FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ELECTRONICS VALLEY organized the “8th Aviation and Avionics Systems Seminar & B2B Meetings” in Ankara, Turkey

CHICAGO, IL, USA - Nov 14, 2016 - ELECTRONICS VALLEY Inc. proudly presented the “8th Aviation and Avionics Systems Seminar & B2B Meetings” in Ankara, Turkey on the 25th and 26th days of October, 2016. Having been held at the Crowne Plaza Hotel Ankara, the event was visited by 400+ aerospace and defense industry professionals from local and international organizations, companies and research institutes. In addition to the Main Sponsor, Turkish Aerospace Industries Inc. (TAI), and the Main Supporter, ASELSAN Inc, the AFCEA Turkiye Chapter also invested great effort in the organization of this event which was also sponsored by 20 industry leading companies.

The seminar event featured B2B Meetings, a technology exhibition and presentation sessions. The presentation sessions included 6 technical workshops, 18 presentations and 1 advanced short course. The aviation professionals, aerospace engineers, defense community officials and other high technology enthusiasts benefited greatly by attending this unique event. The attendees were also introduced to the most recent top-notch technologies demonstrated by 15 different manufacturers exhibited during the event. A huge collection of documentation was also provided for distribution on the Literature Desk.

The Grand Keynote was conducted by the world-wide known aviation standards and certification expert, Mr. Vance HILDERMAN (CEO, AFuzion). Followed by a huge avid crowd, Mr. HILDERMAN discussed the “Top Worldwide Aerospace Trends for 2017”. The seminar also featured the keynote by Mr. Ali TELLI (Project Manager, HAVELSAN) who presented the “HAVELSAT: 2U CUBE SATELLITE”, and the special R&D Session by Prof. Dr. Serhat CAKIR who presented the “Plasma Thrusters”.

Being a unique platform where aviation, aerospace and defense industry professionals share ideas, network, communicate, develop business, and educate themselves, ELECTRONICS VALLEY will continue to host similar events in up-coming years including 2017.
