 to go.

The lead was short lived however as the Buffs scored back-to-back goals in a span of 20 seconds to to reclaim the lead, 9-8. Sophomore Selena Lasota scored her sixth of the season with 10:18 on the clock to tie the game again, 9-9, but the Buffs scored just 15 seconds later to take the lead back, 10-9, and set up the dramatic finish.

The Wildcats held a 13-10 advantage on the draw control and caused nine turnovers to Colorado's four, but ultimately their inability to capitalize on opportunities and Soenksen's big game proved too much to overcome.

Esposito had two ground balls, two draw controls and a pair of caused turnovers to go with her four goals as she paced the Wildcats. Wessels finished with two assists to increase her team lead to nine on the season and Fredericks led the squad with four draw controls.

WILDCATS DROP HEARTBREAKER IN OVERTIME AT NO. 4 USC, 11-10

TORRANCE, Calif. — A game of inches.

The ninth-ranked Northwestern lacrosse team needed the ball roll one more inch in overtime Saturday to pick up a win over No. 4 USC, but in the end the roll didn't come and the Trojans scored 2:56 into the extra frame to hand the Wildcats their second-straight loss in overtime, 11-10.

Trailing by three with 26:53 to play, 10-7, the 'Cats held the Trojans off the board for the remainder of regulation and scored three unanswered to tie the game. Junior Selena Lasota sent a nifty behind-the-back pass to senior Christina Esposito with 24:58 left in regulation to start the run before scoring a goal of her own by knifing through the USC defense at the 8:37 mark.

Esposito scored her third of the game with 7:09 left in regulation to tie the game, 10-10.

Chicago's Big Ten Team had an early opportunity in the overtime session when Esposito found herself one-on-one with USC goalkeeper Gussie Johns, but her attempt to loft it over Johns' head from the eight-meter arc was corralled by a leaping keeper. Senior Danita Stroup ensued to check the ball out of Johns' stick as the Trojans attempted to clear and it rolled toward the goal line, but the inch the 'Cats needed for the game winner was prevented as Johns dove and pinned the ball before it rolled in.

The Wildcats had another chance when senior Catie Ingrilli caused a turnover on the Trojans' ensuing possession. The turnover led to a run out for Lasota, but her jump shot was stopped by Johns, the keeper's 17th save of the game.

Sophomore Mallory Weisse made a stop on Kerrigan Miller free position on the other end, but the Wildcats were unable to pick up the ground ball. Miller got another chance, fighting her way through the NU defense to fire a back handed shot for the game-winning goal.

The first half was a back-and-forth track meet between the two teams. After NU took their first lead of the game, 1-0, on junior Shelby Fredericks' first tally of the season, the Trojans scored four straight to take a 4-1 lead.

Stroup and Esposito sandwiched goals around a tally by Gabby McMahon to cut the deficit to two, 5-3. Esposito's first goal of the game sparked a 3-0 run that included goals by senior Catie Ingrill and freshman Lindsey McKone to tie the game with 6:11 to go in the first half, 5-5.

The Trojans reclaimed the lead on Kylie Drexel's second goal of the game, but Lasota scored her first of the afternoon on a free position and found classmate Nicole Beardsley just 31 seconds later to give the 'Cats their last lead of the game, 7-6.

A goal by Cynthia Del Core and three-straight goals by Drew Jackson spanning the end of the first half and the start of the second half gave USC a 10-7 lead before the Wildcats locked down on defense to complete the comeback and force overtime.

Weisse was key in the comeback, making eight saves and allowing just one goal in the second half after making just one stop and allowing nine goals in the first half.

Lasota finished the day with five points on a pair of goals and career-high three assists to go along with four ground balls. McKone recorded the first two points of her career on an assist and goal and fellow freshman Megan Kinna filled the stat sheet with six ground balls, six draw controls and two caused turnovers.

Fredericks extended her point streak to 23 games with a goal and finished with a season-high nine draw controls. The junior moved up to third in program history with 209 career draw controls.

'CATS DROP DEFENSIVE BATTLE VERSUS NO. 5 SYRACUSE, 5-3

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. — Sophomore Mallory Weisse made a career-high 13 saves in a defensive battle versus No. 5 Syracuse, but Northwestern's offensive struggles in the first half proved too much to overcome as the Wildcats fell to the Orange at Hofstra University, 5-3.

The Wildcats (2-3) were held without a goal in the first 30 minutes, but stayed within striking distance thanks in large part to the play of Weisse and the defense. After falling behind 3-0 in the first 10 minutes of play, Weisse held the Orange to just one goal over the next 30 minutes to help Chicago's Big Ten Team make it a game.

After trailing at halftime, 4-0, the 'Cats got on the board first in the second half on senior Catie Ingrilli's sixth goal of the season. The Long Island native scored in her fifth-straight game, extending her career-long streak of consecutive games with a goal.

NU needed just 1:48 to get back on the board as senior Christina Esposito ripped a free-position from the left side of the arc to cut the deficit to two, 4-2. A goal by Syracuse's Emily Hawryschuk extended the Orange lead back to three, 5-2, with just over 15 minutes to play.

The Wildcats scored just 1:24 later on Esposito's second goal of the game to cut the deficit back to two, 5-3. The goal was Esposito's team-leading 16th of the season as she has scored at least two goals in all five games.

A key moment in the game came five minutes later when Cuse's goalkeeper Asa Goldstock was called for an offensive charge all the way at midfield, giving the 'Cats a 3-on-2 opportunity with the keeper out of the cage. The Wildcats moved the ball into the offensive third, but were fouled to set up a free-position shot for freshman Lindsey McKone. With Goldstock still out of the cage, a Syracuse defender was able to get a stick on McKone's attempt, preventing the Wildcats from pulling within a goal.

McKone had another free-position opportunity to cut the deficit to one with 3:46 to play, but again the Syracuse defense came up with a big stop by swarming to cause a turnover before she got off a shot.

Sophomore Claire Quinn had a career-high six ground balls and matched a career high with three caused turnovers to lead the defense. Fellow sophomore Nell Copeland also had career highs with two caused turnovers and three ground balls.

WILDCATS FALL AT NO. 8 STONY BROOK, 13-5

STONY BROOK, N.Y. — Junior Shelby Fredericks matched a career-high with three assists and finished with a season-high 11 draw controls, but Northwestern struggled for the second-straight game to find an offensive rhythm as the Wildcats lost at No. 8 Stony Brook Sunday afternoon, 13-5.

The Wildcats mustered just one first-half goal — a free-position by senior Catie Ingrilli — and didn't get much else going until late in Sunday's contest. The Seawolves (4-0) score the first four goals of the game while holding NU scoreless for nearly 17 minutes before Ingrilli scored her seventh goal of the season. The Long Island native has scored in all six games.

The Seawolves started another 4-0 run with 6:46 to go in the first half and built on their 6-1 halftime lead coming out of the break with the first two goals of the second half to extend the lead to 8-1.

Fredericks dished out the first of her three second-half assists when she found senior Danita Stroup with just over 20 minutes left to play in an attempt to spark a Wildcats' comeback. The momentum was short lived however as the Seawolves again ripped off four-straight goals to push their lead to double digits, 12-2.

Junior co-captain Sheila Nesselbush scored her second goal of the season on a feed from Fredericks with just under five minutes to play and Fredericks matched her career high two minutes later when she found Stroup for the second time. Senior co-captain Christina Esposito capped a 3-0 run with her team-leading 17th goal of the season with 25 seconds remaining.

The goal extended Esposito's career-long point streak to 23 games.

Despite a 15-5 advantage in the draw circle due in large part to Fredericks' prowess, the 'Cats struggled to keep possession as they committed a season-high 24 turnovers.

Defensively, sophomore goalkeeper Mallory Weisse reached double-digit saves for the second-consecutive game with 11. Sophomore Nell Copeland had a career-high three caused turnovers and two ground balls, while classmate Claire Quinn picked up a team-high three ground balls.

WILDCATS SCORE A SEASON-HIGH 18 GOALS IN WIN OVER MARQUETTE

EVANSTON, Ill. — Senior co-captain Christina Esposito scored a career-high six goals and junior Shelby Fredericks dished out a career-high four assists to provide the 14th-ranked Northwestern lacrosse team the offensive spark it needed in a 18-10 win over Marquette at Lanny and Sharon Martin Stadium Saturday afternoon.

The Wildcats had 10 different players score goals in the victory, including multi-goal games by Esposito, senior Danita Stroup and senior Catie Ingrilli. Freshman Meghan Duffy and sophomore Liza Elder each scored their first career goal. Esposito also dished out an assist in the contest to set a new career-high with seven points.

Sophomore goalkeeper Mallory Weisse finished with 11 saves to earn her third victory of the season. Weisse has recorded double-digit saves in three-straight contests and five total this season.

After scoring just eight goals in a pair of losses on the road last weekend, the offense came out firing on all cylinders. Stroup got the 'Cats on the board just 62 seconds into the contest and Fredericks found sophomore Leighton Yenor at the 27:53 mark of the first half to extend the lead to 2-0. Ingrilli scored in her seventh consecutive game just a minute and a half later to cap a 3-0 run to start the game.

The Golden Eagles' (2-5) Julianna Shearer scored back-to-back goals to cut the lead to one, 3-2, but Esposito started her big day with an unassisted goal with 23:13 on the clock and Ingrilli matched her career high with her second goal of the day with 18:07 left in the first half to extend the lead back to three, 5-2.

Despite the strong start by the offense, the 'Cats went cold for a stretch in the first half to let Marquette back in the game. After Ingrilli's second goal, the visitors scored three of the next four goals over the span of 18 minutes to cut the 'Cats' lead to one, 6-5. Northwestern responded however, as Esposito capped a first-half hat trick with 59 seconds left in the half and Stroup scored her second of the game just 11 seconds before the break to give NU a 8-5 lead at halftime.

The strong finish to the first half sparked a run of five-straight by Chicago's Big Ten Team to put them in control. Junior co-captain Sheila Nesselbush scored 1:13 into the second half and freshman Lindsey McKone found the back of the net after a great feed across the middle by Fredericks just 48 seconds later. Espositio capped the 5-0 run with her fourth goal of the game despite the 'Cats being a woman down to extend the lead to 11-5.

Stroup matched her career high and recorded her second career hat trick with her third goal at the 18:16 mark. Marquette cut the 'Cats' seven-goal lead to five, 14-9, but Elder buried a free-position and Esposito surpassed her previous career high of four goals with 10:10 on the clock to push the lead back to seven, 14-7.

Duffy scored her first career goal on a feed from Esposito with 6:33 to play and fellow freshman Megan Kinna scored her fourth goal of the season 1:14 later. Esposito capped a 3-0 run and gave the 'Cats their largest lead of the day with four minutes remaining, 17-9.

Sophomore Corinne Wessels capped the scoring for the Wildcats with her second goal of the season on Elder's first career assist.

The Wildcats had a season-high 31 grounds balls in the contest, with eight individuals picking up at least two. Fredericks led the way with a career-high five to go with her four assists and seven draw controls. The squad also matched its season high with 13 caused turnovers with Kinna and sophomore Nell Copeland leading the way with a pair apiece. Copeland has recorded at least two caused turnovers in three-straight games

WILDCATS COME UP SHORT IN BATTLE WITH #2 NORTH CAROLINA

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. — Northwestern battle back and forth with second-ranked North Carolina Sunday afternoon at Fetzer Field before the defending champs pulled away to hand the Wildcats a 17-12 loss.

Junior Shelby Fredericks tied the Northwestern single-game record with a career-high 15 draw controls in a contest that possession was key. The Wildcats' ability to win possession helped them battle for 45 minutes, but a change by the Tar Heels in the circle turned the tide.

After trailing 7-6 at halftime, Northwestern quickly tied the game on a free-position goal by sophomore Liza Elder. Senior Danita Stroup scored a free-position goal of her own just 54 seconds later to give the 'Cats the lead, 8-7, but UNC needed just 2:03 to tie the game again.

UNC claimed the lead on a free-position goal with 24:39 to play and junior Nicole Beardsley evened the game with her third score of the season. The back and forth continued with a goal by Marie McCool before Elder tied the game with her second goal of the contest, 10-10. It marked the first time in the young Wildcats' career she had scored two goals in a game.

After the Wildcats tied the game at 10 apiece, UNC chose to replace Sammy Jo Tracy, the nation's leader in draw controls per game, with McCool. The Tar Heels responded by winning the next five draws, which resulted in a 4-0 run to build a 14-10 lead.

Stroup scored her third of the game in a woman-up advantage on a feed from senior Christina Espostio, but UNC once again went on a quick 3-0 run to push the lead to six, 17-11.

Esposito finished with a season-high three assists and team-high four points in extending her career-long point streak to 24 games. Senior Catie Ingrilli matched her career high with a pair of goals and Stroup recorded a hat trick in her second-consecutive game.

Ingrill has scored in all eight games this season and now has a new single-season high with 11 goals.

NO. 14 WILDCATS OPEN BIG TEN PLAY WITH WIN AT MICHIGAN, 10-8

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — Senior Danita Stroup and freshman Meghan Duffy each scored a hat trick and the Northwestern defense stymied the Michigan attack when it needed to the most as the Wildcats opened Big Ten play with a victory over the Wolverines, 10-8.

Stroup matched her career high with three goals for the third straight game, while Duffy recorded her first career hat trick. The freshman has scored in each of the last three games, tallying five goals during the stretch.

The Wildcats took control in the second half when juniors Sheila Nesselbush and Shelby Fredericks scored back-to-back goals to break a 3-3 tie. Nesselbushed need just 1:42 to put the 'Cats in front, 4-3. Fredericks then extended the lead by faking out everyone in the stadium as she drove from the right side of the fan and faked a behind-the-back shot that froze the defender and goalkeeper before finding the back of the cage.

Michigan sandwiched a pair of goals around Duffy's second score of the game to cut the lead to one, but Stroup scored back-to-back goals to give Northwestern its largest lead of the game, 8-5. Senior Christina Esposito assisted on the first of Stroup's back-to-back tallies, extending her career-long point streak to 25 games.

The Wolverines refused to go away quietly however, again cutting the Wildcats' lead to one on a goal by Anna Schueler. Esposito came up big in the clutch, much like she has all season, scoring her team-leading 25th goal of the year with 5:53 to play to extend the lead to 10-8.

Chicago's Big Ten Team locked in on defense over the last five-plus minutes, limiting the Wolverines to just a pair of goals and forcing a shot-clock violation with under 90 seconds to go to preserve the game.

In addition to the big performances by Stroup and Duffy, Nesselbush scored two goals for the second-straight game and senior Catie Ingrilli matched her career-high with a pair of assists. The Wildcats matched their season high with six assists totals, including the first career assists by freshman Sara Szynal and junior defender Ally Mueller. Freshman Lindsey McKone also had a helper.

Fredericks led the 'Cats with a game-high nine draw controls and Nesselbush matched her career high with a game-high four ground balls.

STRONG SECOND HALF LEADS #B1GCATS PAST LOUISVILLE

EVANSTON, Ill. — Whatever Combe Family Head Lacrosse Coach Kelly Amonte Hiller said at halftime during 14th-ranked Northwestern's contest versus Louisville at Lanny and Sharon Martin Stadium Sunday afternoon worked.

After trailing the Cardinals (9-4) at halftime, 5-3, the Wildcats (5-5) scored four unanswered goals in the first 2:31 to set the tone for the second half that saw the 'Cats outscore their opponent 9-3 to run away with a 12-8 victory.

The half started with the 4-0 run and ended with a similar 5-0 run by the Wildcats as they won their second-straight contest and improved to 3-0 at home this season.

Senior Catie Ingrilli started the run just 13 seconds into the second half to cut the deficit to one and freshman Liza Elder tied the game less than a minute later with her second goal of the game. Senior Christina Esposito scored her team-leading 26th goal of the season 40 seconds after Elder's to give Chicago's Big Ten Team the lead, 6-5.

Senior Danita Stroup capped the run with her first goal of the game on an assist by Ingrilli to cap the run and push the lead to two, 7-5.

Louisville responded with three unanswered goals of their own — the first two coming from the nation's leader in goals scored Hannah Koloski — to reclaim the lead, 8-7. Northwestern made a key adjustment after Koloski's fourth goal of the game, employing junior defender Ally Mueller to face-guard her which helped prevent the Cardinals from scoring again.

The offensive spark the Wildcats' needed to respond to the 3-0 Louisville run ironically came from sophomore Claire Quinn when the defender went the length of the field and fired a side-arm shot into the top of the net for her second goal of the afternoon to tie the game, 8-8. Quinn scored her first career goal in the first half.

Quinn's goal opened a 5-0 run over the final 11:08 of the contest for the Wildcats as they ran away with the four-goal victory. Ingrilli picked up her second assist of the contest on a score by junior Shelby Fredericks with 9:49 to play and then made a beautiful dodge by her defender to the left side where she scored her second goal of the game to put NU in front, 10-8.

Ingrilli matched her season and career highs with two goals and two assists, recording four points for the first time in her career. She surpassed her season points total of 13 from last season, setting a new career high with 17 through 10 games.

The run continued with junior Sheila Nesselbush's second goal of the game on a free-position with 6:03 to play and Stroup capped the scoring with a highlight-reel backhanded shot with 1:29 to play. Esposito assisted on Stroup's goal, moving within two assists of Danielle Spencer for 10th in program history.

Northwestern held its opponent under 10 goals for the second-straight game and fourth time this season behind an 11-save performance by sophomore Mallory Weisse. It marked the sixth double-digit save game of the season for the Westfield, New Jersey, native.

Fredericks finished with a game-high six controls to move within single digits of the top 10 list at Northwestern, while Quinn led NU with three ground balls and two caused turnovers.

#B1GCATS WIN OVERTIME THRILLER OVER JOHNS HOPKINS, 10-9

EVANSTON, Ill. — Battle until the final whistle blows and you've got a shot.

Northwestern did just that Thursday night at Lanny and Sharon Martin Stadium, scoring the game-tying goal as time expired in regulation before netting the game winner just 59 seconds into overtime to defeat Big Ten foe Johns Hopkins, 10-9.

The Wildcats (6-5, 2-0 Big Ten) trailed with 40 seconds to play, 9-8, when the Blue Jays (8-4, 0-3 Big Ten) stepped out of bounds and turned it over. Sophomore Claire Quinn was called for a false start, but immediately caused a turnover on the ensuing Jays' possession to give the 'Cats a chance. Chicago's Big Ten Team worked the ball up field to junior captain Sheila Nesselbush and a foul was called with .2 seconds remaining on the clock.

Nesselbush calmly fired a shot that beat the Hopkins keeper and chaos ensued. The initial call was that Nesselbush's goal failed to cross the goal line in time, but the call was changed after a meeting between the three refs, tying the game at 9-9 and sending it to overtime.

In overtime, senior Christina Esposito lived up to her 'Captain Clutch' nickname she has so often earned this season as she scored the game-winning goal on a free-position attempt just 59 seconds in session to give the Wildcats their third victory in a row.

Prior to the craziness of the final 40 seconds, the game was truly a tale of two halves as the Wildcats dominated the first 30 minutes and the Blue Jays punched back in the second half. Northwestern scored the first four goals of the game opened the contest on a 7-1 run to build a commanding lead.

Esposito started the scoring just 28 seconds into the game and found classmate Catie Ingrilli six minutes later to extend the lead 2-0. Another goal by Ingrilli and great feed from junior Shelby Fredericks to freshman Megan Kinna capped the early 4-0 run.

After a goal by Shannon Fitzgerald with 12:44 to play in the first half, NU reeled off three-straight starting with Esposito's second of the night. Sophomore Liza Elder scored for the sixth time in her last four games and senior Danita Stroup found the back of the net for the 18th time this season to extend the lead to 7-1.

Johns Hopkins began its comeback with two goals to close the first half and scored the first two goals of the second half. Sophomore defender Nell Copeland went the length of the field and scored her first career goal with 19:08 to play to extend the lead back to three, 8-5, but it was the last goal fo the 'Cats before Nesselbush's game winner.

Esposito led the Wildcats with four points in three goals and an assist, while Ingrilli scored a pair of goals for the fourth time this season. Quinn had a career-high six caused turnovers to lead all players and Fredericks finished with a game-high six draw controls.

WILDCATS DOMINATE OHIO STATE TO STAY UNBEATEN IN BIG TEN PLAY

COLUMBUS, Ohio — The Northwestern lacrosse team made a statement from the opening draw to the final whistle Thursday night at Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium, dominating Big Ten foe Ohio State to improve to 3-0 in conference play with a 15-8 victory.

Junior Shelby Fredericks scored 35 seconds into the contest and senior Danita Stroup found the back of the net only 32 seconds later to give the Wildcats a 2-0 lead just 1:02 into the game. The theme of Fredericks and Stroup dominating on the attack was set and the two carried it through the entirety of the game as they each finished with six points.

Stroup scored a career high six goals on six shots - each of which was assisted on by a teammate - and Fredericks recorded her career-high six points on three goals and three assists. Fredericks added eight draw controls to lead all players and the Wildcats' defense continued its ferocious play by holding its fifth-straight opponent to 10 goals or less.

The Wildcats opened the game on a 3-0 run that was capped on a goal by freshman Lindsey McKone. After a goal by the Buckeyes (6-9, 0-4 Big Ten) cut into the lead, Stroup scored her second of the game on junior Nicole Beardsley's first career assists.

Beardsley earned a free-position opportunity just under three minutes later and despite her shot being saved by Jill Rizzo, sophomore Liza Elder picked up the ground ball and went around the world with her shot to score a SportsCenter Top-10 worthy goal to extend the lead to 5-2.

Northwestern went into halftime with a 6-2 lead thanks to Stroups third goal of the game, but it was their response to an early second-half comeback attempt by Ohio State that put the game away.

Despite senior Catie Ingrilli scoring the first goal of the second half to extend the lead to five, 7-2, Ohio State responded with back-to-back goals to cut the lead to three, 7-4. Chicago's Big Ten Team responded with six of the next seven goals, including a pair by Stroup. In fact, the only Ohio State goal during the stretch came when the ball slipped out of the stick of NU goalkeeper Mallory Weisse acrosse the crease line.

The 'Cats didn't let the own goal slow them down however, scoring four unanswered to push the lead to 13-5. Fredericks started the 4-0 run with her second goal of the game before Ingrilli scored her second of the game on a free-position goal and senior Christina Esposito extended her career-long point streak to 30 games with her 33rd goal of the season. Elder matched her season and career high with her second goal of the game to give the 'Cats an eight-goal lead, their largest of the game.

Stroup capped her six-goal performance on Fredericks third assists of the game and Beardsley dished out her second helper on Fredericks third score.

Ingrilli matched her career high for the second time this season with four points and junior Sheila Nesselbush finished with a career-high eight ground balls to tie the third-best single-game mark in program history.

'CATS COME UP JUST SHORT IN BATTLE WITH #5 PENN STATE

EVANSTON, Ill. — Junior Shelby Fredericks set a single-game program record with 17 draw controls and the 16th-ranked Northwestern lacrosse team battled No. 5 Penn State to the final seconds before suffering their first conference loss of the season, 14-13.

The Wildcats (7-7, 3-1 Big Ten) had a pair of opportunities to tie the game with under 10 seconds remaining in regulation, but shots by junior Sheila Nesselbush and sophomore Liza Elder were saved to prevent the tying goal.

Fredericks dominated the draw circle for the majority of the contest, racking up 10 draw controls in the first half and another seven in the second half. Her 17 draw controls are the fifth most by a player in a game this season and leave her just two shy of becoming only the second player in program history with 300 career draw controls.

Chicago's Big Ten Team jumped out to a commanding lead early, using a 5-0 run in the first half to claim a 6-1 advantage. Junior defender Ally Mueller got the 'Cats on the board first with her first career goal just under six minutes into the contest, but PSU was able to tie less than two minutes later.

Freshman Megan Kinna broke the tie with her first goal of the game and Fredericks scored on a feed from senior Catie Ingrilli 1:08 later to push the lead to two, 3-1. Senior Christina Esposito dished out her second assist of the game to Elder to cap the 5-0 run and push the lead to five, 6-1, and the 'Cats held onto the five-goal margin when Nesselbush scored her second goal of the first half with 14:47 left before the break.

The Nittany Lions scored 10 of the game's next 12 goals over a stretch of 12 minutes spanning both halves to take control of the game. After going into the break tied, 8-8, Penn State scored four goals in the first 2:30 of play in the second half to build a four-goal cushion, 12-8.

It didn't take long for the 'Cats to counter as Esposito scored her first of the game and Nesselbush capped a hat trick on an assist from Elder. After Elder found the back of the net just before time expired on the shot clock with 24:06 to play, junior Nicole Beardsley dodged her way through a crowd of defenders to score her fourth of the season and tie the game, 12-12.

Penn State's Katie O'Donnell scored the second of back-to-back goals with 13:07 left to play to push the Nittany Lions lead back to two, 14-12, but Northwestern's defense clamped down to provide the opportunity for another dramatic comeback.

The Wildcats were able to hold off a two-woman advantage by Penn State and eventually scored a woman-down goal by Kinna with 5:01 on the clock to cut the deficit to one, 14-13. Unfortunately, the 'Cats final opportunities to tie the game were thwarted by Penn State keeper Cat Rainone who finished with 11 saves.

Esposito, Elder, Ingrilli, Nesselbush and Kinna each finished with three points to lead the 'Cats as the team finished with a season-high seven assists. As a result, seven different players finished with at least two points.

SECOND-HALF RUN LEADS NO. 16 WILDCATS PAST NO. 20 DUKE, 12-10

EVANSTON, Ill. – Senior Danita Stroup had a hat trick and six different Wildcats scored as the 16th-ranked Northwestern lacrosse team used a second half run to pull away from No. 20 Duke at Lanny and Sharon Martin Stadium Saturday afternoon, 12-9.

Shelby Fredericks had a team-high five points on a pair of goals and three assists. She also finished with a team-high eight draw controls, becoming the second player in program history to surpass 300 career draws.

Goalkeeper Mallory Weisse made five saves for for the Wildcats (8-7), holding the Blue Devils (7-7) scoreless for a 14-minute stretch in the second half that helped Chicago's Big Ten Team go on a 5-0 run to turn a one-goal deficit into a four-goal advantage.

Stroup got things started four minutes in on Senior Day, finding the back of the net on a free-position shot for her 26th goal of the season. Nicole Beardsley netted a goal a minute and a half later and Fredericks capped an early run by making it 3-1 with 21:33 on the clock.

Both teams were using the full shot clock in a methodical first half, with Northwestern seeing the better of the action, as the Wildcats limited Duke to just two shots in the first fifteen minutes while taking nine of their own.

Duke put together a 2-0 run, pulling even with a free position with 13:25 on the clock. But Northwestern struck right back, as senior Catie Ingrilli retook the lead a minute later with her 21st goal of the season.

Defenses clamped down for the remainder of the half, although Duke was able pull ahead on a pair of goals. With the Wildcats first shot in nearly nine minutes, Liza Elder tied the game with 3:31 left in the half, and Stroup added another a minute later, giving Northwestern a 6-5 lead they would carry into halftime. Northwestern outshot Duke 14-8 in first half, including a 9-6 advantage in shots on goal.

Duke tied it up three-and-a-half minutes into second half, but Megan Kinna skipped one in with a with jump shot through two defenders with 25:23 to play to again keep Northwestern in the lead, 7-6.

The Blue Devils worked another tie with 20 minutes remaining, and Northwestern looked to again bounce back by finding the back of the net on the ensuing possession, but their goal was disallowed for an illegal stick. Duke took advantage quickly as Grace Fallon scored on an assist from Maddie Crutchfield to give the Blue Devils the lead, 8-7.

After Swapping defensive stops for five minutes, freshman Lindsey McKone found Stroup wide open in front of goal, and Stroup tucked away her third goal of the game to tie it at 8-8- with 13:15.

With 11 minutes remaining, Claire Quinn was repeatedly fouled trying to bring the ball up field, before knifing her way in front of goal to score and put the Wildcats back in the lead, 9-8. After controlling the next two draws, Fredericks and Nesselbush made it three goals in two minutes, claiming a three-goal lead with 9:16 to play.

Northwestern continued passing the ball around, winding out the clock. With four minutes to play, Elder finished off a series of passes to move the score to 12-8. While Duke pulled back a pair of late goals, the clock was in Northwestern's favor, as the Wildcats sealed the victory late with a key ground ball by junior Nicole Beardsley.

Beardsley matched her season and career high with two goals for her third-consecutive multi-point game, while Ingrilli also finished with a pair of points on a goal and assist. Elder scored a pair of goals for the third-consecutive game and has now recorded 17 points during a nine-game stretch.

'CATS DOMINATE RUTGERS IN SECOND HALF OF 14-7 VICTORY

PISCATAWAY, N.J. — It wasn't quite the start they expected, but it was the finish they needed as the No. 15 Northwestern lacrosse team dominated Rutgers in the second half to run away with a 14-7 victory and secure a spot in the 2017 Big Ten Tournament.

The Wildcats outscored the Scarlet Knights in the second half, 10-2, to improve to 4-1 in Big Ten play with the win. The victory secures one of the four spots in the tournament hosted by Maryland in College Park May 5-7.

Northwestern can clinch a share of the regular-season title with a win over the top-ranked Terrapins next Thursday, Apr. 27 in the regular-season finale at Lanny and Sharon Martin Stadium. The game will be broadcast nationally on the Big Ten Network and is scheduled for 7 p.m.

It was an ugly start for the 'Cats at High Point Solutions Stadium Saturday morning as the Scarlet Knights (8-7, 2-3 Big Ten) held a one-goal margin at halftime, 5-4. The Wildcats responded quickly however, scoring the first three goals of the second half and never looked back.

Junior Shelby Fredericks got things rolling to start the second half with her ninth goal of the year and junior Sheila Nesselbush scored her first of the game just over three minuts later to give the 'Cats their first lead of the game, 6-5.

Rutgers kept the lead at one with a tally at the 20:12 mark of the second half, but Chicago's Big Ten Team held the Knights scoreless for the next 19 minutes while scoring seven straight to put the game away.

Senior Catie Ingrilli sandwiched a pair of goals around a tally by junior Nicole Beardsley to finish off her first career hat trick before senior Christina Esposito took over and score three-straight by herself to give Northwestern a 13-6 advantage.

Beardsley's free-position goal with 16:46 was her second of the game, matching her career high and giving her back-to-back multi-goal games for the first time in her career.

Esposito finished with a game-high five goals and now has a career-high 39 goals this season.

Freshman Megan Kinna led Northwestern with four ground balls and three caused turnovers, while adding an assist on Nesselbush's second goal of the game to cap the scoring.

Sophomore Claire Quinn also had three caused turnovers in the game, moving her into the top 10 on Northwestern's single-season list with 29 this year.

Quinn led the 'Cats with two caused turnovers and Weisse had a team-high three ground balls.

BEARDSLEY SCORES A CAREER-HIGH FOUR GOALS, BUT WILDCATS FALL TO TERPS

EVANSTON, Ill. — Junior Nicole Beardsley scored a career-high four goals and Shelby Fredericks passed 100 career points, but the 14th-ranked Northwestern lacrosse team couldn't keep pace with No. 1 Maryland, falling at Lanny and Sharon Martin Stadium Thursday evening, 18-9.

Northwestern came in to the game needing a win to claim a share of the Big Ten championship, and got off to a good start. After a quick Terrapin goal, Beardsley pulled the 'Cats even three and a half minutes in.
Quinn led the 'Cats with two caused turnovers and Weisse had a team-high three ground balls.

At the first media timeout, Northwestern was outshooting Maryland 7-4, with a 4-2 in shots on goal. The Wildcats capitalized on that superiority with 19 minutes remaining in the half when freshman Megan Kinna raced the length of the field before finding Danita Stroup to take a 2-1 lead.

Maryland scored four straight in seven minutes to take a 5-2 advantage before junior Sheila Nesselbush cut the deficit with 8:40 with a free position shot. Unfortunately, Maryland's momentum continued as they pulled ahead 8-3. Beardsley scored her second of the game just over a minute before halftime, marking her third straight with two goals, and fifth straight with at least two points.

Maryland added one more to take a 9-4 advantage into halftime. Despite the score line, Northwestern was holding their own, having taken only two fewer shots than the Terrapins, while holding a 12-2 advantage in the draw control.

Northwestern played Maryland even at the start of the second half, with both teams taking four shots in the first 10 minutes. Junior Shelby Fredericks found Beardsley for her third of the game just a minute into the half, before Maryland went on a five-goal run to lead 14-5 with 15:45 to play.

The Wildcats responded with a run of their own, starting when senior Christina Esposito scored her team-leading 40th goal of the year with 13:51 to play. Beardsley then put a free position shot just under the bar, before Stroup found the back of the net for the second time to make it 15-8 with 8:36 to play. Stroup added another goal with 4:54 left to play, but it was the last time the 'Cats found the back of the net as Maryland closed out the win.

Chicago's Big Ten Team will be back in action in the semifinals of the Big Ten Tournament in College Park next Friday as the No. 3 seed against No. 2 seed Penn State. The winner will advance to take on the winner of second semifinal matchup between No. 1-seed Maryland and No. 4-seed Johns Hopkins.
