Remembered at Mass

We stand together in the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection. The following will be remembered in the Eucharistic Prayer: Brian Travis, Dana Tyrell, Peter Abeles, and Earl Carvatt.

Deceased: Brian Travis, nephew of Eileen McCabe, Dana Tyrrell, cousin of Phyllis Baker, Peter Abeles, father of Dave Abeles, and Earl Carvatt, friend of Charles Fortenbacker. May they find peace and comfort in the embrace of the Lord and may their families find strength in the Lord & comfort & support from family & friends.

LENT, RECONCILIATION AND THE EASTER TRIDUUM

Ash Wednesday is upon us! Tradition has us thinking about what we will “do” for Lent. Traditionally we think in terms of “giving up” something: TV, food of some sort, cigarettes, wine, cursing, etc. To break a habit is difficult especially to make and keep the sacrifice for the entire season of Lent. Rising above the difficulty is what brings us closer to God if we recall the temptations of Satan that Jesus had to overcome during his time in the desert. This year instead of or in addition to “giving up”, think about “doing” something which can be equally as challenging. We have heard these suggestions before: extend a random act of kindness daily; be vocal in thanks and appreciation of our classmates, co-workers, family and others; sign up for “Best Lent Ever” at www.dynamiccatholic.com, and more.

Another possibility is to think about participating in the parish-oriented Lenten activities that are listed in the bulletin, in particular attending the Community Reconciliation Service and actually making a confession. Wow! That’s really a hard one! A family member who had been away from the church for a very long time decided he needed to return to full participation. He entered the Confessional, blessed himself, and told the priest to “hang on; it’s going to be a bumpy ride”. It was worth his effort and he has been very active in his parish for more than a decade now.

Personally, I had been away from confession for some time and decided to end that drought in my life. Why? Because each time I left a Community Reconciliation Service I felt incomplete. But, my justification was always that while I might take the Lord’s name in vain or occasionally miss Mass, I haven’t killed anyone or cheated on my husband. None of the biggies. Finally, though, I gave into the nagging whisper. Believe me, my mouth was dry and my palms were wet as I entered the Reconciliation Room, but I lived and felt refreshed when I left.

Fr. Abraham is a kind Confessor and has helped me. At the Advent service, he had a visiting priest assist with confessions so that parishioners who were uncomfortable seeing him could go to a stranger who doesn’t know their name. So, think about it.

Regardless of your decision, though, I highly recommend participating in the Easter Triduum, the 3 days before Easter Sunday: Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday (the Easter Vigil Mass). At St. John Neumann we commemorate the Triduum with the beautiful Mass of the Lord’s Supper on the evening of Holy Thursday, continue on Good Friday with the Living Stations of the Cross in the afternoon and a solemn service with Holy Communion in the evening, and conclude with the Easter Vigil on the evening of Holy Saturday when the parched darkness of Lent ends with the blessings of fire and water as we celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord and again sing “Gloria” and “Alleluia”.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

February 7, 2016

“Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, ‘Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?’ ‘Here I am,’ I said, ‘send me!’” (ISAIAH 6:8)

Every day – in little ways and in big ways – God asks, “Whom shall I send?” Whether it is someone to take on a new ministry or just someone to open a door for a stranger, God constantly provides doors of opportunity. The next time you hear God calling, have the courage to walk through the door and say “Here I am, Lord.”

LENT FAITH GROUPS START THIS WEEK!

Call France if you have not picked up your book or don’t know when your group meets 908-307-7879.

HUNGERING FOR THE JOURNEY

"A little bit of mercy makes the world less cold and more just."
Pope Francis

Join our parish community—and nearly 14,000 Catholic communities across the United States—in a life-changing Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl. Throughout Lent we will pray, fast, learn and give as a way to reach out in solidarity with our brothers and sisters around the world. Rice Bowl packets will be available in the Narthex and will be distributed at all catechetical gatherings this weekend. Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

2016 SOUPER BOWL OF CARING WEEKEND

February 6 & 7

MORE THAN 25 YEARS AGO, the Souper Bowl of Caring began with a simple prayer from a single youth group:

"Lord, even as we enjoy the Super Bowl football game, help us to be mindful of those without even a bowl of soup to eat."

Since that day, more than $110 million has been raised for local charities across the country through Souper Bowl of Caring. It has become a powerful movement that is transforming the time around Super Bowl weekend into the nation's largest celebration of giving and serving. Be part of this movement that is sharing God's love with those in need. Please give generously on Super Bowl Weekend as you leave Mass. Our youth will greet you in the Narthex to collect your $ donations and cans of soup. This year we are collecting money for a food-related service project and St. John's Social Ministry holiday food baskets. A local food pantry will receive the cans of soup collected.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS DIOCESAN SPELLING BEE

The students in the eighth grade religious education program will participate in the annual Metuchen Diocesan Spelling Bee, sponsored by the St. Joseph Council, Knights of Columbus. The event will begin at 5:30PM on Sunday February 21 in the Church Center. Pizza and refreshments will be served after the spelling bee.

Social Ministry

SHIP'S GALLEY SOUP KITCHEN

Our next service to the SHIP's Galley Soup Kitchen will be this Monday, February 8. We have enough volunteers to serve but are in need of casseroles and other food items. Please contact Anne Germino if you can assist at socialministry@ccsjn.org or call the office. Thank you.

SOCIAL MINISTRY

On February 7 we will begin our Easter food collection of grocery items. You, as Community were extremely generous during the Thanksgiving and Christmas food drives and we greatly appreciate it as do the clients we serve. Please continue this generosity through Easter. We also want to thank all of the wonderful volunteers who participated in these events.

We have collected $354 in our Change for Change program, which we will continue after the Easter Season since we would like to see full participation in The Rice Bowl Project run by Religious Education. We believe that running both of these programs at the same time is asking too much of The Community.

Please pray for the needy that we serve and for us in Social Ministry so that we may follow the direction of the Holy Spirit.

LENTEN INSTRUCTIONS – 2016

Lent allows each of us to let our Catholic tradition of fasting and abstaining be an important reminder of what it means to suffer or to be without. This liturgical season is a blessed opportunity for us to unite with our brothers and sisters who are hungry, poor, homeless, or living on the fringes of society and to draw near to all those who suffer from illness, affliction, addiction or other serious burden. The following is a reminder of the Lenten instructions to use as a guide as we unite with those who suffer, near and far.

So that the Church of Metuchen may be spiritually one in a common observance of Lent, the following days of fast and abstinence are to be observed by all Catholics of the Diocese who enjoy the blessings of good health.

1. The days of fast and abstinence are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
2. All other Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence.
3. From the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday until the celebration of the Easter Vigil on the evening of Holy Saturday, the Easter fast is suggested so that, with uplifted and welcoming hearts, we may be ready to celebrate the joys of the Resurrection. This ancient tradition, intimately connected with the Rites of Holy Week and the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, is encouraged, especially in those places baptizing catechumens at the Easter Vigil.

The obligation to fast applies only to Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59. To fast in the Catholic tradition means to limit oneself to one full meal during the day so as to experience hunger.

The obligation of abstinence affects all Catholics who have reached the age of 14. Abstinence in the Catholic tradition means to abstain from meat.

The obligation of fast and abstinence, as a whole, is a serious obligation. While failure to observe any penitential day in itself may not be considered serious, the failure to observe any penitential days at all, or a substantial number of them without good cause, would be considered a grave matter. Those unable to abstain for a valid reason on any given Friday of Lent are asked to perform some other penitential act, or to abstain on another day.

My faithful brothers and sisters, in our fasting and abstaining this Lent, I pray that we each may choose to embrace this small suffering rather than accept it with misery or complaint. For, if we are joyful in our Lenten observances, we will be granted an opportunity to more fully understand the true sacrifice that Jesus Christ made for all humanity by accepting death on the cross in order to gain our eternal salvation.

SUNDAY REFLECTION: Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time

"Put out into the deep water and lower your nets for a catch."

ROMAN LECTIONARY: Luke 5: 1-11

And while [Jesus] was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white.

COMMON LECTIONARY: Luke 9: 28-36 (37-43a)

Think big - but act small . . .

The newspaper comic strip Dilbert is cartoonist Scott Adams' take on the absurdities of the work place.

In a recent episode, the slow-witted, incompetent, "pointy-haired" boss is trying - unsuccessfully - to give a pep talk to his cynical engineers:

"I want you to think like entrepreneurs," the boss coaches.

"Should we take huge risks?" the engineers ask.

"No, the stockholders would hate that," the boss responds.

"Should we act as though we have no boss?" one engineer suggests.

"No," the boss warns, "that would be chaos."

"Will we become billionaires if we succeed?" the engineers want to know.

The boss shakes his head. "Raises are capped at 3% this year."

Trying to regroup, the boss says, "I'm just saying you should be more creative."

"And then we should act?" the engineers counter.

"No," the boss warns. "That's when the problems happen."

[Dilbert, August 30, 2015.]

We often operate that way: thinking big, but acting small - if we act at all. Following the conventional wisdom, we avoid the "deep water": we recoil at the thought that we might be capable of doing something great or even something different. But only by risking our nets in the unknown "deep water" can we transform our lives and our world in the Gospel values of compassion, justice and reconciliation. The "deep water" is the risking of our own security and comfort and the putting aside of our discouragement and exhaustion, continuing to "fish" despite the ridicule and doubts of those discouraged souls who have returned to shore. Confident of God's grace and wisdom, we can transform our own Gennesarets by setting our small boats and fishing nets - despite the long night already - to the work of bringing in the "catch" of God's forgiveness and peace.

A STEWARDSHIP OPPORTUNITY

This last weekend took us by surprise. Although we were expecting snow, it's doubtful anyone expected as much as we got. We are putting together a list of names and phone numbers of some who would be able to help out when we get these big snow storms in the future. We have someone to plow the parking lot of the Church and the driveway of the Residence. That still leaves a lot of area for one person to cover, the sidewalks, front plaza and clearing the doorways of the Church as well as a path into the Neumann Residence. It would help to have a list of people we can call on during or just in advance of bad weather to help to clear these areas for Masses and other functions. Please contact the office if you can help with this. 908-832-2513.

AUCTION

Time to start thinking of a theme and begin the preparations. Won't you consider co-chairing or chairing this year's Auction to be held on the first Saturday in June. You will not be left alone to figure it out, there are many people who are involved every year in the background who will continue to help with the preparations. It's not just work, it can be a lot of fun too.

We will need to decide on the 5 prizes for the Fab Five Raffle so we can get license approved and order the tickets. There have been some themes suggested in the past that still haven't been used. Please contact the office if you are even thinking about it. We will be happy to answer all of your questions.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR A WORKING TV SCREEN/MONITOR

If you got yourself a new television to enjoy the super bowl this year and are looking for a home for the one you replaced. Consider donating it to St. Johns. We are looking for a screen that we can set up in the Narthex with information to help keep us informed of the goings on here. Call the office if you have one or know of one.

A THANK YOU LETTER

As the Director of Ministry at Dynamic Catholic, I wanted to personally thank you for giving away books at your parish this Christmas. Your generosity is an inspiration to all of us.

We are blessed to have an on-site Chapel where we have daily Mass. Our Chaplain, Fr. Bob Sherry and our whole team will be offering a Mass on February 2nd for you and your parish.

Matthew Kelly often reminds us that we will only ever see less than 1% of the impact of our generosity. It lives on in other people, in other places, and in other times. Thanks for the opportunity to partner with you in making a difference in the lives of so many in your parish community.

*God Bless,
Mark Moore*
