

All for you

I sit and think how to write the perfect song for you
And how I wish I never wronged you
And in the midst of it all, I just wanted to get along with you
That's why I do it all for you

I sit and think how to write the perfect song for you
And how I wish I never wronged you
And in the midst of it all, I just wanted to get along with you
That's why I do it all for you

Dear Mama, I been wondering, do you love me like you say you did, ever since I was a kid
I was caught up in some shit
I was different, never fit in, always lying who you trying, been aggressive, ever since dad left us, it ain't been the same Love you for all that you do Did the best with all that you knew I was cheating, I was stealing, never snitching never squealing Fast track road to a prison, or the grave I was digging
You stayed strong, you stay patience, all the while I was hating
I was hurt, I was lost, so selfish, I couldn't help it
It was me against the world, it was me against my world

Too young to have perspective, I was focused in one direction

Had the nerve to buy a weapon

I'm so thankful for my transgressions

That night I learned my lesson

I know I had you stressing

Feeling you lost a son

Now look at what your boy has done

Dear Mama!

I sit and think how to write the perfect song for you

And how I wish I never wronged you

And in the midst of it all, I just wanted to get along with you

That's why I do it all for you

I sit and think how to write the perfect song for you

And how I wish I never wronged you

And in the midst of it all, I just wanted to get along with you

That's why I do it all for you

I am the man I am because of you

I swam because of you

Went to school, became a fool, graduated

because of you

I'm strong because of you, made songs

because of you

I worship the thought of you, you my goddess, so powerful

I'm a boss because of you, in this world
because of you
My girl looks just like you, hope my son favors you too Educate the young because of you, get my mouth because you Hard-working and dedicated, that's why I'm so motivated
I hustle because of you, I'm so focused
because of you
Got through the pain and struggle and made it safely I love you I'm successful because of you, not reckless because of you Never once doubted my talents, who knew I make it up out it but you!
And I'm still never satisfied, almost lost it when my daddy died
But you keep me humble and grounded Can't pay you back with these verses But I'm gone keep putting work in
Dear Mama!

I sit and think how to write the perfect song for you
And how I wish I never wronged you
And in the midst of it all, I just wanted to get along with you
That's why I do it all for you

I sit and think how to write the perfect song for you

And how I wish I never wronged you

And in the midst of it all, I just wanted to get along with you

That's why I do it all for you
