MARITIME LABOUR CONVENTION, 2006: Food and Catering: Recognised qualifications in food hygiene or food safety in catering for Ships' Cooks and others processing food in the galley

Notice to all shipowners, crewing agents, masters, officers, seafarers and other shipboard personnel

This note should be read with Part 8, Merchant Shipping (Maritime Labour Convention) (Minimum Requirements for Seafarers etc.) Regulations 2014 and Merchant Shipping Notice MSN 1846 (M) Maritime Labour Convention, 2006: Food and Catering: Ships' Cooks and Catering Staff.

This MIN replaces MIN 479 (M) and expires 30 September 2016.

Summary

Part 8 of the Merchant Shipping (Maritime Labour Convention) (Minimum Requirements for Seafarers etc.) Regulations 2014 ("the MLC Minimum Requirements Regulations") introduce a requirement for all ships' cooks, catering staff and other persons processing food in the galley to be suitably qualified in food hygiene or food safety in catering.

The qualifications and awarding bodies which are listed in the Marine Information Note are those that fulfil the learning outcomes and assessment criteria set out in Annex 1 of Merchant Shipping Notice MSN 1846 (M).

1. Introduction

1.1 Under the MLC Minimum Requirements Regulations all ships' cooks and other persons processing food in the galley are to be suitably qualified in food hygiene or food safety in catering.

2. Training requirements for catering staff and other persons processing food in the galley (Regulation 40)

2.1 The shipowner must ensure that the ships' cook and any other person who processes food in the galley of a sea-going United Kingdom ship is properly trained or instructed in food and personal hygiene as well as safe handling and storage of food on board ship in accordance with the learning outcomes and assessment criteria set out in Annex 1 of Merchant Shipping Notice MSN 1846 (M). A ships' cook must also complete the additional learning set out in Annex 2 and the basic Standards of Training Certification and Watchkeeping (STCW) safety courses listed Section 3 of MSN 1846 (M).

3. Recognised food hygiene or food safety qualifications

3.1 The following is a list of those qualifications and awarding bodies which the Maritime and Coastguard Agency (MCA) currently recognises and accepts as fulfilling the requirements of the learning outcomes and assessment criteria as set out in Annex 1 of MSN 1846 (M). All these qualifications are classroom based followed by an assessment. Level 2 is the minimum acceptable level for catering staff and persons processing food in the galley.
