ITEM	NOTES
Successes / News / Updates	Recent news: • Myla back on deck for the last few weeks both Mon and Tuesday mornings. Doing morning greetings, some class visits, a reading group and some assistance for kids who are having a bad day. • I have completed my PD for the year - Mental Health First Aid course and the Resilient Kids Conference. • Craft Connection Evening - was a big success but lower numbers than I had thought – ended up just over 80. I shall look at making the booking system easier and setting a limit of 100 for next year. And make it just $20 per child and adult free and also allow for up to 2 kids with an adult. This covers up to 3 craft activities per child and supper for all. Will have some different options for next year- eg. paint a calico bag, wood model making, paint a jewellery box/ birdhouse, glitter picture etc. I did not quite cover costs but I have items able to be used for another event- so ok. • Feedback from the event: 95% rated event 5/5 - comments such as : really enjoyed the activities and supper / fabulous evening/ loved everything/ should be more nights like this. One person rated 4/5 – wanted crafts the kids could do independently (however - this was not my goal). Several mentioned earlier start time. Few mentioned easier booking system – and wanted more than one child. • Fete : Sold a few more of the ceramic pieces left from the craft night.
Current Activities / Current Needs	• Subway fundraiser will be Tuesday 20th June

Future Plans / Project Submissions	Myla Bag Tags now available – only sold a few at the fete but available at the uniform shop and when we celebrate Chappy week in Oct I might do a Bag Tag Stall at the turning circle as a promotion with Myla there to do greeting / thanks! (will coincide with mental health week!) • I will just need 1-2 helpers to handle money/ eftpos machine and get names written with Sharpie on the bag tag immediately (can get eftpos machine again from SU) • Also hand out Colouring in competition sheets of me and Myla see attached. Prize bag tag/ or other option for the best from each grade. And a special Myla visit to the class who has the best involvement in the competition.
