GROCERY SAVINGS

WALKING into our most popular supermarket chains has just become even more fun than ever.

Being able to save on your weekly shop is always a big boost for your bank balance and your morale.

As a signed up member of the Read & Save Club, that is exactly what you will be able to do.

No more arguing over whose turn it is to do the shopping, it's something the whole family will want to get in on – going into your regular supermarket and taking advantage of the best bargains made even better thanks to Read & Save.

Whether you are looking to stock up your freezer on top quality frozen items - everything from vegetables, fish and meats through to entire frozen meals - you have it covered.

With savings varying from four, five and seven per cent shopping just became a lot more exciting every day.

As a member of Read & Save you can take full advantage of the delicious food and ingredients, all at fantastic affordable prices.

Why not get more for your regular shop and save a fantastic seven per cent when ordering a minimum of £5 and up to a maximum of £780?

And with the savings you have made on food, it means if you are in the mood for a relaxing evening in front of the television you can easily afford that favourite bottle of wine or stock up on great beers - at even cheaper prices.

Foods we have been putting in our baskets this year:

1. Date nectar and maple syrup: These are naturally sweet foods
2. Pre-chopped frozen fruit – helped by the juicing trend
3. Almond milk and coconut products especially coconut oil – recommended by self-claimed health experts
4. Avocados - on their own, spread on toast or part of a full-on recipe, Britain has completely embraced them
5. Smoked food - everything from meats, vegetables and fish

FASHION SAVVY

EVERYONE wants to look their best - and to be kitted out for less.

Well, thanks to the fantastic deals on offer through CN Group's exclusive Read & Save club, it is impossible to be outshone by anyone – and you will not believe the amount of cash you will still have to spare.

The savings to be made start from the top of your fashion conscious head right down to your well-heeled toes.

Whether you are looking for that perfect pair of strappy high heels to a pop of colour in the form of a sparkling evening scarf, there are offers to cover it all.

As a member of our Read & Save Club you can enjoy the savings at a string of fashion and department stores - the biggest names on the high street among them, including Debenhans and House of Fraser.

Order a minimum of £5 and up to a maximum of £230 on gift cards and save some impressive figures..

Indulge your taste in everything from full outfits to handbags and accessories from classic jewellery to fun and funky costume pieces which are just perfect for anyone planning a bit of a knees up.

Experience a breathtaking reduction while using a reloadable gift card at named jewellery shops.

And the bargains are not just for the adults. Savings mean you'll really be able to make sure your children are dressed to impress too.

Fashion trends on the spring 2016 fashion week runways:

1. 1970s inspired suede – there was no shortage of suede pieces sent down the runway, one of the decade's much-loved fabrics.
2. Victorian everything – ruffles, puffy sleeves, high-collar necklines, and loads of flowers.
3. White shirt redux – nothing to do with the basic white button down for spring. This season the classic oxford received a designer makeover, taking it from simple to souped-up.
4. The flat mule – comfortable shoes are still trending thanks to many big brands.
5. Spanish influences – Designers including Oscar de la Renta incorporated hints of Spanish culture into their collections with bold red hues.

SAVE ON HOME & DIY

WHY depend on others when you can do it for yourself?

The benefits of rolling your sleeves up and getting stuck in to a bit of DIY are numerous.

And now you can do it for less with our Read & Save discounts - a new scheme which brings subscribers a wealth of offers and money-off vouchers from hundreds of high street names.

So it's a great time to start some home improvements and enjoy some great savings.

From the satisfaction of not having to dig deep into your pockets to pay a tradesman to the overwhelming sense of satisfaction of looking back on a job well done, you've never had a better reason to pull on those overalls and dust off that screwdriver.

We've all always wanted to be our own boss - so why not start at home.

You can be the one to do the research, to plan ahead, to decide how things should be done and to what budget - and then work at your own pace to get the end product you've always wanted.

As well as the boost to your bank balance and the increased sense of personal wellbeing that becoming a DIYer can have, the transferable skills picked up along the way will stand you in good stead to do whatever job you turn your hand to.

And it needn't be anything as ambitious as a new kitchen or a loft conversion first time around. Start small with a shelf or two, perhaps a little decoration, then who knows where this new string to your bow can lead?

You will find everything you need to realise your plans from the wide-range of exclusive offers now open to our subscribers on thousands of products.

Every wallpaper you can imagine, all the latest paint colours and, of course, the wide range of tools needed for the job are all now available to you at reduced cost, simply by subscribing to CN Group's newspapers.
