For The One I Love

When I found you, my heart knew it was home,
I hope you know that the life we've built together means more to me than anything in the world, and as the years go by it is with JOY that I grow old with you.

"Name the Day of Marriage and God gave thee Joy"

(William Shakespeare)

If I searched every language in the world, I don't believe I could find a way to tell you how much you mean to me and how very happy I am with you, so when I say "I love you," I can only hope you'll know just how much. Love holds fast through hard times, and endures the test of time, and overshadows it into the eternity.
