

Job Details:

Role: Cleaning Technician

Location: Brisbane/Gold Coast

Hours: Varies with general start time of 6am with a couple of days (Wed & Fri) split shift from 5pm start. Approximate 28hrs a week on offer.

Hourly Rate: $23.08 plus shift allowance, penalties, super and company car

Duration: Monday to Friday with occasional Saturdays

Work type: Casual ongoing

About the job:

You will be required to clean commercial business/offices.

This job requires someone who knows how to achieve client expectations with the ability to complete each task at a high standard in a safe, efficient and exceptional manner within expected timeframes.

You must be physically fit as the work shall be carried out over two levels and offices are widely spread.

You will be working in a team environment as well as individually. As there is local travel you must have a good sound knowledge of Brisbane & Gold Coast areas.

Our equipment and material are top of the range and of top quality. Everything you will need to get to work will be provided along with a company car plus fuel card.

The successful person must have exceptional attention to detail, hard working and strives to go that extra mile to deliver above and beyond. We are interested in people with the right attitude, cheerful personality and skill-set who will fit well within our team culture and environment.

Requirements:

- Physically fit
- Reliable and flexible
- Excellent customer service
- Professional presentation
- Attention to detail a must
- Well spoken and excellent communicator
- Team player
- Honest and loyal
- Current 5 year traffic infringement report
- Open car license and competent manual driver
- Passionate about your own work and delivering customer satisfaction
- Current Police Clearance

- Current relevant work references only

We are a fresh new company looking to expand so there will be opportunities for progression in all areas for the right person.

We have new contracts starting all the time so more opportunity for more work will be available if interested.

If you think you have all the attributes plus more please submit your resume to cqcleaners@outlook.com.au

Please note: Given the volume of applications, only successful applicants will be contacted.