IRON WOMEN
Four Bruins have logged over 1,600 minutes of play after 20 games. Junior defender Paloma Daubert has played every minute of every game, 1,802 minutes in total. Senior midfielder Oruha Hayashi ranks second in minutes played with 1,656, followed closely by sophomore midfielder Grace Shank, who has played 1,638 minutes, and junior defender Asa Yamazaki, who has totaled 1,616. Daubert, Shank and Hayashi are the only Bruins to start every game this season, and Yamazaki has started in 19 of 20 games.

CHALLENGING SCHEDULE
UCLA endured a tough early-season schedule, matching up against four Top 5 teams in its first nine games. The Bruins played eight opponents who were unbeaten going into the matchup, and four of those teams (San Diego, Santa Clara, Purdue and Ohio State) came away with their first loss of the year. Nine of UCLA's 2026 opponents made the NCAA Tournament, including No. 1 seeds Michigan State and Ohio State.

GOALKEEPER DEPTH
For the first time since the 2015 season, three different goalkeepers have started a game for the Bruins. Daphne Nakfoor has started the most games with 14 and holds a season record of 10-3-1. She has six solo and one shared shutout and a goals against average of 0.80. She posted a season-high total of eight saves at Stanford. Mariangela Medina has made four starts. She earned her first solo shutout of the season against No. 14 Washington, making three saves. Medina also has a shared shutout with Nakfoor against Indiana. Lynette Bryant got her first UCLA start against Pepperdine on Senior Day, earning a shutout, and she also started in the Bruins' win over Purdue, making four saves. UCLA is one of just three teams in the nation to have three different goalkeepers record solo shutouts, joining UC Davis and Chattanooga.

CORONA BACK FROM U-17 WORLD CUP
Freshman midfielder Mia Corona returned to the Bruins after the U.S. team's quarterfinal run at the FIFA Under-17 Women's World Cup in Morocco, playing 59 minutes against Wisconsin in the Big Ten Tournament Quarterfinals on Nov. 4. It was just her second match as a Bruin, as she had previously just played 29 minutes on Oct. 2 at Oregon before departing for World Cup play. Corona made her first start as a Bruin in the NCAA first round and scored her first collegiate goal. In the United States' opening match against Samoa on Oct. 19, Corona was named the captain and scored the team's second goal in a 17-0 victory. She started in every game of the tournament.

Corona was the third Bruin to miss playing time this season due to World Cup duty. Junior goalkeeper Mariangela Medina missed six games earlier in the season while with Mexico at the FIFA Under-20 Women's World Cup in Poland, and junior defender Abby Gemma missed three games while training with the U.S. team as an alternate.

OH CAPTAIN, OUR CAPTAIN
Junior defender Paloma Daubert has led the Bruins both on and off the field as the team captain and defensive leader. Daubert, a first-team All-Big Selection, has played in every minute of every game for a total of 1,802 minutes and has led the Bruins to eight shutouts and a team goals against average of 0.80. UCLA's defense has held opponents to single-digit shot totals in 13 of 20 games this season. Daubert won Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week honors four times in 2026, becoming the first non-goalkeeper ever to win the award four times. The only other player with more Defensive Player of the week awards in a season is Rutgers' Casey Murphy, who won a record five times in 2017.

CROONE IN TUNE
Junior forward Kara Croone has been sharp for the offense all season, leading the Bruins with eight goals and 18 points, all career-highs. The second-team All-Big Ten honoree also leads UCLA with four game-winning goals, a total that ranks fourth in the Big Ten. Croone has also been sharp in the classroom, earning Big Ten Distinguished Scholar honors last academic year.

GIVING GRACE
Sophomore midfielder Grace Shank is UCLA's assist leader with eight, the most by a Bruin in a season since Ally Lemos totaled nine in 2022. Shank earned first-team All-Big Ten honors in 2026 and ranks third on the team in scoring with 12 points (2 goals, 8 assists) and in minutes played with 1,638. She is one of three Bruins to start in every game this year.

JAPAN TO JC TO LA
The road from Japan to Los Angeles for both Oruha Hayashi and Asa Yamazaki included a detour at the junior college level. Both Bruins enjoyed huge success at their respective junior colleges. At Iowa Western, Hayashi was the United Soccer Coaches Player of the Year for Junior College Division 1 in 2023 and 2024. In her first season, she led Iowa Western to the NJCAA Division 1 National Championship, earning Most Valuable Offensive Player honors. The following year, she earned the 2024-25 Betty Jo Graber NJCAA Female Student-Athlete of the Year Award across all sports. Hayashi totaled 44 goals and 38 assists in two seasons. Yamazaki was a two-time All-American at Arizona Western in 2024 and 2025. Last season, she totaled eight goals with seven assists, and in 2024, she was the Defensive Player of the Tournament at the NJCAA DI Championships, where her squad finished as runner-up. Both have had strong success at UCLA, particularly this year, as Hayashi earned second-team All-Big Ten honors, and Yamazaki earned third-team honors. They have each played in every game for the Bruins, with Hayashi starting all 20 games and Yamazaki starting 19. Hayashi ranks second on the team in goals (7) and assists (4) and has a team-leading 18 points. Yamazaki ranks third on the team in assists with three and also has one goal, the game-winner against Indiana.

FRASER RETURNS

Junior defender Nicki Fraser, the 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year, is back in 2026 after sitting out the 2025 season with injuries. In the season opener against BYU, she started and played 60 minutes, and in the Duke contest, she logged 64 minutes and drew a penalty kick in the 1-1 tie while helping to hold the Blue Devils to just two shots in the game. For her efforts, she was named the UCLA Student-Athlete of the Week presented by Champion of Westwood. Fraser, however, was out of action the next 11 games and returned on Oct. 11, playing 28 minutes against Illinois. She has made four starts this season while playing in a total of nine games. As a freshman in 2024, Fraser started in 20 games and helped UCLA's defense record the lowest team goals against average in the nation (0.41) and the most shutouts (16). In addition to being named the conference's Freshman of the Year, she also received third-team All-Big Ten honors and All-Freshman acclaim. A U.S. Youth National Team member, Fraser played in the 2022 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup and the 2023 Pan American Games.

A SEPTEMBER TO REMEMBER

UCLA went 5-1 in the month of September, posting four shutouts and allowing just two goals, one each to the top-scoring teams in the Big Ten. During the month, the Bruins defeated two unbeaten teams, including No. 5 Ohio State, and shut out two conference teams on the road.

MIDSEASON TOP 100 PLAYERS

Top Drawer Soccer included Paloma Daubert, Anna Wilson and Thea Perry on their Midseason Top 100 lists. Daubert is ranked No. 27 on the Midseason Top 100 list. Wilson ranks as the No. 41 player on the Freshman Top 100, and Perry slots as the No. 68 freshman. Five Bruins were on the Preseason Players to Watch List - Leena Powell, Ava Priest, Abby Gemma, Grace Shank and Daphne Nakfoor. Additionally, midfielder Mia Corona was named to the Preseason Freshman Team.

IMPACT TRANSFERS

UCLA welcomed seven transfers to the squad in 2026, including three who have experience playing in the College Cup in Cate Sarinopoulos and Marli Galdamez (TCU 2025) and Lynette Bryant (BYU 2023). Also arriving in Westwood this season were 2024 all-region selections Olivia Woodson from Auburn and Ava Priest from Colorado, U.S. Under-20 National Team player Abby Gemma from Florida, and two-time Junior College All-American Asa Yamazaki (Arizona Western). Top Drawer Soccer ranked UCLA's transfer class No. 2 overall in 2026. All seven transfers have started at least two games this season. Sarinopoulos ranks third on the team with two game-winning goals and third in goals scored with four. Yamazaki ranks third in assists with three and fourth in minutes played with 1,616.

WELCOME FRESHMEN

The Bruins brought in a strong freshman class, highlighted by five youth national team players from four different countries - U.S. Under-17 midfielder Mia Corona, U.S. Under-16 defender Thea Perry, Mexico Under-20 National Team forward Anaiya Miyazato, Canada Under-17 National Team defender Molly Hale, and Brazil Under-17 National Team defender Bela Araújo. Also joining UCLA in 2026 were defender Anna Wilson and midfielder Fiona McGeough. Wilson has played in every game, making 14 starts. She and Hale lead the Bruin freshmen in scoring with six points each (two goals, two assists). Corona in just three games played has one goal, scored in the NCAA first round. Araújo picked up her first assist in the NCAA first round game. Perry played in 10 games and made six starts before going down with an injury in late September.

FIRSTS FOR BOYOKO

The Wolfen Family UCLA Women's Head Soccer Coach Gof Boyoko earned his first victory as a head coach on Aug. 20, 2026, a 2-0 shutout win over San Diego. He claimed his first postseason victory as a head coach againt Quinnipiac on November 21. The Bruins' former associate head coach stepped into the head coach position on Dec. 12, 2025. Boyoko was on the UCLA coaching staff the previous four years and helped guide the Bruins to a 67-13-9 (.803) overall record and a 33-5-6 (.818) conference record, with NCAA Tournament appearances in each year. The Bruins won the NCAA Championship in Boyoko's first season and captured conference titles in 2023 and 2024. Boyoko has coached 27 Bruins who went on to professional playing careers both domestically and internationally, along with multiple national and youth national team players.

UCLA IN THE BIG TEN

UCLA is in its third season in the Big Ten and holds an 23-5-6 all-time conference record. In year one in 2024, the Bruins finished second in the regular season with a 8-1-2 record and swept through the conference tournament, allowing zero goals in three games and setting a championship record with five goals in the title match against Rutgers. The Bruins went 6-2-3 in conference play in 2025 and finished third in the regular season and tournament. UCLA finished tied for second in conference play with 28 points in 2026 and locked up the No. 2 seed in the Big Ten Tournament for the second time in three years.

ACADEMIC HONORS

For the 15th consecutive year, the UCLA women's soccer team has won a United Soccer Coaches College Team Academic Award, recognizing exemplary performance in the classroom during the 2025-26 academic year. The Bruins posted a team GPA of 3.29, their seventh consecutive year over 3.25.
