

Press Release

2013 has been an amazing year already for the The Bucketseats with a number of tours, festival spots, supports and recordings. Now they are back with their 3rd independent release 'Searching For The Light'.

A 4 track EP which shows Matthew Barker teaming up with good friend and Sunshine Coast musician Carl Wockner.

A more commercial friendly collection of tunes from the singer songwriter, this 3rd installment links perfectly to previous Ep's with tales of heartbreak, regret, survival and forgiveness. This is the first time that The Bucketseats have co written with another musician , yet the results speak for themselves.

'How Do They Know' was written by Matthew Barker and performed by both Matthew Barker and Carl Wockner. This song was released live as a youtube teaser to promote the release of the Ep and was extremely well received.

The 2nd single release from this Ep is 'Feeling Gold' an uplifting song, bringing forward the joys of summer living and enjoying your own life to the fullest.

The Bucketseats will be promoting this Ep with a number of festival gigs , radio interviews and shows around Queensland with an international tour in the development stage for 2014.

In the true Bucketseats fashion of keeping things fresh, interesting and different, 'Searching For The Light' is a prequel to the early 2014 release 'Frozen In Time' more details to follow soon

Artist - The Bucketseats

EP - Searching For The Light

Single - How Do They Know (Track 4)

2nd Single - Feeling Gold (Track 2)

EP Release Date - 6th October 2013

Contact - Matthew Barker matthew.barker.music@gmail.com