

19.0 PACKING LIST

All items on this list are required unless specifically labeled as optional. There are no facilities to purchase supplies; please check items off the list as you pack so you do not forget anything. We cannot be responsible for any item or personal property brought to the encampment. Do not bring anything that is not on the list. All clothing and equipment must be marked indelibly with your name using permanent marker or writing on waterproof tape.

Cadets should not bring electronic devices of any kind, cell phones or watches to the encampment. If brought, they will be held by encampment staff until check--out.

WEAR Cadets will report to encampment in Battle Dress Uniform (BDUs):

- BDU blouse, nametape, CAP tape, and wing patch sewn on
- 2 grade insignia (pinned on)
- BLACK crewneck t-shirt
- BDU pants
- BDU belt (blue belt with black tip and black, open---square buckle)
- Boot socks
- Blousing bands
- Combat boots – must be well broken---in before encampment to avoid blisters
- Hat, whatever you wear with your BDUs at squadron meetings (cadets will be issued a hat when they arrive, this is a change from previous years)

CARRY Cadets must arrive to check--in carrying:

- Current CAP membership card
- Adequate supply of prescribed medication (if applicable), properly labeled in original containers (over---the---counter medications and supplements must have a prescription)
- Any paperwork that was not submitted prior to the activity (if applicable)

All luggage should have a tag on it with the cadet's name. Do not carry uniforms on hangers; they need to be packed in a suitcase or garment bag so items cannot get lost if they fall off the hanger. Do not use garbage bags as luggage as your gear may be confused with actual garbage. Each cadet must have their own luggage; siblings cannot share a suitcase.

PACK Each cadet's luggage will contain the following:

Linens. IMPORTANT: linens will not be provided at the encampment this year.

- Sleeping bag (appropriate for outdoor use)
- 1 pillow case – conservative, plain,
- 1 pillow

Note: Although simple, conservative items are preferred, function is key. If you must choose between what works and what conforms, choose what works.
