

HOW DOES YOUR CHILD SEE THE WORLD?

www.planovision.org

From the Parent

"Before my son, Donte began visual therapy, I would spend all evening helping him with his homework and his grades were still not consistent. After repeated visits to his school, the principal and his teacher suggested that he be tested for placement in a special education class. I put him in a tutoring class, which did not help. I prayed and the Lord directed me to Plano. Dr. Stephanie tested my son and based on her exam, told me exactly what Donte was doing before I told her. It was such a blessing for me to find someone who understood my problem. Donte completed his therapy 4 years ago and is now an honor student. I give the Glory to God, and thank you. God Bless You."

Patricia Buchanan

Donte's Story!

To the right is a story which was copied by Donte who was age 7 at the time.

The first story was done before he began vision therapy. In the beginning, it took him two hours and forty-five minutes to complete the assignment. The second assignment was copied, after only three months of vision therapy. It took him twenty-two minutes to complete it.

DONTE'S HANDWRITING SAMPLE BEFORE VISION THERAPY

There once was a turkey named Goo who thought he was born on the moon but later he fell with out a rocket when he got to earth he fell in a hole and he couldn't get out so he had to wait for the air he would be able to fly with
and he had to wait
for the air he would
be able to fly with
and he had to wait
for the air he would
be able to fly with that was all + he was still

DONTE'S HANDWRITING SAMPLE AFTER VISION THERAPY

There once was a turkey named Goo who thought he was born on the moon.
He'd float in the air without ever a care from evening until about noon.
Then quickly he'd land on the ground without even making a sound.
His thin legs would wobble and he'd get out a gobble for the air he would leave with a pound.
But then one NINE in her he blew the game to earth before he knew it. And the fat leathered beast was the thanksgiving feast and that was all there was to it!