

Helpful Hints for a Worry-Free move.

We're in this together. Do your part by following these helpful hints in order to guarantee a worry free move for the both of us.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Coordinate your move. Give your mover plenty of notice to ensure you get the date and time desired. If possible, arrange occupancy dates in your new residence to avoid storage or delays.
- Unless otherwise arranged with movers, All goods should be packed and ready on moving day. NO BOXES SMALLER THAN 1.5 CU.FT.
- Should you be moving in or out of an apartment, it is the customer's responsibility to book the elevator. (Keep in mind that loading time is longer than unloading time.)
- If there are parking (loading/unloading) restrictions at either location, notify your mover upon booking.
- Prepare floor plan of new premises to speed up unloading at destination.
- By putting all your boxes in a room close to the loading area, you can speed up moving time. However, your furniture should be left where it is for packing (truck) reasons.
- Send out furniture for cleaning, repairing or refinishing.
- Valuable grandfather clocks should be prepared for shipping by a jeweler.
- Contact your service company for disconnection of appliances and electrical fixtures.
- Arrange for personal transportation and food on moving day.
- Set aside all items you will need until the last minute (bedding, dishes, clothing, etc.).
- Label cartons you will need upon arrival.
- Attach "DO NOT MOVE" tags to articles you intend to leave behind or move yourself.
- It is the home-owners responsibility to provide mattress bags and any other protective coverings.
- Empty fuel from lawnmower, power tools, kerosene lamps and barbecue. Do not take paints, bleach, lighter fluids, matches, ammunition or any type of combustible products.
- Movers cannot transport flammable materials, livestock (birds, fish) or motorized vehicles.
- It is a good idea to have children occupied on moving day.
- Movers can transport plants at owner's risk.
- Should it be required, beds and mirrors on dressers can be dismantled by movers.
- Freezer has to be unpacked so as not to rip the lining.
- Tie mops, curtain rods and broom handles together.
- Double check your home for forgotten items BEFORE the movers leave.
- Do not forget to turn off lights, check furnace and windows.
- When unpacking, spread paper out on table and then roll it up (this way, small articles will not be lost).
- Recycle paper and moving boxes.
- Please note that movers are not responsible for taking away your boxes unless said boxes can be emptied and folded before the end of the move.
