IN OUR GALLERIES — THROUGH NOVEMBER 5

HAMPTON GALLERY — Chris Wagner — Acrylics and Watercolors
Landscapes and Portraits

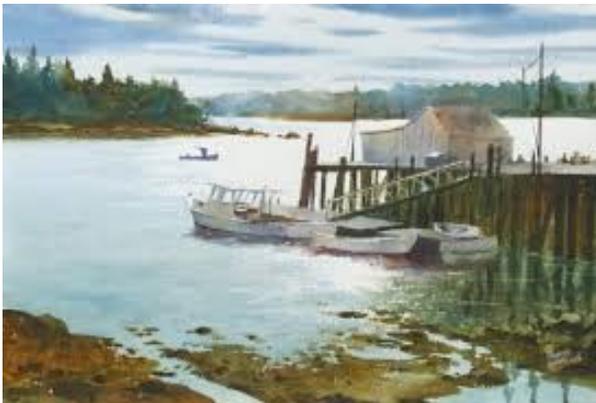

Chris graduated from the Corcoran College of Art & Design and sells and shows his artwork in galleries through North Carolina. Initially, Chris was strictly a watercolorist, but recently he has been painting with acrylics on canvas. When not painting at his home in New Bern, Chris enjoys traveling throughout the United States, painting our beautiful North Carolina coast and scenes depicting his travels. (Right: Dance Always, mix of watercolor and acrylics)

To view more of his work, visit www.chriswagnerarts.com

“I create my works with a few goals in mind; the paintings that are most exemplary of my work are those in which these highest objectives are achieved. First and foremost of my goals is to project atmosphere and personality. Whether the painting is a portrait or a landscape, I strive to show what I feel from the subject. It may be the warmth of a summer day or the tranquility of being inside a forest; it might be the joy or sorrow of being in a subject’s presence. Dichotomy is a standard in my works and signature of how I paint. I want to have the most extreme of light colors balanced by the darkest, that is how life is, and it’s a constant goal in my paintings.”

THE KENNETH & KRISTI BLIZZARD GALLERY — Charles Sharpe — Watercolors & Oil Paintings

A native of Durham North Carolina, Charles Sharpe is a nationally known artist who skillfully captures light and color to capture a sense of place. Charles has won numerous awards and exhibited throughout the country. He is a signature member of the American Watercolor Society and the American Society of Marine Artists. His paintings are exhibited publicly and in a number of private and corporate collections including SAS Institute, Sun Trust Bank, Wachovia Bank, Duke University Medical Center, Glaxo Smith-Kline, and the Durham County Public Library. Charles maintains a studio/gallery behind the home he shares with his wife, Pat, in Morehead City, North Carolina, and his work may be viewed there by appointment. (Left: Port Clyde Dock, Charles’s most recent watercolor included in the 17th National American Society of Marine Artists Exhibition at the Muscarelle Museum of Art at the College of William and Mary Williamsburg, Virginia)

MINGES GALLERY — Connie Winters — Oil Paintings

Connie displays some of her vibrant impressionist-style paintings in the Minges Gallery. “As an impressionistic painter, it is important to express the beauty and the personality of the scene. My response to the colors and relationship of shapes should be encouraged to the viewer to interact with my creation. The painting should be an invitation into that moment and say welcome, stay awhile.”

RAYNER GALLERY — Justin McGowan — Justin’s has a primary interest is architecture and historic preservation, seeing the aesthetic values in many of Kinston’s historic landmarks and producing detailed pencil sketches depicting these various buildings. He also creates images of buildings from his own imagination, which he depicts on his production of Christmas cards each year.

COMMUNITY NEWS & EVENTS

The following are upcoming open mic shows for the year: October 29, and November 26. Illusions Open Mic Night is filled with poetry, singing and some jazz. All are invited to attend this laid back show held at the Arts Center. Doors open at 8:00 p.m. and the show runs from 8:30 p.m. until 11:00 p.m. The show is $10 and there is a fee of $8 for Open Mic talent. Take the time to unwind, relax and enjoy yourself. See you the next Open Mic Night!

The Grainger Hill Performing Arts Center will kick off the fall harvest season with two unique events near the Neuse River in downtown Kinston. "Wine Down By the River" is a major fundraiser for GHPAC. The two-part event will be from 4:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., Saturday, October 8, at Pearson Park and the Lenoir County Farmers' Market. A wine tasting, featuring exquisite wines from vineyards around the country, will be held from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at Pearson Park. Guests can purchase $20 wristbands on site to sample a variety of wines from all over the country. Favorites will be available for purchase.

A separate event beginning at 6:30 p.m., at the Farmers' Market Gazebo, will feature a three-course gourmet dinner, prepared by Chef Scot Elden. This unique event will be paired with complimentary wines and also will include a savory dessert prepared by Ruth Anderson. Also featured will be live dinner music and a silent auction, featuring fabulous items from around the region. Tickets to the dinner are $50 per person and must be purchased separately. This donation is tax deductible. Buy or reserve tickets by calling Barbara Smith, (252) 521-4513; by contacting any GHPAC board member; or online at www.ghpac.com. Event sponsors are ERA, Coastal Beverages, Massey Toyota Scion, the little bank, and MedSource Pharmacy.

NEWS FROM THE ARTS CENTER

JOIN US IN HELPING TO SUSTAIN THE ARTS COUNCIL FOR THE FUTURE BY MAKING A CONTRIBUTION TO THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY CAMPAIGN

Your Arts Council has been working in the areas of artist support and development, cultural enrichment for the community and extended region, arts in education in our schools, tourism, heritage projects, public art and arts-driven economic development for more than 50 years. The arts are about our humanity, our heritage, and our creative and critical thinking skills. They help to prepare us as individuals and as a collective group to live and work together; they are important in the development of a 21st Century skilled workforce; and they provide cultural enrichment without leaving Lenoir County. Most importantly, they are available to all.

The Arts Center, the premier home of the Council, houses five exhibit galleries, a gift shop which supports the artwork and craftsmanship of approximately 100 artists, artist studios, a music room, conference/meeting room and additional meeting/social gathering spaces. The Council operates day-to-day from this historic property listed on the National Register of Historic Places, but does as much of its work in a variety of venues with numerous community partners daily. It is home to the eight county African American Heritage Music Trails of Eastern North Carolina and the largest public art collection owned by an Arts Council in the state.

Each year, the Council:

- Supports nine umbrella organizations: Lenoir Co. Artist League, Downeast Woodturners, Kinston Area Railroad Modeler's Association, Lenoir County Chapter of the North Carolina Symphony, Neuse Quilters Guild, Kaptivating Kreations, New Voices/ New Visions, Grainger-Hill Performing Arts Center and Kinston/ Lenoir County Photography Club.
- Hosts 350+ artists of numerous artistic genres in exhibits, concerts, workshops, performances and special events
- Receives more than 90,000 visitors annually
- Works with a multitude of community partners on heritage, enhancement, tourism, education, entertainment, and economic development projects
- Leverages an average of $100,000 in grants for community development projects and education programs through the arts
- Maintains a 30,000 square foot facility

The Council is solely dependent on annual memberships, facility rentals, fundraisers, and modest local government grants. Your gift will make a significant and lasting impact on the life of the arts in our community for many years to come. For more information on how you might help, please call the Arts Center, 252-527-2517, or email Sandy Landis, Executive Director, slandis@kinstoncca.com.
