The ultimate goal of the Rocking Horse Ranch Therapeutic Riding Program is to improve each participant's quality of life so that they can become more independent, productive and active members of the community. We are a member organization of the Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship International (PATHIntl).

Volunteering at Rocking Horse Ranch

Join our volunteer team

Rocking Horse Ranch Therapeutic Riding Program is a not-for-profit organization founded by Eileen Van Houten in 1991 that provides equine assisted activities and equine assisted therapy to children and adults with a variety of physical, cognitive, and psychological disabilities. Students who participate in the program come from Pitt County as well as 13 surrounding counties in eastern North Carolina

E.C.U. Service Learning

We are an approved volunteer opportunity through E.C.U.'s volunteer and service learning department. You will be able to record your hours at the barn, and we will turn them over to E.C.U. We want to make your experience here as educational and as fun as possible.
