OPENING TIPS

1. Washington State Basketball (2-4) is back in Beasley to host Sam Houston State (3-3) on Tuesday, November 24 at 6 p.m. PT. The Cougs will take on the Bearkats for the first time in program history, the fifth time this season the Cougs have faced a program for the first time. The game will be broadcasted live on Pac-12 YouTube.

2. The Cougars traveled to Palm Springs, California to take on nationally ranked Duke (5/5) on Saturday at the Acrisure Arena, part of the Acrisure series. WSU used a second-half push to keep Duke on their toes, but fell just short in the 74-78 defeat in Acrisure Arena. Outscoring the Blue Devils 43-34 in the second half, the Cougs came within two points with 22 seconds to go. Three players scored in double figures, with Jaylen Harrell and Lazerek Houston tied for the team-lead with 15 points.

3. It was the first game against a top 5 opponent for WSU since a win at No. 4 Arizona (77-74) on February 22, 2024. It was the Cougs first ever meeting against the Blue Devils, and the seventh overall meeting against an ACC team, dropping to 3-4 all-time against the conference. WSU used six second half threes to Duke's two to help crawl out of a 19-point deficit early in the second half. The Cougs outplayed the Blue Devils on the fast break in the contest (17-7), bench points (23-18) and won the turnover battle (10-16). Duke was able to control the paint and record 19 second chance points to WSU's five. It was the second game this season the Cougs lost by less than five points.

COUGAR BASKETBALL NOTES

UP NEXT

The Cougars will be back in Beasley and will host Idaho in their 281st all-time meeting on Friday, November 27 at 5 p.m. PT. The two schools have played the 11th-most played series in Division-I history. The Cougs will look to avenge their 81-83 loss to the Vandals in last season's opener. The game will be broadcasted live on Pac-12 YouTube

WHAT HAPPENED LAST GAME?

WSU lost in a tight contest on Saturday to then, No. 5 Duke in Palm Springs at Acrisure Arena 74-78. Duke would jump out to an 8-2 lead, but the Cougs would respond with a 7-2 scoring run to make it 10-9 going into the first media timeout. The Cougs causing disruption on defense, forcing Duke to four early turnovers to just one by WSU in the first eight minutes. Jaylen Harrell would lift the lid off the basket with his second three of the game to bring the Cougs within five points. A Blue Devil 7-0 run would push their to double-digits for the first time in the game just under seven minutes. In the closing minutes of the half, Duke forced a pair of turnovers and pushed their lead their lead back to double-digits and lead 44 to 31 at the half. Duke would come out firing in the second, making their first two threes and push their lead to 19 points. WSU would respond, forcing a turnover and back-to-back threes by Houston and Dembele. Washington state would not go away, cutting the lead to single-digits thanks to a 7-2 scoring run to force a Duke timeout. WSU would be unable to get past a seven-point deficit and kept grinding on defense, forcing tough shots and a fastbreak layup by Ronnie Harrison would cut their deficit to five points, trailing 64-69 with five minutes to play. More gritty play by the Cougs would lead to three by Lazerek Houston to bring it within one possession and just trail by three, 68-71 at the last media timeout. Down by five, Jamari Phillips would hit a DEEP three with 23 seconds left and be down by just two, 74-76. A pair of free throws by Duke would give them a four-point lead and would end the game 74-78, with a gritty performance by Washington State.

INSIDE THE BOX SCORE (VS DUKE)

Lazerek Houston recorded 15 points, his fifth consecutive game with 10+ points. Houston also recorded four assists, one shy of 200 assists in his career. Ladji Dembele matched a career-high 12 points and recorded four rebounds for the third straight game. Dembele and Houston are the only Cougs to start all six games this season. Jaylen Harrell recorded his fifth game with 10+ points and his third with 15+ points. It was his third game with multiple made threes and recorded two steals, his third game with 2+ steals. Jamari Phillips recorded a career-high five rebounds and recorded his second straight game with 2+ threes (third overall). WSU attempted a season-high 30 threes and moved to 11-82 all-time against top 5 teams and fall to 2-1 in their last three games against top 5 teams.

ABOUT THE BEARKATS

This will be the first all-time meeting between the Cougs and the Bearkats. This season, WSU has faced a program for the first time in five of their first seven games. Sam Houston State is 3-3 this season, with their most recent win coming against Boise State, a 83-69 victory in Boise on Friday. Two of their losses came to ranked teams, No. 3 Illinois (86-108) and No. 20 Alabama (74-96). Sam Houston State's other loss came in a 79-81 close defeat in Laramie, Wyoming against Wyoming on November 17. The Bearkats went 22-12 (13-7) last season, finished second in the C-USA and made it to the NIT Tournament.

COUGAR BASKETBALL NOTES

HARRELL IS BALLIN' AND WINNING AWARDS

Washington State guard Jaylen Harrell was named the Pac-12 Conference Freshman of the Week for the second time this season, the conference office announced Monday, November 23. He was also given the honor on Monday, November 9. Harrell, a redshirt-freshman transfer from Providence, averaged 9.0 ppg on 7-16 (.438%) shooting from the field in his two games this week, and stayed perfect from the free throw line (10-10) this season. Also averaged 3.5 rebounds per game and 1.5 steals per game in the two contests against Hawai'i and then No. 5 ranked Duke. On Saturday vs. Duke, the redshirt-freshman recorded a team-tying high 15 points, his fifth game with 10+ points and his third with 15+ points this season. It was also Harrell's third game with multiple made threes and his third game with 2+ steals Through the first five games of the season, Harrell leads the team with 31 made field goals (31-55, .564%) and leads the team in steals (11). The guard is also second on the team in points per game (13.5 ppg) and third in minutes per game (25 mpg) and in total assists (14). Among all Pac-12 players this season, Harrell leads the conference in steals per game (1.83), tied for the most steals (11), ranks ninth in field goal percentage (.564) and tied-ninth in most field goals made (31). Harrell earned his first Pac-12 weekly award, November 9, 2026, after he shined in his first two games as Coug and averaged 15.5 points per game. The Boston, Mass. native shot 65% (13-20) from the field, knocking down three 3-pointers in the first two games vs. Davidson on November 2 and on the road at High Point on November 7. The freshman joins Ace Glass, last year's All-WCC Freshman Team as the second-consecutive WSU freshman to earn multiple Freshman of the Week honors during the regular season. Glass earned the award three times last season.

HOUSTON IS YOUR PROBLEM

In the Cougs nail-biting defeat to Duke on Saturday, Houston recorded a team-tying high 15 points (10 points in the second half), his fifth consecutive game with 10+ points and also recorded four assists. The sophomore guard has made a statement for the Cougs this season. In his game against Hawai'i last Wednesday, Houston was one assist shy of the first triple-double by a Coug since LeJuan Watts two seasons ago. It was Houston's 20th career game with 5+ assists, second this season (11/10 at DUQ)…played a season-high 34 minutes. Houston has recorded 10 offensive rebounds already this season after recording 15 offensive boards last season. Averaged 15.5 points per game on 10-2 shooting (.400%) from the field, 4-10 (.400%) from beyond the arc, 7-8 (.875%) from the free throw line, 6.5 rebounds (3.5 offensive), 6.5 assists and 2.0 steals per game in WSU's two contests this week. In WSU's second game of the season at High Point, recorded his eighth career 30+ point game with 31 points, going 9-of-13 and 5-of-8 from beyond the arc. It was the most points scored by a Coug since Ace Glass recorded 40 points against ASU on Nov. 25, 2025. It is also the most points by a Coug in a true road game since Myles Rice's 35 points at Stanford (Jan. 18, 2024). Houston's 18 points in the first half were the most by a Coug since Tómas Thrastarson (also: 18 points on Nov. 10, 2025 vs. St. Thomas). In six games, the Lincoln, Nebraska native is leading the team in minutes per game (29.0), points per game (15.2), threes (12), three-point percentage (12-22, .545), offensive rebounds (12), and assists per game (4.2). He is one assist shy of 200 assists in his career. Houston is one of two Cougs to start in all six of their games this season.

WHAT IS SHAKIN' FOR AKINS

On Nov. 14 vs. Northwest, Akins led the Cougs and tied his career-high with 27 points, going 8-12 (.667%) from the field with a season-high three made threes, went perfect from the free throw line (8-8) and a season-high five assists. Akins has recorded 3+ assists in five of the first six games played and is second on the team with 18 this season. Akins is fourth in minutes played (112 mins.) and has gone 12-14 from the free throw line. Ranked 10th in the Pac-12 with a 2.57 assist/turnover ratio (18/7).

WHAT'S KROPPIN'

Sophomore Tyler Kropp has recorded 10+ points in his three of his last four games. After zero points in his first games of the season, Kropp has recorded 10, 12, 13 and 7 points, averaging 10.5 points per game on .577% shooting (15-26) from the field in his last four contests. He is also 10-12 from the free throw line this season. Recorded a career-high 13 points against Hawai'i on November 18, going 5-9 from the field and 3-3 from the free throw line.

COUGAR BASKETBALL NOTES

HISTORY MADE IN BEASLEY:
WSU grabbed their first win of the season in a 123-87 victory over Northwest on Saturday, November 14. It was the second-most points scored by a WSU team all-time, eight points shy of the most scored in program history, January 14, 1991, in a 131-89 win over Prairie View A&M. The Cougs recorded 55 rebounds, their fifth-most in a single game and their 45 defensive boards were their most in a single-game in program history (prev: 42 vs. MVS, 11/15/2008). WSU's 45 field goals made were tied for the second-most and their .682 (45-66) field goal percentage was the third highest in a single game in program history. WSU's 69 points were the most in a half since last season at San Diego (60 points), and their most in a first half since 54 points when they hosted Southern Utah (Nov. 19, 2025). WSU's 123 points scored are the third-most by a Pac-12 team this season (135 TXST and 132 BSU).

THERE ARE TWO HALVES
In their first six games, the Cougs have outscored their opponent 222-208 (+14) by their opponents in the first half, compared to 257-261 (-4) in the second half. At the charity stripe, WSU has attempted two less free throws in the first half (46-48) and overall have had 33 fewer free throw attempts this season (121 to 154). Allowing 76.5 points per game in their first six contests. Allowed 79.8 points per game in their first five games last season.

ROAD WOES
WSU have lost their last 10 games on the road, with their last road win on Dec. 28, 2025 at Portland (67-62). Washington State went 1-11 on the road last season, one of 27 schools in the country with one or fewer road wins during the 2025-26 season.

HOME OPENERS
The Cougars are 102-24 all-time in season openers and 63-10 when opening the season at home. In their home opener at Beasley, the Cougs lost 61-76 to Davidson. It was their lowest point total in a season opener since a 56-52 win over Texas Southern on November 25, 2020. WSU dropped back-to-back home openers, losing to the University of Idaho 81-83 in 2025, snapping their 29-game winning streak in home season openers. It also snapped a 35-season winning streak in the first game of the season at Beasley.

FRIEL THE HEAT
In Coach Riley's three seasons with WSU, he is 20-11 (.645) overall at home and 11-7 overall (.611) in conference play at home. Went 9-6 overall at home last season, and 6-3 at Beasley against conference foes. In his five seasons as head coach, has a 51-17 (.750) overall record at home (31-6 at Eastern Washington). In home openers under Riley, the Cougars are now 1-2 overall. Since the start of the 2020-21 season, WSU is 69-27 at home (.719).

GET AHEAD EARLY, SUSTAIN THE LEAD, SCORE MORE POINTS
Since last season, the Cougs are 1-16 when trailing at halftime and 2-15 when outscored by their opponent in the second half. When scoring less than 70 points, WSU is 1-14 overall. Recorded an 11-7 record when recording 70+ points in 2025-26 and this season is 2-3 when doing so. The Cougs failed to record a win when trailing in the final five minutes of the game, going 0-16 in those contests. When having a lower field goal percentage than their opponent, WSU went 1-15 overall.

HARRISON AND DEMBELE NAMED TO PAC-12 IMPACT LIST, COUGS PICKED EIGHTH IN MEDIA POLL
Entering the 2026-27 season as a member of the Pac-12 conference, Washington State forwards Ronnie Harrison and Ladji Dembele were named to the Pac-12 Impact List, the conference office announced. The Cougs were also picked to finish eighth in the Pac-12 Conference Preseason Media poll ahead of the 2026-27 season.

COUGS IN EXHIBITION
Washington State played two exhibition games, both on the road. The Cougars lost 64-92 to preseason Mountain West favorites New Mexico on Oct. 18 at The Pit. WSU then faced off against former Pac-12 foe and rival University of Washington on Sunday, Oct. 25. WSU came away from Seattle with the 84-80 win, mounting a 10-point deficit in the first half. Senior, Ronnie Harrison led the team with 23 points and 11 rebounds, recording an individual 10-0 run in the second half to secure the lead. It was the first time since 2015 the Cougs have played two exhibitions before their home opener.

NEW LOOK COUGS
WSU returns just two players from the 2025-26 roster, sophomore Dio Blakely and freshman Dominik Robinson. The Cougars have 14 new players wearing the Crimson and Gray this season, 10 transfers, three Academy/Club players and one high school. Four of those transfers come from the Power Four level (Northwestern, Oregon, TCU and Wake Forest). Sophomore Dio Blakely played only six minutes of the 6,400 total minutes played by Cougs last season. None of the current players on the WSU roster made a field goal from beyond the arc for the Cougars prior to the start of the season.

CONTRACT EXTENSION
WSU announced a one-year extension to David Riley's existing contract, Tuesday, March 4, 2025. Riley's contract now runs through the 2030-31 season. Riley is five wins away from 100 career wins as a head coach (95-78).

NBA COUGS
Five former Cougs are on NBA rosters: Isaac Jones (Detroit Pistons), Klay Thompson (Miami Heat), Cedric Coward (Memphis Grizzlies), Jaylen Wells (Memphis Grizzlies) and Mouhamed Gueye (Atlanta Hawks). Cedric Coward was named to the All-Rookie First team for the 2025-26 NBA season. Coward averaged 13.6 points, 5.9 rebounds and 2.8 assists per game, finishing fifth in the Rookie of the Year voting. Coward was the second straight former Coug to be named to the All-Rookie First team (also: Jaylen Wells, 2024-25). Wells finished third in Rookie of the Year voting in 2024-25.

HEAD COACH
THIRD SEASON AT WSU
SIXTH SEASON OVERALL

AT A GLANCE

Head Coach David Riley enters his third season at WSU in 2026-27 and sixth season as a Division-I head coach. Riley was named the 20th men's basketball coach in Washington State history, April 2, 2024. In his second season with WSU, the Cougs were second in the WCC in 3-point field goals made (303) and 3-point field goal percentage (.369). Helped guide freshman Ace Glass rank fourth in the conference in scoring (16.4 ppg) and sixth in total points (525). The Cougars finished 12-20 overal and 7-11 in conference during the 2025-26 season. Riley began his Cougar career with a 19-15 first-season record and postseason berth to the College Basketball Crown.

Over five seasons as a Division-I head coach, Riley has amassed a 93-73 record with two conference titles and three postseason appearances. Riley was named the back-to-back Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year prior to his arrival on the Palouse. In his first season at WSU, Riley guided the Cougar program to a fourth-consecutive postseason berth, setting school records with 968 field goals made and 574 assists in his free-flowing offensive scheme. Riley's Cougs scored 2,683 points – the second-most points by a Cougar men's team in a single season in program history. In the 2025 NBA Draft, WSU's Cedric Coward was selected as the No. 11 overall pick, going in the first round as the highest Cougar NBA selection since Klay Thompson was drafted 11th in 2011.

Riley spent 13 years in Cheney, Washington, beginning as a graduate assistant, eventually being promoted to the role of head coach in 2021 after 10 seasons as an assistant in the program. During his time at EWU, the Eagles achieved unprecedented success, earning two trips to the NCAA Tournament and earning five Big Sky Conference MVP honors. As a player, Riley was a four-year starter and feared shooter at D-III Whitworth University in Spokane. He was born in Seattle and grew up on Stanford University's campus in California. He graduated from Whitworth in 2011 with a degree in mathematical economics, then earned a master's degree in physical education (sport administration) from Eastern in 2013.

FRIEL COURT AT BEASLEY COLISEUM

OPENED DECEMBER 1973

CAPACITY 11,671

The Washington State men's basketball team enters its 54th-consecutive season playing at Friel Court inside Beasley Coliseum. WSU won its 300th game all-time at the venerable facility Feb. 18, 2012 when the Cougars defeated Arizona State and its 350th game Nov. 18, 2017 with a victory over Idaho State. WSU's most recent milestone came with its 400th win at Friel Court, March 15, 2022, a 63-50 victory over Santa Clara in the National Invitation Tournament.

The Cougars first moved to Friel Court Dec. 1, 1973, and christened their new home with an 80-78 victory over LSU in front of 9,000 fans.

WSU has earned a postseason berth 15 times while calling Friel Court home. The 1979-80 season marked the first occasion as the Cougars advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 1940-41 team finished as the national runner-up.

During the 2010-11 season, the Cougars hosted, and won, three NIT games at Beasley Coliseum, advancing to the NIT Semifinals in New York for the first time in school history, while winning a program-best three postseason games.

In 2025-26, Wazzu boasted a 9-6 record at Beasley Coliseum, going 6-3 at home in conference play in their second season of WCC action. In 2024-25, Wazzu boasted a 10-4 record at Beasley Coliseum, going unbeaten in nonconference play with a perfect 5-0 record. In the first season of WCC action, the Cougars finished 5-4 at home.

Friel Court has been the site of NCAA Tournament First and Second Round games (1975, 1982 and 1985). In fact, Friel Court was the first stop on UCLA's 1975 NCAA title run, the 10th and final championship for head coach John Wooden. The Bruins needed overtime to defeat Michigan 103-91.

The arena, which currently seats 11,671 for basketball, was formally dedicated in honor of longtime Washington State Head Coach Jack Friel, who directed the Cougars to the 1941 NCAA title game. In the spring of 1981, the coliseum was named in honor of past Washington State Vice President Wallis Beasley. Prior to the 2007-08 season, the court got a new look after being newly refurbished and painted. Prior to the 2011-12 season, the center-hung scoreboard was added to the coliseum, enhancing the fan experience at basketball games. Also at that time, the floor was refurbished again as part of WSU's rebranding initiative. The Cougars gave Friel Court a fresh look again in 2019-20, when the floor was refinished with Gray paint highlighting the Crimson Coug Head at center court.

WSU AND COLVILLE TRIBES ANNOUNCE HISTORIC PARTNERSHIP

JUNE 30, 2026

PULLMAN, Wash. - Washington State University Athletics and the Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation announced a historic new partnership grounded in shared values of community, culture, and a commitment to developing future generations of leaders.

Under the five-year agreement, the largest annual sponsorship in WSU Athletics history, all Cougar uniforms will feature a Colville Tribe jersey patch. The initiative represents one of the most comprehensive uniform recognitions in college athletics and a first of its kind within the Pac-12.

"At the heart of this partnership is a shared belief in investing in young people, helping them become exceptional students, future leaders, and ultimately bringing them back home to strengthen the communities they love," said WSU President Betsy Cantwell. "That alignment of values is what made the Colville Tribes the right partner for this historic opportunity."

The partnership brings the 12 Tribes of the Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation, who have lived since time immemorial in the lands known today as eastern Washington, together with the state's land-grant university. It builds on a longstanding relationship first formalized in 1997 and rooted in more than a century of shared commitment to this region's diverse and evolving needs.

The Chairman of the Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation, Jarred-Michael Erickson, said, "The Colville Tribes has partnered with WSU for decades now on a variety of topics related to education and culture. We are pleased to continue our partnership with this new and historic involvement in WSU's athletic program. Athletics instill character, and that is an important quality for Colville. There are multiple aspects to this deal, but I am sure our membership will especially enjoy seeing a Colville Tribes patch on WSU jerseys. Go Cougs!"

The $8.43 million agreement includes a $250,000 donation to the Cougar Athletic Excellence Fund in year one. It extends beyond sporting competition to include youth clinics in tribal communities, regional basketball development opportunities, and an AAU tribal tournament. A dedicated video series will highlight the connections between WSU student-athletes and tribal youth, creating greater visibility and shared understanding.

Additional elements include Colville Tribes entitlement games across multiple sports, special Nike N7 games for men's and women's basketball, and prominent integration across WSU Athletics platforms and game-day experiences.

"This is a historic partnership rooted in Eastern Washington," said WSU Vice President and Director of Athletics Jon Haarlow. "It brings together two tradition-rich communities as we chart an exciting new path forward as leaders in the Pacific Northwest and the new Pac-12."

This deal was brokered in collaboration with Playfly Sports, the sports industry's leading revenue maximization company. Playfly serves as WSU's multimedia rights partner.
