

J B Cole - Junior frontend web designer in Cheshire / South Manchester

We are currently seeking a junior front-end web designer with front-end development experience to join the ranks in our ever-growing agency and head up the Manchester office.

You'll be working as part of our experienced digital team across the country and will be responsible for wireframing, designing and building the front-end for our respected client websites and our own internal business / operating systems.

We are looking for someone who has at least 1 year experience, ideally in an agency environment and an academic qualification in a related field would be ideal, but not essential.

We require a hard working individual to join our team who is self-motivated and can manage their own time efficiently. You must be used to working within a project team and also have experience with remote working, with the following experience:

- Experience with adobe software such as Photoshop, Illustrator etc.
- Experience with UX and frontend website architecture
- Experience in coding with HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript or Bootstrap

You will have excellent people skills and be capable of working directly with clients, able to work within a team and alone. You will have the ability to work to deadlines and produce high quality designs and clean front-end code.

Additional perks:

Built with family at the heart, we truly care for the people who make our company and vision a reality. We understand that life in work - or out of work - is not always easy and so we have a few perks to help make those stressful days a little easier.

In addition to competitive salaries and 20 days holiday per year minimum, we also give each member of staff the following benefits:*

- Support from our team on personal charitable projects
- Flexible working
- An extra holiday day for each year you work with us
- Development and training days and courses
- Regular team socials, lunches, industry meets and our event nights out
- A great team to support you, keep you laughing and inspire you
- The opportunity to create and adapt your role to fit you
- Private healthcare benefits after 2 years
