

RULE 19 – JURY DUTY

When Passenger Engineers are summoned for jury duty and are required to lose time from their assignments, they will be paid for actual time lost with a maximum of eight hours' pay for each calendar day lost. From this amount will be deducted the amount allowed for jury service for each such day, except allowances paid by the court for meals, lodging or transportation. These payments are subject to the following requirements and limitations:

1. A Passenger Engineer must furnish the Corporation with a statement from the court of jury allowances paid and the days on which jury duty was performed.
2. The number of days for which jury duty pay will be paid is limited to a maximum of 60 days in any calendar year.
3. No jury duty pay will be allowed for any day the Passenger Engineer is entitled to vacation. Agreed to questions and answers to the National Agreements where applicable are made a part of this Rule.

Q & A – RULE 19 – JURY DUTY

- Q1. How will the laws concerning jury duty in the state of New Jersey affect the application of this rule insofar as Passenger Engineer is concerned?
- A1. An employee required to lose time from his assignment will be entitled to the amount of usual compensation he would have earned had he worked on such day or days less the amount of jury allowance paid as verified by a statement from the court. Agreed: 6/23/83
