- Drama and stage movement
- Ear-training and musicianship
- Part singing and choral techniques
- Use of props, costumes & make up
- Daily yoga, stretch, and movement exercises

The camp will culminate in an evening performance before an audience of friends and family at 7:00pm, Friday, July 28.

A typical daily schedule:

9:00-9:30am	Singing fundamentals
9:30-10:00am	Musicianship
10:00-10:45am	Chorus preparation
10:45-11:30am	Art & stagecraft
11:30-12:15pm	Lunch break
12:15-1:00pm	Vocal coaching
1:00-2:00pm	Staging & movement,
	scene blocking
2:00-2:20pm	Snack & recreation
2:20-3:00pm	Review music & staging

Afternoon snack & drink provided. Please bring sack lunch. Refrigeration available.

There will be a five minute Parent Orientation on Day one of camp.

Campers must be present the entire duration of the camp.

If a child's needs are severe, we will require a parent to stay with the student throughout the day.

The Instructional Staff

Marissa Bloom Camp Director

Marissa returns to our camp for her tenth year. Marissa, an Atascadero native, holds a B.M. from University of Southern California, and an M.M. from West Virginia University. She has extensive experience with both opera and stage direction and is also a certified yoga instructor. Currently, Marissa runs a vocal studio in Atascadero where she shares her love of music with students of all ages.

Kimberly Gutierrez Camp Assistant

Kimberly returns to our camp for her fourth year. She grew up on the Central Coast but went to college in San Diego to become a teacher. She is currently a Special Education teacher at an elementary school here on the Central Coast. She loves working with kids!

Alan Boehmer Music Director

Alan is a Los Osos based piano teacher who has worked with OperaSLO since the first opera camp in 1998, both as accompanist and music director. He is a published author and composer whose choral works have been performed internationally. His Mass for the Children of the World was chosen for the repertoire of the UNESCO Children's Chorus. Alan is a founding member of the California Association of Professional Music Teachers.

Paul Woodring

Accompanist and Assistant Music Director

Paul has worked with OperaSLO since 1996 as both répétiteur for opera productions and as the accompanist for Opera Camp. He is the music director of Mt. Carmel Lutheran Church and San Luis Obispo Methodist Church. He is Cal Poly's University organist, performing frequently on the Forbes Pipe Organ and accompanying for the Cal Poly Music Department.
