UC IRVINE vs WASHINGTON STATE

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 2025

ANTEATER STADIUM IN IRVINE, CALIFORNIA

	1	2	F
WSU	0	0	0
UCI	0	2	2

WASHINGTON STATE POSTGAME NOTES

- With the result, the Cougars:
  - Fall to 1-2-3 overall, snapping a four-game unbeaten streak
  - Fall to 4-2-1 all-time against UC Irvine
    - Snap a five-game unbeaten streak against the Anteaters dating back to 1992
    - Fall to 2-2-0 against the Anteaters in Irvine
  - Ended their shutout streak at 246 consecutive minutes without conceding a goal
  - Fall to 0-1-2 when wearing Crimson uniforms
  - Fall to 1-2-2 when tied at halftime
  - Allowed multiple goals for the first time this season
  - Lost their first road match of the season
- The Cougars matched their season high with 15 shots
- Coach Shulenberger fell to 107-62-32 all-time
- Keara Fitzgerald made 5+ saves for the third time this season
- Journey Middleborn made her first collegiate career start
- After starting the season with no bookings through five matches, the Cougars earned five yellow cards and one red card
  - The Cougs played the final eight minutes of the match with 10 players after Ava Ghoreishi earned a red card at 81:53
  - Middleborn earned her first yellow card and the first caution of the season for the Cougars
  - Ava Ghoreishi earned her first career yellow card and later earned a second caution to earn the first WSU red card
  - Maggie Mace earned her first caution of the season and second as a Coug
  - Kiera Mitchell earned her first career yellow card