

~ 2015 Miss Denver Fair ~

This year's Miss Denver Fair will be crowned Tuesday, September 15 on the stage in the Denver Memorial Park at 7:30 p.m. Please come to our fairgrounds and see who will be Miss Denver Fair 2015. Best wishes to these candidates from the Denver Fair Committee.

Maya Bingaman

Maya Bingaman • Maya is the busy 17-year-old daughter of Robert and Jodi Bingaman from Stevens. She is currently a member of The National Honor Society For High School Scholars, National Honor Society, Tri-M (a music honor society) and student government. Through government she has served as freshman class vice president and sophomore president. Another leadership position that Maya takes on is being on church counsel where she is the youngest member. She enjoys working for Martin's Country Market, Woodcrest Retreat where she acts as a day camp counselor, and babysitting. She takes part in her community by volunteering for Power Packs, the Reinholds Fireman Carnival, and at the Denver Fair doing various things. You can also find Maya on the tennis court hitting forehands, or in the band room playing violin and percussion. Her future goals include going onto college and majoring in a social science.

Allyson Butz

Allyson Elizabeth Butz • As a senior at Cocalico High School, Allyson is involved in many ways at school and in the community. She participates in several musical groups including the marching band, wind ensemble, jazz ensemble, symphonic band, pit orchestra, and choir by playing the clarinet, saxophone and piano. As a member of the National Honor Society, Tri-M Music Society and student government, she spends time volunteering at school and in the community. She enjoys being the Lady Eagles basketball team manager, as well as her volunteer experiences through Girl Scouts, Peace United Church of Christ and with her family and friends at the Ronald McDonald House of DE. She is employed at Boehringer's Drive In. Allyson is the daughter of Kristine and Timothy Butz and sister of Michael, Abigail and Matthew Butz of Adamstown. After graduation, she is interested in attending college to pursue a degree where she can help others

Emily Heisler • Emily is the 17-year-old daughter of Brian and Jennifer Heisler of Adamstown. She is currently involved in concert choir, chorales, National Honor Society, and Tri-M Music Honors Society. Emily gives to the community by participating in community theatre. She has performed at various theatres in the area such as Ephrata Performing Arts Center, Lebanon Theatre, and many more. Emily enjoys singing, playing piano, and studying tap, jazz and ballet dance styles. She plans to attend college and study musical theatre and other music-related subjects.

Emily Heisler

games with her family. Cassandra also enjoys helping out with her church over the summer with their vacation bible school program.

Cassandra Hoover • Cassandra is the 17-year-old daughter of Nevin and Cindy Hoover of Denver. She currently attends Cocalico High School. She is taking many classes that will help her with her future career. Some of these classes include sociology, psychology, and she plans to take AP Statistics next year. She wants to attend college and receive her master's degree in school counseling and her certificate in bereavement counseling. Cassandra is a member of National Honor Society and SADD club. She enjoys doing level 9 competitive gymnastics. She also enjoys swimming, hunting, and hanging out and playing

Cassandra Hoover

Victoria Autumn Janke • Victoria is the 18-year-old daughter of Mark and Tina Janke of Denver, Pennsylvania. She is currently studying as a senior at Cocalico High School. During her time at Cocalico, she has been a member of the National Honor Society and SADD Club, participates in the school's Drama Department, is the current President of Venture Crew 532, as well as an active member of the girl's varsity Cross Country Team and the girl's varsity Track Team. As an honor student she has been awarded student of the month in the subjects of English, Science and World Languages. Her current place of employment is Stoudt's Black Angus Restaurant and Pub with past work experience in babysitting and in helping her father in his home contracting business. Victoria lives an active lifestyle but still finds time to do the things she enjoys which include backpacking, fashion design, dancing, camping, and crafting.

Victoria Janke

Olivia Martin • Olivia is the 16-year-old daughter of John and Amy Martin of Denver, PA. She is currently studying at Cocalico High School. She looks forward to graduating in 2016. Currently at Cocalico, Olivia is a member of the Aevium Club, and is a worship leader in their bible study, Army for One. She loves to perform annually in their talent show, TNL, and hopes to do that once more in her senior year. She was awarded the student of the month for the English Department in February of 2015. She is currently employed at Newswanger's Sausage at Greendragon Farmers Market, babysits for 2 local families, and is currently seeking another paying position. She serves as a worship leader at ECC for both the church and youth services. She is also a greeter at Encounter Youth, and volunteers in the Nursery at ECC. She also volunteers at Gateway House of Prayer and has served at House of Hope in Reading, PA and helped with catering ECC women's conferences. During the summer she volunteers at the Ephrata Project, and Encounter youth Wednesday night meetings. Olivia enjoys singing, playing piano, boating, wakeboarding, photography, hiking, riding fourwheeler, traveling, and being with her friends and family.

Olivia Martin

Marissa N. Petery • Marissa Petery is a 17-year-old student at Cocalico High School, and daughter of Wesley and Marsha Petery of Reinholds. You won't find her on FaceBook, Instagram or Twitter... But you will find her deeply involved in the Music Department at Cocalico; playing Mellophone in Marching Band and French Horn in Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble, singing in Choir, playing in Pit Orchestra or Pep Band and as a member of the Tri-M Music Honor Society. Marissa is a member of National Honor Society. She works as a restaurant server at LedgeRock Gold Club in Mohnton. Very involved in her church, Ephrata Community Church, she also participates in Youth Group, and Journey Bible studies. In her free time, Marissa loves to hike, swim, fish, and hunt in the mountains of Sullivan County. Marissa plans to begin her college career in the Fall of 2016, pursuing a 5 yr. Masters of Social Work degree advocating for children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Sabrina Kristine Simmon • Sabrina is the 17-year-old daughter of Bill and Kim Simmon of Denver. She will be a senior at Cocalico High School in the fall of 2015. Sabrina has been a Varsity cheerleader since her sophomore year and has been cheering since second grade. While in high school, she has dedicated herself to helping and coaching as a volunteer for the midget football league, CMFA. Sabrina is active in FBLA, Future Business Leaders of America, attending and participating in district meetings at Central Penn College in 2013 and the 2014 FBLA Regional Conference at Millersville University speaking about child labor laws, receiving second place; and as part of the club she volunteers for various school functions. In her sophomore year, Sabrina was named Science Department Student of the Month and has been named Art Student of the Month both her Sophomore and Junior years. At the age of 3, Sabrina began studying dance with concentration in tap, ballet, lyrical, jazz and kick lines. During her ten years, she also studied at the Broadway Dance Center for specialized instruction. From age 8 to 13 Sabrina danced competitively, competing in various dance competitions throughout Pennsylvania and Maryland. Currently she works for Aeropostale in the Berkshire Mall. Sabrina enjoys dance, cheerleading, making pottery, kayaking, archery and hanging out with her friends and actively works to promote Cancer Awareness since her father is a cancer survivor. She plans to pursue a career in Biology after high school graduation.

Brianna Titi • Brianna is the 18-year-old daughter of Mark and Hayley Titi of Reinholds. She is currently a senior at Cocalico High School and preparing for college. Brianna plans to attend either Alvernia or Penn State Berks where she will study occupational therapy and minor in Spanish. Brianna received Brownhill student of the month as well as honorable mention in the Spirit of 4-H award. Brianna has been the president of Chester County 4-H Pony Tails for four years. She is employed at Brownhill stables where she works with young children as a junior instructor. Brianna fosters dogs for the ARL through the Grey Muzzle program. In school, Brianna is involved in Spanish club where she has served as the secretary and vice president, and was on the Costa Rica committee. She participated in religious activities at school by being a leader in Army for One bible study, a mentor at Pathfinders, as well as a member of Momentum. Brianna has been English Student of the Month twice, and Science Student of the Month. She volunteered at Saint Joseph Medical hospital where she served as a candy striper. Brianna aids her tennis coach with tennis clinics over the summer, and was the boys tennis team manager. Brianna plays varsity tennis at Cocalico, and year round tennis at Spooky Nook. She also enjoys riding horses at Brownhill stables. In her spare time she enjoys walking, dancing, reading and spending time with family and friends.

Rebecca Völer • Rebecca Völer is the 17-year-old daughter of Melissa and John Völer of Reinholds. She plays trumpet for symphonic band, wind ensemble, marching band, and pep band, and sings for Choralaires, Chamber Choir, and concert choir. She is also a member of Quiz Bowl, Brain Busters, NHS, and the vice-president of Tri-M. In school, she has challenged herself by taking six AP courses, and two Dual Enrollment classes. She is active in her community through volunteering at her church's programs like Peter's Porch and Habitat for Humanity, and at the Denver Lions Club stand at the Denver fair. In her free time she likes to sing, read and spend time with friends.

Rachel Weaver • Rachel is 17-years-old and is the daughter of Mike and Jodi Weaver of Reamstown. She has a plan to become an officer in the US Navy with an engineering degree. She is currently the Junior Councilperson for the Denver Borough, and discusses the important issues of Cocalico High School with the other members. In school, she is a member of the National Honor Society and a Relay for Life leader in the LEO Club. Rachel has been named Student of the Month in multiple science classes throughout her high school career. She holds a job at the East Cocalico Pool as a lifeguard and at Luthercare as a Wellnes Assistant. Rachel has volunteered for Luthercare and Spang Crest many times before her job began. She has also volunteered in the nursery and as a communion assistant for her church, the Faith United Lutheran Church. Rachel enjoys reading, watching movies, running, and playing field hockey for her varsity team.