WAZZU IN 2019

The most successful campaign in WSU program history, the 2019 Cougs went down in the record books as the first team to play their way to the College Cup, finishing their season in the national semifinals in an epic showdown with histories greatest power, North Carolina. Despite falling just short of the finals in San Jose, the Cougs successes were recognized in the final polls as WSU ended the year ranked #4 in the country, the highest ranking in program history. Overall, the Cougs ended the year with a program record 16 victories thanks to their historic run in the NCAA Tournament.

In addition to team successes, the Cougs produced an array of individual awards for the year with five players earning All-Pac-12 honors including Morgan Weaver (1st), Brianna Alger (3rd), Averie Collins (3rd), Ella Dederick (3rd), MacKenzie Frimpong-Ellertson (FR). The duo of Weaver and Alger would go on to earn all-region honors while Weaver became just the second all-american in program history and first since 2013.

Capping a stellar career at WSU, Weaver wasn't finished as the star striker became one of the highest drafted players in Cougar Athletics history going No. 2 to the Portland Thorns in the NWSL Draft in Jan. Sh would be joined by Collins in the draft as the grad transfer went No. 17 to the Washington Spirit.

COUGAR NOTES

COLLEGE CUP SEMIFINALIST
The Cougs advanced to the College Cup for the first time in program history having taken down #14 Memphis (1-0), #3 Virginia (3-2), West Virginia (3-0, and #5 South Carolina (1-0, OT) in their run to the cup. The final four run is the furthest the Cougs have advanced in program history and the deepest postseason run in the history of WSU Athletics in the NCAAs. The run would come to an end in a 2-1 loss to perennial power North Carolina. Throughout the run to the College Cup the Cougs took down a No. 1 seed and No. 2 seed, both on the road in hostile environments. In addition, the Cougs defeated the AAC regular season champion, ACC tournament runner-up, and the SEC tournament champion.
WSU was in the postseason for the eighth time in the last nine seasons and the 10th time in the last 12 years. WSU sports an 8-11-4 record in the NCAA tournament. The Cougs have been to the third round in two of the last three seasons and have advanced out of the first round a program record three-straight seasons.

WAZZU IN THE REGULAR SEASON
The Cougs finished the regular season 12-6-1 overall and 5-5-1 in Pac-12 play, good for sixth in the conference. The 12 wins matched their win total from 2018 as the two seasons were nearly identical on the scoresheet. The Cougs biggest win of the year came on the road at No. 20 Cal, knocking off the Bears 1-0 in overtime. The Cougs scored 36 goals and posted 38 assists in the regular season led by Morgan Weavers 11 goals and four assists. On the year WSU took home four weekly awards with Brianna Alger earning two defensive awards while Weaver and Averie Collins each earned one offensive award.

RECORD WINS
With their win at #3 Virginia in the second round of the NCAA Tournament the Cougars tied the single-season record for wins at 14. Two days later the 2019 Cougars put their names above the rest with a record 15th win after defeating West Virginia 3-0 in the third round of the tournament. The win at #5 South Carolina extended the record to 16 victories.
In addition leading his team to a record number of wins, Coach Shulenberger became the first coach in program history to lead his team into the Sweet 16 twice after becoming the first team in program history to reach the third round in 2017.

WEAVER GOES NO. 2, COLLINS NO. 17
After cementing their legacies at Washington State, Morgan Weaver and Averie Collins began the newest chapters of their soccer stories with the 2020 National Women's Soccer League draft. The two Cougs were picked in the first two rounds of the four round draft with Weaver selected No. 2 overall by the Portland Thorns while Collins went at No. 17, the eighth pick in th second round, to the Washington Spirit.
Weaver became the highest draft pick in program history after being selected with the second pick by the Thorns. Previously, Nicole Setterlund was the first and only NWSL pick in program history going in the third round to Chicago in 2014. In Women's Professional Soccer, the Cougs had a pair of picks in 2010 with Kiersten Dallstream (No. 9 - Los Angeles) and Carly Dobratz (Second Round - Washington) each being selected before being dispersed into the NWSL when the WPS disbanded.
For Weaver, the star forward joins the ranks of the all-time greats in WSU Athletics history as the highest drafted player in women's athletics history. Only Cougar Hall-of-Fame Quarterback Drew Bledsoe (No. 1, 1993) has been drafted higher in the professional ranks than Weaver at No. 2.

MORGAN WEAVER, ALL-AMERICAN
For just the second time in program history the Cougars have an all-american in their ranks as senior Morgan Weaver was named a Third Team All-American by the United Soccer Coaches. Weaver joins all-time great Micaela Castain (2013) as the only Cougars to earn all-america honors at Washington State. Etching her name among the best to have donned a Cougar uniform, Weaver put a cap on a stellar four-year career with her first career all-american award. Prior, the senior captain had garnered her third-straight all-region award with a selection to the first team.

WEAVER, ALGER EARN ALL-REGION
The catalysts to a historic season, senior forward Morgan Weaver and junior defender Brianna Alger were each named to the 2019 United Soccer Coaches NCAA Division I Women's All-Pacific Region Team. Weaver was named to the first team while Alger was tabbed for the third team. The award marked the third-straight season Weaver was honored among the elite players in the region while Alger took home her first all-region award after switching to her new home among the Cougars' backline. The duo remarkably had a foot in 62% of the Cougars goals on the year scoring or assisting on 28 of 45 goals. The 45 goals ranks 3rd all-time and the most in the last 26 seasons.

THREE PUT ON THE RED, WHITE, AND BLUE
After finishing a historic season at Washington State, senior Morgan Weaver, junior Makamae Gomera-Stevens, and sophomore Mykiaa Minniss continue to play on as the trio of Cougars were called into national team duty in Florida in December. The attacking duo of Weaver and Gomera-Stevens joined the senior national team camp in Bradenton, Fla. while Minniss will pull on the U-20 jersey in Lakewood Ranch, Fla to play in the 2019 Nike International Friendlies. Weaver and Gomera-Stevens became the first Cougs in program history to be called into a Senior National Team camp.

OFFENSIVE RECORD WATCH
In a historic season the Cougs' 2019 offense put itself among the best in program history having scored 45 goals with 46 assists for 136 combined points.
45 goals ranks 3rd all-time and the most in the last 26 seasons.
46 assists ranks 2nd, one shy of the all-time record of 47 set in 2002.
136 points ranks 3rd, and the most in the last 28 seasons.

FIVE COUGS EARN ALL-PAC-12 HONORS

Led by star forward Morgan Weaver, Washington State soccer put five players on the Pac-12 All-Conference teams. Weaver took home second team honors for the Cougars while Brianna Alger, Averie Collins, and Elle Dederick were named third team. Newcomer MacKenzie Frimpong-Ellertson proved to be one of the best freshmen in the league as she earned all-freshman team honors for her play.

Weaver - Picked up her fourth all-conference honor after finishing the regular season fourth in the Pac-12 in scoring with 11 goals. She scored six goals in Pac-12 play all coming in the final three games.

Alger - Earned her first all-conference award in her first season as a defender. She earned two DPOW awards and finished tied for 4th in the conference with nine assists.

Collins - Earned her first career all-conference honor in her first and only season at WSU. She finished the regular season with five goals and four assists to post 14 points.

Dederick - Earned her second all-conference award after posting 6.5 shutouts and 12 wins in goal. The sixth-year season allowed 1.11 goals per game starting all 19 contests in her final season.

Frimpong-Ellertson - Continued the long line of all-freshman honorees for the Cougs after posting three goals and one assist in her inaugural collegiate season.

SIX COUGS EARN PAC-12 FALL ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL HONORS

A total of 29 Washington State University Student-Athletes including 6 soccer players were named to the 2019 Pac-12 Fall Academic Honor Roll as announced by the conference office Thursday afternoon. The fall recipients are the first to receive the new award in its debut after the Pac-12 Council voted during its summer session to change the all-academic selection process.

Brianna Alger, Marin Auth, Elyse Bennett, Hanna Goff, Rachel Johnson, and Katie Jones took home the inaugural honor.

ROAD WARRIORS

A season after setting the program record for wins at home, the Cougars took their talents on the road this season with a strong 9-5 mark away from Lower Soccer Field one shy of the program record of 10 wins in 2009. The Cougs earned seven of their 10 shutouts on the road.

WSU's biggest win in the regular season came on the road at #20 Cal when the Cougs won a 1-0 overtime thriller over the Golden Bears. The Cougs added to their lore with the 3-2 win over #3 Virginia in the NCAA Second Round and again with a 1-0 overtime win at #5 South Carolina in the Elite 8.

DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE

In 2019, the Cougars were dominant on the defensive end of the field with 10 shutouts in 24 games. In the two years prior, the Cougs produced 16 shutouts including 11 in 2017, tied for 2nd most in WSU history.

On the year, the Cougs outscored the opposition 45-26. Ella Dederick in goal was credited with nine full shutouts while sharing another with Rachel Johnson.

The Cougs had six shutouts in the last 14 contests and allowed one goal or fewer in 11 of those games. WSU tallied three shutouts in five postseason games including against #5 South Carolina on the road.

OFFENSIVE WOES - NO MORE

After starting the season red-hot offensively the Cougars hit a virtual wall for a few weeks in Pac-12 play as nearly every defense came up with career efforts in net. The lull would return at Washington to end the year when the Cougs dominated the stat sheet with 17 shots and 13 corners but came up empty in a 1-0 loss. The one oasis in the struggle came the last time the Cougs were at home when WSU refound its magic with an eight goal outburst in a pair of 4-1 wins over Utah and Colorado. The explosion came thanks to a six goal weekend from Morgan Weaver who snapped a 10-match scoreless streak.

The Cougs won another close contest in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, scoring one goal on 16 shots.

In the biggest matchup of the year, WSU's offense showed up scoring three goals against #3 Virginia, a team which had allowed just eight goals in the previous 21 contests. The Cougs would repeat the feat with three more goals against West Virginia including a pair from Weaver.

Against South Carolina, the Cougs came up with one goal on 15 shots to down the Gamecocks, a team that had allowed just seven goals entering the day. They would add another goal against #2 North Carolina in a tough 2-1 loss in the national semifinals.

CLOSE CONTESTS THE NORM

Tight games show off a team's ability to persevere and the 2019 Cougs proved their mettle as WSU was an impressive 10-5 in one-goal games and 3-0-1 in overtime contest. 16 of the 24 games for the Cougs were decided by one goal or fewer including four of five NCAA Tournament games.

Last season the Cougs were 4-3 in one-goal matches while going 7-6 in 2017.

COUGAR VETS LEAD THE WAY

Despite the loss of a few key players from last season, the 2019 Cougars stormed back and better than ever as eight of 11 starters returned in 2019 headlined by all-region honoree Morgan Weaver up top and goalkeeper Ella Dederick between the posts. The two captains led a stacked team of veteran players who have advanced into the second round of the tournament in three-straight seasons and the third round in two of three years.

The vets contributed 32 goals and 36 assists on the year.

WEAVER'S LEGACY

The second all-american in program history, Weaver finished her illustrious career at WSU as the program's second leading scorer having netted 43 goals and tallying 98 points. She led the Cougars to their first College Cup in 2019 as a senior after posting a career-best 15 goals, the third most in single season history and the most for a Coug striker in the past 26 seasons. Scoring in bunches throughout her career, Weaver posted nine multi-goal games including tying the program record with four goals in just 45 minutes against Colorado on senior day. In addition to her play at WSU, Weaver has been a part of the U-23 USWNT system as well as most recently earning the program's first invite to a senior national team training camp in December.

 In the 2019 postseason Weaver tallied 4 goals and 1 assist.

In 10 total postseason games, Weaver posted 6 goals and 3 assists, the most of any Cougar.

DEDERICK REWROTE THE RECORD BOOK

After missing most of the 2018 season due to injury, star keeper Ella Dederick returned for the 2019 season and became the Cougars' all-time leader in wins earning her record victory in a 2-1 win over Oregon State, Sept. 28, at home at Lower Soccer Field. On the year, Dederick is 16-6-1 with 9.5 shutouts and a 0.99 GAA.

Her 16 wins is a single-season record for victories by a keeper. Her 9 shutouts ranks 4th.

Career Ranking – Wins (1st, 53), Win percentage (3rd, 0.635), saves (2nd, 306), goals against average (4th, 0.92), minutes in goal (1st, 8158:25), shutouts (2nd, 29).

She was named Third Team All-Pac-12 at the end of the regular season.

 In the 2019 postseason, Dederick allowed 4 goals on 54 shots, playing 455:33 minutes while producing 18 saves. She was 4-1-0 with three shutouts.

In her postseason career, played 9 games giving up just 8 goals in 862:12 minutes while facing 106 shots and making 31 saves. She went 5-3-1 in the NCAA Tournament including winning a shootout over Tennessee in 2017 in round two making three-straight saves to send the team to its first Sweet 16.

THE FLYIN HAWAIIAN

While Weaver was the star, Gomera-Stevens was the x-factor for the Cougars throughout the year earning her an invite to the national team camp for the first time in her career. The junior midfielder was arguably the Cougars' best player in the postseason as she controlled the middle of the pitch for WSU on both ends of the field. The native Hawaiian came up biggest in pressure situations scoring four of her team-best four game-winners against the nation's best. Her first game-winner handed the previously unbeaten Beavers of Oregon State their first loss of the season. She would later go on to nab a golden goal on the road against No. 20 Cal.

In the postseason, Gomera-Stevens took it up another notch scoring game-winners against No. 14 Memphis in the first round and again against West Virginia to send the Cougs to the Elite Eight for the first time in program history. In addition, she would tally an assist on the opening strike against No. 3 Virginia in arguably the biggest win in program history. She would finish off her career year with five goals (tied for third-most on the team) and five assists (tied for second-most on the team). Gomera-Stevens becomes just the second player from Hawaii to earn a senior call-up following Natasha Kai.

OFFENSIVE DEPTH TAKES CENTER STAGE

Three-deep at every position it was no surprise that the overall depth showed through as the Cougars' had 12 different goal scorers accounting for 45 goals. The Cougs also had 10 different game-winners on the year led by Makamae Gomera-Stevens 4 winners including two in the postseason.

In addition, six of the 12 scorers were first time scorers (including grad-transfer Averie Collins scoring her first goal at WSU).

FRESH FACES MAKE WAVES

While the Cougs are stacked with established veterans at every position WSU also welcomed in 10 new faces that made an immediate impact. The most experienced newcomer to the Cougars was graduate-transfer Averie Collins who came to the Palouse after graduating from Stanford. Collins won a national title with the Cardinal and finished her Stanford career with 10 goals, five assists, and 25 points. In addition to Collins, freshman MacKenzie Frimpong-Ellertson, the daughter of former USWNT member Tina Frimpong, earned a spot among the regulars while seven of the nine freshmen saw solid time on the pitch.

Collins finished the game second overall with 6 goals, 2 game-winners, and added 5 assists while Frimpong-Ellertson netted 4 goals including the game-winner against #3 Virginia in round two of the NCAA Tournament.

Freshman Skye McMillon got on the scoreboard in her first appearance in the season opener against Seattle U.

Grayson Lynch notched her first collegiate goal, a game-winner, against Utah.

Bridget Rieken established herself as one of the Cougs starting centerbacks beginning in Pac-12 play helping produce 10 shutouts.

ALGER ASSISTS HER WAY INTO THE RECORD BOOKS

Taking over the role of starting left back and primary distributor for the Cougars, junior Brianna Alger wasted no time jumping in with both feet as she picked up a pair of assists on the first two goals of the season. She added an assist in each game at home to run her streak to three-straight games, tying the longest streak in program history.

Her 10 total assists and 0.42 assists per game ranked #5 in the Pac-12, #1 among defenders, and #68 in the nation. She was 3rd all-time in WSU single-season history as one of just three Cougs all-time to record double-digit assists in a single season.

Alger, playing in the back for the first time in her career and earned two defensive player of the week awards on the year as well as Third Team All-Pac-12 and All-Region.

SHULENBERGER WINS #50

Having established his Cougars as one of the elite teams in the country, head coach Todd Shulenberger came up with some of his own career recognition as the fifth-year coach hit the 50 win milestone Sunday, Sept. 15 against LMU. Shulenberger picked up his milestone victory in his 87th contest giving him an impressive .615 winning percentage to get to the total.

Shulenberger's first win came on Aug. 21, 2015 against Seattle U (3-1).

COUGS SIGN 10 FOR 2020

Looking to reload his roster for the 2020 season, Washington State soccer head coach Todd Shulenberger announced the signings of 10 new Cougars to National Letters of Intent. Signing during the early period were: Aniah Cutler (Long Beach, Calif.), Margie Detrizio (Chandler, Ariz.), Alyssa Gray (Gig Harbor, Wash.), Lynette Hernaez (Corona, Calif.), Jayla Land (Irvine, Calif.), Makenna McGill (Huntington Beach, Calif.), Haley Weinkauf (Lake Tapps, Wash.), and Marin Whieldon (Upland, Calif.).

The Cougs added the #1 ranked forward in the country in Trinity Rodman (Huntington Beach, Calif.) in December.

Senior transfer, Marissa Zuccetto (Mississauga, Ontari - Texas Tech) joined the team in January for the spring semester to compete for the starting GK position in her final year of eligibility. Zuccetto led the nation in a shutouts as a sophomore but lost her starting spot as a junior after an injury took away a chunk of her season.
