OLIVE

This desk is a special piece in that there is a strong element of authenticity. The sourced wood is a beautiful seasoned old growth rich olive, typical of the Tuscan region where it came from. The artisan who made it, Furio Maielli, is a celebrated carpenter from the coastal area otherwise known as Alta Maremma. We collaborated on the design and making of this solid wood indoor/outdoor piece of flat-pack piece of furniture and foldaway chair, taking in account age-old traditional furniture and carpentry techniques for the Rinascimento: in other words, this entirely handcrafted piece, with its modern lines, is in affect something that could have been made over 500 years ago. Solid iron hinges allow for the folding of the legs in order to facilitate storage, and they were hand forged by a blacksmith in the hills of Bolgheri.
