Gael Spotlight

• The Saint Mary's Gaels won the WCC Regular Season title outright for the second consecutive year for the first time in program history. The Gaels won the conference by a hefty three game margin, their largest margin ever, besting their 2 game conference regular season title margin from the 1958-59 and 1988-89 seasons. Saint Mary's was picked to finish in 2nd place in the WCC Preseason poll, despite winning both the regular season and tournament titles a year ago.

• The Gaels opened the season receiving votes in both the AP Preseason top-25 poll and in the USA Today Coaches Preseason top-25 poll. This comes on the back of Saint Mary's finishing the 2023-24 campaign ranked 21st in the AP and 22nd in the Coaches. The Gaels finished the regular season at 27-4 and found their way back into the coaches poll in week 16 of the season and the AP top-25 in week 17, now at 19th and 20th respectively. The Gaels are currently ranked 21st in the NET and 22nd in KenPom.

• Saint Mary's raked in the hardware during WCC Award Season. For the fourth straight year, Randy Bennett was named WCC Coach of the Year, tying him for the second longset streak in WCC history. Augustas Marciulionis won his second WCC Player of the Year nod, the first Gael since Steve Gray in 1962 and 1963 to accomplish this feat. Mitchell Saxen was the back-to-back WCC Defensive Player of the Year, the second ever Gael two time winner of the award (Diamon Simpson). Paulius Murauskas won the first SMC WCC Newcomer of the Year nod since Joe Rahon in 2016, and was the fifth ever Gael to win this award. Mikey Lewis became just the second ever Gael to win WCC Sixth Man of the Year, joining the likes of Tommy Kuhse. Marciulionis, Saxen and Murauskas all earned first team All-WCC distinction, Lewis was named to the All-Freshman team, and Luke Barrett earned both honorable mention All-WCC honors and first team WCC All-Academic Honors.

• The Gaels have made the NCAA Tournament in four consecutive seasons now, extending their program record streak. On top of this, Saint Mary's has been a single digit seed in each of the last four tournaments. Saint Mary's is one of only 17 schools to receive a single digit seed in each of the last four NCAA Tournaments, and is one of only five schools to do so while not coming out of a Power 5 (now Power 4) conference (Gonzaga, Creighton, Marquette, and UConn)

About Saint Mary's

» Heading into the 2025 NCAA Tournament, the Gaels hold highest highest winning percentage (.772) and are tied for the most NCAA Tournament appearances (6) of any NCAA Division I men's basketball program in the state of California over the last decade.

» Saint Mary's currently has the fourth best win percentage (.772) of any Div. I team in the nation over the last 10 years.

» SMC has a 109-39 record (.736) winning percentage against non-conference opponents over the last 10 years.

» Over the past 10 years, SMC posted a 131-29 (.819) overall record in West Coast Conference play.

» Saint Mary's has been selected for postseason (11 NCAA, 7 NIT) in each of the last 18 seasons, the fourth-longest active streak in the NCAA behind Kansas, Michigan State, and Gonzaga.

» Saint Mary's has finished t-2nd or higher in the WCC in 18 of the last 22 seasons and has won 25 or more games 15 times in the last 22 seasons (24-25 included).

» The Gaels went 30-6 in the regular season of 2017-18, marking the most single-season wins in program history.

» Former SMC standouts Patty Mills, Jock Landale and Alex Ducas, began the season on active NBA rosters. Mills won the NBA title in 2014 with San Antonio and was recently traded from the Jazz to the Clippers. Landale enters his second season in Houston. Ducas signed a two-way contract with the OKC Thunder, and has seen significant time with the big club.

How 24-25 Stacks Up

By the eye test, the 2024-25 regular season was one of the best ever by Saint Mary's men's basketball, but let's take a look back at the Gael history books to see just how special this regular season was. The Gaels finished at 27-4 heading into postseason play. This matched their best regular season record from the 2017-18 season in which the Gaels finished with their only 30 win in program history. Their 17-1 conference record was the best in program history both by win volume and win percentage, besting their two 16-2 seasons in 2016-17 and 2017-18 for volume, and their 15-1 season last year for percentage. The Gaels won the WCC by three games, their largest margin for a regular season title, besting 1988-89 and 1958-59, when they won the conference by a two game margin.

To The Victors Go the Spoils

For the first time in program history, Saint Mary's earned five different players win WCC Superlative Awards, winning Coach of the Year (Bennett), Player of the Year (Marciulionis), Defensive Player of the Year (Saxen), Newcomer of the Year (Murauskas) and Sixth Man of the Year (Lewis). Twice in the past, the Gaels had three different superlative winners (23-24 and 07-08), but this year's strong performances led to the record breaking five honors. In total, five Gaels earned all-conference honors, as Marciulionis, Saxen and Murauskas earned a first team nod, Luke Barrett garnered honorable mention honors (as well as first team All-Academic honors), and Mikey Lewis was named to the All-Freshman Team. Bennett's Coach of the Year award was his seventh overall, and his fourth consecutive, tying him for the second longest streak in WCC history. Marciulionis was the first back-to-back player of the year from Saint Mary's since Steve Gray in 1962 and 1963, while Mitchell Saxen was the second ever back-to-back defensive player of the year out of Saint Mary's joining the likes of Diamon Simpson. Paulius Murauskas became the sixth ever Gael to win Newcomer of the Year, and the first since his coach Joe Rahon won it in 2016, while Mikey Lewis became just the second ever Gael to earn WCC 6th Man of the Year honors, joining the likes of Tommy Kuhse.

Proper Recognition

The back-to-back-to-back-to-back WCC Coach of the Year, Saint Mary's Head Coach Randy Bennett has been named a finalist for both the Hugh Durham Mid-Major Coach of the Year Award and the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year Award. This season, Bennett traversed the departure of six student-athletes (four portal, two graduation) and still managed to lead his team to their third straight WCC Regular Season Title and their second straight outright WCC Regular Season Title, both new program records. Known for coaching his brand of physical, old-school basketball, Bennett helped the Gaels to be recognized once again as one of the best defensive and rebounding teams in the country, ranking tops in the country in rebound margin (+10.8), fifth in scoring defense (60.8 PPG allowed), 10th in offensive rebounding (14.03 ORPG), 12th in scoring margin (+13.4) and 22nd in total rebounding (39.52 RPG). He became the first Saint Mary's Coach in 60+ years to coach a back-to-back WCC Player of the Year (Augustas Marciulionis) and the only Saint Mary's Coach to coach two two-time WCC Defensive Players of the Year (Diamon Simpson and Mitchell Saxen). The all-time winningest coach in Saint Mary's Men's Basketball history by 450 games, Bennett has amassed a record of 560-220 in his 24 years at the helm, including a 270-95 conference coaching record, second best in WCC history.

Best of the Best

Gaels players found themselves as finalists for four different national awards at the culmination of conference tournament season. Fifth year senior and former walk-on Luke Barrett was named a finalist for the Nolan Richardson Award, presented annually to a division I player who is the heart and soul of his team and a leader on and off the court. Arizona transfer Paulius Murauskas was named a finalist for both the Riley Wallace Award, presented annually to the most impactful transfer in division I college basketball and the Lou Henson Mid-Major Player of the Year Award. The back-to-back WCC Defensive Player of the Year, Mitchell Saxen was named a finalist for the Lefty Driesell Award, presented annually to the top defensive player in division I college basketball. Rounding out the group, back-to-back WCC Player of the Year Augustas Marciulionis was named a finalist for both the Lou Henson Mid-Major Player of the Year and the Lute Olson National Player of the Year Awards. The winners of all of these awards will be announced in San Antonio, site of the men's Division I Basketball Championship.

Back-to-Back-to-Back Champs

Following their win over Gonzaga at the Kennel on February 22, the Saint Mary's Gaels were crowned WCC Regular Season Champs outright. This marks the second straight outright WCC Regular Season Title for the Gaels, a new program record, and their third straight WCC Regular Season Title share, also a new program record mark. This year's regular season outright title is all the more sweeter after the Gaels, despite winning the conference last year, were picked to finish second in the WCC preseason polls. The only other time the Gaels were crowned back-to-back WCC regular season champions in program his was in 2011 and 2012, however, their 2011 title was shared with Gonzaga.

Cross 'em All Off

With their win over Oregon State on February 8, the Gaels have now beaten every team in the WCC. This is the fourth consecutive time that the Gaels have accomplished this feat. This year, the accomplishment is even more impressive when factoring in that this is the first year that Washington State and Oregon State have been added to the WCC.

Another 20!

For the 17th season in a row (COVID year not included), Saint Mary's has reached the 20 win mark, doing so in 23 games. Only three times have the Gaels reached that mark faster, winning 20 of their first 22 in 2011-12, 2016-17 and 2017-18. Saint Mary's reached 20 wins in their first 23 also in 1988-89, 2007-08, and 2009-10. In all but one of those instances, Saint Mary's has made the NCAA Tournament in all but one of those instance (2017-18).

70, The Magic Number

This season, when the Gaels have reached the 70 point mark in a game, they are unbeaten (24-0). This has been due in most part to the Gaels stellar defense, that has held 28 of 33 opponents under 70 points. As a team, Saint Mary's is limiting opponents to just 60.7 points per contest (5th in the nation), holding them to 40.8% (35th in the nation) shooting from the field and 30.8% from three (33rd in the nation). Mitchell Saxen has had the biggest defensive impact for the Gaels this season. The back-to-back WCC Defensive Player of the Year, Saxen leads the Gaels with 43 blocks and ranks second with 43 steals, while altering countless other looks at the rim and preventing post touches for Gael opponents. Saxen is the only player in the WCC with 40+ blocks and steals.

Consistency is a Key

The Gaels are one of just two teams in Division 1 College Basketball to start the same starting lineup in every game thus far this season. Saint Mary's joins only Marquette (23-10) in this unique stat category. A season ago, the Gaels utilized just three different starting lineups, including the same starting five for each of the first 26 games, going 20-6 in that stretch.

Mr. Gael

Following his start against LMU on 2/27, Mitchell Saxen surpassed former teammate Alex Ducas for most games ever played in an SMC uniform. A game later, Saxen once again surpassed Ducas, this time for most wins in a Gael uniform at 115. Currently, Saxen has played 154 career games for the Gaels, and has seen SMC to a 116-38 in that time. With Saxen representing the last of the COVID era five year players, these records of games played and games won likely will stand long into the forseeable future.

Flexing Their Muscle

The 34th tallest team in the nation, Saint Mary's took full advantage of their height and muscle to dominated in the "bruiser stats". Saint Mary's is +355 in rebound margin and +189 in offensive rebounding. As a team, the Gaels lead the WCC in rebounding margin (also lead the nation), offensive rebounds per game, and

Gaels Post 20-Win Seasons

Saint Mary's surpassed the 20-win mark for the 17th straight season in 2024-25, the 18th time under Randy Bennett and the 20th time in school history. In every year the Gaels have won more than 20 games, they have advanced to postseason play.

(2022-23): 31-6

Saint Mary's (2017-18): 30-6

Gaels Enjoy Success At Home vs WCC

rebounds per game, ranking in the top-15 in the country all of those categories, while Mitchell Saxen ranks third in the nation in offensive rebounding. According to KenPom, SMC ranks second in the country, recording O-boards on 40.5% of possessions. That has led to the Gaels being +224 in second chance scoring. SMC also imposes their will in the paint, as they are +291 on points in the paint, where 49% of their points have come from (1188 points in paint of 2426 total points).

A Couple of 1000 Point Stat-Sheet Stuffers

Mitchell Saxen and Augustas Marciulionis both reached the 1000 point mark this season, making them the first Gael duo to accomplish this feat in the same season since Logan Johnson and Alex Ducas both reached 1000 in 2022-23. That said, Saxen and Marciulionis have both been so much more than scorers for the Gaels throughout their careers. Saxen has played more games than anyone else in a Gael uniform (154) and ranks fourth all-time with 904 career boards (six away from surpassing Tom Meschery for third) and third all-time with 155 blocks. He is one of just four Gaels (Diamon Simpson, Omar Samhan, Brad Waldow) to record 1000 points and rank in the top five in both rebounds and blocks for his career. Currently, Saxen has scored 1314 points, good for 17th all-time in program history, while his 532 made field goals as Gael place him 10th. Marciulionis cracked the top-5 for assist, now with 498, good for 4th, and the top-10 in steals with 143, good for 6th. Only Goose and Matthew Dellavedova are Gaels who can claim 1000 points, 400 assists and 125 steals for their SMC careers. With his eight assist performance in the WCC Title Game against Gonzaga, he became just the sixth ever Gael to record 200 assists in a single season. Currently, Marciulionis has scored 1202 career points, good for 26th all-time.

Barrett, A Must Play

Redshirt senior and former walk-on wing Luke Barrett has put up solid numbers this season, averaging 10 points and seven rebounds per contest while shooting 46% from the field. That said, its what Barrett has done that is not shown on the stat sheets that have truly made him one of the most valuable assets on this Saint Mary's team. When Barrett is on the floor, the Gaels are +435 in scoring margin to -11 when he's off the floor. This is due in big part to both Barrett's steadfast defense and savvy offense with and without the basketball. In the Gaels 33 games this year, Barrett has been on the floor 1204 of a possible 1320 minutes, and is a big reason as to why the Gaels are 28-5 for the year. He currently ranks 21st in the nation in minutes played per game, and ranks eighth in program history averaging 36:27 minutes played per game.

Landale-Naar 2.0?

Through their first 33 games of the year, the Lithuanian duo of Augustas Marciulionis and Paulius Murauskas have been special. Not only have they combined for 36% of Saint Mary's scoring this season, but they also have led the Gaels in assists and rebounding respectively. These two bring memories of another great international countryman duo from just a few years back; Jock Landale and Emmett Naar. In 2017-18, Naar and Landale combined for roughly 40% of Saint Mary's scoring in 36 contests, with Landale ripping down the third most rebounds in a single season in program history, and Naar dishing out the most assists in a single season in program history. That season with Landale and Naar saw the Gaels win 30 games. Saint Mary's will hope to replicate that again with Marciulionis and Murauskas.

Mr. Double-Double

Paulius Murauskas began his career at Saint Mary's by recording three straight double-doubles, making him the first Gael since Mitchell Saxen to record three consecutive double-doubles. The last Gael to go more than three consecutive double-doubles was Jock Landale, now in the NBA, who went for six in a row between 12/30/17 and 1/18/18. Murauskas picked up his fourth double-double of the season against Stanislaus State, his fifth against UTSA, his sixth vs Merrimack, his seventh in the conference opener vs Pacific, his eighth against Pepperdine, his ninth in the Gaels come-from-behind road victory over Washington State, and his tenth, at home against Washington State, becoming the first Gaels since Logan Johnson to score 30 in a game, his 11th immediately following the 30 point showing vs Portland, his 12th in a dog fight at LMU, and, most recently, his 13th in his WCC Tournament debut vs Pepperdine, giving him 13 in his first 32 games as a Gael. His 13 double-doubles rank him first in the WCC and 22nd in the country. He is the first Gael since Jock Landale in 2017-18 to record double digit double-doubles in a single season.

Randy Bennett, Saint Mary's Head Coach

A seve-time West Coast Conference Coach of the Year (2025,2024, 2023, 2022, 2016, 2011, 2008) and 2010 Sporting News WCC Coach of the Year, Randy Bennett, took over as the head men's basketball coach prior to the 2001-02 season. The winner of the last four straight WCC Coach of the year honors, Bennett now is tied for the second longest streak for that award in conference history.

On Nov. 10, 2017, Saint Mary's and head coach Randy Bennett announced the signing of a new 10-year contract that will keep Bennett in charge of the program through the 2026-27 season. In 2023-24, Bennett led the Gaels to their 17th straight postseason appearance and a number-five seed in the NCAA Tournament for the third consecutive season.

Now in his 24th season, he is the school's all-time wins leader, guided SMC to 17 post-season appearances (10 NCAA and 7 NIT), led the Gaels to their first post-season victory and had a player drafted (Patrick Mills, 2009) by the NBA for the first time since 1984. Two Gaels are currently playing in the NBA, while one more is on a two-way contract playing between the NBA and G-League.

Bennett is second all-time among WCC coaches in career league wins and has a 560-220 (.718) record while compiling a 270-95 (.740) mark in WCC regular-season competition. Bennett became the winningest coach at SMC when the Gaels defeated East Tennessee State in the semifinals of the Rainbow Classic on December 21, 2007, passing James Weaver (110-67), who held the record for 47 years.

He has led SMC to at least the semifinals of the WCC Tournment in 22 of his past 23 seasons, and 14 championship game appearances. His side captured WCC Tournament titles in 2010,2012, 2019 and 2024.

In addition to team accomplishments, Bennett has had 57 players earn All-WCC recognition, with 46 first or second team and 11 honorable mention selections. He coached Mickey McConnell, Matthew Dellavedova, Jock Landale and Augustas Marciulionis to WCC Player of the Year honors.

Big Wins Over Last Few Seasons

Bennett earned his 500th win at Saint Mary's on Feb. 2, 2023 in a home win over San Francisco. For reference, Bennett won his 400th career game as head coach, all with Saint Mary's, on Dec. 19, 2018 versus Bucknell.

Bennett has also been the head coach of the only two wins in SMC history over the No. 1 team in the country: the 2019 WCC Championship game over Gonzaga, and the home finale of the 2021-22 season, also over Gonzaga.

Bennett Has Lasting Power

With a few high-profile coaches retiring this past summer, Randy Bennett is now the fifth-longest tenured head coach with one program amongst active coaches in the NCAA.

Greg Kampe leads the list, having led Oakland since the 1984-5 season. Mark Few is the only active WCC coach who has held a longer tenure with his current team (started in 1999-2000).
