HELLO

To all my Family and Friends

Dead Eye Ron

WE'VE BEEN DUPEO

Folks - we've been duped all these years. Presidents Truman and Eisenhower were two of the last good Presidents. Ford, Carter and Reagan were also honest Presidents, for the most part anyway. Kennedy was good for the country, but a bad example for home life. LBJ really started the ball rolling into what we know today as corruption at the highest level. The corruption continued with Bush Sr., Clinton, Bush Jr. and most of all, Barry Soetoro.

I lived through all these Presidents, including part of Franklin Roosevelt's time in office. It has taken me this long to recognize what the wool over the eyes feels like.

Oh - sure, most have done some good things, but the underlining behind their term in office was not all for our good, but theirs.

President Truman was the one that said "the buck stops here" and he meant it. President Eisenhower said to beware of the Military/Industrial Complex. His speech in 1961 was a great road map as to how this country should continue. President Kennedy also had some great speeches, but I'm sure that most of them went over everyone's head.

If you ever watched or read one of his speeches, you might come away scratching your head as to what he said, but feeling good that he said it. Then you wait until a "news anchor" tells you what he said and then you might understand. Of course, from the original to the interpreted may take several degrees from accuracy.

Presidential speech writers have a way of finding the right word to explain or hide the meaning of every other word. I've read and listened to a number of Presidential speeches lately and after trying to put all the words together, I find that maybe the meaning might change. We need those writers that can write as the person speaks and be able for "normal" people to understand.

LBJ was a maverick from the first day in politics. There is nothing sacred about him and his bullying methods never left him, no matter how high up the ladder he went. It was very evident from the beginning of 1959 that he wanted to be President and really didn't care how he got there. Only Kennedy's money and connections out bid him. BUT, being named to the number two spot never appealed to him. He wanted it all and was determined to get it.

Kennedy was a thorn in his side as well as a great number of others. The question of how Kennedy was killed is still fresh in many minds and the more time that passes, the more evidence is dug up supporting it.

It truly appears that LBJ, Nixon and Bush Sr. knew a lot about everything that took place that day. There seems to be a multitude of evidence damning these people for their involvement and knowledge.

I need to explain that I don't believe I'm an alarmist or theory and conspiracy spreader, but when, seemingly irrefutable evidence starts to appear, you just can't brush it off and pretend it didn't happen that way.

Now we have the Clinton, Bush Jr. and Barry Soetoro administrations that have lowered the mark for honesty and raised it for corruption, especially Clinton and Barry. Clinton has a record that even the FBI doesn't want to touch and Barry has one that they have no idea of where to start.

Secret societies are always something to be wary of. There are a number of them and many have been members, but probably deny any attachment. We know that President Washington was a "free mason" as well Truman, Eisenhower and many others. Just looking at the "illuminati", "Skull & Bones", "New World Order" and "Bilderbergs" I don't know of any President that wasn't a member of at least one of them and most at the highest level.

The Illuminati and governmental leaders chose to create the UN early in the past century, and worked hard and against opposition to put it in place (FDR was their man in America who helped the American public accept it). Both he and Eleanor were staunch Illuminists. So was Shirley Temple Black. In fact, most of our presidents since the beginning of the past century have been either Illuminists, or agreed by oath to support their goals, in return for campaign funds and support. I believe it is impossible to win a presidential election in our country today without their backing. The Kennedy family were punished because they tried to disobey them. They were free thinkers, and too hard to "control".

Goldman Sachs is a key player in the North American Illuminati sector. Recently, Goldman Sachs invested almost $500 million dollars in Facebook. Usually this means that Facebook will fall under Illuminati control soon, just as Myspace and Twitter have. Other key players in North America are Alex Jones, Bill Clinton, Rahm Emmanuel, of course Obama, and Timothy Geithner

Skull & Bones: The origin of the Skull and Bones Society, once known as The Brotherhood of Death, in the U.S. begins at Yale when a group of men established an organization for the purpose of drug smuggling. Indeed, many American and European fortunes were built on the China (opium) trade. The world's most famous and powerful men alive today are "bonesmen," including George H.W. Bush and his son George W. Bush, Senator John Kerry, Austan Goolsbee (Chairman of President Obama's Council of Economic Advisers), Nicholas Brady, and William F. Buckley. Other bonesmen include U.S. President William Howard Taft, Morrison R. Waite (Chief Justice of the Supreme Court), Henry Luce (Time-Life), Harold Stanley (founder of Morgan Stanley), Frederick W. Smith (founder of Fedex), John Daniels (founder of Archer Daniels Midland), Henry P. Davison (senior partner Morgan Guaranty Trust), Pierre Jay (first chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York), Artemus Gates (President of New York Trust Company, Union Pacific, TIME, Boeing Company), Senator John Chaffe, Russell W. Davenport (editor Fortune Magazine), the first presidents of the University of California, Johns Hopkins University, and Cornell University, and many others.

Bilderbergs: In 2001, Denis Healey, a Bilderberg group founder and a steering committee member for 30 years, said, "To say we were striving for a one-world government is exaggerated, but not wholly unfair. Those of us in Bilderberg felt we couldn't go on forever fighting one another for nothing and killing people and rendering millions homeless. So we felt that a single community throughout the world would be a good thing."

New World Order:

Their intention is to effect complete and total control over every human being on the planet and to dramatically reduce the world's population by two thirds. While the name New World Order is the term most frequently used today to loosely refer to anyone involved in this conspiracy, the study of exactly who makes up this group is a complex and intricate one.

Members in order of importance:

Rothschild family

Warburg family

Schiff family

Oppenheimer family

Royal Family of England

Saxe-Coburg-Gotha family

Rockefeller family

Morgan family

Harriman family

Carnegie family

(just a handful of known members)

Rothschild is by far the most influential, holding approximately half of all the worlds wealth. That family is directly responsible for founding most of the other families or helping them get up off their feet.

The Rothschild philosophy:

- 1) Law is force in disguise. Right lies in force ("Might makes Right") The right to rule lies in force.
- 2) Political freedom is an idea, not a fact. In order to usurp political power, all that is necessary is to preach 'liberalism,' and the electorates will give up more and more power to the conspirators.
- 3) Money is all powerful. Governments are insignificant compared to money. Since governments control the money, that control must be removed from governments, and put in the hands of the conspirators.
- 4) Any and all means to achieve the goal of world domination by the conspirators is justified.
- 5) The size, scope, and power of the conspirators' resources must remain hidden.
- 6) Alcohol, drugs, and moral corruption shall be used to weaken the will of the people.

7) Wars should be instigated and orchestrated so that both sides would be in their debt (in other words, the conspirators would gain profit and power, no matter who "won" the wars!).

8 Propaganda and control of information should be used to influence opinion.

9) Pre-planned and artificially manipulated financial panics and depression should be used to tame the people, and weaken governments, so as to ultimately form a one-world government, with the conspirators as the rulers.

The "Rothschild Formula" for NWO as Edward Griffin, author of Creature From Jekyll Island, puts it:

1) War is the ultimate discipline to any government. Survival from war becomes primary - everything else is secondary.

2) All that is necessary to insure government indebtedness (to the international banking conspiracy) is war - or the threat of war.

3) To create such a situation, it is necessary to pit two countries (or segments of one country) of equal force against one another - or to create them (the two opposing countries or segments of one country) if they do not already exist. ("Pit one side against the other, and finance both sides - so that the bankers win, no matter which side actually "wins.").

4) The ultimate obstacle to this formula is a country that is not willing to finance war through debt. When this occurs, it becomes necessary to encourage internal political conflict and/or infiltrate the government.

5) No one nation can be permitted to gain military dominance, because this would lead to a lack of conflict for power, and may lead to peace!

Barack Obama, the 20th-century idol of atheism, humanism and communism have become mainstream and now accepted by most, we are now moving to a contest for the souls and minds of Americans where we now face formidable opponents in godless liberal collectivists, globalists, fascists, New Age religion, Islam and Satanism.

No longer are we only threatened from without by a group of balding hard-line Communists - we are now threatened from within - by a group of intelligent, well-dressed globalists who are convincing America and the nations of the world that the only way to lasting world peace is the establishment of a ... "New World Order."

Saul Alinsky put it this way,

"True revolutionaries do not flaunt their radicalism. They cut their hair, put on suits and infiltrate the system from within."

Thousands of years earlier, Roman philosopher and politician Cicero, wrote of his understanding of the process,

"A nation can survive its fools, and even the ambitious. But it cannot survive treason from within. An enemy at the gates is less formidable, for he is known and he carries his banners openly. But the traitor moves among those within the gate freely, his sly whispers rustling through all the alleys, heard in the very halls of government itself. For the traitor appears not traitor, he speaks in the accents familiar to his victims, and he wears their face and their garments, and he appeals to the baseness that lies deep in the hearts of all men. He rots the soul of a nation, he works secretly and unknown in the night to undermine the pillars of a city, he infects the body politic so that it can no longer resist. A murderer is less to be feared." - Cicero, 42 B.C.

"The most malevolent and ruthless power is that over the free human mind: if one controls how one thinks, they control the individual itself." [New Eugenics and the Rise of the Global Scientific Dictatorship]

Today we are in the midst of a revolution, not one fought on the streets with bullets, but one you might call a war for the mind. It's a war being waged for the hearts and minds of people with the end game being submission or death. It's the same battle that has waged for centuries and will eventually climax with the appearance of the antichrist. President Clinton also spoke repeatedly of the new world order, and even Jeb's brother, President George W. Bush, referred to it. Former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger has talked incessantly of creating a new world order.

"But whether people see what's happening in Ukraine, and Russia's aggression towards its neighbors in the manner in which it's financing and arming separatists; to what's happened in Syria — the devastation that Assad has wrought on his own people; to the failure in Iraq for Sunni and Shia and Kurd to compromise — although we're trying to see if we can put together a government that actually can function; to ongoing terrorist threats; to what's happening in Israel and Gaza — part of peoples' concern is just the sense that around the world the old order isn't holding and we're not quite yet to where we need to be in terms of a new order that's based on a different set of principles, that's based on a sense of common humanity, that's based on economies that work for all people."

Yes, this is the kind of "New World Order" quote that puts money in the wallet of Alex Jones, but aside from posting that Obama is a lizard space alien hellbent on imposing Sharia-Illuminati martial law on the world, it actually displays an amazing but troubling aspect of Obama's "philosophy" of the world, if you can call it that.

While more and more people are looking around the world and seeing the turmoil that follows on America receding from the global stage, Obama just sees business as usual - he doesn't believe he has any hand at all in all these events. He doesn't believe that selling out our allies on missile defense and the "Russian Reset" encouraged Putin, or that making impotent threats against Assad emboldened him, or that pulling out of Iraq prematurely brought on the ISIS terrorist resurgence. He really believes this is all just normal.

And so he's seizing on these crises that he himself worsened, and using them as a springboard to say we need more "hope and change" or whatever vapid phrase he's going to attach to whatever it is he's selling.

Let's hope the American people choose something better than the broken road Obama has been us guiding onto.

I know this is a long letter, but I ask that you carefully read it and also Google, for yourself, the various secret societies.
