

2015

Robinson House – 1908, Queen Anne farmhouse
Nisbett House – 1899, picturesque, T-plan farmhouse
George Williamson House – 1870s I-house
W.L. Davis House – 1902, picturesque farmhouse
P.T. Christenbury Store – 1909 rural store
Hoover-Duncan House – circa 1858, traditional farmhouse
Nance House – 1917, American Foursquare house
Paw Creek Presbyterian Church and Cemetery – 1882, 1928, 1949, rural Neoclassical Revival church
Store (in the Hoskins Mill Village) – circa 1900, brick, mill-owned store
Mulberry Presbyterian Church and Cemetery – 1929, Gothic Revival church
WBT Building – 1929 Art Deco transmitter building owned by the first licensed radio station in the South.
Old Sardis Cemetery – early nineteenth century cemetery associated with Sardis Presbyterian Church, one of the oldest churches in the county
Sharon Presbyterian Church and Cemetery – 1891 Gothic Revival church
Cotswold Homes – 1954, 1959 residential superblock development
Sherwood Forest Subdivision – 1950s-1960s mid-century neighborhood Mountainbrook Subdivision – 1950s-1960s mid-century neighborhood
Overnite Building – circa 1960, Modernist commercial building
Central Avenue 66 – circa 1959, Modernist gas station
Darby Terrace Apartments – circa 1964, Modernist apartment complex
Jones House – circa 1966, Modernist house
Charlotte Municipal Airport – circa 1955, Modernist airport terminal
William and Penney Little House – 1960, Modernist house
Charles Henning House – circa 1960, Modernist house
Andrew Hearn House – circa 1960, Modernist house
Williams Memorial Presbyterian Church – 1923, 1949, Gothic Revival church Elmore Trailer Sales and Trailer Park – 1949, International-Style commercial building and trailer park
Solomon and Shirley Levine House – 1957, Modernist house
J.H. Gunn Gymnasium – 1963, Modernist school gym for an African American school J.H. Gunn Neighborhood – post-World War II, African American community
Mowing Glade AME Zion Cemetery – circa 1890, African American church cemetery
Robert Morrow House – 1929, African American-owned farmhouse
Cochran-Robinson House - DOE
Standard Chemical Products Plant - DOE
Republic Steel Corporation Plant – DOE
General Motors Corporation Training Center - DOE
Hunter Avenue Historic District - DOE
Everett McConnell House – DOE
World War II Veterans Memorial – DOE
Paw Creek US Post Office – circa 1950, Modernist post office
Thrift Mill Supervisors' Houses
Thrift United Methodist Church
House, 7533 Tuckaseegee Road -- circa 1940, Colonial Revival house
House, 2112 Mingus Cabin Road -- circa 1925, Rustic Revival house
House, 9011 Mount Holly Road -- circa 1940, rock-faced, Minimal Traditional house
77290 Old Concord Road -- circa 1900 I-house
Farm Complex, 2030 McKee Road -- circa 1925 bungalow and farm outbuildings

House, 1200
Buttonwood Circle -- circa 1960, Modernist dwelling
House, 7201 Benita Drive -- circa 1960, Modernist house
Mitchum House, 7212 Benita Drive -- 1960, Modernist house (Local Landmark Study List)
House, 5801 Coatbridge Lane -- 1960, Modernist house
House, 5630 Riviere Lane -- circa 1960, Modernist house
House, 5801 Coatbridge Lane -- 1960, Modernist house
House, 5630 Riviere Lane -- circa 1960, Modernist house
House, 5602 Riviere Lane -- circa 1960, Modernist house
House, 1141 Lynbrook Drive -- 1960, Modernist house
House, 5602 Riviere Lane -- circa 1960, Modernist house
House, 1141 Lynbrook Drive -- 1960, Modernist house
Grove Airport -- 1941 hanger and repair shop
House, 6631 Williams Road -- circa 1960, Modernist house
House, 1808 Marlwood Circle -- 1959, Modernist house (Local Landmark Study List) Hyde Park Estates -- circa 1962-1970, African American neighborhood of ranch and split level houses, approximately ten blocks (John Howard, HDC Consultation) Puckett's Farm Equipment Company Building -- circa 1940 commercial building Derita US Post Office -- circa 1950, Modernist post office
House, 4100 Carmel Acres Drive -- circa 1960, Modernist house
House, 3201 Carmel Road -- circa 1960, Modernist house
House, 5930 Lakeview Road -- circa 1925, Rustic Revival house (Rustic Revival Survey, 2005)
Frederickson Motor Express Company Building -- 1948, Modernist house
Mitchell Distribution Company Plant -- 1958, Modernist house
Oakhurst Baptist Church -- 1957, Neo-Classical Revival/Modernist church (East Charlotte Survey, 2013)
House, 2029 Mandarin Boulevard -- 1932, Neo-Classical Revival house (East Charlotte Survey, 2013)
House, 2021 Lanier Avenue -- 1931, Italian Renaissance house (East Charlotte Survey, 2013)
House, 2039 Lanier Avenue -- 1925, Colonial Revival house (East Charlotte Survey, 2013)
House, 5101 Monroe Road -- 1928, Neo-Classical Revival (East Charlotte Survey)

2014

Court Arcade
St. Peter's Catholic Church Parsonage
Pure Oil Station
Joseph Gullick House
Myers Chapel AME Zion Church
Dairy Queen Building
Bar-B-Que King Drive-In South 21 Drive-In
Barnhardt Manufacturing Building
Scotland Colony Apartments
Western Electric Building
Park Terrace Theater
Kimberlee Apartments
Radio Center Apartments and Offices
Mouzon Methodist Church
Double Oaks Elementary School
Selwyn Elementary School
J. N. Pease Associates Building
Plaza Terrace Apartments