Friday, December 30, 2016 – Arrive Los Angeles

Transfer from the Los Angeles International Airport to the DoubleTree Hotel. A Cartan staff member will be waiting to welcome you and assist with your check-in arrangements. There are many restaurants and shopping within walking distance of the hotel. This evening, join your Cartan representatives for a welcome reception with light refreshments. Here you will meet your Tour Managers. A representative will review your activities and schedule for the days ahead and answer any questions you might have. Dinner is on your own.

Saturday, December 31, 2016 – Float Construction Viewing, Fanfest, Warner Bros. Studio Tour (B, L)

Most mornings, you will be treated to a full American buffet style breakfast. Following breakfast we are on our way to Pasadena to enjoy the activities surrounding the Rose Parade. The viewing of the floats up-close and in living color has always been an exciting activity. This is your chance to see the detail of the vast array of flowers, seeds, and natural plant materials that cover these massive floats. "Fanfest" activities vary from year to year but they always provide some tasty food and provide a chance to buy official Rose Parade souvenirs. After an included lunch, your afternoon activity will include a visit to Warner Bros. Studio, including a 2+ hour guided tour on 12 passenger electric carts with various stage stops made along the way. We will return to the hotel with plenty of time to freshen up for dinner. Dinner tonight is on your own, and there are plenty of restaurant choices near the hotel. If later in the evening you decide to see how Californians welcome the New Year, you will find a number of nightspots close to the hotel.

Sunday, January 1, 2017 – Greater Los Angeles Sightseeing Tour, the Farmers Market (B)

Today you take a look at many of the places that Southern Californians call home. Santa Monica, Bel Air and Beverly Hills showcase every style of home from humble bungalows to breathtaking estates. See Rodeo Drive all dressed up for the holidays, drive along Sunset Strip, and then a stop at Grauman's Chinese Theater and the Hollywood Walk of Fame. Our next stop is Los Angeles "famed" Farmers Market. The Farmers Market has been in continuous operation for over 70 years and boasts of shops with merchandise and food you will not find anywhere else! "The Grove" is located across the street from the Farmers Market featuring upscale shopping in a very pretty setting. Designed to make you feel like you are in a small town, an old world trolley gets you from one end to the other. Beautiful holiday decorations and a huge Christmas tree make this a very festive place to spend some time. Dinner is on your own.

Monday, January 2, 2017 – Rose Parade (B, L)

An early morning is in order, as you do not want to miss a moment of the 128th Tournament of Roses Parade! We have reserved grandstand seats on West Colorado. This puts you at the start of the parade, with the sun at your back. The bands are in tune, the floats are ready and you are about to experience the thrill of watching the Rose Parade! After the parade, enjoy a delicious boxed lunch as we return to the DoubleTree Hotel. This afternoon, we will offer those who are interested a visit to one of the local beach communities. The coaches will stay a couple of hours, so you will have a chance to see the ocean and walk along the boardwalk.

Tuesday, January 3, 2017 – Departure

Breakfast will be offered at the hotel's normal operation time. Complimentary transportation from the DoubleTree Hotel Torrance to the Los Angeles International Airport
